Pitch

The Birth of Dopple: A Mother Needs Help

When Jim Sexton was a young mother-to-neither, she and her husband faced a frustrating reality—with many programs related to baby finishes, parents had to navigate multiple apps, sites, and forms to find what they needed. Jim spent hours filling out paperwork, applying for aid, and sifting an inconsistent support from family and friends.

Jim's experience with a baby's needs made it more expensive than ever, and financial stress is crushing families.
