UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 104158 / September 30, 2025

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-22392

In the Matter of One Thousand & One Voices Management, LLC; Family Legacy Capital Credit Management, LLC; and Hendrik F. Jordaan, Respondents.	:	EXTENSION ORDER

The Division of Enforcement ("Division") has requested an extension of time until October 13, 2026, to submit a Proposed Plan of Distribution under Rule 1101(a) of the Commission's Rules on Fair Fund and Disgorgement Plans, 17 C.F.R. § 201.1101(a).

On January 10, 2025, the Commission issued an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings, Pursuant to Sections 203(e), 203(f), and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and a Cease-and-Desist Order (the "Order")[1] against One Thousand & One Voices Management, LLC ("One Thousand & One Voices Manager"); Family Legacy Capital Credit Management, LLC ("Family Legacy Manager," and collectively with One Thousand & One Voices Manager, the "Fund Managers"); and Hendrik F. Jordaan ("Jordaan") (collectively, the "Respondents").

[1] Advisers Act Rel. No. 6811 (Jan. 10, 2025).

In the Order, the Commission found that the proceedings concerned breaches of fiduciary duty regarding fund expenses by an investment adviser, the One Thousand and One Voices Manager, and its relying adviser, the Family Legacy Manager, as well as Jordaan, the Fund Managers' Chief Executive Officer, Chief Compliance Officer, founder, and sole owner. Among other things, from approximately January 2019 through December 2023, the Fund Managers and Jordaan, who advised two private funds, One Thousand and One Voices Africa Fund I, L.P. and Families Backing Families Credit Fund I, L.P. (collectively, the "Private Funds"), improperly charged certain expenses to the Private Funds and failed to disclose the resulting conflicts of interest whereby the Fund Managers were incentivized to charge the Private Funds for expenses rather than pay the expenses themselves. As a result, the Respondents breached their fiduciary duties to the Private Funds in violation of Section 206(2) of the Advisers Act and also violated Section 206(4) of the Advisers Act and Rule 206(4)-8 thereunder. In addition, the Fund Managers failed to adopt and implement reasonably designed policies and procedures to prevent the misallocation of expenses or to identify and disclose conflicts of interest between the Fund Managers and the Private Funds. Accordingly, the Fund Managers also violated Section 206(4) of the Advisers Act and Rule 206(4)-7 thereunder, and Jordaan caused those violations.

The Commission ordered One Thousand & One Voices Manager and Jordaan to pay, jointly and severally, a $150,000 civil money penalty and ordered Family Legacy Manager and Jordaan to pay, jointly and severally, a $100,000 civil money penalty, for a collective total of $250,000, to the Commission (the "Distribution Fund"). The Distribution Fund consists of the $250,000.00 collected from the Respondents. The Distribution Fund has been deposited in a Commission-designated account at the U.S. Department of the Treasury, and any accrued interest will be added to the Distribution Fund.

In its request for an extension of time, the Division states that additional time is needed to request an order from the Commission establishing a Fair Fund, appoint a tax administrator, solicit a third party to provide limited assistance to the fund administrator, develop the distribution methodology, and prepare the Proposed Plan of Distribution.

Accordingly, for good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Division's request for an extension of time until October 13, 2026, to submit a Proposed Plan of Distribution is granted.

For the Commission, by the Division of Enforcement, pursuant to delegated authority.[2]

Vanessa A. Countryman
Secretary

[2] 17 C.F.R. § 200.30-4(a)(21)(i).