

TECH ENTREPRENEURS of COLOR

APRIL 27, 2021 • 4 – 5:30 p.m. ET

Taking the Pulse of Capital Raising

JOIN THE U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION FOR A 2-PART VIRTUAL CONVERSATION

CONVERSATION 1

4 – 4:30

MODERATED BY

Erin Schneider

Director
San Francisco
Regional Office

Surveying the 2021 Regulatory Fundraising Landscape

How have the capital raising rules changed?

SPEAKERS

- Martha Legg Miller, Director, Office of the Advocate for Small Business Capital Formation
- Sebastian Gomez Abero, Deputy Director, Office of the Advocate for Small Business Capital Formation
- Jennifer Zepalka, Chief, Office of Small Business Policy, Division of Corporation Finance

CONVERSATION 2

4:30 – 5:30

MODERATED BY

Richard Best

Director
New York
Regional Office

Tech Founders and Funders on Challenges, Successes and the Road Ahead

A dynamic panel of tech founders and funders based in New York and California will share their experiences, insights and successes in launching and growing new businesses. The panel will discuss the challenges facing entrepreneurs of color in raising capital for their businesses and ways to increase access to capital for these business owners.

SPEAKERS

Ramona Ortega
Founder
My Money My Future

Brittany Davis
General Partner
Backstage Capital

Brian Dixon
Partner
Kapor Capital

Kameale Terry
Co-Founder and CEO
ChargerHelp!

EVENT IS FREE. Eventbrite Link

Audience engagement and questions welcomed during the event, or email your questions in advance to: secnyoutreach@sec.gov

