

Carmen Van Cleave

11026 Snyder Drive, Frisco, Texas 75035 972-897-8730
carmenvanacle@gmail.com

Profile

Dynamic, resourceful and enthusiastic teacher with a genuine interest in student cognitive and social development. 8 years of experience in high school teaching. Combines strong passion for bilingual education with a fun and challenging learning environment to motivate and engage students. Self-driven team-member with excellent communication and interpersonal skills who effectively collaborates with all levels of staff members and fosters quality relationships with parents and students.

Core skills include:

Daily Program/Lesson Planning

Classroom Management

Cooperative Learning

Professional Learning Community (PLC)

Team & Parental Communication

Problem Solving/ Creative Thinking

Instructional Strategies (Technology)

Professional Development

Experience

Frisco Centennial High School, Frisco ISD

June 2010-Present

Develop language-level appropriate lessons and lead classroom instruction in Spanish 1, 2 & 3 PAP. Key responsibilities include:

- Develop agile lessons that allow flexibility to meet diverse learning needs.
- Create relevant and timely assessments to monitor learning progress.
- Incorporate technology to enhance learning experiences.
- Regular implementation of immersive activities to practice target language.

Education

University of North Texas, Denton, BA in Spanish with Secondary Teacher Certification

References

Natasha McDonald

469-633-5600

mcdonaldn@friscoisd.org

Karen Sticksel

469-633-5600

sticksek@friscoisd.org