Re: *Stockholder Proposal of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Pension Plan et al.
Exchange Act of 1934—Rule 14a-8*

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

This letter is to inform you that our client, The Bear Stearns Companies Inc. (the “Company”), intends to omit from its proxy statement and form of proxy for its 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (collectively, the “2008 Proxy Materials”) a stockholder proposal and statements in support thereof (the “Proposal”) received from the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Pension Plan, the New Jersey Division of Investment, and the North Carolina Equity Investment Fund Pooled Trust (collectively, the “Proponents”).

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j), we have:

- enclosed herewith six (6) copies of this letter and its attachments; and
- concurrently sent copies of this correspondence to the Proponents.

Rule 14a-8(k) provides that stockholder proponents are required to send companies a copy of any correspondence that the proponents elect to submit to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) or the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance (the “Staff”). Accordingly, we are taking this opportunity to inform the Proponents that if the Proponents elect to submit additional correspondence to the Commission or the Staff with respect to this Proposal, a copy of that correspondence should concurrently be furnished to the undersigned on behalf of the Company pursuant to Rule 14a-8(k).

THE PROPOSAL

The Proposal states:

RESOLVED, pursuant to Article 12 of the By-laws of The Bear Stearns Companies ("Bear Stearns") and section 109(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the stockholders amend the By-laws to add the following Article III, section 3.17:

"The Corporation shall include in its proxy materials for a meeting of stockholders the name, together with the Disclosure and Statement (as defined below), of any person nominated for election to the Board ("Candidate") by a stockholder or group thereof satisfying the requirements of this section 3.17 (the "Nominator"), and shall allow stockholders to vote with respect to such Candidate on the Corporation's proxy card. A Nominator may nominate up to two Candidates for inclusion in the proxy statement for a meeting, unless more than one Nominator seeks inclusion of Candidates, in which case (a) each Nominator may include only one Candidate and (b) Candidates will be included in the order in which the Nominator satisfies the requirements set forth below, until the number of Candidates nominated by the Nominators equals (i) 50% of the Directors to be elected at the meeting minus (ii) one.

A Nominator must:

- (a) beneficially own 3% or more of the Corporation's outstanding common stock for at least two years;
- (b) provide written notice received by the Secretary within the time period specified in Article VI, section 2 clause (c) of the Certificate of Incorporation; such notice shall contain (i) with respect to each Candidate, (A) the information required by Items 5(b) and 7 of SEC Schedule 14A and (B) such Candidate's consent to being named in the proxy statement and to serving as a director if elected; and (ii) with respect to the Nominator, the information required by Items 4(b) and 5(b) of Schedule 14A (with separate disclosure for each stockholder in a group) (all disclosure in this section 3.17(b) is the "Disclosure"); and
- (c) execute an undertaking that it agrees to (i) assume all liability arising out of any violation of law or regulation in connection with the Nominator's communications with stockholders of the Corporation, including the Disclosure; (ii) to the extent it uses soliciting material other than the Corporation's proxy materials, comply with all laws and regulations relating thereto.

The Nominator may furnish a 500-word statement in support of each Candidate's election (the "Statement"), which the Corporation shall include in the proxy statement. The Board shall adopt a procedure for timely resolving disputes over whether the Disclosure and Statement comply with SEC rules, including 14a-9."

A copy of the Proposal, as well as related correspondence with the Proponents, is attached to this letter as Exhibit A.

The Company intends to file its definitive 2008 Proxy Materials with the Commission on or about March 17, 2008.

BASIS FOR EXCLUSION

We hereby respectfully request that the Staff concur in our view that the Proposal may be excluded from the 2008 Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(i)(8) because the Proposal would establish procedures relating to a nomination or election for membership on the Company's Board of Directors.

ANALYSIS

The Proposal May Be Excluded under Rule 14a-8(i)(8) Because the Proposal Would Establish Procedures Relating to a Nomination or Election for Membership on the Company's Board of Directors.

In December 2007, the Commission amended Rule 14a-8(i)(8) to state that a stockholder proposal may be excluded if the proposal "relates to a nomination or an election for membership on the company's board of directors or analogous governing body or a procedure for such nomination or election." As discussed below, the Proposal is excludable under Rule 14a-8(i)(8) since by its terms the Proposal would establish procedures that relate to the nomination and election of directors.¹

¹ The Proposal would be excludable under Rule 14a-8(i)(8), even if that provision had not been amended, in light of the provision's text and its longstanding interpretation by the Commission, including the Commission's authoritative interpretation in the recent rulemaking. See Exchange Act Release No. 56161 (July 27, 2007) (confirming the Commission's longstanding position that stockholder proposals that would result in an election contest, either in the current year or a subsequent year, may be excluded under

A. Adopting Release.

Following the analysis of comments received on the proposed amendment to Rule 14a-8(i)(8) as set forth in Exchange Act Release No. 56161 (July 27, 2007) (the “Interpretive and Proposing Release”), in December 2007, the Commission adopted the amendment to Rule 14a-8(i)(8), as proposed. See Exchange Act Release No. 56914 (Dec. 6, 2007) (the “Adopting Release”). By doing so, the Commission re-codified its longstanding position that stockholder proposals that may result in a contested election of directors are excludable. Prior to its amendment, Rule 14a-8(i)(8) permitted the exclusion of a stockholder proposal that “relates to an election for membership on the company’s board of directors or analogous governing body.” The amended Rule 14a-8(i)(8) provides that a proposal may be excluded if it “relates to a nomination or an election for membership on the company’s board of directors . . . or a procedure for such nomination or election.” In the Adopting Release, the Commission emphasized that the term “procedures” in the election exclusion “relates to procedures that would result in a contested election either in the year in which the proposal is submitted or in any subsequent year,” thus evidencing the Commission’s clear intent, consistent with its longstanding interpretation, that the Rule 14a-8(i)(8) exclusion be applied to exclude proposals that would result in a contested election of directors, regardless of whether a contest would result immediately or subsequently. As the Commission explained in the Adopting Release:

We are acting today to state clearly that the phrase “relates to an election” in the election exclusion cannot be read so narrowly as to refer only to a proposal that relates to the current election, or a particular election, but rather must be read to refer to a proposal that “relates to an election” in subsequent years as well. In this regard, if one looked only to what a proposal accomplished in the current year, and not to its effect in subsequent years, the purpose of the exclusion could be evaded easily.

Specifically, the purpose of the exclusion in Rule 14a-8(i)(8) is to prevent the establishment of procedures that could circumvent those protections of the federal proxy rules that are triggered only by a proxy contest. As the Commission explained in the Adopting Release:

[W]ere the election exclusion not available for proposals that would establish a process for the election of directors that circumvents the proxy disclosure rules, it would be possible for a person to wage an election contest without providing the disclosures required by the Commission’s present rules governing such contests. Additionally, false Rule 14a-8(i)(8)); see also Exchange Act Release No. 56914 (Dec. 6, 2007) (reiterating and codifying the Commission’s longstanding interpretation after public comment).

and misleading disclosure in connection with such an election contest could potentially occur without liability under Exchange Act Rule 14a-9 for material misrepresentations made in a proxy solicitation.

In the Adopting Release, the Commission also emphasized the need for clarity and certainty in the 2008 proxy season, stating: "It is our intention that this [amendment] will enable shareholders and companies to know with certainty whether a proposal may or may not be excluded under Rule 14a-8(i)(8)." The Commission further noted that the amendment "will facilitate the staff's efforts in reviewing no-action requests and interpreting Rule 14a-8 with certainty in responding to requests for no-action letters during the 2008 proxy season."

B. The Proposal Establishes Procedures Relating to a Nomination or Election for Membership on the Company's Board of Directors.

In furtherance of this goal, we request that the Commission concur that the Proposal be excluded under Rule 14a-8(i)(8) because it would establish a procedure that relates to the nomination and election of directors. Specifically, the Proposal provides that "Nominators" may nominate candidates for the Board of Directors and that the names of such candidates must be included in the Company's proxy materials. This plainly falls within the terms of Rule 14a-8(i)(8). We note also that the Proposal would result in contested elections of directors: the Company's Board of Directors nominates a sufficient number of candidates for all available seats on the Board of Directors. Thus, because the Proposal would require the Company to include in its proxy materials additional candidates who would run in opposition to the Board's candidates for a fixed number of seats, the Proposal would necessarily establish a procedure that would result in a contested election by forcing the Company to include in its proxy materials candidates opposed to the Company's nominees.

Accordingly, we believe that the Proposal may be properly excluded from the 2008 Proxy Materials under Rule 14a-8(i)(8), and we request that the Staff concur in our conclusion.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing analysis, we respectfully request that the Staff concur that it will take no action if the Company excludes the Proposal from its 2008 Proxy Materials. We would be happy to provide you with any additional information and answer any questions that you may have regarding this subject. Moreover, the Company agrees to promptly forward to the Proponents any response from the Staff to this no-action request that the Staff transmits by facsimile to the Company only.

SUPPORTING STATEMENT

We believe that Bear Stearns' corporate governance will benefit if stockholders are empowered to nominate director candidates. Three of our directors have served on the board for over 20 years, three serve on five or more boards and two are octogenarians. Our company is being sued for the collapse of in-house hedge funds that cost investors $1.6 billion, and our financial performance has been subpar, as shares lost more than 40% in 2007.

We urge stockholders to vote for this proposal.
