ORDER INSTITUTING CEASE-AND-DESIST PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO
SECTION 21C OF THE SECURITIES
EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, MAKING
FINDINGS, AND IMPOSING A CEASE-
AND-DESIST ORDER AND CIVIL PENALTY

I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate that cease-and-desist proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), against Bradley S. Forsyth (“Forsyth” or “Respondent”).

II.

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the “Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission’s jurisdiction over Respondent and the subject matter of these proceedings, which are admitted, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Cease-and-Desist Proceedings Pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing a Cease-and-Desist Order and Civil Penalty (“Order”), as set forth below.

III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent's Offer, the Commission finds<sup>1</sup> that:

Summary

1. These proceedings arise out of violations of the beneficial ownership reporting requirements of the federal securities laws. Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder require officers and directors of a company with a registered class of equity securities, and any beneficial owners of greater than 10% of such class, to file certain reports of securities holdings and transactions. Section 16(a) was motivated by a belief that "the most potent weapon against the abuse of inside information is full and prompt publicity" and by a desire "to give investors an idea of the purchases and sales by insiders which may in turn indicate their private opinion as to prospects of the company." H.R. Rep. 73-1383, at 13, 24 (1934). Reflecting this informational purpose, the obligation to file applies irrespective of profits or the filer's reasons for engaging in the transactions. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Commission implementing regulations accelerated the reporting deadline for most transactions to two business days and mandated that all reports be filed electronically on EDGAR to facilitate rapid dissemination to the public.

2. While subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act as an officer of Willis Lease Finance Corporation ("Willis Lease"), Respondent violated Section 16(a) on multiple occasions by failing to timely file reports of transactions in Willis Lease's securities.

Respondent

3. Forsyth, age 47, has served as the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer of Willis Lease since January 2007. Respondent is and has been at all relevant times an officer of Willis Lease subject to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

Issuer

4. Willis Lease is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in California. Willis Lease's common stock is and has been at all relevant times registered with the Commission under Section 12 of the Exchange Act and traded on the NASDAQ stock market (ticker: WLFC).

<sup>1</sup> The findings herein are made pursuant to Respondent's Offer of Settlement and are not binding on any other person or entity in this or any other proceeding.

Applicable Legal Framework

5. Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder apply to every person who is the beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of any equity security registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, and any officer or director of the issuer of any such security (collectively, “insiders”).

6. Pursuant to Section 16(a) and Rule 16a-3, insiders are required to file initial statements of holdings on Form 3 and keep this information current by reporting transactions on Forms 4 and 5. Specifically, within 10 days after becoming an insider, or on or before the effective date of the Section 12 registration of the class of equity security, an insider must file a Form 3 report disclosing his or her beneficial ownership of all securities of the issuer. To keep this information current, insiders must file Form 4 reports disclosing transactions resulting in a change in beneficial ownership within two business days following the execution date of the transaction, except for limited types of transactions eligible for deferred reporting. Transactions required to be reported on Form 4 include purchases and sales of securities, exercises and conversions of derivative securities, and grants or awards of securities from the issuer. In addition, insiders are required to file an annual statement on Form 5 within 45 days after the issuer’s fiscal year-end to report any transactions or holdings that should have been, but were not, reported on Form 3 or 4 during the issuer’s most recent fiscal year and any transactions eligible for deferred reporting (unless the corporate insider has previously reported all such transactions).

7. Exchange Act Rule 16a-1(f) defines the term “officer” to include an issuer’s president, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer (or, if there is no such accounting officer, the controller), any vice-president of the issuer in charge of a principal business unit, division or function, and any other officer who performs a policy-making function.

8. Although the Commission has encouraged the practice of many issuers to “help their [officers and directors] or submit the [] filings on their behalf . . . [in order] to facilitate accurate and timely filing,” Section 16 places the responsibility to report changes in securities ownership on insiders.<sup>2</sup>

9. There is no state of mind requirement for violations of Section 16(a) and the rules thereunder.<sup>3</sup> The failure to timely file a required report, even if inadvertent, constitutes a violation.<sup>4</sup>

12. Among Respondent’s late-reported transactions since July 2011 are sales of Willis Lease stock made pursuant to pre-arranged “10b5-1 plans” and his receipt of restricted stock grants. All of Respondent’s stock sales during 2011 and 2012 were reported one or more days late.

13. As a result of the conduct described above, Respondent violated Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 16a-3 thereunder.

Respondent’s Remedial Efforts

14. Respondent has represented that his delinquent filings resulted from the failure of Willis Lease personnel to make timely filings on his behalf after Respondent provided timely notification of his transactions. Respondent’s reliance on Willis Lease does not excuse his violations because an insider retains legal responsibility for compliance with the filing requirements, including the obligation to assure that the filing is timely and accurately made.<sup>5</sup> In
