Issuer Delisting; Order Granting the Application of General Dynamics Corporation to Withdraw its Common Stock, $1.00 par value, from Listing and Registration on the Pacific Exchange, Inc. File No. 1-03671

August 18, 2005

On June 29, 2005, General Dynamics Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Issuer"), filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 12d2-2(d) thereunder,² to withdraw its common stock, $1.00 par value ("Security"), from listing and registration on the Pacific Exchange, Inc. ("PCX"). Notice of such application requesting comments was published in the Federal Register on July 29, 2005.³ No comments were received. As discussed below, the Commission is granting the application.

The Board of Directors ("the Board") of the Issuer approved resolutions on May 4, 2005 to withdraw the Security from listing on PCX. The Issuer stated that the following reasons factored into the Board's decision to withdraw the Security from PCX: (i) the administrative burden of continued listing on PCX does not justify the Issuer's continued listing on such exchange; and (ii) the principal listing for the Security is the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE") and the Security will continue to be listed on NYSE.

The Issuer stated in its application that it has complied with applicable rules of PCX by providing PCX with the required documents governing the withdrawal of securities from listing and registration on PCX. The Issuer's application relates solely to the withdrawal of the Securities from listing on PCX and shall not affect its continued listing on NYSE or the Chicago Stock Exchange, Inc.,⁴ or its obligation to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Act.⁵

The Commission, having considered the facts stated in the application and having due regard for the public interest and protection of investors, orders that the application be, and it hereby is, granted, effective at the opening of business on August 19, 2005.
