

May 19, 2005

I have personally owned shares in several hundred companies listed on the Pink Sheets and OTCBB. In at least a half dozen cases, more shares were traded in a short period of time than the float. Consequently, I know that naked short selling is real. The practice of naked short selling is criminal behavior and should be stopped by tightening enforcement.

Thank you,
Conrad

Dr. Conrad A. Lohutko
Computer Systems Architect