Safe-Harbor Statement

---

This presentation may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to, among others, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company's mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations, and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to, the general business environment, interest rates, the California real estate market, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial services providers, regulatory changes, and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. Forward-looking statements are effective only as of the date that they are made and the Company assumes no obligation to update this information.

Attractive Inland Empire Market

- “From 1990 to 2005, the Inland Empire added 500,192 jobs, that is 46% of the 1,086,141 job growth in Southern California. In 2005 alone, the region’s 56,658 new jobs exceeded the combined growth of Orange County (32,717) and San Diego County (21,058).”

Source: 2006 Husing Report.

- “People are moving to the Inland Empire due to the huge median home price advantage. Its $386,000 median price saved families: $124,000 (Los Angeles), $156,000 (San Diego), and $284,000 (Orange County).”

Source: 2006 Husing Report.

- “The Inland Empire will add 1.76 million people from 2000 to 2020, more than all but seven U.S. states.”

Source: 2006 Husing Report.

- “Office absorption has reached record levels as some coastal firms have realized they need to be located in the midst of the Inland Empire’s 3.9 million people and 1.2 million job economy.”
