Safe-Harbor Statement

This presentation may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to, among others, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company's mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations, and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to, the general business environment, interest rates, the California real estate market, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial services providers, regulatory changes, and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. Forward-looking statements are effective only as of the date that they are made and the Company assumes no obligation to update this information.

Attractive Inland Empire Market

- “In 2007, the Inland Empire economy is forecasted to add 37,200 jobs (2.9%). In addition, the low unemployment rate will leave many jobs unfilled.”
Source: April 2007 Inland Empire Quarterly Economic Report.
- “Closing 2006 with a vacancy rate below 10 percent for the 10th consecutive quarter, the Inland Empire began 2007 with trends seen in past quarters - low vacancy rates, rising asking rental rates and increasing under construction activity.”
Source: 1st Quarter 2007 Grubb & Ellis Inland Empire Office Market Trends.
- “The office sector in the Inland Empire has been booming, largely due to the population increasing by 100,000 annually and office employment growing at 7 percent.”
Source: 2007 USC Lusk Center Casden Real Estate Economics Forecast.
- “The Inland Empire is the top market in the nation for new construction of industrial space, the vast majority for warehouses and distribution centers serving the nearly 40 percent of all goods from Asia that pass through the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach.”

Current Business Strategy in a Difficult Environment

Preferred Loan Growth

- Devote resources to commercial, multi-family, business and to a much lesser degree construction lending.

Deposit Growth

- Ongoing investment in deposit growth within existing footprint executed through careful de novo branching.

Right Size Mortgage Banking

- Reorganization of division in response to changing secondary market conditions.

Share Repurchase Program

- Investing in treasury stock at approximately 1.25x tangible book value is a compelling alternative.
