President's Letter

June 30, 2008

DEAR SHAREHOLDER:

A study this past winter by Standard & Poor's found that the U.S. stock market experienced more daily price volatility at the start of calendar year 2008 than at any point in the past seven decades. From our perspective, these do appear to be very challenging times for parts of the U.S. economy. At the same time, however, we are still seeing good long-term global growth, benefiting many American companies, and your investments.

Enclosed is our report on your Waddell & Reed Advisors Fund's operations for the 2008 fiscal year. For the 12 months ended June 30, 2008, the S&P 500 Index fell 13.13 percent while the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Index rose 7.13 percent.

We are grateful for your confidence in our long-term ability to manage your assets. This is a challenging time. Many economic negatives are on America's front porch: a level of price weakness and foreclosure activity in U.S. housing markets not seen since the 1930s; a global credit crunch driven by an implosion of the subprime mortgage market; a U.S. dollar that is worth much less than just a few years ago; record-setting energy and food prices; and the strong probability of a recession this year.

The positives are more subtle: exports are strong; farmers are enjoying great prices for grain. Alternative energy and related technologies such as solar and wind power are booming. Tourists are flocking to our shores to take advantage of our cheap currency to shop.

Financial conditions such as we have experienced in the first six months of 2008 are unusual, but they are not unprecedented. In fact, after the Panic of 1907 involving a Wall Street bank that speculated on copper, Congress created the Federal Reserve. It will be important for the Fed to strike the right balance between keeping inflation in check and providing sufficient liquidity for financially sound businesses to help lead the U.S. economy on a path to recovery.

Today, for many people it is more difficult to buy a home or expand a consumer-focused business than it was just a year ago. As shown in the Economic Snapshot table on page four, the U.S. economy at June 30, 2008 is not in as good a shape as it was 12 months earlier. Oil prices have nearly doubled. Inflation is at the highest level since 1991 while the nation's unemployment rate is also higher. Economic growth is weak.

Economic Snapshot

	6-30-2008	6-30-2007
U.S. unemployment rate	5.50%	4.50%
Inflation (U.S. Consumer Price Index)	5.00%	2.70%
U.S. GDP	1.90%	3.40%
30-year fixed mortgage rate	6.45%	6.63%
Oil price per barrel	$140.00	$70.68

All government statistics shown are subject to periodic revision.

The U.S. Consumer Price Index is the government's measure of the change in the retail cost of goods and services. Gross domestic product measures year-over-year changes in the output of goods and services. Mortgage rates shown reflect the average rate on a conventional loan with a 60-day lender commitment. Oil prices reflect the market price of West Texas intermediate grade crude.

As we look ahead, we believe that the investing and economic climate will improve in time. With perseverance, initiative and ingenuity, we believe the strengths of our nation's character will surface and prosperity will be restored.

Our commitment

We believe that maintaining a well-rounded portfolio and prudent financial planning are essential elements for securing your long-term financial future. As investment managers since 1937, our organization has always been mindful that we are managing other people's money.

In this uncertain environment, we believe a very strong effort to manage risk takes precedence over the desire to maximize capital appreciation. With that approach in mind, we will strive to earn your continued confidence for many years to come.

Respectfully,

Henry J. Herrmann, CFA
President

The opinions expressed in this letter are those of the President of the Fund, and are current only through the end of the period of the report, as stated on the cover. The President's views are subject to change at any time, based on market and other conditions, and no forecasts can be guaranteed.

Manager's Discussion of International Growth Fund

June 30, 2008

Below, Thomas A. Mengel, portfolio manager of Waddell & Reed Advisors International Growth Fund, Inc., discusses positioning, performance and results for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008. He has managed the Fund for 12 years and has 21 years of industry experience.

This diagram shows the Fund's equity investment style and the size of companies in the Fund, as measured by market capitalization. Shaded areas reflect quarterly data for the past three years. Source: Morningstar

The Fund declined 1.65 percent (Class A shares at net asset value) for the 12 months ended June 30, 2008. By contrast, the MSCI EAFE Growth Index, an index that generally reflects the performance of growth-style stocks in developed overseas markets, dropped 4.44 percent for the period while the Fund's peer group, the Lipper International Large-Cap Growth Funds Universe Average (reflecting the performance of funds with similar objectives) fell 6.86 percent for the same period. Please note that the Fund returns include applicable fees and expenses while index returns do not include any such fees.

The Fund's performance benefited from effective stock selection in all sectors except materials. Information technology stocks, led by Blackberry™ maker Research In Motion Limited and Japanese game maker Nintendo Co., Ltd., stood out as strong performers. Energy stocks were also a strong positive contributor for the fiscal year, led by our holdings in a Brazilian oil company. Another positive factor during the fiscal year was the Fund's positioning within the financial services sector.

We did have some negative contributors to our results this past fiscal year. Industrial giant Siemens AG was the biggest detractor for the period. Financial services companies UBS AG, Bank of Cyprus Limited and Orix Corporation (based in Japan) were also among the stocks that detracted the most from our yearly results.

Optimism fades

Most of the fiscal year was characterized by a growing degree of global market volatility and uncertainty. We saw a meltdown of the subprime mortgage market that in turn led to huge asset writedowns and capital bailouts of several major global banks, including UBS AG. Sovereign wealth funds in the Middle East, China and elsewhere stepped up to inject capital and liquidity in these institutions, but that only briefly restored confidence.

Overall, the Japanese equity market was a disappointment as its domestic economy appeared to be slipping into recession while corporate earnings disappointed investors. In Europe, amid a growing fear of inflation, the European Central Bank gave every indication they were prepared to raise interest rates for the remainder of calendar year 2008.

Globally, oil prices rose to record highs for the third consecutive quarter while food inflation, slowing consumer spending and financial sector write-downs increased risks to growth. Weakness in formerly higher growth economies such as Spain and Ireland spread to the euro-area's core. In Asia, although the long-term growth story appeared to be intact, social unrest from rising food prices in some emerging markets and a paring back of energy subsidies to consumers have all combined to impair investor confidence. It appears that China seems better prepared than India to manage inflation, as its central bank has ordered banks to set aside a record amount in reserve after raising interest rates six times last year.

This past fiscal year we faced a very difficult period across nearly all developed and emerging markets. Most major indexes have dropped substantially, led by China and India. The U.S. dollar slipped to record lows against the euro, raising some concern among European exporters that their competitive position was being eroded.

Global inflation and credit crunch take a toll

Given this environment, we reduced our exposure to the financial sector, selling diversified financials, some of our insurance holdings, the German stock exchange (Deutsche Borse) and industrial holdings. We also raised cash and adopted a more defensive positioning within the Fund. We favored consumer staples such as Nestle S.A., that appeared to us to have strong brands and the flexibility to raise prices to cover rising food ingredient and energy costs.

Late in the fiscal year, we added Heineken to the Fund. This company is seeing strong growth in demand in Eastern Europe, and has been making acquisitions there. Heineken N.V. recently bought a Romanian brewer while Nestle S.A. bought a Greek ice cream manufacturer. We remained underweight the U.K. and Japan. From a thematic standpoint, we also continued to look for exposure to companies benefiting from growth in global trade.

Our outlook

A global bear market, led by a high degree of pessimism in the U.S., and continued mortgage-related problems for financial services, make the short-term outlook very cloudy. There's a great deal of uncertainty regarding the scope of the current economic slowdown. While we feel the long-term picture still suggests a long-term economic de-coupling between the U.S. and higher growth areas, in the short term Asian governments are faced with a greater need to quell inflation and grapple with rising oil prices. We believe Asia's long-term growth in domestic demand and consumption is sustainable despite current headwinds, but our tactical approach is likely to be very careful in the months ahead.

The Fund's performance noted above is at net asset value (NAV), and does not include the effect of any applicable sales charges. If reflected, the sales charge would reduce the performance noted.

As with any mutual fund, the value of the Fund's shares will change, and you could lose money on your investment.

International investing involves additional risks, including currency fluctuations, political or economic conditions affecting the foreign country, and differences in accounting standards and foreign regulations. These and other risks are more fully described in the Fund's prospectus.

The opinions expressed in this report are those of the portfolio manager and are current only through the end of the period of the report as stated on the cover. The manager's views are subject to change at any time based on market and other conditions, and no forecasts can be guaranteed.

The index noted is unmanaged and includes reinvested dividends. One cannot invest directly in an index, nor is an index representative of the Fund's portfolio.

- (2) Data quoted is past performance and is based on deduction of the maximum applicable sales load for each of the periods. Current performance may be lower or higher. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate and shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Please visit www.waddell.com for the Fund's most recent month-end performance. Class A shares carry a maximum front-end sales load of 5.75%. Class B and Class C shares carry a maximum contingent deferred sales charges (CDSC) of 5% and 1%, respectively. (Accordingly, the Class C shares reflect no CDSC since it only applies to Class C shares redeemed within twelve months after purchase.) Class Y shares are not subject to sales charges.

- (3) 10-4-99 for Class B shares and 10-5-99 for Class C shares (the date on which shares were first acquired by shareholders).

Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future performance. Indexes are unmanaged. The performance graph and table do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or on the redemption of Fund shares.

Illustration of Fund Expenses

INTERNATIONAL GROWTH FUND

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, including sales charges (loads) on purchase payments, redemption fees and exchange fees; and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution and service fees, and other Fund expenses. The following table is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the six-month period ended June 30, 2008.

Actual Expenses

The first line for each share class in the following table provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, a $7,500 account value divided by $1,000 = 7.5), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled “Expenses Paid During Period” to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period. There may be additional fees charged to holders of certain accounts that are not included in the expenses shown in the table. These fees apply to Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs), IRA Rollovers, Roth IRAs, Conversion Roth IRAs, Simplified Employee Pension (SEP), Simple IRAs, Tax-Sheltered Accounts (TSAs), Keogh Plans, Owner Only 401(k) (Exclusive K) Plans and Final Pay Plans. As of the close of the six months covered by the table, a customer is charged an annual fee of $15 within each plan type. This fee is waived for IRA Rollovers and Conversion Roth IRAs if the customer owns another type of IRA. Coverdell Education Savings Account plans are charged an annual fee of $10 per customer. You should consider the additional fees that were charged to your Fund account over the six-month period when you estimate the total ongoing expenses paid over the period and the impact of these fees on your ending account value as such additional expenses are not reflected in the information provided in the expense table. Additional fees have the effect of reducing investment returns.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line for each share class in the following table provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of five percent per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this five percent hypothetical example with the five percent hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees or exchange fees. Therefore, the second line of each share class in the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

Fund Expenses

For the Six Months Ended June 30, 2008	Beginning Account Value 12-31-07	Ending Account Value 6-30-08	Annualized Expense Ratio Based on the Six-Month Period	Expenses Paid During Period*
Class A	$ 1,000	$ 891.20	1.43%	$ 6.71
Class B	1,000	886.20	2.52	11.79
Class C	1,000	887.20	2.36	11.13
Class Y	1,000	893.00	1.06	5.02
Based on 5% Return⁽²⁾
Class A	$ 1,000	$ 1,017.76	1.43%	$ 7.16
Class B	1,000	1,012.32	2.52	12.58
Class C	1,000	1,013.10	2.36	11.88
Class Y	1,000	1,019.61	1.06	5.35

*Fund expenses for each share class are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio for each share class (provided in the table), multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 182 days in the six-month period ended June 30, 2008, and divided by 366.

(1) This section uses the Fund's actual total return and actual Fund expenses. It is a guide to the actual expenses paid by the Fund in the period. The "Ending Account Value" shown is computed using the Fund's actual return and the "Expenses Paid During Period" column shows the dollar amount that would have been paid by an investor who started with $1,000 in the Fund. A shareholder may use the information here, together with the dollar amount invested, to estimate the expenses that were paid over the period. For every thousand dollars a shareholder has invested, the expenses are listed in the last column.

(2) This section uses a hypothetical five percent annual return and actual Fund expenses. It helps to compare the Fund's ongoing costs with other mutual funds. A shareholder can compare the Fund's ongoing costs by comparing this hypothetical example with the hypothetical examples that appear in shareholder reports of other funds.

The above illustration is based on ongoing costs only and does not include any transactional costs, such as sales loads, redemption fees or exchange fees.

NOTE 1 – Significant Accounting Policies

Waddell & Reed Advisors International Growth Fund, Inc. (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, open-end management investment company. Its primary objective is to provide long-term appreciation of capital. As a secondary objective, the Fund seeks current income. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

- A. Security valuation – Each stock and convertible bond is valued at the latest sale price thereof on each business day of the fiscal period as reported by the principal securities exchange on which the issue is traded or, if no sale is reported for a stock, the average of the latest bid and asked prices. Bonds, other than convertible bonds, are valued using a pricing system provided by a pricing service or dealer in bonds. Convertible bonds are valued using this pricing system only on days when there is no sale reported. Stocks which are traded over-the-counter are priced using the Nasdaq Stock Market, which provides information on bid and asked prices quoted by major dealers in such stocks. Securities for which quotations are not readily available or are deemed not to be reliable because of significant events or circumstances identified between the closing of their principal markets and the closing of the New York Stock Exchange are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Fund's Board of Directors. Management's valuation committee makes fair value determinations for the Fund, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors. Short-term debt securities, purchased with less than 60 days to maturity, are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Short-term debt securities denominated in foreign currencies are valued at amortized cost in that currency, prior to translation.
- B. Security transactions and related investment income – Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date the order to buy or sell is executed). Securities gains and losses are calculated on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed, which are recorded as soon as the Fund is informed of the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. See Note 3 – Investment Securities Transactions.
- C. Foreign currency translations – All assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars daily. Purchases and sales of investment securities and accruals of income and expenses are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction. For assets and liabilities other than investments in securities, net realized and unrealized gains and losses from foreign currency translations arise from changes in currency exchange rates. The Fund combines fluctuations from currency exchange rates and fluctuations in market value when computing net realized and unrealized gain or loss from investments.
- D. Forward foreign currency exchange contracts – A forward foreign currency exchange contract (Forward Contract) is an obligation to purchase or sell a specific currency at a future date at a fixed price. Forward Contracts are marked-to-market daily at the applicable translation rates and the resulting unrealized gains or losses are reflected in the Fund's financial statements. Gains or losses are realized by the Fund at the time the Forward Contract is extinguished. Contracts may be extinguished either by entry into a closing transaction or by delivery of the currency. Risks may arise from the possibility that the other party will not complete the obligations of the contract and from unanticipated movements in the value of the foreign currency relative to the U.S. dollar. The Fund uses Forward Contracts to attempt to reduce the overall risk of its investments.

- E. Federal income taxes – It is the Fund's policy to distribute all of its taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders and otherwise continue to qualify as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, provision has not been made for Federal income taxes. During the current fiscal year, the Fund instituted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board No. 48 "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" (FIN 48). As required by FIN 48, management of the Fund periodically reviews all tax positions to assess that it is more likely than not that the position would be sustained upon examination by the relevant tax authority based on the technical merits of each position. As of June 30, 2008, management believes that under this standard no liability for unrecognized tax positions is required. The Fund is subject to examination by U.S. federal and state tax authorities for returns filed for years after 2004. See Note 4 – Federal Income Tax Matters.
- F. Dividends and distributions – Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded by the Fund on the business day following record date. Net investment income dividends and capital gains distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. At June 30, 2008, the Fund reclassified permanent differences relating to differing treatments for passive foreign investment companies. Net investment income, net assets and paid-in capital were not affected by the reclassifications.
- G. Concentration of Risk – The Fund may have a significant investment in international securities. International investing involves additional risks, including currency fluctuations, political or economic conditions affecting the foreign country, and differences in accounting standards and foreign regulations.
- H. New Accounting Pronouncements – In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement on Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements." SFAS No. 157 defines fair value for purposes of financial statement presentation, establishes a hierarchy for measuring fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and expands financial statement disclosures about fair value measurements that are relevant to mutual funds. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Fund will institute the expanded financial statement disclosure mandated by SFAS No. 157 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2009.

In March 2008, FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 161, "Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities – an amendment of FASB Statement No. 133" (SFAS 161). SFAS 161 amends and expands disclosures about derivative instruments and hedging activities. SFAS 161 requires qualitative disclosures about the objectives and strategies of derivative instruments, quantitative disclosures about the fair value amounts of and gains and losses on derivative instruments, and disclosures of credit-risk-related contingent features in hedging activities. SFAS 161 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008. The Fund will institute SFAS 161 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2010 and its potential impact, if any, on the financial statements is currently being assessed by management.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 – Investment Management and Payments to Affiliated Persons

Waddell & Reed Investment Management Company (WRIMCO), a wholly owned subsidiary of Waddell & Reed, Inc. (W&R), serves as the Fund's investment manager. The Fund pays a fee for investment management services. The fee is computed and paid daily based on the net asset value at the close of business. Until September 30, 2006, the fee was payable by the Fund at the annual rates of: 0.85% of net assets up to $1 billion, 0.83% of net assets over $1 billion and up to $2 billion, 0.80% of net assets over $2 billion and up to $3 billion, and 0.76% of net assets over $3 billion. Effective October 1, 2006, under terms of a settlement agreement reached in July 2006 (see Note 6), the fee is as follows: 0.82% of net assets up to $1 billion, 0.83% of net assets over $1 billion and up to $2 billion, 0.80% of net assets over $2 billion and up to $3 billion, and 0.76% of net assets over $3 billion. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, the amount of the management fee waived (in thousands) was $252.

The Fund has an Accounting Services Agreement with Waddell & Reed Services Company (WRSCO), a wholly owned subsidiary of W&R. Under the agreement, WRSCO acts as the agent in providing accounting services and assistance to the Fund and pricing daily the value of shares of the Fund. For these services, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly fee of one-twelfth of the annual fee shown in the following table:

Accounting Services Fee
Average Net Asset Level (in millions)	Annual Fee Rate for Each Level
From $ 0 to $ 10	$ 0
From $ 10 to $ 25	$ 11,500
From $ 25 to $ 50	$ 23,100
From $ 50 to $ 100	$ 35,500
From $ 100 to $ 200	$ 48,400
From $ 200 to $ 350	$ 63,200
From $ 350 to $ 550	$ 82,500
From $ 550 to $ 750	$ 96,300
From $ 750 to $1,000	$121,600
$1,000 and Over	$148,500

In addition, for each class of shares in excess of one, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly per-class fee equal to 2.5% of the monthly accounting services base fee. The Fund also pays monthly a fee at the annual rate of 0.01% or one basis point for the first $1 billion of net assets with no fee charged for net assets in excess of $1 billion.

For Class A, Class B and Class C shares, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly per account charge for shareholder servicing of $1.5292 for each shareholder account which was non-networked and which was in existence at any time during the prior month; however, WRSCO has agreed to reduce that fee if the number of total shareholder accounts within the Complex (Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds, Waddell & Reed InvestEd Portfolios, Inc., Ivy Funds and Ivy Funds, Inc.) reaches certain levels. For certain networked accounts (that is, those shareholder accounts whose Fund shares are purchased through certain financial intermediaries), WRSCO has agreed to reduce its per account fees charged to the Fund to $0.50 per month per shareholder account. Additional fees may be paid by the Fund to those intermediaries, not to exceed $1.50 per shareholder account per month. For Class Y shares, the Fund pays WRSCO a monthly fee equal to one-twelfth of 0.15 of 1% of the average daily net assets of Class Y of the Fund for the preceding month. The Fund also reimburses W&R and WRSCO for certain out-of-pocket costs for all classes.

As principal underwriter for the Fund's shares, W&R received gross sales commissions for Class A shares (which are not an expense of the Fund) of $647,108 A contingent deferred sales charge (CDSC) may be assessed against a shareholder's redemption amount of Class A, Class B and Class C shares and is paid to W&R. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, W&R received $1,097, $6,852 and $554 in CDSC for Class A, Class B and Class C shares, respectively. With respect to Class A, Class B and Class C shares, W&R paid sales commissions of $394,495 and all expenses in connection with the sale of Fund shares, except for registration fees and related expenses.

Under a Distribution and Service Plan for Class A shares adopted by the Fund pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Fund may pay a distribution and/or service fee to W&R in an amount not to exceed 0.25% of the Fund's Class A average annual net assets. The fee is to be paid to reimburse W&R for amounts it expends in connection with the distribution of the Class A shares and/or provision of personal services to Fund shareholders and/or maintenance of shareholder accounts.

Under the Distribution and Service Plan adopted by the Fund for Class B and Class C shares, respectively, the Fund may pay W&R a service fee of up to 0.25%, on an annual basis, of the average daily net assets of the class to compensate W&R for providing services to shareholders of that class and/or maintaining shareholder accounts for that class and a distribution fee of up to 0.75%, on an annual basis, of the average daily net assets of the class to compensate W&R for distributing the shares of that class.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, the Fund paid Directors' regular compensation of $58,300, which is included in other expenses.

W&R is a subsidiary of Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc., a public holding company, and a direct subsidiary of Waddell & Reed Financial Services, Inc., a holding company.

NOTE 3 – Investment Securities Transactions

Purchases of investment securities, other than U.S. government obligations and short-term securities, aggregated $563,676,118, while proceeds from maturities and sales aggregated $697,706,720. No U.S. government obligations were purchased or sold during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008.

For Federal income tax purposes, cost of investments owned at June 30, 2008 was $632,582,241, resulting in net unrealized appreciation of $127,562,290, of which $160,694,487 related to appreciated securities and $33,132,197 related to depreciated securities.

NOTE 4 – Federal Income Tax Matters

For Federal income tax purposes, the Fund's distributed and undistributed earnings and profit for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008 and the related net capital losses and post-October activity were as follows:

Net ordinary income	$5,798,784
Distributed ordinary income	4,223,130
Undistributed ordinary income	5,793,406
Realized long-term capital gains	—
Distributed long-term capital gains	—
Undistributed long-term capital gains	—
Post-October losses deferred	217,788

Internal Revenue Code regulations permit the Fund to defer into its next fiscal year net capital losses or net long-term capital losses and net foreign currency losses incurred between each November 1 and the end of its fiscal year (post-October losses).

Capital loss carryovers are available to offset future realized capital gain net income incurred in the eight taxable years succeeding the loss year for Federal income tax purposes. The following shows the totals by year in which the capital loss carryovers will expire if not utilized.

June 30, 2011.....	$ 83,124,428
June 30, 2012.....	20,677,660
Total carryover	$103,802,088

NOTE 5 – Multiclass Operations

The Fund currently offers four classes of shares, Class A, Class B, Class C and Class Y, each of which have equal rights as to assets and voting privileges. Class Y shares are not subject to a sales charge on purchases, are not subject to a Rule 12b–1 Distribution and Service Plan and are subject to a separate shareholder servicing fee structure. A comprehensive discussion of the terms under which shares of each class are offered is contained in the Prospectus and the Statement of Additional Information for the Fund.

Income, non-class specific expenses, and realized and unrealized gains and losses are allocated daily to each class of shares based on the value of their relative net assets as of the beginning of each day adjusted for the prior day’s capital share activity.

NOTE 6 – Regulatory and Litigation Matters

On July 24, 2006, WRIMCO, W&R and WRSCO (collectively, Waddell & Reed) reached a settlement with each of the SEC, the New York Attorney General (NYAG) and the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas to resolve proceedings brought by each regulator in connection with its investigation of frequent trading and market timing in certain Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds.

Under the terms of the SEC's cease-and desist order (SEC Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among other provisions Waddell & Reed has agreed to: pay $40 million in disgorgement and $10 million in civil money penalties; cease and desist from violations of the antifraud provisions and certain other provisions of the federal securities laws; maintain certain compliance and ethics oversight structures; retain an independent consultant to periodically review Waddell & Reed's supervisory, compliance, control and other policies and procedures; and retain an independent distribution consultant (described below). According to the SEC Order, the SEC found that some market timers made profits in some of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds, and that this may have caused some dilution in those Funds. Also, the SEC found that Waddell & Reed failed to make certain disclosures to the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds' Boards of Directors and shareholders regarding the market timing activity and Waddell & Reed's acceptance of service fees from some market timers.

The Assurance of Discontinuance with the NYAG (NYAG Settlement), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, among its conditions requires that Waddell & Reed: reduce the aggregate investment management fees paid by certain of the Waddell & Reed Advisors Funds and certain of the W&R Target Funds, Inc. (the Funds) by $5 million per year for five years, for a projected total of $25 million in investment management fee reductions; bear the costs of an independent fee consultant to be retained by the Funds to review and consult regarding the Funds' investment management fee arrangements; and make additional investment management fee-related disclosures to Fund shareholders. The NYAG Settlement also effectively requires that the Funds implement certain governance measures designed to maintain the independence of the Funds' Boards of Directors and appoint an independent compliance consultant responsible for monitoring the Funds' and WRIMCO's compliance with applicable laws.

The consent order issued by the Securities Commissioner of the State of Kansas (Kansas Order), pursuant to which Waddell & Reed neither admitted nor denied any of the findings contained therein, requires Waddell & Reed to pay a fine of $2 million to the Office of the Commissioner.

The SEC Order further requires that the $50 million in settlement amounts described above will be distributed in accordance with a distribution plan developed by an independent distribution consultant, in consultation with Waddell & Reed, and that is agreed to by the SEC staff and the Funds' Disinterested Directors. The SEC Order requires that the independent distribution consultant develop a methodology and distribution plan pursuant to which Fund shareholders shall receive their proportionate share of losses, if any, suffered by the Funds due to market timing. Therefore, it is not currently possible to specify which particular Fund shareholders or groups of Fund shareholders will receive distributions of those settlement monies or in what proportion and amounts.

The foregoing is only a summary of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order. A copy of the SEC Order is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. A copy of the SEC Order, NYAG Settlement and Kansas Order is available as part of the Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc. Form 8-K as filed on July 24, 2006.

In addition, pursuant to the terms of agreement in the dismissal of separate litigation, Waddell & Reed has also agreed to extend the reduction in the aggregate investment management fees paid by the Funds, as described above, for an additional five years.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Waddell & Reed Advisors International Growth Fund, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the schedule of investments, of Waddell & Reed Advisors International Growth Fund, Inc. (the “Fund”), as of June 30, 2008, and the related statement of operations for the fiscal year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two fiscal years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five fiscal years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. The Fund is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of June 30, 2008, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers; where replies were not received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Waddell & Reed Advisors International Growth Fund, Inc. as of June 30, 2008, the results of its operations for the fiscal year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two fiscal years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five fiscal years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(Waddell & Reed) are committed to ensuring their customers have access to a broad range of products and services to help them achieve their personal financial goals. In the course of doing business with Waddell & Reed, customers are requested to share financial information and they may be asked to provide other personal details. Customers can be assured that Waddell & Reed is diligent in its efforts to keep such information confidential.

Recognition of a Customer's Expectation of Privacy

At Waddell & Reed, we believe the confidentiality and protection of customer information is one of our fundamental responsibilities. And while information is critical to providing quality service, we recognize that one of our most important assets is our customers' trust. Thus, the safekeeping of customer information is a priority for Waddell & Reed.

Information Collected

In order to tailor available financial products to your specific needs, Waddell & Reed may request that you complete a variety of forms that require nonpublic personal information about your financial history and other personal details, including but not limited to, your name, address, social security number, assets, income and investments. Waddell & Reed may also gather information about your transactions with us, our affiliates and others.

Categories of Information that may be Disclosed

While Waddell & Reed may disclose information it collects from applications and other forms, as described above, we at Waddell & Reed also want to assure all of our customers that whenever information is used, it is handled with discretion. The safeguarding of customer information is an issue we take seriously.

Categories of Parties to whom we disclose nonpublic personal information

Waddell & Reed may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to the following types of third parties: selectively chosen financial service providers, whom we believe have valuable products or services that could benefit you. Whenever we do this, we carefully review the company and the product or service to make sure that it provides value to our customers. We share the minimum amount of information necessary for that company to offer its product or service. We may also share information with unaffiliated companies that assist us in providing our products and services to our customers; in the normal course of our business (for example, with consumer reporting agencies and government agencies); when legally required or permitted in connection with fraud investigations and litigation; and at the request or with the permission of a customer.

Opt Out Right

If you prefer that we not disclose nonpublic personal information about you to nonaffiliated third parties, you may opt out of those disclosures, that is, you may direct us not to make those disclosures (other than disclosures permitted by law). If you wish to opt out of disclosures to nonaffiliated third parties, please provide a written request to opt out with your name and account number(s) or social security number to: Waddell & Reed, Attn: Opt Out Notices, P.O.
