

To Our Shareholders, Customers, and Friends:

It is my pleasure to present to you River Valley Bancorp's thirteenth Annual Report to Shareholders covering the year ending December 31, 2008.

It would seem that the national economic environment has become less of a current event and more of a painful period in history. A year ago most predicted a mild recession and a robust recovery. Now, even the most optimistic revelers speak in hushed whispers of hopes for a recovery late in 2009. The most pessimistic use words not uttered in nearly 80 years. And yet as history teaches us, generally, nothing is as good or bad as it seems on the surface. Bad will always be with us, but more importantly, good can be found in more places than not.

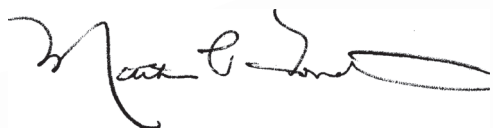

Under "normal" circumstances, 2008 might have been considered a "good" year for your Corporation, however, given the national economic landscape, "outstanding" might be a more appropriate word choice. The financial results reflected success across a number of key performance indicators. Profitability, asset size, loan growth, deposit growth, and delinquency all showed substantial improvement. Nearly all of our financial results were positive, except for the one that we have no direct control over and yet one that matters most to shareholders, namely the stock price. Even in that regard, the price was "off" single digits in 2008 as compared to the nearly -35% of the general markets, and price drops of 40-50% in banking indexes, and even higher percentage losses in individual bank stocks. It was not a good year...for most.

Please take the time to review the enclosed information and see why we are pleased to make this report. Double digit percentage increases were the norm. Profitability was up 13.0%, assets grew by $22.3 million, loans increased by $26.7 million, or 10.3%, in a year when the credit markets had been described as frozen. Deposits increased by $28.1 million, or 12.8%, as more found safety and comfort in a community based institution. Even total delinquency, as defined as delinquent 30 days or more, was 1.07%, approximately a 27.7% decrease from the good number reported at year end 2007.

The headlines in 2008 truly were not reflective of the realities in the performance of this community based institution. Nationally, perceptions displaced reason. Fears drove emotions, and anxiety turned positives into negatives. Your Corporation defied those tendencies and provided solid operating results in a year that most would soon forget.

We are proud of our accomplishments, gratified by our results, but also humbled by the misfortune of others. For your part in our success, we are extremely grateful for your trust and commitment. Thank you for making 2008 a year defined by highs and not lows.

Respectfully Submitted,

Matthew P. Forrester
President, CEO
