Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2005

Consolidated Statements of Income, page 68

1. We have reviewed your response to comments 1 and 3 of our letter dated July 6, 2006, and the proposed presentation of the components of interest income and interest expense in future filings. Given that interest income and interest expense line items do not include all of your interest income and expense, please revise to address the following in future filings:

- Present a more descriptive title for ‘interest income’ and ‘interest expense’ included in revenues to clearly highlight that these line items do not include all interest income and interest expense;
- Include a clear discussion in your MD&A and financial statement footnotes about why you use the current format to present your consolidated operating results and what is included in each of the different types of interest income and interest expense.

Please show us what your revisions will look like in your response.

2. We have reviewed your response to comments 3 and 4 of our letter dated July 6, 2006. Please revise to include the following disclosures in future filings:

- Clearly disclose in Note 6 the components of ‘Gain on sale and impairment of investments’ and ‘Gain on sales of loans and securities, net’ to enable a reader to reconcile the total of the components to the amounts presented on the income statement;
- Clarify in your financial statement footnotes what ‘corporate investments’ represent and how you determined that gains on their sale and impairment should be presented differently from the rest of your available-for-sale equity securities;
- Clarify in Note 6 under Publicly Traded Securities the amount of your investments in ‘corporate investments’ at the end of each of the periods presented; and
- Include clear discussions in your MD&A and financial statement footnotes about why you use the current format to present your consolidated operating results.

Please show us what your revisions will look like in your response.

3. Your response to comment 3 of our letter dated July 6, 2006 states that you are a savings and loan holding company that is not required by Article 9 of Regulation S-X to provide the information specified in Rule 9-04.
- Please tell us how you follow Article 5 of Regulation S-X presentation for your financial statements while providing the relevant Article 9 and Guide 3 information recommended by SAB 11:K;
 - We note that that you do not separately present the costs and expenses applicable to services on your Consolidated Statements of Income. Please also tell us whether you track costs related to each of your separately presented revenue line items. Refer to Rules 5-01 and 5-03 of Regulation S-X.
