Dear Shareholder:

You are invited to attend the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of National Processing, Inc., (“National Processing”) which will be held at The Ritz-Carlton, Naples, 280 Vanderbilt Beach Road, Naples, FL. 34108, on Thursday, April 11, 2002, commencing at 10:30 a.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time.

The primary business of the meeting will be to consider and vote upon the election of Class II directors, the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2002, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

The formal Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement containing further information pertinent to the business of the 2002 Annual Meeting is set forth on the following pages. Our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 is also enclosed.

Your vote is important no matter how many shares you own and we hope you will be able to attend the 2002 Annual Meeting in person. In any event, whether or not you plan to attend the 2002 Annual Meeting, you may submit your proxy by signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it in the accompanying envelope. If you wish to communicate directly with National Processing, the mailing address of National Processing’s principal executive offices is: National Processing, Inc., 1231 Durrett Lane, Louisville, Kentucky 40213.

Sincerely,

/s/ Thomas A. Wimsett

PROXY STATEMENT

March 11, 2002

Solicitation and Revocability of Proxies

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of National Processing, Inc. (“National Processing”) of the accompanying proxy to be used at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of National Processing (the “2002 Annual Meeting”), and any adjournment thereof, and is being sent on approximately the date of this Proxy Statement to each of the holders of National Processing’s Common Stock (“National Processing Common”). The 2002 Annual Meeting will be held on April 11, 2002, at The Ritz-Carlton, Naples, 280 Vanderbilt Beach Road, Naples, FL 34108, commencing at 10:30 a.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Shares represented by properly executed proxies, if such proxies are received in time and not revoked, will be voted at the 2002 Annual Meeting in accordance with any specifications thereon or, if no specifications are made, will be voted in favor of the election of directors and in favor of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2002. Any proxy may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before it is exercised by National Processing’s receipt of a later dated proxy, by receipt by the Secretary of National Processing of a revocation, or by such person appearing at the 2002 Annual Meeting and electing to vote in person.

Information as to Voting Securities

The board of directors has fixed the close of business on March 4, 2002, as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the 2002 Annual Meeting. Holders of National Processing Common, without par value, of record on the record date are the only shareholders entitled to vote at the 2002 Annual Meeting. On the record date, there were 51,858,338 shares of National Processing Common outstanding.

Board of Directors and Its Committees

The board of directors of National Processing has the responsibility for establishing broad corporate policies and for the overall performance of National Processing. However, it is not involved in the day-to-day operating details of National Processing’s business. Members of the board are kept informed of National Processing’s business through various documents and reports provided by the President and other officers of National Processing and by participating in board and board committee meetings. Each director has access to all books, records, and reports of National Processing and members of management are available at all times to answer any director’s questions.

During 2001, the board of directors of National Processing held six meetings. Average attendance by directors at those meetings was 83% and, except for Messrs. Gorney and Kelly, all directors attended 75% or more of the meetings of the board and the board committees they were scheduled to attend. Each of the persons nominated and elected as Class I directors of National Processing at National Processing Inc.’s 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders attended that Annual Meeting.

The board of directors of National Processing has established two standing committees comprising directors who are appointed to those committees annually. The standing committees are the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee, each of which is described hereafter. The members of each committee are identified in the following pages and in the biographical information of the nominees for election of directors and continuing directors.

The Audit Committee. Information regarding the functions performed by the Audit Committee and its membership are set forth in the “Report of the Audit Committee” included in this annual Proxy statement. The Audit Committee is comprised of directors who are independent of the management of National Processing. The Audit Committee is required to meet three times during the year and met three times during 2001. The members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Heller, Jr., Gonzalez-Baz, and Gotschall. Mr. Heller, Jr. is chairman.

The Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee meets on the call of its chairman and met twice during 2001. The Compensation Committee is comprised of directors who are independent of the management of National Processing. The Compensation Committee considers matters relating to compensation policy and compensation of senior officers of National Processing and its subsidiaries and makes recommendations to the board of directors on matters relating to succession and organization of senior executive management. Under the terms of each of the National Processing, Inc. 1996 Stock Option Plan, the National Processing, Inc. 2000 Stock Option Plan, and the National Processing, Inc. Nonemployee Directors Stock Option Plan, the Compensation Committee is authorized to grant share option rights and share appreciation rights to officers and employees of National Processing and its subsidiaries. The Compensation Committee also determines those employees who are eligible to receive awards of restricted stock under the National Processing, Inc. 2001 Restricted Stock Plan. The members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Gonzalez-Baz, Gotschall and Heller, Jr. Mr. Gonzalez-Baz is chairman.

Compensation of Directors

Members of the board of directors of National Processing who are not officers of National City, National Processing or any of their subsidiaries (“Outside Directors”), receive a yearly retainer, payable in quarterly installments, and a fee for each meeting of the board, and each committee thereof, which they attend. The yearly retainer is $12,000. The fee for attendance at any board meeting or any committee meeting is $1,000. The chairman of each committee receives an additional fee of $500 for each meeting of that committee attended by that chairman. In addition, pursuant to the National Processing, Inc. Nonemployee Directors Stock Option Plan, each Outside Director who is first elected or appointed as a member of the board of directors is awarded an option to purchase 25,000 shares of National Processing Common and each ongoing Outside Director is automatically awarded an additional option to purchase 2,500 shares of National Processing Common. The options granted to newly elected Outside Directors are awarded on, and have an exercise price equal to the market value of National Processing Common on the date the director is elected or appointed. The options granted to each ongoing Outside Director are awarded on, and have an exercise price equal to the market value of National Processing Common on the first Friday following the annual meeting. The options are exercisable to the extent of one third of the shares covered by each option on each of the first through the third anniversaries of the date of grant. Each option has a maximum term of 10 years.

Messrs. Gonzalez-Baz, Gotschall and Heller, Jr. each received options to purchase 2,500 shares in 2001.

Shareholder Action

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

National Processing’s board of directors is comprised of nine individuals classified with respect to the terms for which they severally hold office in three classes of three directors each. Each class of directors has a three-year term of office. The term of office of the Class II directors elected at the 2002 Annual Meeting will expire upon the due election and qualification of their respective successors at the 2005 Annual Meeting. The term of office of the Class I directors which began upon the due election and qualification of those directors at the 2001 annual meeting of shareholders will expire upon the due election and qualification of their respective successors at the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders. The term of office of the Class III directors will expire upon the due election and qualifications of their respective successors at the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders.

It is intended that shares represented by proxies, unless contrary instructions are given, be voted for the election of the three nominees as Class II directors. Although management does not expect that any nominee will be unavailable for election, in the event that vacancies occur unexpectedly, the shares will be voted for substitute nominees, if any.

The three nominees for election as Class II directors and the Class I and Class III directors are identified below and in the following pages. Messrs. Gonzalez-Baz, Gorney and Ramirez are presently Class II directors of National Processing. The following material contains biographical information concerning each nominee and each continuing director, including recent employment, positions with National Processing, other directorships, current age, and the number of shares of National Processing Common beneficially owned and their recent employment through the date of this Proxy, all as of December 31, 2001. Unless otherwise indicated, the directors and nominees have sole voting and investment power with respect to National Processing’s securities shown to be owned by each.

Beneficial Ownership

As of December 31, 2001, National Processing had one class of equity security outstanding, National Processing Common.

Beneficial ownership of National Processing’s outstanding equity security, for purposes of the ownership disclosures, has been determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), under which Rule a person is deemed to be the beneficial owner of securities if he or she has or shares voting power or investment power in respect of such securities or has the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Accordingly, the amounts shown do not purport to represent beneficial ownership for any purpose other than as set forth under such Rule. Further, beneficial ownership as determined in this manner does not necessarily bear on the economic incidence of ownership of National Processing Common.

The following table sets forth the beneficial security ownership of all shareholders known to National Processing as of December 31, 2001, to be the owner of more than five percent of National Processing Common. For purposes of this disclosure, the amount of outstanding National Processing Common is the aggregate number of shares of National Processing Common actually outstanding on such date plus an amount equal to the aggregate amount of National Processing Common which could be issued upon the exercise of stock options by such person or firm at that date.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS
(1) Title of Class	(2) Name and Address of Beneficial Owner	(3) Amount and Nature of Beneficial Ownership(1)	(4) Percent of Class
Common Stock	National City Corporation 1900 East Ninth Street Cleveland, OH 44114-3484	44,365,400	85.62%

(1) The listed beneficial owner is not known to have had, as of December 31, 2001, the right to acquire beneficial ownership, as specified in Rule 13d-3(d)(1) under the Exchange Act, of any shares of National Processing Common.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under federal securities law, National Processing’s directors, certain officers, and persons holding more than 10% of any class of National Processing’s equity securities are required to report, within specified monthly and annual due dates, their initial ownership in any class of National Processing’s equity securities and all subsequent acquisitions, dispositions or other transfers of interest in such securities, if and to the extent reportable events occur that require reporting by such due dates. National Processing is required to describe in this proxy statement whether it has knowledge that any person required to file such a report may have failed to do so in a timely manner. In this regard, to National Processing’s knowledge, based solely on the review of copies of reports furnished to National Processing by its directors and executive officers pursuant to Rule 16a-3 promulgated pursuant to the Exchange Act, and on written representations that no other reports were required during the period ending December 31, 2001, all of National Processing’s directors and officers satisfied such filing requirements in full, except for Mr. Wimsett who made two late inadvertent filings; one pertaining to an open market acquisition of 1,000 shares of National Processing Common at the market price of $32.16 and another, pertaining to an open market acquisition of 3,000 shares of National Processing Common at the market price of $19.50.

BENEFICIAL SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth, as of December 31, 2001, the beneficial security ownership (including shares with respect to which the following persons have the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days after such date) of (a) each director or nominee of National Processing; (b) the chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers of National Processing; and (c) all directors and executive officers of National Processing as a Group:

2. SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Board of Directors of National Processing believes it appropriate to submit for action by the shareholders of National Processing, the approval of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP, independent auditors, as auditors for National Processing for the year 2002. The firm and its predecessors have served as independent auditors for National Processing Company, an operating subsidiary of National Processing, since 1993 and for National Processing since 1996 the year of its initial public offering. In the opinion of the board of directors of National Processing, the reputation, qualifications and experience of the firm make appropriate its reappointment for 2002. A representative of the firm will not be present at the Annual Meeting.

Approval by Shareholders

The proposal for approval of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2002 requires for its adoption the favorable vote of the holders of shares of National Processing Common, representing at least a majority of the votes cast, whether in person or represented by proxy.

The board of directors of National Processing unanimously recommends a vote FOR approval of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP.

- (1) Options are options to acquire National Processing Common. All such options are non-qualified stock options. Subject to the named executive officer remaining in the continuous employment of National Processing, the options become exercisable 33% annually beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant and expire not later than 10 years from the date of grant.
- (2) National Processing granted options representing 1,489,083 shares to National Processing employees during 2001.
- (3) In accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission rules, the Black-Scholes pricing model was used to estimate the Grant Date Present Value. The values indicated were calculated using the following assumptions: (i) an expected volatility of .495, (ii) an expected dividend yield of 0.0%, (iii) a risk-free interest rate at the date of grant of 5.5%, (iv) an expected option life of 7 years, and (v) no discounts for non-transferability or risk of forfeiture. The estimated values have been included solely for purposes of disclosure in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and represent theoretical values. The actual value, if any, an executive may realize will depend upon the increase in the market price of National Processing Common through the date of exercise. Such an increase would benefit all shareholders of National Processing.
- (4) Options are additional options. Additional options are granted at the market price of National Processing, Inc. on the date the original option was exercised and become exercisable six months after the date of the grant. They have a contractual term equal to the remaining term of the original option. Additional options are provided when an optionee surrenders shares of National Processing Common in satisfaction of the original option’s exercise price or in satisfaction of the minimum tax withholding obligation.

Except as noted below, the following table sets forth the stock options for National Processing Common exercised by each of the named executive officers during the calendar year 2001 and the December 31, 2001 value of all unexercised stock options held by the named executive officers.

- (1) The “Value Realized” is equal to the fair market value on the date of exercise less the option exercise price.
- (2) Pertains to options to purchase shares of National City Common.
- (3) Except as noted, the “Value of Unexercised In-the-Money-Options/SARs at 12/31/01” is equal to the difference (in no case less than zero) of the closing price of National Processing Common on December 31, 2001, which was $32.50, less the option/SAR exercise price.

The following table provides information on the awards of long-term incentive plan participation during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

- (1) Awards are cash awards based on a percentage of the individual’s average base pay. Base pay was assumed to increase at the rate of 4% per year. No shares or other rights are granted.
- (2) The Long-Term Plan grants cash awards based on a three-year cycle starting 1/1/02 and ending 12/31/04.
- (3) The payout is based on both a) National Processing’s compound growth rate in earnings over a three-year period and b) National Processing’s total shareholder return over the plan cycle as compared to peers. Payouts are made on a basis of a percentage of the average base pay for the three-year period for each participant.

The value of benefits paid or furnished by National Processing in 2001 to executive officers, other than those included in the preceding tables, are less than the amounts required to be disclosed pursuant to the Exchange Act.

REPORT OF COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

National Processing believes that its shareholders should be provided with information about executive compensation that is easily understood and consistent with the Securities and Exchange Commission’s proxy rules on executive compensation.

The information provided is intended to enable shareholders to fully understand the cash, performance-based and equity-based compensation programs for executives. National Processing welcomes shareholder comments or suggestions on whether the disclosure objectives have been met. Please send any comments to the Secretary, National Processing, Inc., c/o National City Corporation, 1900 East Ninth Street, Cleveland, OH 44114-3484, Attn: Carlton E. Langer, Loc. No. 01-2174.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

National Processing is committed to linking compensation strategies with overall business objectives. The performance of National Processing’s employees is key to delivering the types of products and services that enable National Processing to be successful. National Processing has structured its compensation plans to reward individuals based on their personal achievement, their contribution to their business unit and on National Processing’s annual results of operation. Compensation strategies that are linked with business objectives are pursued. National Processing’s compensation philosophy recognizes the need for diversification in pay practices and variable pay opportunities provided through incentive plans and performance bonus programs which are important vehicles for rewarding individual employee achievement and contribution.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION PRINCIPLES

National Processing believes that executive compensation should be linked to the attainment of aggressive business goals and the integration and implementation of annual and strategic plans. Above-average executive compensation levels can only be attained by meeting corporate and individual goals.

The cornerstone of National Processing’s executive compensation program is based on the following guiding principles:

- Focus on total compensation in determining overall and individual competitiveness;
- Provide rewards for long-term strategic management and promote equity ownership to reinforce corporate success and shareholder value;
- Place significant pay at risk based on the attainment of both corporate and individual performance goals; and
- Attract and retain key executives who are critical to the long-term success of National Processing.

National Processing believes that it is in the best interest of shareholders to retain as much flexibility with respect to the design and payment of compensation to its executive officers. National Processing recognizes the constraints imposed on this flexibility by Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) which disallows a tax deduction for non-exempted compensation it pays in excess of $1,000,000 to key executives. National Processing’s compensation plans are currently structured in such a manner that it is unlikely that non-exempted compensation paid to any executive officer in any year will exceed the limitation for deduction by National Processing established by Section 162(m), except where both National Processing’s and the Chief Executive Officer’s performances exceed expectations.

EQUITY-BASED REWARDS

National Processing is committed to ensuring that the shareholders and employee owners share long-term interests. A focus on increasing employee equity ownership strengthens the link between executive rewards and long-term corporate performance.

Stock options are an important component of total compensation and provide a long-term incentive to participants to align performance with shareholder interests. Stock options are awarded to employees based on their performance and contributions. Broad guidelines are used to award the stock options, with above-average awards linked to above-average individual performance and long-term potential.

CASH-BASED REWARDS

National Processing believes that cash compensation should be driven by the attainment of aggressive business goals. These goals are based on annual and three-year plan cycles. Performance is assessed in terms of achievement of National Processing division and individual goals.

National Processing establishes a salary range for each executive officer that is determined by an evaluation of job criteria. National Processing’s objective is to provide base compensation at market median and to provide total cash compensation opportunities above the market median when there is above-average performance. Executive salaries can vary within National Processing’s range structure based on performance, experience, and long-term potential.

The National Processing Company Short-Term Incentive Compensation Plan for Senior Officers allows for rewards to be based on the achievement of individual performance goals and National Processing’s results. Awards under this plan are a percent of base pay and can range from 0% to 120% for the President, 0% to 90% for the executive vice presidents, 0% to 60% for senior vice presidents, and 0% to 30% for vice presidents of National Processing or its major subsidiaries.

The National Processing Company Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan for Senior Officers is designed to maximize returns to shareholders by linking the compensation of key executives to the overall profitability and success of National Processing. Awards under this plan are based on the attainment of total shareholder returns and earnings growth goals over a three-year plan cycle. The first plan cycle began on January 1, 1995, and a new plan cycle begins on January 1 of each fiscal year. Awards for plan cycles commencing on or before January 1, 1997 were based on National Processing’s compound growth rate in earnings over the plan cycle. Awards are based on average annual salary for the plan cycle if goals for the plan cycle are achieved. Awards for plan cycles commencing on or after January 1, 1998 are based on both a) National Processing’s ranking according to total shareholder return over the plan cycle, relative to a peer group comprised of comparable companies and b) the compounded growth rate in National Processing earnings over the plan cycle. Individual participant awards can range from 0% to 40% for Executive Vice Presidents and 0% to 60% for the President.

SUMMARY

National Processing’s compensation programs serve to closely align an individual’s compensation opportunities with the impact of the individual’s contributions on the overall performance of National Processing. Both cash-based and equity-based vehicles are used to reward performance that is measured annually and over a three-year period. Achievement of aggressive business goals is used as measurement criteria. National Processing will continue to build on programs that tie total compensation to National Processing’s success.

THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE’S REVIEW OF CEO COMPENSATION

National Processing’s executive compensation program is based on both National Processing’s and the executive’s performance and places a significant portion of the executive’s compensation at risk if goals are not achieved. The program rewards long-term strategic management by use of compensation that promotes equity ownership and emphasizes attention to shareholder value.

Thomas A. Wimsett has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of National Processing since September, 1999. Mr. Wimsett’s base salary for 2001 was $466,667.

Mr. Wimsett’s receipt of a bonus under the National Processing Company Short-Term Incentive Compensation Plan for Senior Officers depended upon the attainment of pre-determined objectives related primarily to National Processing’s net income. Mr. Wimsett received an award pursuant to this plan for 2001 in the amount of $157,500.

Mr. Wimsett’s long-term bonus is designed to maximize returns to shareholders of National Processing by linking Mr. Wimsett’s compensation to the overall profitability and success of National Processing. The bonus is determined in part by comparing National Processing’s total shareholder return over the three-year plan cycle to the total shareholder return of a peer group for the same period and in part by National Processing’s compound earnings growth rate over the three-year plan cycle. The award is paid within 90 days of the completion of each plan cycle. Mr. Wimsett received an award of $245,000 for the three-year plan cycle ending December 31, 2001.

The purpose of the National Processing, Inc. 2000 Stock Option Plan is to enable National Processing to attract, compensate, and retain officers and other key employees and provide them with appropriate employment incentives and rewards for superior performance by encouraging capital accumulation and stock ownership. In 2001, Mr. Wimsett received options to purchase 150,000 shares of National Processing Common with an exercise price of $25.510. The Compensation Committee did not consider the number of options held by Mr. Wimsett in making this award, except for ensuring that the option plan limits were not exceeded. Furthermore, Mr. Wimsett was granted 36,466 Additional Options. These options were granted when Mr. Wimsett surrendered previously owned shares of National Processing Common in satisfaction of the exercise price or minimum tax withholding associated with his 2001 option exercises.

Mr. Wimsett also participates in the National City Corporation Savings and Investment Plan and the National City Corporation Executive Savings Plan.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees National Processing’s financial reporting process on behalf of the board of directors. Management has primary responsibility for the financial statements, reporting processes and system of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements included in National Processing’s Annual Report on Form 10-K with management, which included a discussion of the selection of appropriate accounting principles, reasonableness of significant judgments, and clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditor, who is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of National Processing’s audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, its judgment as to National Processing’s selection of appropriate accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditor the auditor’s independence from management and National Processing, including the matters contained in the auditor’s written disclosure required by the Independence Standards Board and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditor’s independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with National Processing’s internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of National Processing’s internal controls, and the overall quality of National Processing’s financial reporting.

The Audit Committee has recommended to the board of directors (and the board of directors has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in National Processing’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee and the board of directors have also recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as National Processing’s independent auditor.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP for the annual audit of National Processing’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 and the reviews of the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the same fiscal year were $207,000.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP for other services for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 were $796,000, including audit-related services of $141,000 and nonaudit services of $655,000. Audit-related services principally related to subsidiary audits required by law or regulation, accounting advisory services and SEC registration statements. Nonaudit services relate to tax advisory and compliance services.

DESCRIPTION OF NATIONAL PROCESSING’S COMPENSATION AND BENEFIT PLANS

Savings Plan. National Processing participates in the National City Savings and Investment Plan (the “Savings Plan”). The Savings Plan is a qualified salary reduction profit-sharing plan within the meaning of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the Savings Plan as amended, all eligible employees of National City Corporation (“National City”) and its adopting subsidiaries may participate in the Savings Plan by directing their employers to make Before-Tax Contributions (as defined in the Savings Plan) to the Savings Plan Trust (the “Trust”) for their accounts and to reduce their compensation by an equal amount. Subject to certain exceptions, contributions may be directed in any whole percentage between 1% and 12% of the employee’s base compensation and certain variable pay including overtime pay, bonuses, commissions, incentive compensation and other forms of special compensation paid in cash. Generally, an eligible employee is one (other than an employee of National Processing who is treated as a non-exempt employee under the Fair Labor Standards Act) who has completed one month of continuous service and is 21 years of age or older. Participants who have completed one year of continuous service shall also be eligible to receive Matching Employer Contributions on the basis of their Before-Tax Contributions made after that date as described herein. The employers make contributions to the Trust (“Matching Employer Contributions”) in an amount equal to the Matching Employer Contributions percentage then in effect (the Matching Employer Contribution percentage is currently an amount equal to 115% of the first 6% of such an employee’s pay contributed as a Before-Tax Contribution).

Amounts contributed to the Savings Plan may be invested in certain investment choices. The National City Corporation Common Stock Investment Fund under the Savings Plan constitutes an Employee Stock Ownership Plan within the meaning of Section 4975(e)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code. Before-Tax Contributions and Matching Employer Contributions are fully vested at all times.

National Processing also participates in the National City Savings and Investment Plan No. 2 (the “Savings Plan No. 2”). The Savings Plan No. 2 is a qualified salary reduction profit sharing plan within the meaning of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. The provisions of the Savings Plan No. 2 generally mirror the provisions of the Savings Plan except that participation in the Savings Plan No. 2 is limited to employees of National Processing who are treated as non-exempt employees under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Executive Plan. National Processing participates in the National City Executive Savings Plan (the “Executive Plan”). The Executive Plan is a non-qualified salary reduction profit-sharing plan. The Executive Plan is to supplement the Savings Plan with respect to employee Before-Tax Contributions and the attendant Matching Employer Contributions which, by reason of an individual’s annual compensation, would not be otherwise allowed because of the annual maximum limit of the Code or because of the application, under the Code, of actual deferral percentage testing against prohibited excessive deferrals by highly compensated employees. The Executive Plan is substantially similar to the Savings Plan as to amounts of employee Before-Tax Contributions and Matching Employer Contributions.

Participants in the Executive Plan are limited to those key officers of National Processing or its subsidiaries who may be designated from time to time by the National City Compensation and Organization Committee (the “ NCC Compensation Committee”). The benefits of the Executive Plan are without regard to any limitation imposed by the Code, or any other applicable law limiting the amount payable under a qualified plan (such as the Savings Plan), and represent unfunded general obligations of National City. Portions of such benefits are subject to certain provisions for forfeiture as set forth in the Executive Plan.

Directors of National Processing or its subsidiaries who are not also employees of National Processing, National City or any of their subsidiaries are not eligible to participate in the Savings Plan or the Executive Plan.

National Processing Company Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. The National Processing Company Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan (the “Long-Term Plan”) for Senior Officers focuses on maximizing returns to shareholders and promotes the long-term profitability and success of National Processing by providing an incentive to those key executives who are primarily responsible for such profitability and success.

The Long-Term Plan is administered by the chief executive officer and designated representatives of National City (“Plan Committee”). Each new fiscal year begins a new three-year plan cycle.

Effective for plan cycles commencing on or after January 1, 1998 each participant may receive a threshold award, a target award, or a maximum award expressed in each case as a percentage of average annual salary for the plan cycle. These awards are determined on the basis of both a) National Processing’s ranking, according to increase in total shareholder return over the plan cycle relative to a peer group comprised of comparable companies (the “Peer Award”) and b) National Processing’s compound growth rate in earnings over the plan cycle (the “Earnings Award”). Each participant’s total award equals the sum of their Peer Award and Earnings Award.

Prior to the beginning of each such plan cycle, the Plan Committee will establish threshold, target, and maximum Peer Award performance levels for the plan cycle and determine a peer group of comparable companies. Peer Awards are determined based upon a relative comparison of National Processing total shareholder return during the plan cycle to the shareholder returns generated by members of the peer group.

The Earnings Award is paid based upon National Processing’s compound earnings over the plan cycle. If National Processing has attained a compound growth rate in earnings of 10% over the plan cycle, then each participant for that plan cycle shall receive the target Earnings Award. If National Processing has attained a compound growth rate in earnings of 15% or more over the plan cycle, then each participant for that plan cycle shall receive the Maximum Earnings Award. In the event that National Processing’s compound growth rate in earnings over the plan cycle is greater than 10% but less than 15%, the Earnings Award for the plan cycle shall be pro-rated.

Amounts awarded under the Long-Term Plan are paid within 90 days after the end of each plan cycle.

The Long-Term Plan provides that, if a change in control of National Processing shall occur, then the implementation date of that change in control shall be the last day of all then current plan cycles, and no further plan cycles shall commence. The award of each participant in the Long-Term Plan for any then current plan cycle in which such participant participates shall be payable in cash to the participant within five business days after the implementation date of the change in control, and shall be in an amount equal to the participant’s maximum award for that plan cycle multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of full months completed since the beginning of that plan cycle and the denominator of which is thirty-six. In adopting this plan, it was felt this change in control provision was appropriate in that those individuals previously charged with providing superior total returns to the shareholders of National Processing would no longer be in the same position to guide the affairs of National Processing as they were prior to the event constituting a change in control. Furthermore, following a change in control of National Processing, no further performance comparisons could be made.

Directors of National Processing or its subsidiaries who are not also employees of National Processing or its subsidiaries are not eligible to participate in the Long-Term Plan.

National Processing Company Short-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. The National Processing Company Short-Term Incentive Compensation Plan for Senior Officers (the “Short-Term Plan”) focuses on the short-term goals achieved by the individual participant and on National Processing’s results. Under this plan, awards can be granted to any officer of National Processing, or its subsidiaries as may be designated from time to time by the Plan Committee. Each participant in the Short-Term Plan is evaluated annually with respect to performance on approved objectives. Awards are based on individual results and can range from 0% to 120% of the recipient’s base salary in effect at the close of the year for which the evaluation is made. Awards under this plan are paid in cash no later than the end of first quarter of the following year.

In the event of a change in control, the Short-Term Plan provides that each participant will be paid at the effective time of the change in control, the maximum benefit the participant is entitled to receive under the Short-Term Plan.

Stock Option Plans. The National Processing, Inc. 1996 Stock Option Plan and the National Processing, Inc.’s 2000 Stock Option Plan (the “Option Plans”) generally provide for the granting of options to purchase shares of National Processing Common. The options that have been granted are non-qualified options which are not intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options under Section 422 of the Code.

The Option Plans allow for the granting of an additional option feature (an “Additional Option”). The Additional Option feature allows an optionee to receive an Additional Option when the optionee has used previously owned National Processing Common to pay the exercise price of an original option grant (a swap transaction) or to pay the amount to be withheld under applicable federal, state and local tax laws in connection with the exercise of an option. Each Additional Option’s termination date is the same as the termination of the option that originally had the Additional Option feature. Its option price is the market price at the time of the exercise of the original option. An Additional Option is not provided upon exercise of an Additional Option unless the board of directors directs otherwise. The Option Plans also allow for the granting of appreciation rights, but only in tandem with stock options previously granted or contemporaneously being granted. Appreciation rights have not been granted under the plan.

The shares of National Processing Common that may be made the subject of option rights and appreciation rights pursuant to the Option Plans may be treasury shares or shares of original issue or a combination of the foregoing.

Under the Option Plans, no options may be granted at less than 100% of the market value of National Processing Common on the date of the grant of the option. Stock option awards are based on current individual performance. Previous awards are not considered except for assuring the plan maximums are not exceeded.

Restricted Stock Plans. National City has in effect the Amended and Second Restated 1991 Restricted Stock Plan (the “1991 Restricted Stock Plan”) and the Amended and Restated 1997 Restricted Stock Plan (the “1997 Restricted Stock Plan and together with the 1991 Restricted Stock Plan, the “Restricted Stock Plans”). Each of the Restricted Stock Plans has substantially similar provisions. The purpose of the Restricted Stock Plans is to provide alternative means of compensation and to promote the long-term profitability and success of National City by providing equity interests and equity-based incentives in National City and its subsidiaries key employees and members of the board of directors of National City.

The Restricted Stock Plans are administered by the NCC Compensation Committee. Generally, the Restricted Stock Plans provide for the granting of shares of restricted National City Common (“Restricted Stock”) to a recipient and restricting that recipient’s rights to transfer the shares for a specific period of time. During that restricted period, those shares are subject to substantial risk of forfeiture. To the extent the recipient forfeits his interest in the Restricted Stock, he or she will have no rights in the Restricted Stock forfeited.

The total amount of Restricted Stock that may be awarded under the 1991 Restricted Stock Plan, as amended, is 2,000,000 shares, of which no more than 300,000 shares may be awarded in the aggregate to any one individual. The total amount of Restricted Stock that may be awarded under the 1997 Restricted Stock Plan is 3,000,000 shares, of which no more than 450,000 shares may be awarded in the aggregate to any one individual. Under the Restricted Stock Plans, awards of Restricted Stock may be made to any regular employee of National City (including employees who are members of the board of directors) or any of its subsidiaries and to the directors of National City who are not employees of National City or its subsidiaries (“Director Awards”).

The Restricted Stock Plans contemplate that the NCC Compensation Committee may award Restricted Stock to the employees of National City and National City’s subsidiaries subject to the following restrictions: (a) all awards are to be made subject to transfer restrictions which are set by the NCC Compensation Committee; such restrictions must last at least six months from the date of the award under the 1991 Restricted Stock Plan; and (b) all awards of Restricted Stock shall be subject to the award agreement entered into between National City and the employee receiving the award (such agreements may differ from employee to employee and from award to award).

Each of the Restricted Stock Plans provides that upon a change in control of National City (as defined in the 1997 Restricted Stock Plan), all restrictions thereunder will lapse and be of no further force or effect and that National City shall cause all outstanding Restricted Stock held under the Restricted Stock Plans to be exchanged for shares of National City Common free of any such restrictions.

National Processing, Inc. 2001 Restricted Stock Plan. The National Processing, Inc. 2001 Restricted Stock Plan, (the “2001 Restricted Stock Plan”) was approved at the 2001 Annual Meeting of the Shareholders. The purpose of the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan is to provide employment incentives and to encourage stock ownership by key employees of National Processing and its subsidiaries.

The 2001 Restricted Stock Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors of National Processing (the “Committee”). Generally, the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan provides for the granting of shares of restricted National Processing Common (“NPI Restricted Stock”) to a recipient and restricting the recipient’s right to transfer the shares for a specific period of time. During the restricted period, those shares are subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture.

The board of directors or the Committee will, from time to time, designate those eligible persons to be granted awards under the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan. The total amount of NPI Restricted Stock reserved and available under the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan is Five Hundred Thousand (500,000) shares of which, no more than One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares may be granted in the aggregate to any one individual. Under the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan, awards of NPI Restricted Stock may be made to any regular employee of National Processing (including employees who are members of the board of directors) or any of its subsidiaries.

Under the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan, the board of directors or the Committee may grant awards of NPI Restricted Stock to the employees of National Processing and its subsidiaries subject to the following restrictions: (a) all awards are subject to certain transfer restrictions set by the board of directors or the Committee; and (b) all awards of NPI Restricted Stock are subject to an award agreement between the employee receiving the award and National Processing (the terms of such agreement may differ from employee to employee and from award to award).

The 2001 Restricted Stock Plan provides that upon a change of control (as defined in the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan), all restrictions shall lapse and be of no further force or effect and National Processing shall cause all outstanding NPI Restricted Stock held under the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan to be exchanged for shares of National Processing free of any restrictions.

Agreements with Executives. Certain key executive officers of National Processing have employment agreements (the “Employment Agreements”) with National Processing Company, a subsidiary of National Processing. Each of the Employment Agreements provides for a minimum annual base salary that does not differ materially from the amounts shown as salary in the Summary Compensation Table. The Employment Agreements generally provide that if the executive officer subject thereto is terminated for any reason other than the executive officer's violation of the contract or cause, an amount equal to the officer's base pay will be paid in semi-monthly installments, for either one or two years after termination, depending on the position held. The Employment Agreements also generally provide for the continuation of certain employee benefits.

Each of the executive officers who has entered into an Employment Agreement has thereby agreed not to compete with National Processing in the United States and, in some cases, Mexico by not engaging in any capacity in any business that is competitive with, in the case of certain executives, any business of National Processing and, in the case of the other certain executives, the business of National Processing for which such officer bears primary managerial responsibility. These non-competitive restrictions remain in effect for the period in which the executive officer is entitled to receive payments under the Employment Agreement following termination as generally described above.

Severance Agreements. In order to assure itself of both present and future continuity of management in the event of a change in control, National Processing has entered into severance agreements (the "Severance Agreements") with certain of its senior executive officers and other key employees ("Executives"). The Severance Agreements become immediately operative upon a change in control.

The Severance Agreements provide that following a change in control, such Executives will be entitled to severance compensation upon termination of employment during the period commencing with the occurrence of the change in control and continuing until the earliest of (i) the third anniversary of the occurrence of the change in control, (ii) death, or (iii) attainment of age sixty-five and upon the occurrence of one or more certain additional events. As of the date of this proxy statement, there are Severance Agreements with 8 key employees of National Processing and its subsidiaries.

The severance compensation will be a lump sum payment in an amount equal to three times the sum (for Executives) and two times the sum (for other senior officers) of (i) base pay at the highest rate in effect for any period prior to the termination date plus (ii) incentive pay in an amount equal to not less than the highest aggregate annual bonus, incentive, or other payments of cash compensation made or to be made in regard to services rendered in any calendar year during the three calendar years immediately preceding the year in which the change in control occurs, less the sum of (iii) any and all payments received from National Processing, National City, or a successor or their affiliates following a change in control plus (iv) any future payments to be made in accordance with any Employment Agreements or other contracts between National Processing and such other entities (specifically excluding payments from any deferred compensation plan). For three years (for Executives) and two years (for other senior officers) following termination, National Processing will arrange to provide the Executives with welfare benefits substantially similar to those they were receiving or were entitled to receive immediately prior to the termination date, with such three-year period qualifying as service with National Processing for the purpose of determining service credits and benefits under National Processing's various retirement benefit plans. Each Executive may waive one year of severance pay in exchange for being released from the non-competition restrictions contained in their respective Employment Agreements.

National Processing has agreed to pay any and all legal fees incurred by the Executives in connection with the interpretation, enforcement, or defense of their rights under the Severance Agreements which arise from a Change in Control. The term of each Severance Agreement runs until the later of (i) the close of business on the third anniversary of the date of that Severance Agreement or (ii) the expiration of the three-year period of severance benefit coverage. On January 1 of each year, the term of each Severance Agreement is automatically extended for an additional year unless, not later than September 30 of the immediately preceding year, National Processing or the Executive shall have given notice that the party giving such notice does not wish to have the term extended. If, prior to a change in control, an Executive ceases for any reason to be an employee of National Processing or any subsidiary thereof, however, then the term of that Executive’s Severance Agreement will immediately terminate. For purposes of an Executive’s Severance Agreement, any termination of employment of the Executive or the removal of the Executive from the office or position in National Processing following the commencement of any discussion with a third person that ultimately results in a change in control shall be deemed to be a termination or removal of the Executive after a change in control.

Under the Severance Agreements, a change in control occurs upon either of the following events: (i) National Processing is merged, consolidated or reorganized into or with another person other than National City, a successor of National City or an affiliate of National City or (ii) National Processing sells or otherwise transfers all or substantially all of its assets to another corporation, or National Processing causes or permits the sale or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets or assets of any subsidiary that has assets equal to or greater than 80% of the total assets of National Processing as reported on a consolidated basis, and as a result of such sale or transfer less than 50% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding securities of such corporation is held by National City.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Holders of National Processing Common who wish to make a proposal to be included in National Processing’s Proxy Statement and Proxy for National Processing’s 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders which, unless changed, is scheduled to be held on April 21, 2003, in Louisville, Kentucky must cause such proposal to be received by National Processing at its principal office not later than November 11, 2002. Each proposal submitted should be accompanied by the name and address of the shareholder submitting the proposal, the number of shares of National Processing Common owned, and the dates those shares were acquired by the shareholder. If the proponent is not a shareholder of record, proof of beneficial ownership should also be submitted. The proponent should also state his or her intention to appear at National Processing’s 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, either in person or by representative, to present the proposal. The proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission govern the content and form of shareholder proposals and the minimum stockholding requirement. All proposals must be made in compliance with National Processing’s Amended Articles of Incorporation and Code of Regulations and must be a proper subject for action at National Processing’s 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

Aureliano Gonzalez-Baz, a director since 1996, provided various legal services which were in excess of $60,000 to National Processing and its subsidiaries in 2001. Such services pertained to legal advice related to National Processing’s business operations in foreign countries. Mr. Gonzalez-Baz and the firm of Bryan Gonzalez Vargas y Gonzalez-Baz provided legal services to National Processing in the divestiture of the Business Process Outsourcing unit which totaled $949,293. Total legal fees paid to the firm for year-ended December 31, 2001 were $1,018,872. The three-year average of legal fees paid to the firm of Bryan Gonzalez Vargas y Gonzalez-Baz for the three-year period ending December 31, 2000, was $124,615. Without exception, all services provided by the director were at market rates. Similar additional services may be provided in the ordinary course of business in the future.

VOTING

Each share of National Processing Common is entitled to one vote upon each matter presented at the 2002 Annual Meeting. A quorum of a majority of the voting power of National Processing in respect of any one of the purposes for which the 2002 Annual Meeting is called, is required for the transaction of business by shareholders at the 2002 Annual Meeting. The election of directors requires a plurality of the votes of the shares of National Processing Common present in person or represented by proxy at the 2002 Annual Meeting and entitled to vote for the election of directors. The selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for 2002, requires the favorable vote of the holders of shares of National Processing Common representing at least a majority of the votes cast, whether in person or represented by proxy. All other proposals and other business as may properly come before the 2002 Annual Meeting require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, except as otherwise provided by statute or National Processing’s Amended Articles of Incorporation or Code of Regulations. Abstentions are not counted for the purposes of determining the number of votes cast in person or by proxy on the election of directors or on the selection of Ernst & Young LLP and will have no impact on the election of directors or the selection of independent auditors. Abstentions are counted for determining if a quorum is present. Shares not voted on proxies returned by brokers are not counted for the purposes of determining the number of votes cast in person or by proxy at the 2002 Annual Meeting and will have no impact on the election of directors, or the selection of independent auditors.

You may vote in person at the 2002 Annual Meeting or by proxy. Please sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the accompanying envelope.

Rights. Each share of your National Processing Common will be tabulated as one vote. In the event you vote and subsequently change your mind on a matter, you may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the 2002 Annual Meeting. You have three ways to revoke your proxy:

1. Receipt of a later dated proxy;
2. Receipt by the National Processing Secretary of a written revocation; or
3. Voting in person at the 2002 Annual Meeting.

GENERAL

The costs of solicitation of proxies will be borne by National Processing. In addition to using the mails, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, telephone, and wire; and it is anticipated that banks and brokerage houses, and other institutions, nominees, or fiduciaries will be requested to forward their proxy soliciting material to their principals and to obtain authorizations for the executions of proxies. Officers and regular employees of National Processing or its subsidiaries, acting on its behalf, may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or wire. National Processing does not expect to pay any other compensation for the solicitation of proxies, but may, upon request, pay the standard charges and expenses of banks, brokerage houses, and other institutions, nominees, and fiduciaries for forwarding proxy materials to and obtaining proxies from their principals. However, no such payment will be made to any National Processing subsidiaries acting through their nominees or acting as a fiduciary.

Management of National Processing is not aware of any matters which may be presented for action at the 2002 Annual Meeting other than the matters herein set forth. If any other matters come before the 2002 Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote the shares represented thereby in accordance with their best judgment pursuant to the discretionary authority granted in the proxy.
