Form 10-KSB for the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2008

Cover Page

1. Please include the full cover page required by Form 10-KSB. This would include checking the box to indicate that the registrant is a shell company.

2. We note the discussion on page five of the status of the company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the statement that, "If the SEC takes the view that the Company has been operating and continues to operate as an unregistered investment company in violation of the [Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended], and does not provide the Company with a sufficient period to either register as an investment company or divest itself of investment securities and/or acquire non-investment securities, the Company may be subject to significant potential penalties."

Section 3(a)(1) of the Investment Company Act, in pertinent part, defines "investment company" to mean any issuer that –

- (A) is ...engaged primarily, or proposes to engage primarily, ... in the business of investing ... in securities; ... ; [or]
- (B) is engaged or proposes to engage in the business of investing, ..., owning, [or] holding ... securities, and owns or proposes to acquire investment securities having a value exceeding 40 per centum of the value of such issuer's total assets (exclusive of Government securities and cash items) on an unconsolidated basis.

"Investment securities" are broadly defined in Section 3(a)(2) to include all securities not expressly excluded therein.

It appears that the company comes within one or more of the provisions of Section 3(a)(1) and that it has not previously sought an order under section 3(b)(2) of the Investment Company Act declaring the company to be primarily engaged in another business. Please provide a legal analysis of why the company is not required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes all information required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and that they have provided all information investors require for an informed investment decision. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.

In connection with responding to our comment, please provide, in writing, a statement from the company acknowledging that:

- the company is responsible for the adequacy and accuracy of the disclosure in the filing;
- staff comments or changes to disclosure in response to staff comments do not foreclose the Commission from taking any action with respect to the filing; and
- the company may not assert staff comments as a defense in any proceeding initiated by the Commission or any person under the federal securities laws of the United States.

In addition, please be advised that the Division of Enforcement has access to all information you provide to the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance in our review of your filing or in response to our comments on your filing.
