Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 30, Competitive Technologies, Inc. issued the following press release:

COMPETITIVE TECHNOLOGIES FILES LAWSUIT AGAINST BEN MARCOVITCH AND OTHER CO-DEFENDANTS

Fairfield, CT – (August 31, 2007) – Competitive Technologies, Inc. (AMEX: CTT) announced that it filed a Federal complaint today against former CTT Director Ben Marcovitch and other co-defendants. Mr. Marcovitch was removed from CTT's Board of Directors on August 8, 2007 by unanimous vote of CTT's five Directors for violating CTT's Code of Conduct. At that time, CTT also withdrew from its involvement with Agrofrut, a nutraceutical firm brought to CTT by Mr. Marcovitch. Others named in the suit are Betty Rios Valencia, President and CEO of Agrofrut and former spouse of Mr. Marcovitch, John Derek Elwin, III, a former CTT employee, and Agrofrut, E.U. The suit was filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut. In its lawsuit, CTT requests, among other relief, punitive damages and attorneys' fees.

"We state in our complaint that these parties conspired to loot the company's treasury," said John B. Nano, CTT's Chairman, President and CEO. "Our investigation has determined that these parties have been subject to similar allegations for past dealings. We have analyzed these issues, presenting our findings in our Federal complaint that contains details that will allow shareholders to understand the gravity of the charges. It is the opinion of CTT and the Board of Directors that this lawsuit is required to recover our $750,000 and to settle outstanding issues regarding the named parties. The recent in-depth due diligence and subsequent investigation by Breen & Associates, conducted prior to Mr. Marcovitch's removal from the Board, disclosed several issues of credibility and raised serious concerns regarding the defendants named in today's lawsuit."

As announced on August 15, 2007, CTT retained Greenberg Traurig, LLP, an international law firm, to recover the funds from Agrofrut, and Juan Carlos Esguerra of the Bogota, Colombia-based law firm, Esguerra, Barrera, Arriaga, to handle CTT's affairs in Colombia. Also, as stated, Breen & Associates, an independent investigative firm, developed evidence that showed that Mr. Marcovitch and Agrofrut provided CTT's Board of Directors with false and misleading information in a conspiracy to fraudulently loot CTT's treasury using the Agrofrut transaction. Included in those findings was the fact that Dr. Raul Aragon Davalos, listed as an executive of Agrofrut in papers submitted by Mr. Marcovitch and Agrofrut at a March 28, 2007 CTT Board meeting, had actually been killed in a drive-by shooting in Cali, Colombia on February 28, 2007. Dr. Raul Aragon Davalos's assassination was known to Mr. Marcovitch and Ms. Rios Valencia, as well as to other executives of Agrofrut, but was never revealed to CTT by them. Mr. Marcovitch had admitted to a CTT outside counsel, and to a CTT shareholder, that he had attended Dr. Raul Aragon Davalos's funeral. Further, the investigations have shown that Dr. Raul Aragon Davalos was a convicted drug trafficker and that Ms. Rios Valencia also has a drug conviction record. Among other things, the involvement of Ben Marcovitch, Betty Rios Valencia and John Derek Elwin, III with convicted drug traffickers resulted in CTT's decisive actions against these individuals.

Mr. Nano added, "We expect to recover the majority of the funds from the Agrofrut transaction, if not more. CTT continues to move ahead. We are further developing our interest in the growing nutraceutical industry, including the glycemic reduction nutraceutical and green tea polyphenol compounds currently in our portfolio. We are also aggressively marketing our newly acquired technologies for pain management and stress reduction, and other technologies, including our HB LEDs, bone biomaterial, cholesterol trapping and regeneration, and Lupus diagnostic and monitoring, to drive revenue growth, improve profitability and create shareholder value."
