Item 8.01. Other Events

On January 23, Competitive Technologies, Inc. issued the following press release:

COMPETITIVE TECHNOLOGIES COMPLIANCE PLAN ACCEPTED BY NYSE ALTERNEXT US

Fairfield, CT – (January 23, 2009) – Competitive Technologies, Inc. (NYSE Alternext US: CTT) announced today that the NYSE Alternext US has accepted CTT's business plan to regain compliance with continued listing standards of the exchange by June 2, 2010. In the meantime, the stock continues to trade on the exchange.

CTT was notified on December 2, 2008 that it had fallen below the Section 1003(a)(ii) standard of the NYSE Alternext US Company Guide by having shareholders' equity of less than $4 million and losses from continuing operations and/or net losses in three out of its four most recent fiscal years as reported and fully disclosed in the most recent Form 10-K filed October 28, 2008.

"Our submitted business plan emphasized the expected revenue from the successful marketing of our pain therapy medical device," said John B. Nano, CTT's Chairman President, and CEO. "This includes four signed country-exclusive distribution agreements for the device for India, Korea, Bangladesh and Malaysia, the CE Mark approval for sale of the device in Europe, and our pending FDA 510(k) application for authorization to sell the device in the United States."

Mr. Nano continued, "The plan also described our equity financing arrangement signed in July 2008 with Fusion Capital for up to $5.0 million of cash, with $4.8 million remaining available, through sale of our common stock, at our option."

To maintain its listing, CTT will be subject to periodic review by NYSE Alternext US staff during the extension period. During this time, CTT is required to make progress consistent with the plan and to regain compliance with the listing standards by June 2, 2010. If CTT does not make progress consistent with the plan or fails to reach the initial listing standards, the NYSE Alternext US will initiate delisting proceedings pursuant to Section 1009 of the NYSE Alternext US Company Guide.
