FURTHER CAUTIONARY ANNOUNCEMENT

Further to the cautionary announcement dated 28 July 2005, shareholders are advised that developments with respect to a Black Economic Empowerment transaction with Khumo Bathong Holdings (Proprietary) Limited are still progressing and may have a material effect on the price of the company's securities.

In addition, shareholders are advised that the company has entered into discussions with several parties regarding the company's offshore assets. These discussions may result in a transaction that may have a material effect on the price of the company's securities.

The company is also considering a range of proposals, which would result in the consolidation of its Australasian assets. One of these proposals is the possible consolidation of its interests in the Porgera Joint Venture and the Tolukuma gold mine, both located in Papua New Guinea, into Emperor Mines Limited ("Emperor"), a gold mining company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange, which owns and operates the Vatukoula gold mine in Fiji. Emperor is 45.33% owned by the company.

At this stage, a proposal to vend assets into Emperor has been made and is being considered by the independent board members of Emperor. There is no guarantee that this or any other proposal being considered by the company will proceed. Any proposal affecting the company's Australasian assets will also be subject to a range of regulatory approvals and consents. If an agreement is reached, the company will announce the details of the proposal in accordance with its statutory disclosure obligations.

Accordingly, shareholders are advised to continue to exercise caution when dealing in the company's securities until full announcements have been made.
