DRDGOLD withdraws its complaint against ArcelorMittal South Africa Limited

DRDGOLD and Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited (“Harmony”) announced today that they have withdrawn their excessive pricing complaint against ArcelorMittal South Africa Limited (“ArcelorMittal”).

The complaint was initially lodged with the Competition Commission in 2002, with the substance of the complaint being that ArcelorMittal (or ISCOR as it was then known) abused its dominant position in the South African flat steel market by charging excessive prices, to the detriment of consumers, in contravention of section 8(a) of the Competition Act, 1998.

DRDGOLD and Harmony withdrew their complaint, which remained unresolved after several years of litigation, following the conclusion of a settlement agreement with ArcelorMittal. The terms of the settlement agreement are confidential and will not be made public. The settlement agreement reached will permit the gold miners to focus their energies and resources on their core businesses, and represents a satisfactory outcome to the matter for them.

The National Union of Mineworkers (“NUM”) has been granted strike certificates in respect of the three operations and strike action is scheduled to begin at the start of the night shift tomorrow (Tuesday, 15 September 2009).

The NUM has rejected the company’s offer of a 7% increase for lowest-category employees at Blyvoor and 6.5% for the balance, a 6.0% across-the-board increase at Crown and a 4% across-the-board increase at ERPM. The NUM also rejected the gold price/profit linked incentive scheme.
