Dear Mr. Levin:

In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information we may raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. 1. Please disclose any position, office or other material relationship that any selling security holder has had within the past three years with you or any of your predecessors or affiliates. Please refer to Item 507 of Regulation S-K.
2. Please tell us whether any of the selling security holders are broker-dealers or affiliates of a broker dealer.
 - For each security holders that is a broker-dealer, the prospectus should state that the security holder is an underwriter.

- For each security holders that is an affiliate of a broker-dealer, the prospectus should state that (a) the security holder purchased in the ordinary course of business and (b) at the time of the purchase of the securities to be resold, the security holder had no agreements or understandings, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the securities. However, if the security holder cannot provide these representations, then the prospectus should state that the security holder is an underwriter.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, broker-dealers and their affiliates who received their securities as compensation for underwriting activities need not be identified as underwriters.

As appropriate, please amend your registration statement in response to these comments. You may wish to provide us with marked copies of the amendment to expedite our review. Please furnish a cover letter with your amendment that keys your responses to our comments and provides any requested information. Detailed cover letters greatly facilitate our review. Please understand that we may have additional comments after reviewing your amendment and responses to our comments.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes all information required under the Securities Act of 1933 and that they have provided all information investors require for an informed investment decision. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.

Notwithstanding our comments, in the event the company requests acceleration of the effective date of the pending registration statement, it should furnish a letter, at the time of such request, acknowledging that:

- should the Commission or the staff, acting pursuant to delegated authority, declare the filing effective, it does not foreclose the Commission from taking any action with respect to the filing;
- the action of the Commission or the staff, acting pursuant to delegated authority, in declaring the filing effective, does not relieve the company from its full responsibility for the adequacy and accuracy of the disclosure in the filing; and
- the company may not assert staff comments and the declaration of effectiveness as a defense in any proceeding initiated by the Commission or any person under the federal securities laws of the United States.

We will act on the request and, pursuant to delegated authority, grant acceleration of the effective date.
