Item 1. Security and Issuer

This Initial Statement of Beneficial Ownership on Schedule 13D, dated May 27, 2004 (this "Initial Statement"), relates to shares of the Common Stock, $0.01 Par Value (the "Common Stock"), of Bishop Capital Corporation (the "Issuer"). The address of the Issuer's principal executive offices and principal business is 716 College View Drive, Riverton, Wyoming, 82501.

Item 2. Identity and Background

(a), (b), (c) and (f). This Statement is filed on behalf of Robert E. Robotti ("Robotti"), Robotti & Company, Incorporated ("ROBT"), a New York corporation and Robotti & Company, LLC (Robotti & Company), a New York limited liability company and The Ravenswood Investment Company, L.P., a New York limited partnership (RIC together with Robotti, ROBT, and Robotti & Company, the "Reporting Persons").

Mr. Robotti's principal occupation is as the president and treasurer of ROBT, parent holding company of Robotti & Company, a broker-dealer registered under Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"), as amended, located at 52 Vanderbilt Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

Mr. Robotti, a United States citizen, is a managing member of Ravenswood Management Company, L.L.C. ("RMC") which serves as the general partner of RIC, a New York limited partnership. RMC's principal address is 104 Gloucester Road, Massapequa, New York, New York, 11758. RIC's principal address is 52 Vanderbilt Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

(d) and (e). The Reporting Persons, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, have not, during the last five years, been convicted in a criminal proceedings (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction, and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Robotti, ROBT, Robotti & Company, and RIC utilize their working capital in making each of their respective purchases of the Common Stock.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

On December 24, 2003, the Issuer filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") its Preliminary Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Amendment No. 2 ("Amendment No. 2") in which the Issuer proposed to effect a 1 for 110 reverse stock split and subsequently deregister its shares of Common Stock, thereby terminating its reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Issuer also proposed to offer $0.50 per pre-split share for each fractional share and nothing for each post-split whole share.

On January 27, 2004, RIC sent a letter (the "Initial Letter") to Mr. Robert E. Thrailkill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Issuer, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and incorporated herein by reference. In the Initial Letter, RIC set forth its willingness, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to purchase all outstanding shares of the Issuer for $1.00 per share in cash. RIC received no response from the Issuer or its Board of Directors to RIC's offer in the Initial Letter.

Subsequently, on April 16, 2004, the Issuer filed with the Commission its Preliminary Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Amendment No. 3 in which the Issuer proposed to offer $1.00 per pre-split share for each fractional share and again nothing for each post-split whole share.

On May 14, 2004, RIC sent a second letter (the "May 14th Letter") to Mr. Robert E. Thrailkill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Issuer, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3 and incorporated herein by reference. In the May 14th Letter, RIC again set forth its willingness subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to purchase all outstanding shares of the Issuer, this time increasing its proposed offering price to $1.25 per share in cash. Again RIC received no response from the Issuer or its Board of Directors to RIC's offer in the May 14th Letter.

The Reporting Persons believe these shares of the Common Stock trade at a substantial discount to the Issuer's private market value and therefore reiterate its interest.

In an effort to protect this investment, as well as to maximize investor value, the Reporting Persons may acquire additional shares of the Common Stock, dispose of all or some of these shares of the Common Stock from time to time, in each case in open market or private transactions, block sales or purchases or otherwise, or may continue to hold the shares of the Common Stock, depending on business and market conditions, its continuing evaluation of the business and prospects of the Issuer and other factors.

The Reporting Persons presently have no plans or proposals which would relate to or result in any of the matters set forth in subparagraphs (a) - (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D except as set forth herein.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a) As of May 17, 2004, (i) ROBT beneficially owns 200 shares of the Common Stock, which represents 0.02% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Common Stock; (ii) Robotti & Company beneficially owns 3,500 shares of the Common Stock, which represent 0.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Common Stock; (iii); RIC beneficially owns 47,716 shares of the Common Stock, representing 5.3% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Common Stock. Mr. Robotti is deemed to share beneficially ownership of the securities set forth in (i), (ii), and (iii) above through his proportionate ownership of ROBT, Robotti & Company and as managing member of Ravenswood Management Company, L.L.C. ("RMC") which serves as the general partner of RIC. Mr. Robotti disclaims beneficial ownership of such securities except to the extent of his pecuniary interest therein.

(b) (i) Mr. Robotti does not have the sole power to vote or direct the vote of any of the shares of the Common Stock.

(ii) Mr. Robotti shares the power to vote or direct the vote of the shares of the Common Stock through the following:

- he shares the power to vote or direct the vote of an aggregate of 3,700 shares of Common Stock with ROBT and Robotti & Company
- he shares the power to vote or direct the vote of 47,716 shares of the Common Stock with the other managing member of RMC.

(iii) Mr. Robotti does not have the sole power to dispose or direct the disposition of any shares of the Common Stock

(iv) Mr Robotti shares the power to dispose or direct the disposition of the shares of the Common Stock through the following:

- he shares the power to dispose or direct the disposition of an aggregate of 3,700 shares of the Common Stock with ROBT and Robotti & Company
- he shares the power to dispose or direct the disposition of 47,716 shares of the Common Stock with the other managing member of RMC.

(c) The table below lists all the transactions in the Issuer's Common Stock in the last sixty days by the Reporting Persons. All such transactions were made by Robotti & Company and RIC in the open market.

Transactions in Shares Within The Past Sixty Days

Shares of the Common Stock Purchased/Sale	Price Per Share	Date of Purchase/ Sale

Robert E. Thrailkill
Chairman of the Board of Directors
Bishop Capital Corporation
716 College View Drive
Riverton, WY 82501

Dear Mr. Thrailkill:

The Ravenswood Investment Company, LP ("Ravenswood") is a holder of 19,716 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), of Bishop Capital Corporation (the "Company"). We have reviewed the Company's Schedule 14A Amendment No. 2 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 24, 2003 and the Company's proposal therein to effect a 1 for 110 reverse stock split (the "Reverse Stock Split") and subsequently deregister its shares of Common Stock, thereby terminating its reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company intends to offer $0.50 per pre-split share for all fractional shares. Any shareholders who would hold whole shares following the Reverse Stock Split would be offered no consideration but would remain shareholders in a non-reporting company.

We believe that there is substantial value to the Company, more on a per share basis than is being offered to shareholders being cashed out in the Reverse Stock Split and certainly more than nothing, which is what is being offered to shareholders who are not being cashed out in the Reverse Stock Split. For example, according to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2003, the Company currently owns 25 acres of land in Colorado and Wyoming, which were on the Company's balance sheet at $727,462. Yet, in April 2003, one of the Company's partnerships sold approximately 50,000 square feet (approximately 1.15 acres) for $625,000, or $544,500 per acre. In addition, the Company is currently marketing through its real estate broker 6.96 acres at the Crossing at Palmer Park at between $9.00-$14.50 per square foot (or $2.7 million to $4.4 million for the entire acreage) and 7.408 acres at Creekside Center at $8.50 to $14.00 per square foot (or $2.6 to $4.4 million for the entire acreage). Clearly, there is a lot of value in the Company's holdings that is not reflected on the balance sheet.

Accordingly, Ravenswood hereby sets forth its willingness to make an all-cash offer to acquire up to all, but not less than all, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for $1.00 per share. This offer represents an attractive premium to the amount offered to shareholders who would be entitled to $0.50 per pre-split share, for those who would be cashed out, and nothing for those shareholders who would not be cashed out. We believe this all-cash offer will provide the Company's shareholders immediate liquidity and an immediate opportunity to maximize their investment in the Company. Our proposal, however, would be conditioned upon satisfactory completion of due diligence, obtaining all necessary consents and approvals, including approval of the board of directors and shareholders, waiver of any anti-takeover provisions and certain other customary conditions, including no material adverse change in the Company's business and confirmation that there are appropriate reserves for all contingent liabilities. We are prepared to enter into a confidentiality and exclusivity agreement and commence work immediately in order to satisfy the due diligence contingencies. We are prepared to utilize our available working capital to complete the proposed transaction.

We are hopeful that this letter will result in an amicable and productive dialogue. Accordingly, we stand ready to discuss with you, the board of directors and members of management any aspect of our proposal so that you will share our confidence and enthusiasm for this transaction. We believe that this transaction serves the best interests of the Company, its shareholders, management, employees and the broader interested community.

Please contact Robert E. Robotti at (212) 986-4800 or Matthew J. Day, Esq. at (212) 673-0484 to discuss any questions you or the board of directors might have or if you would like further information.

Very truly yours,

The Ravenswood Investment Company, L.P.

Robert E. Thrailkill
Chairman of the Board of Directors
Bishop Capital Corporation
716 College View Drive
Riverton, WY 82501

Dear Mr. Thrailkill:

As you are aware from our letter to you dated January 27, 2004 (a copy of which is attached), The Ravenswood Investment Company, LP ("Ravenswood") is a shareholder of Bishop Capital Corporation (the "Company").

We are confused and disappointed that we have not had any response to our letter of January 27, 2004. As you may recall, in that letter, we stated that Ravenswood was willing to make an all-cash offer to acquire up to, but not less than, all the outstanding shares of Common Stock for $1.00 per share.

It baffles us how the Board of Directors and management are acting in the best interests of shareholders by not investigating this offer. We are further distressed that the only response appears to be that the Company has increased the cash out price in the proposed reverse stock split to equal our $1.00 per share offer. We are also puzzled that the Company has made no disclosure to shareholders of our offer -- which offer would be to all shareholders, not just those who were left with fractional shares following the reverse stock split.

Given that the Company has no independent directors, how the Board of Directors can possibly determine that this proposed reverse stock split and deregistration is in the best interests of shareholders is beyond us.

As you are also aware from our prior letter, it is our belief that the shares of the Company's stock are worth significantly more than the amount you are offering for fractional shares..

Accordingly, Ravenswood hereby sets forth its willingness to increase its all-cash offer to $1.25 per share. Possibly, depending upon what due diligence might reveal, we may even offer more. The $1.25 offer represents an attractive premium to the amount offered to shareholders who would otherwise be entitled to $1.00 per share under the Company's most recent proposed reverse split plan. Our offer also would provide shareholders who would receive nothing under the Company's reverse stock split immediate liquidity and the immediate opportunity to maximize their investment in the Company. Our proposal, however, is once again conditioned upon satisfactory completion of due diligence, obtaining all necessary consents and approvals, including approval of the Board of Directors and shareholders, waiver of any anti-takeover provisions, and certain other customary conditions, including no material adverse change in the Company's business and confirmation that there are appropriate reserves for contingent liabilities. We are prepared to enter into a confidentiality and exclusivity agreement and commence work immediately in order to satisfy the due diligence contingencies. We are prepared to utilize our available working capital to complete the proposed transaction.

As we are sure that it is your desire to fulfill your fiduciary obligations to all shareholders, we stand ready to discuss with you, the Board of Directors and the members of management, any aspect of our proposal so that you will share our confidence and enthusiasm for this transaction. We believe that this transaction serves the best interests of the Company, its shareholders, management, employees and the broader interested community.

Please contact Robert E. Robotti at (212) 986-4800 or Matthew J. Day, Esq. at (212) 673-0484 to discuss any questions you or the Board of Directors might have or if you would like further information.
