Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The Ravenswood Investment Company, L.P., Robotti & Company, Incorporated and Robotti & Company, LLC, as plaintiffs, and Bishop Capital, Robert E. Thrailkill, Robert J. Thrailkill, and Sherry L. Moore, as defendants (the "Defendants"), entered into a stipulation (the "December 14 Stipulation"), which was signed by the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on December 14, 2004. The December 14 Stipulation provided that the Special Meeting of Shareholders of Bishop Capital Corporation will be held as noticed and scheduled on Thursday, December 16, 2004 at 1:00 p.m., MST, at which time all shareholders are being asked to approve an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Bishop Capital Corporation to effect a 1 for 110 reverse stock split, and the repurchase of fractional shares (the "Transaction"). However, if the Transaction is approved by the shareholders, no party shall take any action to implement the Transaction pending further Order of the Court.

A copy of the Stipulation is filed as Exhibit 15 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

On December 3, 2004, The Ravenswood Investment Company, L.P. ("Ravenswood") sent a letter to Bishop Capital (the "December Demand Letter") demanding among other things, pursuant to 17-16-1602 of the Wyoming Business Corporation Act: (i) certain financial statement of Bishop Capital and its subsidiaries, (ii) certain accountant work papers, copies of other communications and other accounting and financial statements and instruments, and (iii) certain minutes, or consents in lieu thereof, of Bishop Capital's and its subsidiaries Boards of Directors, committees thereof or shareholders.

The purpose of Ravenswood's demand was (a) to determine the actual value of Bishop Capital's common stock, (b) to investigate whether proper tax and accounting provisions have been made in connection with the issuance of at least 202,569 shares of Bishop Capital's common stock (or in excess of 20% of the shares of Bishop Capital's outstanding) to Directors and former Directors of Bishop Capital for nominal consideration, (c) to investigate the existence of mismanagement, waste of corporate assets and self-dealing by incumbent executive officers and directors of Bishop Capital and (d) to investigate the existence of false and misleading statements and material omissions in the Company's Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Amendment No. 2 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 29, 2004.

On December 3, 2004, Ravenswood filed an order to show cause (the "December Order to Show Cause") with supporting affidavits seeking, inter alia, to enjoin Bishop Capital and its Directors (a) from taking any steps to solicit or vote any proxies, consents, or authorizations with respect to the Bishop Capital Corporation Proxy Statement dated October 29, 2004; (b) from permitting any vote by shareholders on any action to be taken on any proposal at the Bishop Capital shareholders meeting scheduled for December 16, 2004, including any proposal to amend the articles of incorporation to permit a reverse stock split, the purchase of fractional shares for a pre-split one dollar per share and the deregistering the shares of Bishop Capital common stock; and (c) from voting their own Bishop Capital Corporation shares on the grounds that they were obtained through illegal self-dealing, and to order that Defendants immediately file a corrective proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and immediately mail copies to Bishop Capital Corporation's shareholders. On December 3, the court signed the order to show cause and thereby scheduled a hearing for December 9, 2004 at 10:00 a.m.

On November 23, 2004, The Ravenswood Investment Company, L.P., Robotti & Company, Incorporated and Robotti & Company, LLC (the "Plaintiffs") filed a complaint in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, naming Bishop Capital, Robert E. Thraillkill, Robert J. Thraillkill, and Sherry L. Moore, as defendants (the "Defendants"). The complaint alleges that the defendants have violated Sections 10, 13(d), 13(e) and 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and that the individual defendants have violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, breached their common law and statutory fiduciary duties to Bishop Capital and its shareholders and engaged in ultra vires acts. The complaint states that the defendants are using false and misleading material in the Company's proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and disseminated to shareholders of the Company on or about November 12, 2004 in connection with Bishop Capital's solicitation of proxies for its special meeting of shareholders. The complaint states that at the special meeting, shareholders of Bishop Capital will vote on whether to approve an amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation to effect a 1-for-110 reverse stock split and repurchase fractional shares which would cause the number of shareholders of record to number below 300 and permit the company to go private and cease its obligations to make public filings with the SEC. The complaint also states that in the proxy statement, among other things, the Company has grossly undervalued its real estate and gas royalty interests in order to induce shareholders to vote in favor of amending the articles of incorporation to permit the reverse stock split. In addition, the complaint states that (a) the Company has failed to hold or give notice of annual meetings of shareholders since 1997, (b) the individual defendants have failed to disclose their holdings under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and (c) the Directors have issued to themselves more than 20% of the Company's stock for nominal consideration in breach of their fiduciary duties.

In the complaint Plaintiffs seek, among other remedies, (a) to enjoin the Defendants' use of the false and misleading statements in the proxy statement, (b) to enjoin the shareholders' vote currently scheduled for December 16, 2004, (c) to rescind the Company's issuance of shares to the individual Defendants and (d) to enjoin the Individual Defendants from voting their shares and from continuing to act as officers and directors of the Company.

A copy of the complaint is filed as Exhibit 9 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

On October 13, 2004, RIC sent a letter to Mr. Robert E. Thraillkill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bishop Capital, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 8, in which RIC set forth its willingness to offer, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, $1,794,044 to purchase Bishop Capital (or $2.00 per share in cash for each of the 897,022 shares outstanding). In addition, in the letter RIC made offers, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to purchase certain of Bishop Capital's asset at prices above the amounts Bishop Capital had valued such assets in liquidation, namely:

- $500,000 for Bishop Capital's 80% interest in the Bridger Creek Partnership, which it had valued in liquidation at $468,806;
- $1,000,000 for Bishop Capital's limited and general partner interests in Bishop Powers, Ltd., which it had valued in liquidation at $453,811; and
- $150,000 for Bishop Capital's partnership interest in Creekside Apartments, LLLP, including the obligation to advance up to $259,200, if required, which Bishop Capital had valued in liquidation at -$259,200.

If Bishop Capital were to consummate RIC's offers for the assets set forth above, based on Bishop Capital's own calculation in its Schedule 14A Preliminary Proxy Statement Amendment No. 6 (including all of its assumptions), the liquidation value of Bishop Capital would be $2.62 per share, which Bishop Capital could then distribute as a dividend to all shareholders. RIC suspects that in an orderly liquidation of assets, Bishop Capital would realize better values for its assets as well as liquidation costs lower than its Board of Director's estimate of 25% of the value of Bishop Capital's assets, which would result in higher value being realized by all shareholders for their shares of Bishop Capital.

On July 6, 2004, RIC sent a letter to Mr. Robert E. Thraikill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bishop Capital, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 6 hereto and incorporated by reference herein, notifying Bishop Capital that RIC would communicate with shareholders of Bishop Capital with respect to the solicitation of proxies by Bishop Capital at the Special Meeting of Shareholders of Bishop Capital (the "Special Meeting") contemplated by Schedule 14A Preliminary Proxy Statement Amendment No. 4 filed by Bishop Capital on June 15, 2004, with the Commission. In connection therewith, RIC demanded, pursuant to Rule 14a-7 of the Exchange Act, to receive records and documents of Bishop Capital relating to record and beneficial holders of the Bishop Capital common stock.

On June 17, 2004, RIC sent a letter to Mr. Robert E. Thraikill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bishop Capital, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 5 hereto and incorporated by reference herein, notifying Bishop Capital that RIC may solicit Bishop Capital's shareholders with respect to the Special Meeting or communicate with shareholders of Bishop Capital with respect to the solicitation of proxies by Bishop Capital at such Special Meeting. In connection therewith, RIC demanded, pursuant to Rule 14a-7 of the Exchange Act, to receive records and documents of Bishop Capital relating to record and beneficial holders of Bishop Capital common stock.

On or about June 4, 2004, RIC received a letter dated June 4, 2004 (the "June 4th Letter"), from A. Thomas Tenenbaum, Esq. of Tenenbaum & Kreye LLP, counsel to Bishop Capital, with respect to the letter sent by RIC to Mr. Robert E. Thraikill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bishop Capital on May 14, 2004 and January 27, 2004. Based on this letter, RIC believes that the Issuer and its Board of Directors failed to seriously consider the offers set forth in those two letters from RIC. A copy of the June 4th Letter is attached as Annex A to RIC's June 17th Letter.

On May 14, 2004, RIC sent a letter (the "May 14th Letter") to Mr. Robert E. Thraikill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bishop Capital, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3 and incorporated by reference herein. In the May 14th Letter, RIC again set forth its willingness subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to purchase all outstanding shares of the Issuer, this time increasing its proposed offering price to $1.25 per share in cash.

On April 16, 2004, Bishop Capital filed with the Commission its Preliminary Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Amendment No. 3 in which Bishop Capital proposed to offer $1.00 per pre-split share for each fractional share and again nothing for each post-split whole share.

On January 27, 2004, RIC sent a letter (the "Initial Letter") to Mr. Robert E. Thraikill, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bishop Capital, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and incorporated by reference herein. In the Initial Letter, RIC set forth its willingness, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to purchase all outstanding shares of Bishop Capital for $1.00 per share in cash. RIC received no response from Bishop Capital or its Board of Directors to RIC's offer in the Initial Letter.

On December 24, 2003, Bishop Capital filed with the Commission its Preliminary Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Amendment No. 2 in which Bishop Capital proposed to effect a 1-for-110 reverse stock split and subsequently deregister its shares of Common Stock, thereby terminating its reporting obligations under the Exchange Act. Bishop Capital also proposed to offer $0.50 per pre-split share for each fractional share and nothing for each post-split whole share.

The Filing Parties believe the shares of the Common Stock trade at a substantial discount to the Issuer's private market value. In an effort to protect this investment, as well as to maximize investor value, the Filing Parties may acquire additional shares of the Common Stock, dispose of all or some of these shares of the Common Stock from time to time, in each case in open market or private transactions, block sales or purchases or otherwise, or may continue to hold the shares of the Common Stock, depending on business and market conditions, their continuing evaluation of the business and prospects of the Issuer and other factors. In addition, the Filing Parties intend to communicate with other shareholders and management of the Issuer about maximizing the value of their shares of Common Stock.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a)-(b) The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock and percentage of the outstanding Common Stock of the Issuer beneficially owned (i) by each of the Filing Parties, and (ii) to the knowledge of the Filing Parties, by each other person who may be deemed to be a member of a group, is as follows:

Robotti (1)(2)(3)(4)	52,372	0	52,372	5.4%
ROBT (1)(2)	3,700	0	3,700	**
Robotti & Company (1)	3,500	0	3,500	**
Wasiak (1)(4)	48,672	0	48,672	5.0%
RMC (1)(4)	48,672	0	48,672	5.0%
RIC (1)	48,672	0	48,672	5.0%

* Based on 969,127 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, outstanding as of November 12, 2004, as disclosed in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB, for the quarter ended September 30, 2004.

 Less than one percent.

(e) Each of the Filing Parties disclaims beneficial ownership of the securities held by the other Filing Parties except to the extent of such Filing Party's pecuniary interest therein, if any.

(2) Each of Mr. Robotti and ROBT share with Robotti & Company the power to vote or direct the vote, and share the power to dispose or to direct the disposition of, 3,500 shares of Common owned by Robotti & Company.

(3) Mr. Robotti shares with ROBT the power to vote or direct the vote, and shares the power to dispose or to direct the disposition of, 200 shares of Common owned by ROBT.
