IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE USAA PRECIOUS METALS AND MINERALS FUND

The Board of Trustees of USAA Mutual Funds Trust has approved the redesignating of the USAA Precious Metals and Minerals Fund's (the "Fund") current Adviser Shares as "Class A" shares (the "Redesignation"). This change is expected to be effective on or about June 29, 2020 (the "Redesignation Date").

The total annual operating expense ratio of the Class A shares of the Fund will be no greater than that of the Adviser Shares on a net basis as a result of the same expense limitation agreement currently in place with respect to the Adviser Shares through at least June 30, 2021. Like the Adviser Share class, Class A shares will be available for purchase through financial intermediaries and the Fund will pay ongoing distribution and/or service (12b-1) fees at an annual rate of up to 0.25% of the average daily net assets of its Class A shares.

The Redesignation will be made without the imposition of any sales loads, fees or other charges to Adviser Shares held in shareholder accounts on the Redesignation Date. Any future purchases of Class A shares of the Fund will be subject to a front-end sales load unless such purchase qualifies for a sales charge waiver or reduction to be described in a revised prospectus which will be furnished to shareholders upon the Redesignation. The Redesignation will not be considered a taxable event for federal income tax purposes.
