Schedule "C" (Apathogenic Testing Protocols)

A viable sample of the microorganism in question will be placed on a microscope slide, covered with a cover slip, and said slide then put on the stage of a microscope. The transmitting arm of the prototype version of the "Equipment" will be brought into proximity to the slide. The "Equipment" will be set to the settings appropriate for the sterilization of the microorganism. The sterilization will be recorded onto a digital or analog videotape. In the event that the sterilization of the microorganism is visually apparent, such visual evidence will be considered proof of sterilization of the microorganism provided that:

- 1) A control sample of the microorganism not exposed to the "Equipment" was still alive and capable of reproduction.
- 2) 95% or more of the sample exposed was shown to be sterilized within 5 minutes by the application of the "Equipment".
- 3) No influences other than those found under typical laboratory conditions, the light and heat from the microscope itself, and the electromagnetic field produced by the "Equipment" were applied to the microorganism.

Should visual proof not be obvious or should LICENSEE so desire, BDC will repeat the experiment at BDC's location within 30 days. BDC will chose the time and date within that 30 day period, and will give LICENSEE 14 days advance notice of the time and date of the second experiment. LICENSEE representatives can be present at such second experiment and bring with them a 3rd party independent microbiologist. In such a case, the microorganism will be considered sterilized if after 5 minutes of exposure of the microorganism to the "Equipment", 95% or more of the sample microorganism is incapable of reproduction when placed in an appropriate growth media.

Should LICENSEE decline to request or appear at the second experiment, the microorganism shall be considered sterilized.

Schedule "D"

(Pathogenic Testing Protocols)

A microorganism will be considered sterilized if, after 5 minutes of exposure to the "Equipment" it is certified as 100% incapable of reproduction by the level three or level four laboratory where the test takes place. Such certification will include a signed statement from the lab attesting to the sterilization of the microorganism.
