RE: CommScope, Inc.
Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009
Filed February 22, 2010
File No. 001-12929

Dear Mr. Drendel:

We have reviewed your response letter dated May 18, 2010 and have the following additional comments. If you disagree with a comment, we will consider your explanation as to why it is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation.

Form 10-K

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis...., page 27

Liquidity and Capital Resources, page 44

1. We note your response to comment one in our letter dated May 11, 2010, and we re-issue our comment. While we note your disclosure from your Form 10-Q filed April 29, 2010, this disclosure still does not provide an estimate of how much you may borrow to meet your future cash needs before you will be in breach of the financial covenants. In this regard, while the covenants themselves may not directly limit the availability of borrowing, they clearly impose an indirect obstacle to the company's ability to access the funds because, as you note on page 25 of your Form 10-Q, failure to comply with these covenants is an event of default that could result in the outstanding balance of your loans becoming due and payable immediately. Also, confirm that you will provide a more thorough discussion of how management intends to ensure compliance with these covenants in the future.

2. We note your response to comment two in our letter dated May 11, 2010; however, your draft disclosure does not discuss the effect the board's role in risk oversight has on the board's leadership structure. Explain how a combined Chairman/Chief Executive Officer and a fully independent audit committee "supports" risk oversight at the board level.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Critical accounting policies, page 19

3. We note your representation that "There have been no changes in our critical accounting policies or significant accounting estimates as disclosed in our 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K." In future filings please expand your disclosures to discuss why you believe that a goodwill interim impairment test was not necessary. Please provide us with your proposed disclosures.
