Note 1 – Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Federal Data Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively, the Company) and have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and note disclosures normally included in the annual financial statements, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations, although the Company believes that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading.

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements reflect all necessary adjustments and reclassifications (all of which are of a normal, recurring nature) that are necessary for fair presentation for the periods presented. It is suggested that these unaudited consolidated financial statements be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's latest annual report to the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 10-K 405 for the year ended December 31, 1999.

The results of operations for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000, are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full fiscal year ending December 31, 2000.

All of the Company's direct and indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries have fully and unconditionally guaranteed, on a joint and several basis, the Company's obligations under its Senior Subordinated Notes. The Company is a holding company with no assets or operations other than its investments in its subsidiaries. The separate financial statements of the subsidiary guarantors are not presented because the Company's management believes that such financial statements are not material to investors.

Note 2 – Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 1999, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued Staff Accounting Bulletin 101 (SAB 101), "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements" which summarizes certain of the staff's views on revenue recognition. The Company's revenue recognition policies have been and continue to be in accordance with SAB 101.

Note 3 – Reclassification

Certain amounts have been reclassified in the prior period to conform to the current period presentations. These reclassifications had no effect on net loss or retained earnings as previously reported.

Note 4 – Stockholders' Equity

In December 1995, FDC Holdings, Inc. merged with and into the Company with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. In accordance with the merger agreement, the Company was to replace options previously outstanding at the merger date with options in the surviving corporation that provide substantially the same economic benefit to the option holder as the benefits provided prior to the merger. To fulfill this obligation, in March 1999, the Company issued fully vested options to purchase 40,425 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $2.00 per share. These options expire ten years from the date of grant. Accordingly, the Company recorded non-cash compensation of $1,011 and a related increase in capital in excess of par value based on the difference between the exercise price of the stock options and the then current fair market value.

During the six months ended June 30, 2000, the Company issued options to purchase 43,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $27.00 per share.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2000 COMPARED WITH THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 1999

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, selected consolidated statements of operations data as a percentage of total revenue:

	Three Months Ended June 30,
	1999	2000
Revenue
Product sales.....	71.6 %	69.4 %
Professional and support services.....	28.2	30.3
Interest and other.....	0.2	0.3
Total revenue.....	100.0	100.0
Expenses
Cost of sales and services.....	89.6	89.6
Selling, general and administrative.....	7.1	7.7
Goodwill and intangibles.....	1.5	1.1
Interest.....	2.7	2.8
Total expenses.....	100.9	101.2
Loss before income tax benefit.....	-0.9 %	-1.2 %

REVENUE

Revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was $145.8 million, down $6.4 million or 4% from the comparable period of 1999. During the three months ended June 30, 1999, the Company recorded a significant sale of networking products to the U.S. Navy aggregating $25.5 million. Excluding the effect of this transaction, revenue increased $19.1 million or 15% over the comparable period of 1999. Revenue from product sales was $101.1 million, down $7.9 million or 7% from the comparable period of 1999. Excluding the effect of the U.S. Navy transaction, revenue from product sales increased $17.6 million or 21% over the comparable period of 1999. This increase in revenue from product sales is primarily due to increased volume as a result of repeat customer business, partner referrals, outbound solicitation and electronic commerce. Revenue from professional and support services was $44.3 million, up $1.4 million or 3% over the comparable period of 1999.

GROSS MARGIN

Gross margin is revenue from product sales and professional and support services less cost of sales and services, which includes product purchase costs, personnel and other professional and support services costs. The Company's gross margin for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was $14.8 million, down $0.8 million or 5% from the comparable period of 1999. The Company's gross margin percentages vary over time and change depending on the product sold, the contract vehicle used and the portion of the work performed by Company personnel versus subcontractors. Gross margin as a percentage of product sales and professional and support services revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was 10.2% compared with 10.3% for the comparable period of 1999.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE

Selling, general and administrative expense for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was $11.2 million, up $0.4 million or 3% over the comparable period of 1999. Selling, general and administrative expense for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was 7.7% of revenue compared with 7.1% of revenue for the comparable period of 1999.

AMORTIZATION OF GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLES

The excess of the cost of acquisitions over the fair value of identifiable net tangible and intangible assets acquired was $65.0 million and is being amortized on a straight-line basis over fifteen years. The present value of the contract profits of $16.5 million acquired in acquisitions is being amortized over the remaining terms of the acquired contracts in relation to the recognition of related contract revenue. Other identified intangibles including covenants not to compete, work force and trade names and trademarks of $5.1 million acquired in acquisitions are being amortized over periods up to three years. Amortization of goodwill and intangibles for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was $1.6 million, down $0.7 million or 31% from the comparable period of 1999, primarily due to the reduction in the amortization of the present value of contract profits acquired through the acquisitions.

INTEREST EXPENSE

Interest expense for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was $4.1 million, up $0.1 million or 2% over the comparable period of 1999.

INCOME TAX BENEFIT

The income tax benefit for the three months ended June 30, 2000 is based on an estimated annual effective rate, excluding expenses not deductible for income tax purposes. Before giving effect to the non-deductibility of the amortization of goodwill and the value assigned to other identified intangibles associated with certain acquisitions and the non-cash compensation related to stock options, the effective tax provision rate for the year ending December 31, 2000 is estimated to be 40%, approximately the same rate recorded during the three months ended June 30, 1999.

NET LOSS

Net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2000 was $1.4 million, a $0.1 million increase or 11% from the net loss of $1.3 million recorded in the comparable period of 1999 based on the reasons discussed above.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2000 COMPARED WITH SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 1999

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, selected consolidated statements of operations data as a percentage of total revenue:

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	1999	2000
Revenue
Product sales.....	67.2 %	68.8 %
Professional and support services.....	32.5	30.8
Interest and other.....	0.3	0.4
Total revenue.....	100.0	100.0
Expenses
Cost of sales and services.....	88.6	89.3
Selling, general and administrative.....	8.7	8.5
Goodwill and intangibles.....	2.0	1.3
Interest.....	3.1	3.0
Total expenses.....	102.4	102.1
Loss before income tax benefit.....	-2.4 %	-2.1 %

REVENUE

Revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was $264.2 million, up $8.8 million or 3% over the comparable period of 1999. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, the Company recorded a significant sale of networking products to the U.S. Navy aggregating $25.5 million. Excluding the effect of this transaction, revenue increased $34.3 million or 15% over the comparable period of 1999. Revenue from product sales was $181.9 million, up $10.2 million or 6% over the comparable period of 1999. Excluding the effect of the U.S. Navy transaction, revenue from product sales increased $35.7 million or 24% over the comparable period of 1999. This increase in revenue from product sales is primarily due to increased volume as a result of repeat customer business, partner referrals, outbound solicitation and electronic commerce. Revenue from professional and support services was $81.3 million, down $1.8 million or 2% from the comparable period of 1999. The decrease in professional and support services revenue is primarily due to the expiration of existing contracts which were originally awarded to acquired companies under small business set-aside programs or contracts which became set-aside programs after their expiration.

GROSS MARGIN

Gross margin is revenue from product sales and professional and support services less cost of sales and services, which includes product purchase costs, personnel and other professional and support services costs. The Company's gross margin for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was $27.2 million, down $1.3 million or 4% from the comparable period of 1999. The Company's gross margin percentages vary over time and change depending on the product sold, the contract vehicle used and the portion of the work performed by Company personnel versus subcontractors. Gross margin as a percentage of product sales and professional and support services revenue was 10.3% for the six months ended June 30, 2000, down from 11.2% for the comparable period of 1999. This decrease in gross margin was primarily the result of specific sales and marketing initiatives in the value-added product marketplace during the three months ended March 31, 2000.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE

Selling, general and administrative expense for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was $22.4 million, up $0.1 million over the comparable period of 1999. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, the Company issued stock options in accordance with the Company's merger with FDC Holdings, Inc. in 1995. Accordingly, the Company recorded non-cash compensation of $1.0 million during the six months ended June 30, 1999 and a related increase in capital in excess of par value based on the difference between the exercise price of the stock options and the then current fair market value. Excluding the effect of the non-cash compensation, selling, general and administrative expense for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was 8.5% of revenue compared with 8.3% of revenue for the comparable period of 1999.

AMORTIZATION OF GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLES

The excess of the cost of acquisitions over the fair value of identifiable net tangible and intangible assets acquired was $65.0 million and is being amortized on a straight-line basis over fifteen years. The present value of the contract profits of $16.5 million acquired in acquisitions is being amortized over the remaining terms of the acquired contracts in relation to the recognition of related contract revenue. Other identified intangibles including covenants not to compete, work force and trade names and trademarks of $5.1 million acquired in acquisitions are being amortized over periods up to three years. Amortization of goodwill and intangibles for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was $3.3 million, down $1.8 million or 35% from the comparable period of 1999, primarily due to the reduction in the amortization of the present value of contract profits acquired through the acquisitions.

INTEREST EXPENSE

Interest expense for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was $8.0 million, up $0.1 million or 2% over the comparable period of 1999.

INCOME TAX BENEFIT

The income tax benefit for the six months ended June 30, 2000 is based on an estimated annual effective rate, excluding expenses not deductible for income tax purposes. Before giving effect to the non-deductibility of the amortization of goodwill and the value assigned to other identified intangibles associated with certain acquisitions and the non-cash compensation related to stock options, the effective tax provision rate for the year ending December 31, 2000 is estimated to be 40%, approximately the same rate recorded during the six months ended June 30, 1999.

NET LOSS

Net loss for the six months ended June 30, 2000 was $4.1 million, a $0.8 million reduction or 16% from the net loss of $4.9 million recorded in the comparable period of 1999 based on the reasons discussed above.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Historically, the Company's primary source of liquidity is cash provided by operations and financing activities. In general, the Company's liquidity requirements vary seasonally with revenue, which are historically higher in the third and fourth quarters of each fiscal year. Cash flow from the collection of accounts receivable from the U.S. Government (the Government) has generally been predictable and dependable. Cash and cash equivalents were $1.3 million at June 30, 2000, down $2.8 million from December 31, 1999 primarily as a result of net cash used in operating activities of $8.6 million and net cash used in investing activities of $3.2 million being partially offset by cash generated from financing activities of $9.0 million. Net cash used from operating activities was primarily a result of the decrease in accounts payable and accrued expenses of $5.0 million and an increase in inventory of $3.6 million. Net cash used in investing activities was the result of purchases of property and equipment of $2.0 million and equipment purchased for sales-type leases of $1.2 million. Net cash flow from financing activities was primarily the result of net borrowings under the Company's working capital line of credit of $12.0 million, being partially offset by repayments of other borrowings of $2.0 million. In March 2000, certain financial covenants within the Company's Senior Credit Facility were amended.

EBITDA, as calculated below, represents the sum of loss before income tax benefit, net recourse interest expense, depreciation and amortization and one-time non-cash charges. EBITDA is not a measure of performance or financial condition under generally accepted accounting principles, but is presented to provide additional information related to debt service capability. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for other measures of financial performance or liquidity under generally accepted accounting principles. While EBITDA is frequently used as a measure of operations and the ability to meet debt service requirements, it is not necessarily comparable to other similarly titled captions of other companies due to the potential inconsistencies in the method of calculation.

The following presentation represents the Company's computation of EBITDA (in thousands):

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	1999	2000
Loss before income tax benefit.....	($6,184)	($5,542)
Net recourse interest expense.....	7,644	7,904
Non-cash compensation related to stock options.....	1,274	102
Depreciation and amortization.....	6,404	4,617
EBITDA.....	$9,138	$7,081

YEAR 2000 COMPLIANCE

To date, the Company has not experienced any significant failures or disruptions in its internal operating systems or in its dealings with third party suppliers and customers. The Company continues to monitor its infrastructure and its critical business partners to ensure continued Year 2000 compliance. There can be no assurance that the Company will not experience unanticipated negative consequences and/or material costs caused by undetected errors or defects in the technology used in its internal systems, which are comprised of third party products, or by unidentified problems experienced by its suppliers or customers. However, the Company does not believe that a material adverse effect from Year 2000 issues is likely. The Company incurred $0.9 million in connection with Year 2000 compliance, and does not anticipate any significant future costs.

This quarterly report on Form 10-Q contains statements which, to the extent that they are not recitations of historical fact, constitute "forward-looking statements" that are based on management's expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "plans," "believes," "estimates," variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements that include, but are not limited to, projections of future performance, assessment of contingent liabilities and expectations concerning liquidity, cash flow and contract awards. Such forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual future results and trends may differ materially from what is forecast in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including the Company's successful execution of internal performance plans; performance issues with key suppliers and subcontractors; developments with respect to contingencies such as legal proceedings or administrative proceedings challenging any contract award; labor negotiations; changing priorities or reductions in the budgets of Government agencies who purchase products or services from the Company; termination of Government contracts due to unilateral Government action; and the impact of the "Year 2000" issue on the Company and its customers and suppliers. For additional information, see "Risk Factors" in the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-4, SEC File Number 333-36447.

The previous discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes included elsewhere in this report.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure about Market Risk

The Company is exposed to market risk from changes in interest rates due to investments in instruments made for non-trading purposes. The interest rate risk relates primarily to the Company's portfolio of short-term investment grade securities. The Company is also subject to risk relating to fluctuating interest rates under its Senior Credit Facility. The Company believes that interest rate risk is immaterial to the Company.
