Re: FedEx Corporation
Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year Ended May 31, 2010
Filed July 15, 2010
File No. 1-15829

Dear Mr. Smith:

We have limited our review of your filing to disclosure relating to your contacts with countries that have been identified as a state sponsor of terrorism, and we have the following comments. Our review with respect to this issue does not preclude further review by the Assistant Director group with respect to other issues. At this juncture, we are asking you to provide us with supplemental information, so that we may better understand your disclosure. Please be as detailed as necessary in your response. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filings. We look forward to working with you in these respects. We welcome any questions you may have about our comment or on any other aspect of our review. Feel free to call us at the telephone numbers listed at the end of this letter.

General

1. Please update us on your contacts with Syria since your letter to us of July 14, 2006.
2. We note October and May 2007 news articles discussing that Pentagon investigators intercepted parts for F-14 Tomcat warplanes headed to Iran via Fed Ex through Germany and the UAE from Southern California. We also note a March 2010 news article discussing an evangelist who sent bullets in Bibles to Sudan through Kenya via FedEx. Finally, we note that two Chinese freight forwarders (Forwarder Express and Guangzhou Gongcheng Import & Export Service Co.) claim that they provide FedEx and other express courier services from Shenzhen, China to Tehran and Abadan, Iran and that these companies' websites include the FedEx Express logo on the pages which list these services. Iran and Sudan are identified by the U.S. State Department as state sponsors of terrorism and are subject to U.S. economic sanctions and export controls. Please describe to us the nature and extent of your past, current, and anticipated contacts with Iran and Sudan whether through affiliates, distributors, resellers, subsidiaries, or other direct or indirect arrangements. Your response should describe any services or products you have provided to Iran or Sudan and any agreements, commercial arrangements, or other contacts you have had with the governments of Iran or Sudan or entities controlled by these governments. Please also provide this information for Syria.

3. Please discuss the materiality of your contacts with Iran, Syria and Sudan described in response to the foregoing comments, and whether those contacts constitute a material investment risk for your security holders. You should address materiality in quantitative terms, including the approximate dollar amounts of any associated revenues, assets, and liabilities for the last three fiscal years and subsequent interim period. Also, address materiality in terms of qualitative factors that a reasonable investor would deem important in making an investment decision, including the potential impact of corporate activities upon a company's reputation and share value. As you know, various state and municipal governments, universities, and other investors have proposed or adopted divestment or similar initiatives regarding investment in companies that do business with U.S.-designated state sponsors of terrorism. Your materiality analysis should address the potential impact of the investor sentiment evidenced by such actions directed toward companies that have operations associated with Iran, Syria and Sudan.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filings include all information required under the Exchange Act of 1934 and that they have provided all information investors require for an informed investment decision. In connection with responding to our comments, please provide, in writing, a statement from the company acknowledging that:

- the company is responsible for the adequacy and accuracy of the disclosure in the filings;
- staff comments or changes to disclosure in response to staff comments do not foreclose the Commission from taking any action with respect to the filings; and

In addition, please be advised that the Division of Enforcement has access to all information you provide to the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance in our review of your filings or in response to our comments on your filings.
