Form 10-K for Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2012

Selected Factors Affecting our Results, page 15

1. We note in various locations throughout your document, that you pass 100% of resin cost adjustments to customers in the form of price adjustments on future quantities sold. In future filings, please quantify and discuss the amounts of such adjustments presented in your revenues for each period presented. It may be helpful to investors to present and discuss your sales results with and without the effects of resin cost adjustments.

Closing Comments

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes the information the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and all applicable Exchange Act rules require. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.

In responding to our comments, please provide a written statement from the company acknowledging that:

- the company is responsible for the adequacy and accuracy of the disclosure in the filing;
- staff comments or changes to disclosure in response to staff comments do not foreclose the Commission from taking any action with respect to the filing; and
- the company may not assert staff comments as a defense in any proceeding initiated by the Commission or any person under the federal securities laws of the United States.

You may contact Kevin Stertzel at (202) 551-3723, if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters. Please contact me at (202) 551-3768 with any other questions.
