Re: Brasil Telecom Participações S.A.
Form 20-F for Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2005
Filed June 30, 2006
File No. 1-14477

Dear Mr. Knoepfelmacher:

We have reviewed your filing and have the following comments. We have limited our review to only your financial statements and related disclosures and do not intend to expand our review to other portions of your documents. Please address the following comments in future filings. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a future revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may or may not raise additional comments.

Please understand that the purpose of our review process is to assist you in your compliance with the applicable disclosure requirements and to enhance the overall disclosure in your filing. We look forward to working with you in these respects. We welcome any questions you may have about our comments or any other aspect of our review. Feel free to call us at the telephone numbers listed at the end of this letter.

Form 20-F for Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2005

Item 5. Operating and Financial Review and Prospects, page 78

Results of operations for the Years Ended December 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005, page 89

1. It appears that your segments contribute in a disproportionate way to your operating results. In future filings, discuss your results of operations on a segment basis. Refer to Section 501.06 of the Codification of Financial Reporting Policies.

Selling expenses, page 98

2. Please describe for us in more detail the nature of the additional provisions recorded in December 2005 regarding risks of losses in client bills subject to co-billing procedures.

Note 6. Other net operating expenses (income), page F-18

3. Please refer to the table at page F-18 and describe for us the nature of the income associated with "Subventions and Donations received." Tell us how you accounted for these transactions for US GAAP reporting.

Note 8. Net non-operating expenses (income), page F-19

4. We note at pages F-19, F-79, F-80, F-82 and elsewhere throughout the filing that you utilized a various specialized third party firms to assist in the determination of obsolescence, valuation for intangibles, etc. While you are not required to make reference to an independent third party, when you do you should also disclose the name of the expert and confirm to us in your response letter that the expert is aware of being named in the filing. If you decide to delete your reference to the independent third-party, you should revise to provide disclosures that explain the method and assumptions used by management to determine the valuation. Revise throughout to comply with this comment in future filings.

Note 23. Loans and financing, page F-31

f. Covenants and guarantees, page F-33

5. We note your disclosure regarding provisions of R$622 million that were booked for the year ended December 31, 2005. Describe for us the nature of each of the components of the charge. In addition, tell us how you determined that these charges were appropriately recorded in proper period under US GAAP.

6. In light of your negotiations to adjust certain financial covenants in order to prevent non-compliance as of December 31, 2005, tell us how you applied the guidance in SFAS 78 and EITF 86-30 in determining whether this debt should be classified as short-term for US GAAP reporting purposes.
7. Tell us your consideration of whether the funds that are retained in a blocked account, as a result of your failure to comply with certain covenants, should be reclassified from cash and cash equivalents to restricted cash for US GAAP reporting. If so, you should disclose this reclassification in future filings and its impact on your balance sheet and cash flow statements under US GAAP.

Note 28. Transactions with related parties, page F-53

8. We note your disclosure regarding transactions between you and Brasil Telecom S.A. Confirm for us, if true, that these transactions are eliminated in consolidation and do not affect your consolidated financial statements.

Note 34. Additional disclosures required by U.S. GAAP, page F-91

9. We note your statements at pages F-92, F-94, and F-97 regarding your expected long-term rate of return on plan assets. You state that the disclosed rates were not used in your SFAS 87 calculations and did not affect your financial statements. Rather than disclosing the rates that you use for internal planning purposes, please disclose in future filings, the expected long-term rate of return on plan assets that was used in your actuarial calculations under SFAS 87 and SFAS 132(R).
