Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of KippsDeSanto & Company (the "Company") as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

KIPPSDESANTO & COMPANY
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Capital One, N.A.)

Notes to Financial Statement

Note 1—Organization

KippsDeSanto & Company (the “Company”) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Capital One, National Association (“CONA”). The Company is primarily engaged in investment banking and advisory services. The Company's customers are located throughout the United States. Investment banking services are occasionally provided to companies outside of the United States. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker-dealer and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (“FINRA”).

Note 2—Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statement of the Company is prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statement and accompanying notes. While management makes its best judgment, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash on Deposit with Parent Company

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a stated maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Cash includes amounts held at CONA, its parent company, totaling $2,452,711 at December 31, 2022. CONA is a major financial institution and is insured up to $250,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are non-interest-bearing uncollateralized obligations receivable in accordance with the terms agreed upon with each client. The Company follows ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments—Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. This guidance requires use of the current expected credit loss model that is based on expected losses (net of expected recoveries), rather than incurred losses, to determine our allowance for credit losses on financial assets measured at amortized cost, certain net investments in leases and certain off-balance sheet arrangements.

KIPPSDESANTO & COMPANY
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Capital One, N.A.)

Notes to Financial Statement

The Company has no material historical credit losses. There are no current indications of non-receipt from counterparties. The Company projects no probability of future losses related to these balances. Management has determined that these receivables have minimal credit risk and, therefore, no allowance was deemed necessary as of December 31, 2022.

Property and Equipment

The Company transferred all property and equipment to CONA during 2022.

Leases

During 2022, the Company assigned its lease to its parent, CONA. Prior to the assignment, the Company recorded all leasing activity in accordance with ASU 2016-02-Leases (Topic 842).

Income Taxes

The Company is included in Capital One Financial Corp's ("Capital One") consolidated federal income tax return, but files separate state income tax returns. Capital One allocates federal income tax expense to the Company using a separate return basis. The Company is reimbursed by Capital One for federal income tax losses, if applicable. Amounts owed to or due from Capital One for federal income taxes are reported as a component of due to or from affiliates in the accompanying financial statement. Taxes payable amounts included in due to affiliates totaled $6,551,945 at December 31, 2022.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

The Company has evaluated the effect of accounting guidance surrounding uncertain income tax positions and concluded that the Company has no significant financial statement exposure to uncertain income tax positions as of December 31, 2022.

Note 3—Related Party Transactions

Various administrative expenses are paid on behalf of the Company by CONA, under a Master Services Agreement between the Company, CONA and various affiliates. These administrative expenses are reimbursed by the Company to CONA on a monthly basis. In addition, the Company pays a management fee to CONA based on an internally calculated allocation of overhead cost.

KIPPSDESANTO & COMPANY
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Capital One, N.A.)

Notes to Financial Statement

The Company sponsors an incentive plan for qualified employees. A portion of individual employee's incentive compensation may be awarded in the form of restricted share units (the "Units") of Capital One and is payable to employees according to a vesting schedule.

Various administrative services are provided to the Company by associates of Capital One Securities, Inc. ("COS"), an affiliated broker-dealer. The Company reimburses COS for these services on a monthly basis.

Note 4—Commitments and Contingencies

From time to time, the Company is involved in litigation that it considers to be incidental to its business. The Company is not presently involved in any legal proceedings which management expects individually or in the aggregate to have a material adverse effect on its financial statement.

The Company has contracts with its vendors for various services. The Company had no minimum commitments under these contracts as of December 31, 2022.

Note 5—Concentration

Approximately 82% of total accounts receivable are due from one client as of December 31, 2022.

Note 6—Net Capital

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $29,006,918 which was $27,532,007 in excess of the required minimum net capital of $1,474,911. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.76 to 1.

The Company has no obligation under Rule 15c3-3 to prepare the Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3.

Note 7—Subsequent Events

In accordance with U.S. GAAP, the Company evaluates subsequent events that have occurred after the financial statement date but before the financial statement is issued. There are two types of subsequent events: (1) recognized, or those that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the financial statement, including estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statement, and (2) nonrecognized, or those that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the financial statement condition but arose after that
