NEWS RELEASE

AngloGold Ashanti Appoints Lisa Ali as Chief People Officer

(JOHANNESBURG) – PRESS RELEASE – AngloGold Ashanti is pleased to announce the appointment of Lisa Ali as Chief People Officer, effective April 2nd, 2022.

Lisa joins from Newcrest Mining, where she is currently the Chief People and Sustainability Officer. With over 30 years of experience, most of it in extractive industries, Lisa holds a BSc, with honours in Analytical Chemistry and Biochemistry, as well as an Executive Masters' Degree in Business Administration. She has worked in United Kingdom, Latin America, including Brazil, the Middle East and Australia.

At Newcrest, Lisa led the People, Sustainability, Social Performance, Health, Safety, Environment, and External / Government Relations functions, developing and implementing strategy for those functions, ensuring integration and the delivery of business objectives.

Before joining Newcrest in 2020, Lisa was Head of Transformation at state-owned Trinidad Petroleum Holdings Ltd. and its subsidiary companies. Prior to that Lisa held several senior positions, including Vice President of Human Resources and Head of Talent and Learning, at BP International PLC.

"Lisa brings to AngloGold Ashanti her unique technical background and deep experience in strategic human resources and business transformation, in the multinational extractive sector," AngloGold Ashanti Chief Executive Officer Alberto Calderon said. "This is another key addition to our leadership team which remains absolutely focused on ensuring we have the best talent to improve our sustainability and operating performance, cost position and project delivery."

Lisa will replace Italia Boninelli, an executive consultant overseeing human resources.
