Dear Mr. Cline:

We have reviewed your filings and have the following comments. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to this letter within ten business days by providing the requested information or by advising us when you will provide the requested response. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances, please tell us why in your response.

1. We note your disclosure in Note 13 to the financial statements that there are "seasonal trends in the demand for Trex," your disclosure on page 11 regarding the "seasonal nature of the demand for decking, railing, fencing and trim..." and your disclosure on page 21 regarding "the seasonality of our business." In your response letter dated August 6, 2010 in connection with our review of your Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, you indicated that you agreed with the SEC that a reasoned analysis of seasonality would be beneficial to investors in the Business section in future Annual Reports on Form 10-K.”

Please explain why the information required by Item 101(c)(v) of Regulation S-K is not included in the Business section of your Form 10-K.

2. We note your disclosure on page 3 that you “maintain research and development operations in the Trex Technical Center adjacent to our Winchester, Virginia manufacturing facilities.” In future filings, please provide the information required by Item 101(c)(1)(xi) of Regulation S-K in the Business section of your Form 10-K.

3. During the year ended December 31, 2012, you recorded a $21.5 million increase to your warranty reserve. Given your ending warranty reserve balance of $29.0 million at December 31, 2012 as well as income from operations of $12.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2012, this appears to be a significant increase. In this regard, please provide draft disclosure to be included in future filings that addresses the following:
 - Please expand your disclosures to explain the specific factors that led to this significant increase in reserve during the year ended December 31, 2012. Your disclosures should include any relevant trend information you considered;
 - Your disclosures indicate that you assumed a rate of decline in claims though it fell short of the estimated decline that you originally estimated. Given the increase in the warranty reserve at December 31, 2012 as well as the increase in the provision recorded during the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to the year ended December 31, 2011, please expand your disclosures to address the factors that led to the rate of declines falling short from what was originally estimated and why your provision and reserve amounts are increasing in light of your continued assumption that claims will decline. For example, please clarify if the settlement amount per claim has been increasing; and
 - Please tell us what consideration you gave to providing the product liability disclosures recommended by Question 3 of SAB Topic 5:Y, including the settlement costs by claim, the number of claims pending at each balance sheet date, the number of claims filed for each period presented, the number of claims dismissed, settled, or otherwise resolved for each period, and the average settlement amount per claim.

6. We note your disclosure that in establishing pretax income and cash flow targets for both annual cash incentive compensation and long-term equity incentive compensation, the Compensation Committee may exclude any items determined to be “extraordinary and not considered in the establishment of such targets.” Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K requires that you disclose all previously established goals and discuss how you derived actual awards based on achievement or non-achievement of the applicable performance objective. In light of the Compensation Committee’s determination to exclude the increase to the warranty reserve for decking material manufactured at the company’s Nevada plant prior to mid-2006 of approximately $21 million, and the resulting net effect of such adjustment on pretax income for incentive purposes, please explain how and why the Compensation Committee determined the increase to the warranty reserve to be “extraordinary and not considered in the establishment” of the pretax income and cash flow targets. In addition, in future filings, please provide enhanced disclosure regarding the Compensation Committee’s ability and discretion to exclude certain factors in determining financial performance objectives and the factors considered in making discretionary adjustments. See Item 402(b)(2)(v)-(ix) of Regulation S-K.
