Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

NOTE 1—SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting principles followed by CBC Securities, Inc. ("Company") and the methods of applying those principles that materially affect the determination of its financial position, results of operations and cash flows are summarized as follows:

Organization

The Company is based in Newton, Massachusetts, and purchased The Yale Group, Inc. (the prior Colorado-based broker-dealer) on November 13, 2018. This Company, like its predecessor The Yale Group, Inc., has adopted a calendar year end.

Description of Business

The Company, located in Newton, Massachusetts, is a broker and dealer in securities and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") and operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) that provides an exemption because of limited business. The Company provides financial advisory and consulting services for mergers and acquisitions, and private placement services for debt and equity, in addition to valuation services and analysis.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables and other liabilities.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Revenues from contracts with customers are composed of investment banking fees. Such fees are recognized at the point in time when the Company's performance under the terms of the contractual arrangement is completed, which is typically at the closing of the transaction. Reimbursed expenses related to these transactions are recorded as revenue and are included in investment banking fees. In certain instances, for advisory contracts, the Company will receive amounts in advance of the deal's closing. In these instances, revenue is recognized over time in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. At December 31, 2018, there were no advances to the Company.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents are held at high credit quality financial institutions at which deposits are insured up to $250,000 per account by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") or in money market savings accounts.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial instruments that are subject to fair value disclosure requirements are carried in the financial statements at amounts that approximate fair value and include cash and cash equivalents. Fair values are based upon quoted market prices and assumptions concerning the amount and timing of estimated future cash flows and assumed discount rates reflecting varying degrees of perceived risk.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from management estimates.

Business Concentrations

The Company provides financial advisory and consulting services for mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, private placements of debt and equity in addition to valuation services and analysis.

The Company earned revenue from 2 major customers that accounted for 71% and 18% of fees and commissions for the year ended December 31, 2018.

Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its shareholder, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be an S corporation for both federal and state income tax purposes. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholders of an S corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of the company's taxable income. Therefore no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

CBC Securities, Inc.
[formerly The Yale Group, Inc.]
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

Income Taxes (continued):

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status including its status as a pass-through entity, and the decision not to file a tax return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that no provision for liability for income taxes is necessary. The shareholder and the Company are generally not subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax examinations related to the Company's activities for tax years before 2014.

NOTE 2—NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company's minimum net capital requirement under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission is the greater of 6 2/3 percent of aggregate indebtedness ($0 at December 31, 2018), or $5,000 whichever is greater. The Company operates pursuant to the (k)(2)(i) exemption under SEC Rule 15c3-3 and does not hold customer funds or securities. The Company is, therefore, exempt from the reserve formula calculations and possession or control computations. At December 31, 2018 the net capital as computed was $18,598. Consequently, the Company had excess net capital of $13,598.

At December 31, 2018 the percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0 percent versus an allowable percentage of 1500 percent.

NOTE 3—RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

CBC Securities, Inc. purchased The Yale Group, Inc. (the prior broker-dealer) on November 13, 2018.

The Yale Group, Inc. had an expense agreement with its shareholder until the aforementioned sale to CBC Securities, Inc., at which point the expense agreement was discontinued. The Company currently operates in a manner in which its direct operating expenses are recorded by the Company, and this practice shall continue going forward.

NOTE 4—POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

The Company does not have any possession or control of customer funds or securities. There were no material inadequacies in the procedures followed in adhering to the exemption provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i).

CBC Securities, Inc.
[formerly The Yale Group, Inc.]
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

NOTE 5—SIPC RECONCILIATION

SEC Rule 17a-5(e)(4) requires a registered broker-dealer to file a supplemental report which includes procedures related to the broker-dealer's SIPC annual general assessment reconciliation or exclusion from membership forms. In circumstances where the broker-dealer reports $500,000 or less in gross revenues, they are not required to file the supplemental SIPC report. The Company is exempt from the filing requirement at December 31, 2018.

NOTE 6—COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

CBC Securities, Inc. does not have any commitments, guarantees, or contingencies, including arbitration or other litigation claims that may result in a loss or a future obligation. The Company is not aware of any threats or other circumstances that may lead to the assertion of a claim at a future date.

NOTE 7 – REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606") using the modified retrospective method of adoption. ASC 606 created a single framework for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers that fall within its scope. Under ASC 606, revenue is recognized upon satisfaction of performance obligations by transferring control over goods or services to a customer. The adoption of ASC 606 did not result in any changes to beginning retained earnings for the year ended December 31, 2018 or net income for the preceding year-end.

NOTE 8—SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated the events and transactions that occurred from January 1, 2018 through March 14, 2019, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued. No material events or transactions occurred during this period that would render these financial statements to be misleading.
