

Pac-West Telecomm Announces Completion of Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation

STOCKTON, CA January 31, 2007 - Pac-West Telecomm, Inc. (OTC: PACW.PK), a leading provider of next generation and traditional voice communications services, today announced the completion of an offer to exchange any and all of its outstanding 13 1/2% Senior Notes due 2009 for newly issued 13 1/2% Senior Priority Notes due 2009. In conjunction with the exchange offer, the Company solicited, and received, consents to an amendment to the indenture governing the Senior Notes.

The exchange offer expired on January 29, 2007 with $24,519,000 in aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes having been tendered into the exchange offer. Each $1,000 of Senior Notes tendered and accepted were exchanged for an amount of principal of Senior Priority Notes equal to $1,000 plus the amount of accrued and unpaid interest in respect of such tendered Senior Notes through but excluding the date of exchange (rounded to the nearest $1.00). As such, as of the date hereof, there is $11,583,000 in aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes outstanding and $26,186,292 in aggregate principal amount of Senior Priority Notes outstanding.

This communication is not an offer to exchange Senior Notes for Senior Priority Notes or a solicitation of an offer to exchange Senior Notes for Senior Priority Notes or a solicitation of consents with respect to the Senior Notes. The consent solicitation and offer to exchange Senior Notes for Senior Priority Notes are being made solely by means of an offering circular and consent solicitation statement and other documents provided to holders of the Senior Notes.

Forward-Looking Statements

In this press release, our use of the words "outlook," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "forecast," "project," "likely," "objective," "plan," "designed," "goal," "target," and similar expressions is intended to identify forward-looking statements. While these statements represent our current judgment on what the future may hold, and we believe these judgments are reasonable, actual results may differ materially due to numerous important risk factors, including risk factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2005, as filed with the SEC on March 29, 2006, which may be revised or supplemented in subsequent reports filed by us with the SEC. Such risk factors include, but are not limited to risks associated with: our level of indebtedness; our inability to comply with the covenants contained in, or the possibility of triggering a default under, our borrowing arrangements, our inability to execute our business plans and objectives, regulatory and legal uncertainty with respect to intercarrier compensation payments received by us; the migration to broadband Internet access affecting dial-up Internet access; the loss of key executive officers that could negatively impact our business prospects; an increase in our network expenses; our principal competitors for local services and potential additional competitors, which may have advantages that may adversely affect our ability to compete with them.
