CAPITOL FEDERAL FINANCIAL REPORTS FISCAL YEAR 2004 RESULTS

Topeka, KS - Capitol Federal Financial (NASDAQ: CFFN) today announced results for its fiscal year and quarter ended September 30, 2004.

In July 2004, the Bank refinanced $2.40 billion of Federal Home Loan Bank ("FHLB") advances and incurred a prepayment penalty of $236.1 million pre-tax, $146.6 million after tax. Management believes, in addition to its regular reporting requirements, it is important for comparability purposes to present selected financial results and performance ratios excluding the prepayment penalty on a non-GAAP basis. Because of the magnitude and non-recurring nature of the prepayment penalty, this transaction is discussed in more detail below.

Results for the Fourth Quarter ended September 30, 2004

For the three months ended September 30, 2004, the Company recognized a net loss of $130.0 million compared to net income of $3.0 million for the same quarter one year ago. The net loss was the result of the $146.6 million prepayment penalty, after tax, associated with refinancing $2.40 billion of the FHLB advances. Excluding the prepayment penalty and the related tax impact, net income for the quarter was $16.6 million, as set forth in the Selected Financial Results and Ratios section, or $13.6 million greater than the same quarter in the prior year. The increase, excluding the prepayment penalty, between the two quarters was due to an increase in the net interest margin of 107 basis points to 1.85% for the quarter ended September 30, 2004, primarily due to refinancing $2.40 billion of FHLB advances.

In July 2004, the Bank refinanced $2.40 billion of its fixed-rate, non-swapped FHLB advances. The Bank entered into $2.65 billion of new fixed-rate, fixed-term FHLB advances that have no conversion features. The additional $250.0 million of FHLB advances was used primarily to finance the prepayment penalty associated with the refinancing. The refinancing shortened the average maturity of the refinanced FHLB advances to an average life of 43 months from 67 months. Prior to the refinancing, the $2.40 billion of FHLB advances had an average rate of 6.13%. The average rate of the $2.65 billion of new FHLB advances is 3.78%. The FHLB advances on which there are interest rate swaps of a notional amount of $800.0 million designated as fair value hedges ("swapped FHLB advances") had an average pay rate of 3.98% and average receive rate of 6.16% during the current quarter. The average rate on the FHLB advances decreased to 4.19% from 6.14% for the same quarter one year ago. Interest expense on FHLB advances was reduced $14.2 million between the two quarters.

The increase in the net interest margin was also due to a decrease in the average rate on deposits of 34 basis points and a decrease in the average balance of deposits of $99.7 million between the two quarters. The average rate on certificates decreased to 2.80%, or down 48 basis points, and the average balance of certificates decreased $134.0 million from the same quarter one year ago. As certificates matured over the past year, the renewing rates were generally lower than the original rates on those certificates. Not all customers are reinvesting maturing certificates into certificates at current rates offered by the Bank. Interest expense on deposits decreased $4.2 million between the two quarters.

Additionally, the increase in the net interest margin was due to a 24 basis point increase in the average yield of interest-earning assets, partially offset by a decrease of $118.4 million in the average balance of interest-earning assets. The average yield on mortgage-related securities increased 91 basis points compared to the same quarter one year ago. The increase in the yield was primarily due to a decrease in net premium amortization compared to the same quarter one year ago. The net premium amortization for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 was $4.2 million, which was significantly lower than the $12.2 million of net premium amortization during the same quarter last year. The decrease in the amount of net premium amortization between the two time periods was due to a reduction in prepayments as long-term interest rates began to stabilize in mid 2004. During the third quarter, management shifted its emphasis from purchasing mortgage-related securities to purchasing mortgage loans as the yields on mortgage loans are more favorable than the yields on mortgage-related securities and an adequate supply was available. Loans purchased by the Bank are underwritten to the same credit quality standards as loans originated by the Bank. As a result of the shift in strategy, the average balance of loans receivable increased $374.9 million. The average balance of investment securities decreased $391.8 million between the two quarters due to maturities and calls of $530.2 million during the year. The average balance of mortgage-related securities decreased $119.7 million due to high levels of prepayments in the first two quarters of the current fiscal year and due to management's shift in strategy. Interest income on interest-earning assets increased $3.7 million between the two quarters.

Other expenses increased to $253.7 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 compared to $18.2 million for the same quarter in 2003. The large increase in other expenses was primarily the result of the $236.1 million prepayment penalty, pre-tax, associated with refinancing the FHLB advances. Excluding the prepayment penalty, other expenses for the quarter would have been $17.6 million or $579 thousand less than the same quarter in the prior year. The decrease was primarily in compensation expense, regulatory and outside services as well as deposit and loan fees, offset by an increase in Other, net due to impairment charges on mortgage servicing rights and an increase in advertising expense.

The Company's efficiency ratio for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 was 39.52%, as set forth in the Selected Financial Results and Ratios section excluding the prepayment penalty, compared to 79.75% for the quarter ended September 30, 2003. The efficiency ratio measures a financial institution's operating expenses as a percent of its net interest margin and its other income. A lower value indicates that a financial institution is generating revenue with a lower level of expense. Another measure of a financial institution's ability to operate effectively is the ratio of operating expenses to total average assets ("operating expense ratio"). The Company's operating expense ratio for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 was 0.83%, as set forth in the Selected Financial Results and Ratios section excluding the prepayment penalty, compared to 0.85% for the same quarter one year ago.

Results for Fiscal Year ended September 30, 2004

For the year ended September 30, 2004, the Company recognized a net loss of $106.3 million, compared to net income of $52.0 million for the year ended September 30, 2003. The net loss was the result of the prepayment penalty associated with refinancing the FHLB advances. Excluding the prepayment penalty and the related tax impact, net income for the year was $40.3 million, as set forth in the Selected Financial Results and Ratios section, or $11.7 million less than the prior year. The decrease, excluding the prepayment penalty, in net income was related primarily to the Bank not selling mortgage loans during the current year.

During the year ended September 30, 2003, the Bank sold $591.6 million in fixed-rate single family loans into the secondary market for a gain of $18.5 million, pre-tax. During the year ended September 30, 2004, the Bank did not sell any mortgage loans, a primary contributor to the decrease in net income between the two years, excluding the prepayment penalty.

The net interest margin increased 5 basis points from the prior year to 1.39% for the year ended September 30, 2004. The slight increase in the net interest margin was due to a decrease in the average rate and average balance of interest-bearing liabilities which was more than the decrease in the average rate and average balance of interest-earning assets.

The average rate on the FHLB advances decreased 86 basis points compared to the prior year due to the swapped FHLB advances and the refinanced FHLB advances. The swapped FHLB advances had an average pay rate of 3.71% during the year, which reduced the average rate on the FHLB advances by 47 basis points for the fiscal year. The refinancing of the fixed-rate, non-swapped FHLB advances in July 2004 reduced the average rate on the FHLB advances by 39 basis points compared to the prior year. Interest expense on the FHLB advances was reduced by $24.9 million between the two years primarily due to the interest rate swaps and to a lesser extent, the refinancing of the FHLB advances.

The average rate on certificates decreased to 2.90%, or down 79 basis points from the previous year, and the average balance of certificates decreased $220.3 million from the same period one year ago. As certificates matured over the past year, the renewing rates were generally lower than the rates on the maturing certificates. Interest expense on total deposits decreased $31.6 million between the two years.

The yield on interest-earning assets decreased 55 basis points and the average balance decreased $214.4 million compared to the prior year. The decrease in the yield was primarily due to a 92 basis point decrease in the yield on loans receivable and partially due to a 47 basis point decrease in the yield on mortgage-related securities. The yield on loans receivable decreased due to the reduction in the average rate on mortgages held in the portfolio as a result of loan modifications, refinances and originations of mortgage loans with rates generally below the average portfolio rate. The yield on mortgage-related securities decreased due to securities with higher than current market yields prepaying and being replaced by securities with lower, market yields, which was partially offset by a decrease in net premium amortization. Net premium amortization for the year ended September 30, 2004 was $21.7 million compared to $28.2 million for the year ended September 30, 2003. The average balance of mortgage-related securities decreased $201.7 million due to the high level of prepayments during the first two quarters of the current fiscal year and to a change in strategy by management in the third quarter of the current fiscal year as previously discussed. Interest income on interest-earning assets decreased $56.7 million between the two years.

Other expenses increased to $309.0 million for the year ended September 30, 2004 compared to $72.6 million for the year ended September 30, 2003, primarily due to the refinancing of the FHLB advances. Other expenses, excluding the prepayment penalty, would have been $72.9 million, which is comparable to the prior year.

The Company's efficiency ratio for the year ended September 30, 2004 was 52.35%, as set forth in the Selected Financial Results and Ratios section excluding the prepayment penalty, compared to 46.05% for the year ended September 30, 2003. The Company's operating expense ratio for the year ended September 30, 2004 was 0.86%, as set forth in the Selected Financial Results and Ratios section excluding the prepayment penalty, which is comparable to 0.84% one year ago.

Financial Condition at September 30, 2004

During fiscal year 2004, total assets decreased $41.8 million to $8.54 billion at September 30, 2004. The decrease in assets was mainly attributed to a decrease in investment securities of $384.3 million and a decrease in mortgage-related securities of $295.5 million, partially offset by an increase in loans receivable of $439.8 million, an increase in cash and cash equivalents of $129.6 million and the recording of a deferred tax asset related to the refinancing of the FHLB advances. During fiscal year 2004, $470.2 million of investment securities matured and $60.0 million were called. The increase in loans was attributed to the Bank purchasing $537.1 million mortgage loans during fiscal year 2004, of which $227.1 million were purchased during the fourth quarter. The increase in loans was also due to a slow down in prepayments, compared to the prior year, primarily due to an increase in long-term rates in the third and fourth quarter of the current fiscal year. The increase in cash and cash equivalents was due to a nationwide lender not filling all of its commitments to sell mortgage loans at June 30, 2004, as the lender was purchased by another company. Subsequent to September 30, 2004, the Company purchased mortgage-related securities with those funds. It is the Company's current intent to continue to purchase mortgage loans over mortgage-related securities and the Company is in the process of evaluating mortgage brokers to fill mortgage loan needs.

Under the Internal Revenue Code, the Bank is required to amortize the prepayment penalty associated with the FHLB advance refinancing over the term of the new advances as an original issue discount. Through September 30, 2010, the Bank will take annual deductions on its tax return for the amount of the original issue discount amortized in that year, as a yield adjustment to recorded FHLB advance expense. The Bank will take a deduction of $4.7 million, net of tax, on its current year tax return related to the amortization of the original issue discount. The Bank recorded a deferred tax asset of $89.5 million for the deferred tax asset associated with the FHLB advance refinancing, with a balance of $84.8 million at September 30, 2004, for the original issue discount that will be amortized in the future.

On October 27, 2004, the Board declared a $0.50 per share dividend to shareholders of record on November 5, 2004, payable on November 19, 2004.

In November 2003, the Board adjusted its dividend policy for calendar year 2004 with the intent to pay its calendar year dividend in four equal quarterly installments. No dividend payout ratio has been targeted and one is not currently contemplated. Dividends paid during calendar year 2004 will total $2.00 per share, the same amount paid in calendar year 2003. The Company has, to date, only paid dividends on publicly traded shares, not shares held by the mutual holding company.

At September 30, 2004, Capitol Federal Financial, on a stand-alone basis, had $119.1 million of cash available for general corporate or capital purposes including the payout of dividends.

Capitol Federal Financial is the holding company for Capitol Federal Savings Bank. Capitol Federal Savings Bank has 36 branch locations in Kansas, of which 8 are in-store branches. In October 2004, the Bank opened a second branch in Manhattan, Kansas. Capitol Federal Savings Bank employs 693 full time equivalent employees in the operation of its business and is one of the largest originators of one- to four-family residential mortgage loans in the State of Kansas.

Selected Financial Results and Ratios

The following tables present selected financial results and annualized performance ratios for the three months ended and the years ended September 30, 2004 and 2003. As previously discussed, in July 2004 the Bank refinanced $2.40 billion of FHLB advances and incurred a prepayment penalty of $236.1 million pre-tax, $146.6 million after tax. Because of the magnitude and non-recurring nature of the prepayment penalty, management believes it is important for comparability purposes to present selected financial results and performance ratios excluding the prepayment penalty which are not presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP").

3 The adjusted average equity balance excludes the impact of the prepayment penalty on stockholders' equity.

Management's Discussion of Dividends

Because the Company has a relatively unique corporate structure, the reporting of certain information under GAAP is not necessarily reflective of the process considered by the Board in connection with its dividend policy. For the quarter ended September 30, 2004, basic (loss) earnings per share was $(1.81) and diluted (loss) earnings per share was $(1.78). The Company accounts for the shares held by its Employee Stock Option Plan ("ESOP") in accordance with SOP 93-6 and the shares granted but not vested under its Recognition and Retention Plan ("RRP") in a manner similar to the ESOP shares. Shares held by the ESOP and granted under the RRP, but not vested, are not considered in the basic average shares outstanding until the shares are committed for allocation or vested to an employee's individual account. The following is a reconciliation of the denominators of the basic and diluted earnings per share calculations.

The earnings per share amounts in the above table are presented in accordance with GAAP. Included in the GAAP earnings per share calculations are the average shares held by the Company's majority shareholder, Capitol Federal Savings Bank MHC ("MHC"). MHC has waived its right to receive dividends from the Company since its formation and generally intends to continue to do so.

The inclusion of shares held by MHC understates earnings or loss available to public shareholders of CFFN stock. The following table is presented to provide a better understanding of the information the Board of Directors reviews when considering the amount of dividends to declare. The table presents basic and diluted earnings per share, excluding shares held by MHC from the earnings per share calculation. Net (loss) income in 2004 was adjusted for the prepayment penalty, after tax, associated with refinancing certain FHLB advances. The following information is not presented in accordance with GAAP.
