HITHERLANE PARTNERS, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Note 1 - Nature of Business

HitherLane Partners, LLC (the “Company”) is a Delaware Limited Liability Company formed in 2013. The sole member of HitherLane Partners, LLC is Kellner Capital, LLC. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of FINRA. The Company engages in the placement of interests in investment vehicles sponsored by both affiliated and non-affiliated entities.

The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 as the Company does not hold customers’ cash or securities and, therefore, has no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Note 2 - Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The Company’s records are maintained on the accrual basis of accounting and conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

Cash includes cash held on deposit at a widely known commercial bank. Cash deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) up to $250,000. Cash has not exceeded FDIC insurable limits during the reporting period.

Valuation of Investments in Securities, at Fair Value - Definition and Hierarchy

In accordance with GAAP, fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the “exit price”) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Securities are carried at fair value. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on securities owned are included in the statement of operations.

In determining fair value, the Company uses various valuation approaches. In accordance with GAAP, a fair value hierarchy for inputs is used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs reflect the Company's assumptions about the inputs market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The fair value hierarchy is categorized into three levels based on the inputs as follows:

Level 1 – Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access. Valuation adjustments and block discounts are not applied to Level 1 securities. Since valuations are based on quoted prices that are readily and regularly available in an active market, valuation of these securities does not entail a significant degree of judgment.

Level 2 – Valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 – Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

The availability of valuation techniques and observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors including, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, and other characteristics particular to the transaction. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Those estimated values do not necessarily represent the amounts that may be ultimately realized due to the occurrence of future circumstances that cannot be reasonably determined. Because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, those estimated values may be materially higher or lower than the values that would have been used had a ready market for the securities existed.

Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised by the Company in determining fair value is greatest for securities categorized in Level 3. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement in its entirety falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Fair value is a market-based measure considered from the perspective of a market participant rather than an entity-specific measure. Therefore, even when market assumptions are not readily available, the Company's own assumptions are set to reflect those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. The Company uses prices and inputs that are current as of the measurement date, including periods of market dislocation. In periods of market dislocation, the observability of prices and inputs may be reduced for many investments.

The Company's investment in securities as reported in the statement of financial condition represents the Company's investment in an open-end mutual fund, is classified as Level 1, and is valued at the published net asset value ("NAV") as of December 31, 2022. All other financial asset and liability amounts reported in the statement of financial condition are short-term in nature and approximate fair value.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The Company records placement revenues at the point in time the placement is complete and the amounts are reasonably determined. The Company has determined that the trade date is the appropriate point in time to recognize revenue for the placement transactions as there are no significant actions which the Company needs to take subsequent to this date and the purchaser obtains the control and benefit of the capital markets offering at that point. The Company will receive payment upon the closing of the placement transaction. For placements that include ongoing management fees and/or performance fees, the Company will recognize such revenues, once determined, quarterly and/or annually as outlined in the related contracts.

The Company's primary function is to assist in the sale of mutual fund interests in Kellner Funds (specifically GAKIX and GAKAX) and hedge fund interests in KC Absolute Merger Fund ("KCAM") to potential participants. Under the terms of its arrangement with its affiliate, Kellner Management LP ("Kellner"), the Company is entitled to receive a fee for its services based on the applicable NAV of participants that were introduced to the mutual funds and/or the hedge fund by the Company. The Company's performance obligation under this contract is the marketing of the mutual fund interests and hedge fund interests, and is considered by the Company as satisfied at the point in time the service is provided.

The Company's fee is based on the NAVs as of the last day of each quarterly valuation date as multiplied by the applicable quarterly fee rate (which varies based on the salesperson and the ultimate original source of the introduction). The Company's fee is calculated quarterly and payable in arrears.

HITHERLANE PARTNERS, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Concentration of Revenue

For the year ended December 31, 2022, two customers accounted for approximately 86% of the Company's revenue, of which one customer is a related party that accounted for approximately 29% of revenue (see Note 5).

Disaggregation of Revenue

A portion of the Company's revenues for the year ended December 31, 2022 originated from its arrangement with its affiliate. The Company also generates placement fee income earned from investment referrals based on various contracts it has with investment companies. Placement fees from these private placement transactions amounted to $95,596 and are included in placement fees on the statement of operations.

Receivables and Contract Balances

Receivables arise when the Company has an unconditional right to receive payment under a contract with a customer and are derecognized when the cash is received. As of January 1, 2022, the receivables balance was $387,246. At December 31, 2022, there were receivables of $32,751 reported in the statement of financial condition.

Contract assets arise when the revenue associated with the contract is recognized prior to the Company's unconditional right to receive payment under a contract with a customer (i.e., unbilled receivable) and are derecognized when either it becomes a receivable or the cash is received.

Contract liabilities arise when customers remit contractual cash payments in advance of the Company satisfying its performance obligations under the contract and are derecognized when the revenue associated with the contract is recognized when the performance obligation is satisfied.

As of January 1, 2022 and during the year the Company had no contract assets or contract liabilities. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had no contract assets or contract liabilities.

Significant Judgments

Revenue from contracts with customers includes placement fees. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms, which may at times involve significant judgment.

HITHERLANE PARTNERS, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Allowance for Credit Losses

The allowance for credit losses is based on the Company's expectation of the collectability of financial instruments, including fees and other receivables utilizing the CECL framework. The Company considers factors such as historical experience, credit quality, age of balances and current and future economic conditions that may affect the Company's expectation of the collectability in determining the allowance for credit losses. The Company's expectation is that the credit risk associated with fees and other receivables is not significant. Accordingly, the Company has not provided an allowance for credit losses at December 31, 2022.

Income Taxes

The net income or loss of the Company flows through to its member. Accordingly, no federal income taxes are included in the accompanying financial statements. The Company is also subject to various state income taxes.

The Company is subject to the New York City unincorporated business tax. There was no tax liability for the year ended December 31, 2022.

At December 31, 2022, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will always be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require. As of December 31, 2022, open Federal tax years include the tax years ended December 31, 2019 through December 31, 2021.

The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense. No amounts were accrued for the payment of interest and penalties at December 31, 2022.

Note 3 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness. At December 31, 2022, the Company had a net capital requirement of $5,663. Actual net capital was calculated to be $272,061 at December 31, 2022, which was $266,398 in excess of its net capital requirement of $5,663.

Note 4 - Contingencies

The nature of the Company's business subjects it to various claims, regulatory examinations, and other proceedings in the ordinary course of business. The ultimate outcome of any such actions against the Company could have an adverse impact on the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

HITHERLANE PARTNERS, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Note 5 - Related Party Transactions

Such income totaled $45,131, is approximately 29% of the Company's revenue, and is included in placement fees on the accompanying statement of operations. Estimated placement fees of $10,500 are due from Kellner Management, LP as of December 31, 2022 and are included in fees receivable on the accompanying statement of financial condition.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member and Those Charge With Governance of Hitherlane Partners, LLC:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Report pursuant to SEC Rule 17a-5, in which Corporate Partners & Co. LLC (the "Company") stated the following:

- (1) The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3, and
- (2) The Company is filing this Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to private placement of securities (the firm will act as placement agent for interest in investment vehicles sponsored by affiliated and non-affiliated entities, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the provisions contemplated by footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the statements referred to above. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions contemplated by footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions.

² Footnote 74 of Release No. 34-70073 and the related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions contemplate a broker-dealer that: (1) does not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (2) does not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) does not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year. A broker-dealer that has one or more deviations from the practices described in Footnote 74 and the SEC Staff FAQs should consider whether it is appropriate for the broker-dealer to file a compliance report as opposed to an exemption report taking into account the nature and extent of the deviation or deviations.
