KBC Securities USA LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2019

1. Organization

KBC Securities USA LLC, (the “Company”), a Delaware limited liability company, was formed on December 8, 1998. KBC Bank NV, (“KBCBNV”) is the sole member of the Company (the “Parent”). KBC Group NV is the ultimate Parent Company of KBCBN.

The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company is an Introducing Broker Dealer which acts as a chaperoning broker-dealer on an agency basis Pursuant to Rule 15a-6 with its foreign affiliate. The Company participates as a co-manager into the syndicated issuance of corporate and financial institution bonds when it engages in “all-or-none” economics offerings. The Company also participates in the syndicate as a co-manager in a passive role in the private placement of equity securities with no active involvement in the structuring or origination of the transaction. The Company acts on a selling agent capacity when it participates in the placement of EUR new and/or existing listed equity instruments of listed or non-listed issuers, where the participation is limited to the placement of shares only with US qualified investors.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of Financial Statement Presentation

The Company's Statement of Financial Condition is prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

b) Leases

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) which requires lessees to recognize all leases longer than twelve months on the balance sheet as a lease liability with a corresponding right-of-use (“ROU”) asset. The lessor accounting is largely unchanged. The right-of-use asset and lease liability will initially be measured using the present value of the remaining rental payments. Operating leases will recognize straight-line expense while finance leases will recognize a front-loaded expense comprising both interest accrued on the lease liability and amortization of the right-of-use asset (similar to the existing capital lease guidance). This ASU requires leases to be classified as finance or operating using principles similar to existing lease accounting, but eliminates the ‘bright line’ classification tests. The classification will affect the pattern and classification of expense recognition in the Statement of Operations. Additionally, certain quantitative and qualitative disclosures will be required. The FASB has subsequently issued additional ASUs (ASU 2018-1, 2018-10 and 2018-11) relating to land easement practical expedient, clarifying guidance on several aspects of the issued standard and an optional transitional relief.

The amendments in ASU 842 are effective for public companies beginning January 1, 2019. The Company has an expense sharing agreement with its Parent which governs the allocation of expenses with respect to rent for office. The Company has assessed this arrangement related to the utilization of the respective office space and has determined that the expense sharing agreement is not within the scope of the new guidance.

c) Revenue and Expense Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with FASB ASC ("Topic 606"). Topic 606 requires that an entity recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

The Company's contracts are wholly in scope of Topic 606. Each transaction is considered to be a single performance obligation. Commissions consists of 15a-6 transactions, there are no variable elements in each contract. Commissions earned for acting as a chaperoning broker dealer for its affiliate are recorded on a trade date basis as securities transactions occur. Underwriting fees consist of bonds economics/equity private placement transactions and equity capital markets transactions there is a variable element in the contract whereby success fees are dictated by the fee structure and the amount expected to earn are based on the total placement by the Company.

The Company when participating in bonds economics/equity private placement transactions the entire issue must be sold or the offering is void. With this arrangement the lead underwriter has the ability to cancel the offering if the entire issue is not sold. Fee revenue relating to underwriting commitments is recorded when all significant items relating to the underwriting cycle have been completed and the amount of the underwriting revenue has been determined. These fees are non-recurring in nature, and are recognized on a trade date basis.

d) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles which requires management to use its judgment in making certain estimates. Such estimates may differ from the amounts ultimately realized due to uncertainties inherent in any such estimation process.

e) Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. Federal income tax purposes and included in the Federal, New York State and New York City income tax returns of the Parent Company. Current and deferred taxes are allocated to the Company under the “benefits for loss” method. Under this method, the company is assumed to file separate returns with the taxing authority, thereby reporting their share of taxable income or loss which is then settled as an intercompany transaction with the Parent Company.

ASC No. 740 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes by prescribing a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC No. 740 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. The Company accounts for interest and penalties as a component of income tax expense. At December 31, 2019, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition.

State and Local Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance if it is more likely than not that some portion or the entire deferred tax asset will not be realized.

f) Other

The Company follows FASB ASC No. 450, Contingencies which recognizes the contingency when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated.

	Deferred Tax Assets	Valuation Allowance	Net Deferred Tax Assets
	(In Thousands)
