PART I

ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS.

Clamshell Enterprises, Inc. (the “Company”), was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on June 4, 1999. The Company was formed as a “blind pool” or “blank check” company whose business plan was to seek to acquire a business opportunity through completion of a merger, exchange of stock, or other similar type of transaction. In furtherance of its business plan, the Company voluntarily elected to become subject to the periodic reporting obligations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by filing a registration statement on Form 10SB.

The Company’s registration statement on Form 10SB was filed on May 6, 2002, and became effective on or about July 5, 2002. Since that date, the Company has filed all required periodic reports, and as of December 31, 2002, the Company is current in satisfaction of its reporting obligations.

From the date of its incorporation through December 31, 2002 (the end of the fiscal year for which this report is filed), the only business activities of the Company were the organizational activities described above, including registration under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and efforts to locate a suitable business opportunity for acquisition. As of December 31, 2002, the Company had no full-time employees, owned no real estate and had not commenced any commercial operations.

Throughout the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002, the Company’s search for a business opportunity was directed toward enterprises which expressed a desire to become a public corporation and which have a business plan designed to allow them to take advantage of opportunities available to public entities. This included entities which had been recently organized with no operating history, or a history of losses attributable to under-capitalization or other factors, entities in need of funds to develop a new product or service or to expand into a new market, entities which intended to use their securities to make acquisitions, and entities which had a combination of these characteristics. However, as of December 31, 2002, the Company had not identified any business opportunity that it planned to pursue and had not reached any agreement or definitive understanding with any person concerning an acquisition.

Subsequent to December 31, 2002, the Company identified a business opportunity it intends to acquire and on January 31, 2003, there was a change of control of the Company which was the first step in the acquisition process. The change of control occurred as a result of closing under a Stock Purchase Agreement dated January 31, 2003, pursuant to which ShutterPort, Inc., a Florida corporation, purchased a total of 3,331,000 shares, representing approximately 92.9% of the issued and outstanding common stock of the Company. The Company reported details regarding the change of control in a filing on Form 8K dated January 31, 2003.

ShutterPort, Inc. purchased the shares of the Company in anticipation of the subsequent completion of a share exchange transaction in which ShutterPort, Inc. would become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. After completion of the share exchange transaction, the Company will not itself conduct business operations, but will carry on business activities through its wholly owned subsidiary, ShutterPort, Inc.

The business activities to be carried on by the Company through its wholly-owned subsidiary, will include acting as a web based application developer and branded service provider that licenses branded portal and web traffic applications to companies and individuals in a variety of industries. Through its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Company will act as an aggregator (to bring a variety of interests to the portal), a facilitator (to assist users in communicating with each other) and as an infomediary (to gather and supply information to users). Its business plan will be to build a network of customizable, comprehensive, user friendly, business and community portals on the World Wide Web and to become a leader in the rewards/loyalty industry.

Additional information regarding the anticipated business activities of the Company following completion of the share exchange transaction with ShutterPort, Inc., will be included in a subsequent on Form 8K.

ITEM 2. DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.

As of December 31, 2002, the Company currently has no investments in real estate, real estate mortgages, or real estate securities. As of that date, the Company maintained a mailing address at 5150 Tamiami Trail North, Suite 202, Naples, Florida 34103 for which it pays no rent.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Company is not a party to any pending legal proceedings, and no such proceedings are known to be contemplated. No director, officer or affiliate of the Company, and no owner of record or beneficial owner of more than five percent (5%) of the securities of the Company, or any associate of any such director, officer or security holder is a party adverse to the Company or has a material interest adverse to the Company in reference to pending litigation.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

No matters were submitted to a vote of the security holders of the Company during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year which ended December 31, 2002.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

There is not currently a public trading market for the Company's securities. As of December 31, 2002, such securities were held of record by a total of approximately 45 persons.

No dividends have been declared or paid on the Company's securities, and it is not anticipated that any dividends will be declared or paid in the foreseeable future.

ITEM 6. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

Certain statements in this report, including statements in the following discussion which are not statements of historical fact, are what are known as "forward looking statements," which are basically statements about the future. For that reason, these statements involve risk and uncertainty since no one can accurately predict the future. Words such as "plans," "intends," "will," "hopes," "seeks," "anticipates," "expects" and the like often identify such forward looking statements, but are not the only indication that a statement is a forward-looking statement. Such forward looking statements include statements concerning our plans and objectives with respect to the present and future operations of the Company, and statements which express or imply that such present and future operations will or may produce revenues, income or profits. Numerous factors and future events could cause the Company to change such plans and objectives or fail to successfully implement such plans or achieve such objectives, or cause such present and future operations to fail to produce revenues, income or profits. Therefore, the reader is advised that the following discussion should be considered in light of the discussion of risks and other factors contained in this report on Form 10KSB and in the Company's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. No statements contained in the following discussion should be construed as a guarantee or assurance of future performance or future results.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's balance sheet as of December 31, 2002 reflects current assets of $4,233 and current liabilities of $12,603, resulting in a stockholder's deficiency of $8,370. The Company does not have sufficient liquidity or capital resources to pay its current liabilities or to pay any additional liabilities it may incur. Accordingly, the Company will require additional capital in order to meet its cash needs for the next year, including the costs of compliance with the continuing reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

No specific commitments to provide additional funds have been made by management or other stockholders, and the Company has no current plans, proposals, arrangements or understandings with respect to the sale or issuance of additional securities prior to the location of a merger or acquisition candidate. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that any additional funds will be available to the Company to allow it to cover its expenses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that additional funds are required, the Company anticipates receiving such funds in the form of loans or advancements from current shareholders without issuance of additional shares or other securities, or through the private placement of restricted securities.

Results of Operations

During the period from June 7, 1999 (inception) through December 31, 2002, the Company has engaged in no significant operations other than organizational activities, acquisition of capital and preparation and filing of its registration statement on Form 10-SB under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, compliance with its periodical reporting requirements and initial efforts to locate a suitable merger or acquisition candidate. No revenues were received by the Company during this period, and the Company has accumulated a deficit of $ 30,843 during the development stage.

Plan of Operations

Subsequent to the end of the fiscal year, there was a change of control of the Company which was completed as the first step in the process of acquisition of a business opportunity. Therefore, the Company's plan of operations for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, is to complete the business acquisition transaction with ShutterPort, Inc., a Florida corporation, and thereafter to conduct business operations through ShutterPort, Inc., as its wholly owned subsidiary.

During the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002, ShutterPort, Inc., had limited operations and, based upon information provided by ShutterPort, Inc., incurred an operating loss of approximately $157,000. Following completion of the share exchange transaction, the audited financial statements of ShutterPort, Inc., for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002, are expected to be filed as an exhibit to a current report of Form 8K.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Clamshell Enterprises, Inc. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' deficiency, and cash flows and for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Clamshell Enterprises, Inc. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and has a net capital deficiency that raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans with regard to these matters are also described in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

CLAMSHELL ENTERPRISES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. THE COMPANY, MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND PLAN OF OPERATION

On June 4, 1999, Clamshell Enterprises, Inc. (the “Company”), was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada. The Company is a “blank check” company. A “blank check” company is a company that has no specific business plan or purpose or has indicated that its business plan is to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unidentified company or companies. The Company has been exploring sources to obtain additional equity or debt financing. The Company has also indicated its intention to participate in one or more as yet unidentified business ventures, which management will select after reviewing the business opportunities for their profit or growth potential.

Due to the Company having no specific business plan or operations, the Company is not a “Development Stage Company” as defined by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), as was reported in the Company’s prior financial statements. Therefore, cumulative amounts are not reported on the statements of operations and cash flows.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company has experienced no significant change in liquidity, capital resources or stockholders’ equity other than the receipt of proceeds for its operating expenses. Substantially all of such funds have been used to pay expenses incurred by the Company.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

For the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company has engaged in no significant operations other than the acquisition of capital for general and administrative expenses and preparation for registration of its securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. During this period, the Company received no operating revenues. General and administrative expenses consist primarily of professional, consulting and other fees.

NEED FOR ADDITIONAL FINANCING

The Company’s existing capital will not be sufficient to meet the Company’s cash needs, including the costs of completing its registration and complying with its continuing reporting obligation under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, additional capital will be required.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

STATEMENT OF CASH FLOWS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity at three months or less to be cash equivalents.

No cash was paid for interest and taxes for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001.

START-UP COSTS

The Company adopted the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Statement of Position (SOP) 98-5, "Reporting on the Costs of Start-Up Activities". The SOP provides guidance on the financial reporting of start-up and organization costs and requires such costs to be expensed as incurred.

The start-up costs consist principally of professional, consulting and other fees.

NET LOSS PER COMMON SHARE

The net loss per common share is computed by dividing the net loss for the period by the weighted average number of shares outstanding at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the accompanying financial statements, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments ("SFAS 107") requires entities to disclose the fair values of financial instruments except when it is not practicable to do so. Under SFAS No. 107, it is not practicable to make this disclosure when the costs of formulating the estimated values exceed the benefit when considering how meaningful the information would be to financial statement users.

As a result of the difficulties presented in the valuation of due from related party and loans payable to officers/stockholders, because of their related party nature, estimating the fair value of these financial instruments is not considered practicable. The fair values of all other assets and liabilities do not differ materially from their carrying amounts. None of the above is derivative financial instruments and none are held for trading purposes.

3. INCOME TAXES

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to reverse. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities from a change in tax rates is recognized in the statement of operations in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company has not yet commenced an active trade or business, therefore, the Company did not provide any current or deferred federal or state income tax provision or benefit for any of the periods presented because to date, it has experienced operating losses. The Company has a federal net operating loss carryforward of approximately $31,000 expiring in the years 2019 through 2022. The tax benefit of this net operating loss, based on effective tax rate of 40% is approximately $12,000 and has been offset by a full valuation allowance. For the year ended December 31, 2002, based on effective tax rate of 40%, the valuation allowance increased by approximately $6,000.

4. CAPITAL STOCK

During the fourth quarter of 2001, 22,100 shares of common stock were issued to various shareholders for $.50 per share to raise additional capital necessary to finance the company's operations. The price of $.50 per share, which exceeds the book value per share, was determined as fair value by management as there was no public market for the stock.

On December 19, 2001, 1,000,000 shares of common stock were issued to a shareholder for $.001 per share to raise additional capital necessary to finance the Company's operations.

On April 29, 2002, the Company amended its Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of common stock, par value $.001, shares authorized to be issued from 10,000,000 to 50,000,000 shares, and authorized 5,000,000 preferred stock shares, par value $.01. No preferred stock has been issued as of December 31, 2002.

On July 2, 2002, 1,100 shares of common stock were issued to a shareholder for $.10 per share to raise additional capital necessary to finance the Company's operations. Compliance With Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

The Company's directors have each filed an Annual Statement of Changes in Beneficial Ownership on Form 5.

ITEM 10. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION.

No officer or director received any remuneration from the Company during the fiscal year. Until the Company acquires additional capital, it is not intended that any officer or director will receive compensation from the Company other than reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the Company. See “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.” The Company has no stock option, retirement, pension, or profit-sharing programs for the benefit of directors, officers or other employees, but the Board of Directors may recommend adoption of one or more such programs in the future.

ITEM 11. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS.

The following table sets forth, as of the end of the Company’s most recent fiscal year, the number of shares of Common Stock owned of record and beneficially by executive officers, directors and persons who hold 5.0% or more of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company. Also included are the shares held by all executive officers and directors as a group.

ITEM 12. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS.

No officer, director, promoter, affiliate or beneficial owner of the Company has, has had, or proposes to have, any direct or indirect material interest in any asset proposed to be acquired by the Company through security holdings, contracts, options, or otherwise.

The Company has adopted a policy under which any consulting or finder's fee that may be paid to a third party for consulting services to assist management in evaluating a prospective business opportunity would be paid in stock rather than in cash. Any such issuance of stock would be made on an ad hoc basis. Accordingly, the Company is unable to predict whether, or in what amount, such stock issuance might be made.

It is not currently anticipated that any salary, consulting fee, or finder's fee shall be paid to any of the Company's directors or executive officers, or to any other affiliate of the Company except as described under "Executive Compensation" above.

Although management has no current plans to cause the Company to do so, it is possible that the Company may enter into an agreement with an acquisition candidate requiring the sale of all or a portion of the Common Stock held by the Company's current stockholders to the acquisition candidate or principals thereof, or to other individual or business entities, or requiring some other form of payment to the Company's current stockholders, or requiring the future employment of specified officers and payment of salaries to them. It is more likely than not that any sale of securities by the Company's current stockholders to an acquisition candidate would be at a price substantially higher than that originally paid by such stockholders. Any payment to current stockholders in the context of an acquisition involving the Company would be determined entirely by the largely unforeseeable terms of a future agreement with an unidentified business entity.
