Note 8. Segments, page 34

1. We note your response to comment 6. You state the CODM does not use information by products or services for allocating resources and assessing performance of the segment. Please tell us if discrete financial information by products or services (or business lines) is provided to the CODM. Please also tell us whether there exist any "components of an entity" (refer to ASC Master Glossary) other than the nine geographically-based operating segments you identified in your response. If so, please identify those for us.
