ITEM 7.01 REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

The information contained herein includes a press release dated April 28, 2006 in which Sona Development Corp. ("Sona") announced the discontinuation of efforts to acquire Idea One, Inc. ("Idea One"). The press release is incorporated by reference into this Item 7.01 in satisfaction of the public disclosure requirements of Regulation FD.

This information is "furnished" and not "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. However, this information may be incorporated by reference in another filing under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 or the Securities Act of 1933 only if, and to the extent that, such subsequent filing specifically references the information incorporated by reference herein.

ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

Sona executed a Letter of Intent on May 20, 2004, as amended, to acquire Idea One, through merger or acquisition. Idea One is a research and development company focused on the development of magnesium rechargeable batteries. Idea One was unable to satisfy certain conditions of the Letter of Intent which caused Sona to abandon its efforts to acquire Idea One.

Over the term of the Letter of Intent Sona loaned Idea One a total of $550,000 through a series of convertible promissory notes. The convertible promissory notes, as amended, were to automatically convert into Idea One common shares in the event that the transactions contemplated in the Letter of Intent were not completed by April 30, 2006. Since the transactions contemplated in the Letter of Intent will not be completed by April 30, 2006, Sona and Idea One have agreed to convert the outstanding balance, including accrued interest, of $595,642 as of April 30, 2006, at $0.40 per share into 1,489,106 shares of Idea One, on or about May 1, 2006, in full satisfaction of the debt.

NEWS RELEASE

SONA DISCONTINUES EFFORT TO ACQUIRE RECHARGEABLE MAGNESIUM BATTERY DEVELOPER

April 28, 2006 - Vancouver, British Columbia - Sona Development Corp. (OTCBB:SDVC) ("Sona") announced today that it will discontinue efforts to acquire Idea One, Inc. ("Idea One"), a research and development company that has built the world's first successfully lab-tested magnesium rechargeable battery.

Sona executed a Letter of Intent on May 20, 2004, as amended, to acquire Idea One through merger or acquisition. Idea One was unable to satisfy certain conditions of the Letter of Intent which caused Sona to abandon its efforts to acquire Idea One.

Over the term of the Letter of Intent Sona loaned Idea One a total of $550,000 through a series of convertible promissory notes. The convertible promissory notes, as amended, were to automatically convert into Idea One common shares in the event that the transactions contemplated in the Letter of Intent were not completed by April 30, 2006. Since the transactions contemplated in the Letter of Intent will not be completed by April 30, 2006, Sona and Idea One have agreed to convert the outstanding balance, including accrued interest, of $595,642 as of April 30, 2006, at $0.40 per share into 1,489,106 shares of Idea One, on or about May 1, 2006, in full satisfaction of the debt.

A number of statements contained in this press release are forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Act of 1995. These forward looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including timely development, and market acceptance of products and technologies, competitive market conditions, successful integration of acquisitions and the ability to secure additional sources of financing. The actual results that Sona may achieve could differ materially from any forward-looking statements due to such risks and uncertainties. Sona encourages the public to read the information provided here in conjunction with its most recent filings on Form 10KSB and Form 10QSB. Sona's public filings may be viewed at www.sec.gov.
