NASPERS LAUNCHES CAPITAL RAISING FOR EXPANSION

Naspers today announced a capital raising by way of a private placement to institutional investors of new Naspers N shares ("New N Shares"), to raise the ZAR-equivalent of approximately US$750 million (the "Capital Raising"). The Capital Raising will be undertaken primarily by way of an issue of shares for cash under the JSE Listings Requirements. Application will be made for the New N Shares to be admitted to trading on the JSE Limited.

In addition, Naspers has granted an over-allotment option, pursuant to which it may issue up to an additional 15% of the number of shares placed in terms of the Capital Raising in order to cover over-allotments, if any.

Use of Proceeds

Proceeds from the Capital Raising will be used in the execution of Naspers's international investment strategy and to replenish internal resources utilised for the purposes of Naspers' acquisitions of Russian internet portal Mail.ru, Brazilian magazine publisher Abril and Chinese sports publisher Titan. Naspers is currently pursuing several acquisitions, some of which may be material, although no binding agreements have been entered into at this stage.

Recent Financial Performance Update

Naspers published its interim results for the six months ended 30 September 2006 on 29 November 2006. The Group has not published financial information in respect of the three month period to 31 December 2006. However, based on currently available information, the Group continues to grow. Revenue growth was largely driven by an increase of an additional 100,000 pay television subscribers for the period whilst advertising revenues continued to show growth. The internet businesses maintained their market leadership and the technology businesses showed progress.

Operating profit before amortisation and other gains/losses continued to grow at similar levels to that reported in September 2006.

However, investors need to be aware that the Group remains subject to the trading, political, regulatory and technological risks previously identified, as well as those which the Group may currently not foresee.

The above financial information has not been reviewed or audited by the Group's auditors.
