Mr. Hampson:

We have reviewed your response letter dated April 23, 2010 and have the following comments. We have limited our review of your filings to those issues we have addressed in our comments. Where indicated, we think you should revise your documents in response to these comments. Also, please respond supplementally to our comments regarding your Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009. If you disagree, we will consider your explanation as to why our comment is inapplicable or a revision is unnecessary. Please be as detailed as necessary in your explanation. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure. After reviewing this information, we may raise additional comments.

Risk Factors, page 6

1. We note in your Form 10-K filed for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 that your disclosure controls and procedures remain ineffective as of December 31, 2009. Please add a risk factor regarding the ineffectiveness of your disclosure controls and procedures. For the distinction between disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls over financial reporting, please see Rule 15d-15(e)-(f) of the Exchange Act.

6. We note that your management has concluded that your disclosure controls and procedures are not effective as of the end of the period covered by the report. Exhibit 31.1

7. We note that the wording of your certifications provided pursuant to Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 continues to vary from the language set forth in Item 601(b)(31) of Regulation S-K. In this regard, paragraph two includes the word “annual” before the word “report.” Also, you continue to include “Live Current Media Inc. Certifications Pursuant to Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002” as the title to the certification when this is not set forth in the form. Your certifications should appear exactly as set forth in current Item 601(b)(31) of Regulation S-K. Please make appropriate changes to your future certifications and confirm your intention to do so.
