The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on November 30, 2009, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The Commission delivered or attempted to deliver the OIP to Respondents by December 10, 2009, in a manner that complies with Rule 141 of the Commission's Rules of Practice. When the time for filing Answers had expired, no Answers had been received. By Order dated January 6, 2010, I required Respondents to show cause why they should not be held in default and why the registrations of their registered securities should not be revoked. Petromin Resources, Ltd., then submitted a settlement offer which the Commission accepted on January 29, 2010. The time for filing replies to the Order to Show Cause has expired as to the other seven Respondents, and no replies have been received. Accordingly, these seven Respondents are in default. See Rules 155(a) and 220(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. As permitted by Rule of Practice 155(a), the following allegations of the OIP are deemed to be true.

As discussed in more detail above, these seven Respondents are delinquent in their periodic filings with the Commission and have repeatedly failed to meet their obligations to file timely periodic reports. Exchange Act Section 13(a) and the rules promulgated thereunder require issuers of securities registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 to file with the Commission current and accurate information in periodic reports, even if the registration is voluntary under Section 12(g). Specifically, Rule 13a-1 requires issuers to file annual reports and Rule 13a-13 requires domestic issuers to file quarterly reports. Rule 13a-16 requires foreign private issuers to furnish quarterly and other reports to the Commission under cover of Form 6-K if they make or are required to make the information public under the laws of the jurisdiction of their domicile or in which they are incorporated or organized; if they file or are required to file information with a stock exchange on which their securities are traded and the information was made public by the exchange; or if they distribute or are required to distribute information to their security holders.

As a result of the foregoing, these seven Respondents failed to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 or 13a-16 thereunder.

IT IS ORDERED THAT, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrations of each class of the registered securities of Pacific Acquisition Corp.
