The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on April 1, 2008, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). On September 28, 1998, Acme Metals filed a Chapter 11 petition with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. The case was terminated on September 30, 2004.

By the actions described above, Acme Metal, Act International, and Advanced Interactive have violated Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act and Exchange Act Rules 13a-1, 13a-13, and 13a-16. These rules require an issuer with securities registered pursuant to Section 12(g) to file annual reports, and that domestic issuers file quarterly reports, and that foreign private issuers file quarterly or other reports with the Commission under certain circumstances.

Order

Section 12(j) of the Exchange Act provides that the Commission may, as it deems necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors, deny, suspend the effective date of, suspend for a period not to exceed twelve months, or revoke the registration of a security, if the Commission finds that the issuer has failed to comply with any provision of the Exchange Act or Exchange Act rules.
