

November 10, 2004

Dear Aventis U.S. Shareholder:

As a result of the broad success of its revised offers, which were accepted by an overwhelming number of Aventis shareholders worldwide, Sanofi-Aventis (formerly known as Sanofi-Synthelabo) now owns 97.98% of the share capital of Aventis and has created the largest pharmaceutical group in Europe and the third largest in the world.

In order to create a more simplified legal structure that better reflects the operational organization of the new group, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis have entered into a merger agreement, dated October 14, 2004, that provides for the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, with Sanofi-Aventis continuing as the surviving company. In the merger, all of the assets and liabilities of Aventis will be transferred in accordance with French law to Sanofi-Aventis, and Aventis will be dissolved, without any liquidation distribution.

If you hold Aventis ordinary shares, as a result of the merger, by operation of French law, you will become a shareholder of Sanofi-Aventis and will be entitled to receive 27 newly issued Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, nominal value €2 per share, for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares, nominal value €3.82 per share, that you hold at the effective time of the merger (or approximately 1.1739 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share). We expect the merger to be effective on December 31, 2004.

If you hold Aventis ADSs (each Aventis ADS representing one Aventis ordinary share), as a result of the merger, your Aventis ADSs will represent an ownership interest in the merger consideration received by the Aventis depositary in respect of the deposited Aventis ordinary shares underlying your Aventis ADSs. However, in connection with the merger, Aventis has amended, and intends to terminate, the Aventis deposit agreement with the result that you will be entitled to receive your interest in the merger consideration in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs (each Sanofi-Aventis ADS representing one-half of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share). Accordingly, you will be entitled to receive 54 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for every 23 Aventis ADSs that you hold at the effective time of the merger. See “Treatment of Aventis ADSs in Connection with the Merger”.

Aventis has scheduled an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders on December 13, 2004 to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement. In general, holders of Aventis ordinary shares that have properly registered their shares at least two days before the meeting will be entitled to vote at the extraordinary general meeting or any adjourned or postponed meeting. However, because Sanofi-Aventis owns 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares (representing 98.02% of the votes entitled to be cast at the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders), Sanofi-Aventis can cause the merger agreement to be approved by Aventis shareholders without the affirmative vote of any other Aventis shareholder and intends to do so. Therefore, neither Aventis nor Sanofi-Aventis is asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

The accompanying document provides a detailed description of the proposed merger and the merger consideration that you will receive. We urge you to read it carefully. For a discussion of the risk factors that you should consider carefully in evaluating the merger, see “Risk Factors” beginning on page 20.

Sincerely,

Gérard Le Fur
Chairman of the Aventis Management Board

Sincerely,

Jean-François Dehecq
Chairman of the Aventis Supervisory Board

Q: Who is Sanofi-Aventis? (See page 76)

A: Sanofi-Aventis was formerly known as Sanofi-Synthelabo. We changed our name to Sanofi-Aventis, effective as of the settlement of our offers for Aventis, on August 20, 2004. At that time, we acquired control of Aventis. Through our acquisition of Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis has created the largest pharmaceuticals group in Europe and the third largest in the world.

Q: What is the relationship between Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis after the closing of the offers? (See page 39)

A: After accepting for purchase or exchange all of the Aventis ordinary shares tendered into our offers during both the initial offering period ended July 30, 2004, and the subsequent offering period ended September 6, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis holds 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares, representing 97.98% of the share capital and 98.02% of the voting rights of Aventis outstanding as of October 8, 2004. Aventis is currently a subsidiary of Sanofi-Aventis.

Q: Why is Aventis going to merge with Sanofi-Aventis? (See page 44)

A: Sanofi-Aventis believes that merging Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, with Sanofi-Aventis continuing as the surviving company, will result in a simplified legal structure, which will facilitate the integration of the two groups and allow a more direct and effective management of the combined group's operating assets. Sanofi-Aventis also believes that by exchanging their Aventis securities in connection with the merger, holders of Aventis securities (and holders of Aventis stock options) will be able to benefit from the greater liquidity of Sanofi-Aventis securities.

A: At the effective time of the merger,

- Aventis will transfer all its assets and liabilities to Sanofi-Aventis by operation of law;
- Aventis will be dissolved, without any liquidating distribution, and will cease to exist; and
- All of the Aventis ordinary shares (other than Aventis ordinary shares held by Aventis, if any, or by Sanofi-Aventis) will be exchanged for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

Q: I hold Aventis ordinary shares; what consideration will I receive in the merger? (See page 46)

A: If you hold Aventis ordinary shares, in the merger you will receive 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold as of the effective time of the merger (or approximately 1.17391 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share).

Q: I hold Aventis ordinary shares; how does the merger consideration compare to what I would have received had I tendered my Aventis ordinary shares in the offers?

A: The merger consideration is based on the consideration that Sanofi-Aventis offered under the all stock election in the revised offer, before the downward adjustment in respect of the Aventis 2003 dividend. Under the all stock election in the offer, before this adjustment, we offered to exchange 1.1739 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share, which is substantially the same exchange ratio as the 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you will receive in the merger. After adjustment in respect of the €0.82 Aventis 2003 dividend, in the revised offer, we offered to exchange 1.1600 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share, which is less than the merger exchange ratio. However, you will not be entitled to receive the dividend that Sanofi-Aventis paid on September 30, 2004 in respect of its 2003 results on the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that you receive in the merger.

Q: I hold Aventis ordinary shares but do not hold a multiple of 23 Aventis ordinary shares. How will fractional shares be treated in the merger? (See page 47)

A: Sanofi-Aventis will not issue any fractional interests in any Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in the merger. Accordingly, if you hold Aventis ordinary shares, you will only be entitled to receive your merger consideration in full in respect of round-number multiples of 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold. As a result, in order to receive all your merger consideration, you must purchase or sell a number of Aventis ordinary shares such that you hold a round-number multiple of 23 Aventis shares.

To facilitate this, after the effective time of the merger, Aventis ordinary shares (which will then represent only the right to receive the merger consideration) will continue to trade for one month on the Premier marché, and then for six months on the delisted securities market (Compartiment des valeurs radiées) of Euronext Paris. Subject to the effectiveness of the merger, until March 31, 2005, Sanofi-Aventis will pay the brokerage fees and value-added tax incurred by Aventis shareholders, up to 0.3% of the price of each Aventis ordinary share bought or sold and related to the purchase or sale of up to a maximum of 22 Aventis ordinary shares per holder.

Q: I hold Aventis ADSs; what consideration will I receive in connection with the merger? (See page 53)

A: In the merger, all of the Aventis ordinary shares deposited with the Aventis depositary and represented by your Aventis ADSs will be exchanged for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares. Without action on our part, your Aventis ADSs would otherwise come to represent Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares. However, in connection with the merger, Aventis has caused the depositary to amend the deposit agreement to provide that on termination of the deposit agreement your ownership interest in the deposited Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares will be delivered to you in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, together with cash in lieu of any fractional interest in any Sanofi-Aventis ADS.

At the effective time of the merger, the Aventis deposit agreement will terminate. As a result, you will be entitled to receive 54 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs (each Sanofi-Aventis ADS representing one half of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share) for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold as of the effective time (or approximately 2.3478 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS).

If you hold your Aventis ADSs in book-entry form, you will automatically receive your new Sanofi-Aventis ADSs after the effective time of the merger and on termination of the Aventis deposit agreement.

If you hold your Aventis ADSs in the form of a physical certificate or American depositary receipt, or ADR, you will have to surrender your physical ADR for cancellation to The Bank of New York, the depositary, before your new Sanofi-Aventis ADSs will be issued. The depositary, acting as exchange agent, will provide registered holders of Aventis ADRs with the forms necessary to make this exchange, which will include instructions on how to surrender your Aventis ADRs evidencing your Aventis ADSs to the depositary.

Q: I hold Aventis ADSs; how does the merger consideration compare to what I would have received had I tendered my Aventis ADSs in the U.S. offer?

A: The merger consideration is based on the consideration that Sanofi-Aventis offered under the all stock election in the revised offer, before the downward adjustment in respect of the Aventis 2003 dividend. Under the all stock election in the U.S. offer, before this adjustment, we offered to exchange 2.3478 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS, which is substantially the same exchange ratio as the 54 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for every 23 Aventis ADSs that you will receive in the merger. After adjustment in respect of the €0.82 Aventis 2003 dividend, in the U.S. offer, we offered to exchange 2.3200 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS, which is less than the merger exchange ratio. However, you will not be entitled to receive the dividend that Sanofi-Aventis paid on September 30, 2004 in respect of its 2003 results on the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that you receive in the merger.

Q: I hold Aventis ADSs; will I have to pay any fees to the depositary in order to receive my new Sanofi-Aventis ADSs? (See page 53)

A: No. If you hold Aventis ADSs, you will not have to pay any fees to the depositary in respect of the cancellation of your Aventis ADSs or the issuance of the new Sanofi-Aventis ADSs you will receive in connection with the merger.

Q: I hold Aventis ADSs but do not hold a multiple of 23 Aventis ADSs. How will fractional ADSs be treated in the merger? (See page 53)

A: If you hold Aventis ADSs, after the merger you will be entitled to receive 54 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs in respect of every 23 Aventis ADSs you hold immediately prior to the merger. However, no fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs will be issued in connection with the merger. In lieu of any fraction of a Sanofi-Aventis ADS that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive in connection with the merger, you will receive an amount in cash equal to the product of that fraction and the average sales price per Sanofi-Aventis ADS, net of expenses, realized on the NYSE in the sale by The Bank of New York, acting as the Sanofi-Aventis depositary, of all the aggregated fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that otherwise would have been issued in connection with delivering to holders of Aventis ADSs their interests in the merger consideration.

Q: I hold Aventis subscription stock options; what will happen to them in the merger? (See page 49)

A: Pursuant to the merger agreement, Sanofi-Aventis has expressly assumed all of Aventis's obligations under the Aventis subscription stock option plans. After the merger, your subscription stock options will be exercisable for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, with the exercise price and the number of shares subject to option adjusted to give effect to the exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares. All other terms and conditions of your subscription stock options will remain unaltered.

Q: I hold Aventis purchase stock options; what will happen to them in the merger? (See page 49)

A: With respect to the stock options granted by Aventis Inc. (formerly known as Rhône-Poulenc Rorer Inc.), a U.S. subsidiary of Aventis, and the stock options granted by Hoechst, a German subsidiary of Aventis, each of which entitle the holder to purchase Aventis shares, Sanofi-Aventis has undertaken to cause appropriate measures to be taken to allow holders of these stock purchase options to exercise them for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares after the merger, with the exercise price and the number of shares subject to option adjusted to give effect to the exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares. All other terms and conditions of your purchase stock options will remain unaltered.

Q: I want to exercise my Aventis stock options; may I do so before the merger is completed? (See page 49)

A: On September 27, 2004, as permitted under the terms of the Aventis subscription stock option plans, the Aventis management board voted to suspend the ability of holders to exercise their Aventis subscription stock options from October 8, 2004 (inclusive) to December 31, 2004 (inclusive). This suspension is necessary in connection with the merger in order to fix the number of Aventis ordinary shares that are outstanding. Accordingly, if you hold Aventis subscription stock options, you may not exercise them until January 1, 2005. You should already have received a separate explanation of this suspension from the human resources department of Aventis.

If you hold purchase stock options granted by Aventis Inc. or Hoechst, you may continue to exercise these options because the exercise of these options will not result in the issuance of any new Aventis ordinary shares.

Q: How was the merger exchange ratio calculated? (See page 46)

A: Because the proposed merger is viewed by the management of Sanofi-Aventis as the next step in the implementation of its strategic acquisition of Aventis, following its tender offer for the Aventis ordinary shares, the exchange ratio has been determined on the basis of the same analyses used to define the exchange ratio in the all stock election of the offer, updated as necessary. The merger exchange ratio of 27 Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares is substantially equivalent to 1.1739 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share, which was the exchange ratio offered in the all stock election of the offers (before adjustment in respect of the Aventis 2003 dividend).

Q: Has any independent appraiser given an opinion regarding the fairness of the merger exchange ratio? (See page 61)

A: Yes. Under applicable French law, court-appointed merger auditors (Commissaires à la fusion) are required to produce written reports on the valuation of the assets contributed by Aventis in the merger and the fairness of the merger exchange ratio. Messrs. René Ricol and Dominique Ledouble were appointed merger auditors by order of the President of the Commercial Court of Paris on September 7, 2004.

In their written reports, dated November 5, 2004, the merger auditors have concluded that:

- In their opinion, the exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares is fair;
- In their opinion, the value of €27,109,225,679 assigned to the assets contributed by Aventis in the merger is not overvalued and, as a result, the net asset value of the contributed assets is at least equal to the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, increased by the share issuance premium; and
- The merger auditors had no comment to make on the number Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which the Aventis BSAs will be exercisable after the merger.

Q: Who must approve the merger? (See pages 34 and 36)

A: The agreement and plan of merger and the transactions contemplated thereby must be approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shares present (in person or by proxy) at separate duly convened extraordinary general meetings of the shareholders of Sanofi-Aventis and of Aventis.

Because Sanofi-Aventis holds 98.02% of the voting rights of Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis can cause the agreement and plan of merger to be approved by the Aventis shareholders without the affirmative vote of any other shareholder and intends to do so.

Q: When and where is the combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting of Aventis shareholders? (See page 35)

A: A combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting of Aventis shareholders, has been called for Monday, December 13, 2004, at 9:00 a.m., Paris time, at Sofitel Bercy, 1 rue de Libourne 75012 Paris, France, at which Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the agreement and plan of merger and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: I hold Aventis ordinary shares; may I attend and vote at the Aventis meeting? (See page 35)

A: If you hold Aventis ordinary shares, in order to be able to vote at the meeting, you must have those Aventis ordinary shares registered in your name in a shareholder account maintained by or on behalf of Aventis before December 11, 2004, the date that is two days before the meeting. If you hold bearer shares, in order to be able to vote at the meeting, you must obtain a certificate from an accredited financial intermediary, evidencing that you have deposited your bearer shares in account in which they will be held until the date of the meeting. You must deposit this certificate at Société Générale – Service Relations Sociétés Emettrices – Assemblées Générales – BP 812236 – 44312 Nantes Cedex 3 – France before December 11, 2004, the date that is two days before the meeting. In either case, you may vote in person or by proxy.

Because Sanofi-Aventis controls 98.02% of the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting of Aventis shareholders, Sanofi-Aventis can cause the merger agreement to be approved by the meeting of Aventis shareholders without the affirmative vote of any other Aventis shareholder and intends to do so. Therefore, neither Aventis nor Sanofi-Aventis is asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

Q: I hold Aventis ADSs; may I attend and vote at the Aventis meeting?

A: No. If you hold Aventis ADSs, you may not vote at the Aventis meeting. You may however instruct the Aventis depositary to vote the Aventis ordinary shares represented by your Aventis ADSs on your behalf. The Aventis depositary may not vote any Aventis ordinary shares held on deposit unless it has received an instruction from the holder of Aventis ADSs representing those Aventis ordinary shares. You will receive or have received a separate communication from The Bank of New York, the Aventis depositary, including a notice of the Aventis meeting and instructions on how to direct the Aventis depositary to vote the Aventis ordinary shares represented by your Aventis ADSs.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger? (See page 46)

A: Subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, the merger agreement provides that the merger will become effective on December 31, 2004.

Sanofi-Aventis is an international pharmaceuticals group engaged in the research, development, manufacture and marketing of pharmaceutical products for sale, principally in the prescription market. Prior to our acquisition of Aventis, we were known as Sanofi-Synthelabo. Prior to our acquisition of Aventis, our prescription pharmaceuticals business specialized in four therapeutic areas: cardiovascular/thrombosis; central nervous system; internal medicine and oncology. In 2003, our consolidated net sales were €8,048 million, our net income was €2,076 million, we invested €1,316 million in research and development and employed over 33,000 people worldwide. On the basis of sales for the twelve months ended September 30, 2003, and prior to our acquisition of Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis was the second largest pharmaceuticals group in France, the eighth largest pharmaceuticals group in Western Europe and among the twenty largest pharmaceuticals groups in the world (based on data from IMS Health).

On August 20, 2004, we completed our acquisition of Aventis, pursuant to our offers. With our acquisition of Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis became the largest pharmaceuticals group in Europe and the third largest pharmaceuticals group in the world.

As of December 31, 2003, on a combined basis, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis were present in more than 100 countries on five continents and employed over 99,700 people worldwide (with a sales force of approximately 33,150 people). On a combined basis, based on 2003 figures, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis had sales of approximately €25 billion (with a market share of approximately 5.6%) and invested approximately €4 billion in research and development.

Aventis is a global pharmaceuticals group that discovers, develops, manufactures and markets branded prescription drugs and human vaccines to protect and improve the health of patients around the world. Aventis’s therapeutic innovations rank among the leading treatments for lung and breast cancer, thrombosis, seasonal allergies, diabetes and hypertension. In 2003, Aventis defined its core business as prescription drugs, human vaccines, its 50% interest in the Merial animal health joint venture, and its corporate activities. In 2003, according to Aventis’s published reports, in its core business Aventis generated net sales of €16,791 million, net income of €2,444 million, invested €2,863 million in research and development and employed approximately 69,000 people worldwide. On the basis of sales for the twelve months ended September 30, 2003, Aventis was the largest pharmaceuticals group in France, the third largest pharmaceuticals group in Western Europe and among the ten largest pharmaceuticals groups in the world (based on data from IMS Health).

On August 20, 2004, on settlement of Sanofi-Aventis’s offer, Aventis became a subsidiary of Sanofi-Aventis.

Sanofi-Aventis Extraordinary General Meeting (See page 33)

Sanofi-Aventis will hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders on Monday, December 13, 2004, if a quorum is present on the first call, or on Thursday, December 23, 2004, if held on the second call, at 10:00 a.m., Paris time, at Carrousel du Louvre, 99 rue de Rivoli, 75001 Paris, France. At the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting, Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the following resolutions:

- to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated by the agreement, including the increase in share capital of Sanofi-Aventis and the issuance of the new Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in payment of the merger consideration;

- to approve the accounting allocation of the merger premium and the write-off of the merger loss;
- to approve the assumption of the obligations of Aventis with respect to the Aventis BSAs and to waive, to the extent necessary, any preferential subscription rights in respect of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued to holders of the BSAs;
- to approve the assumption of the obligations of Aventis with respect to the Aventis subscription stock options and to waive any preferential subscription rights in respect of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued on exercise of the options;
- to approve December 31, 2004 as the effective date of the merger and of the related increase in share capital of Sanofi-Aventis;
- to approve the amendment of article VI of the bylaws (statuts) of Sanofi-Aventis to reflect the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis; and
- to authorize the board of directors to increase the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis by issuing shares reserved for employees who are participants in a savings plan of Sanofi-Aventis or any group company and to suppress preferential subscription rights in favour of these participants.

In general, holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares who have properly registered their shares at least five days prior to the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting will be entitled to vote at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting or any adjourned or postponed meeting.

The adoption of each resolution presented at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting will require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes cast (either in person or by proxy or mail) at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting.

Aventis Combined Ordinary and Extraordinary Meeting (See page 35)

Aventis will hold a combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting of shareholders on Monday, December 13, 2004, at 9:00 a.m., Paris time, at Sofitel Bercy, 1 rue de Libourne, 75012 Paris, France. At the Aventis shareholder meeting, Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the following extraordinary resolutions in connection with the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis:

- to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated by the agreement; and
- to approve the dissolution of Aventis, without liquidation.

In addition, Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on seven ordinary resolutions ratifying the appointment of the seven new members of the Aventis supervisory board who were first appointed on August 31, 2004. For further information, please see “Recent Developments — New Composition of Aventis Management Board and Aventis Supervisory Board”.

In general, holders of Aventis ordinary shares who have properly registered their Aventis ordinary shares at least two days prior to the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting will be entitled to vote at the meeting or any adjourned or postponed meeting. However, because Sanofi-Aventis owns 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares (representing 98.02% of the votes entitled to be cast at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting), Sanofi-Aventis can cause the merger agreement and the merger to be approved by Aventis shareholders without the affirmative vote of any other Aventis shareholder and intends to do so. Therefore, neither Aventis nor Sanofi-Aventis is asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

The Merger; Effective Time (See page 46)

In the merger, Aventis will merge with and into Sanofi-Aventis. Sanofi-Aventis will continue as the surviving company and Aventis will be dissolved. By operation of law, Sanofi-Aventis will succeed to all the rights and assets of Aventis and will assume all its liabilities.

Provided that the conditions to the merger are satisfied, for legal purposes the merger will become effective on December 31, 2004. However, for French accounting and tax purposes, at the level of the parent companies, the merger will be given effect retroactively as of January 1, 2004. This will not affect the date on which the purchase of Aventis will be deemed to have occurred under French or U.S. GAAP or the date from which the results of Aventis will be consolidated with those of the Sanofi-Aventis Group.

Merger Exchange Ratio; Merger Consideration
(See pages 46 and 47)

The merger exchange ratio has been set at 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares (or approximately 1.17391 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share). Accordingly, if you hold Aventis ordinary shares, as a result of the merger, you will be entitled to receive 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold at the effective time of the merger.

If you hold Aventis ADSs, you will receive your ownership interest in the merger consideration in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. You will be entitled to receive 54 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs (each Sanofi-Aventis ADS representing one-half of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share) for every 23 Aventis ADSs that you hold as of the effective time (or approximately 2.34782 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS).

Based on a price of €58.72 per Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share, which was the average daily closing price, weighted by volume, for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris during the calendar month ended on January 21, 2004 (the last trading day before rumors and press articles significantly affected the share prices and trading volumes of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares), the terms of the merger value each Aventis ordinary share at €68.93, representing a premium of 31.4% over the average daily closing price, weighted by volume, for Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris during the same period, which was €52.46 per Aventis ordinary share. Based on the closing price of €59.05 for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris on August 30, 2004, the last trading day before the public announcement of the decision of Sanofi-Aventis to study the feasibility of the merger, the terms of the merger value each Aventis ordinary share at €69.32, representing a premium of 0.7% over the closing price of €68.85 for Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris on that date.

Based on the closing price of €57.85 for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris on October 13, 2004, the last trading day before the public announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, the terms of the merger value each Aventis ordinary share at €67.91, representing a premium of 0.8% over the closing price of €67.40 for Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris on that date. Based on the closing price of €57.90 for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris on November 9, 2004, the most recent practicable trading day prior to the date of this document, the terms of the merger value each Aventis ordinary share at €67.97, representing a premium of 0.3% to the closing price of €67.80 for Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris on that date.

Based on a price of $37.05 per Sanofi-Aventis ADS, which was the average daily closing price, weighted by volume, for Sanofi-Aventis ADSs on the NYSE during the calendar month ended on January 21, 2004, the terms of the merger value each Aventis ADS at $86.96, representing a premium of 30.8% over the average daily closing price, weighted by volume, for Aventis ADSs on the NYSE during the same period, which was $66.50 per Aventis ADS. Based on the closing price of $36.68 for Sanofi-Aventis ADSs on the NYSE on August 30, 2004, the last trading day before the public announcement of the decision of Sanofi-Aventis to study the feasibility of the merger, the terms of merger value each Aventis ADS at $86.12, representing a premium of 1.7% over the closing price of $84.68 for Aventis ADSs on the NYSE on that date.

Based on the closing price of $35.63 for Sanofi-Aventis ADSs on the NYSE on October 13, 2004, the last trading day before the public announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, the terms of the merger value each Aventis ADS at $83.65, representing a premium of 1.0% over the closing price of $82.81 for Aventis ADSs on the NYSE on that date. Based on the closing price of $38.20 for Sanofi-Aventis ADSs on the NYSE on November 9, 2004, the most recent practicable trading day prior to the date of this document, the terms of the merger value each Aventis ADS at $89.69, representing a premium of 0.2% to the closing price of $89.50 for Aventis ADSs on the NYSE on that date.

Treatment of Fractional Shares (See page 47)

Sanofi-Aventis will not issue any fractional interests in any Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in the merger. Accordingly, if you hold Aventis ordinary shares, you will only be entitled to receive your merger consideration in full in respect of round-number multiples of 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold. As a result, in order to receive all your merger consideration, you must purchase or sell a number of Aventis ordinary shares such that you hold a round-number multiple of 23 Aventis shares.

To facilitate this, after the effective time of the merger Aventis ordinary shares (which will then represent only the right to receive the merger consideration) will continue to trade for one month on the Premier marché, and then for six months on the delisted securities market (Compartiment des valeurs radiées) of Euronext Paris. Subject to the effectiveness of the merger, until March 31, 2005, Sanofi-Aventis will pay the brokerage fees and value-added tax incurred by Aventis shareholders, up to 0.3% of the price of each Aventis ordinary share bought or sold and related to the purchase or sale of up to a maximum of 22 Aventis ordinary shares per holder.

Treatment of Fractional ADSs (See page 54)

No fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs will be issued in connection with the merger. In lieu of any fraction of a Sanofi-Aventis ADS that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive in connection with the merger, you will receive an amount in cash equal to the product of that fraction and the average sales price per Sanofi-Aventis ADS, net of expenses, realized on the NYSE in the sale by The Bank of New York, acting as the Sanofi-Aventis depository, of all the aggregated fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that would have otherwise have been issued in connection with delivering to holders of Aventis ADSs their interests in the merger consideration.

Conditions to the Merger; Termination (See pages 48 and 49)

The completion of the merger is subject to the following conditions precedent:

- Approval by the Aventis shareholders at an extraordinary general meeting of the merger agreement, and of the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis and the dissolution of Aventis without liquidation contemplated by the agreement;
- Approval by the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders at an extraordinary general meeting of:
 - the merger agreement, and the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated thereby;
 - the increase in Sanofi-Aventis's share capital necessary to issue the merger consideration; and

- the waiver of any preferential subscription rights of existing shareholders with respect to the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued on the exercise of the Aventis subscription stock options or, to the extent necessary, the Aventis BSAs assumed in the merger; and
- The absence or dismissal of any objection filed in any court of competent jurisdiction in opposition to the decision by the AMF that there is no need to file a compulsory acquisition offer (offre publique de retrait) for the Aventis ordinary shares not held by Sanofi-Aventis. (This condition was satisfied on October 18, 2004, at midnight. At that time the period for filing any objection in opposition to the decision of the AMF expired and no objection had been filed during the objection period.)

If any of the conditions to the merger are not satisfied on or prior to December 31, 2004, the merger agreement will automatically terminate, unless Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis agree otherwise. On termination, neither Sanofi-Aventis nor Aventis will have the right to seek any indemnity from the other party.

Treatment of Aventis Stock Options (See page 49)

After the merger, Aventis subscription stock options will entitle their holders to subscribe for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares instead of Aventis ordinary shares. The number of shares subject to the options and the exercise price will be adjusted to give effect to the merger exchange ratio.

At the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting, the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will also be asked to vote on a resolution to waive their preferential subscription rights with respect to the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that will be issued on the exercise of these subscription stock options.

After the merger, Aventis Inc. and Hoechst purchase stock options will entitle their holders to purchase Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, with the exercise price and the number of shares subject to option adjusted to give effect to the merger exchange ratio.

Assets Transferred and Liabilities Assumed in the Merger (See page 51)

At the effective time of the merger, all of the rights and assets of Aventis will vest in Sanofi-Aventis in accordance with French law, and all of the liabilities of Aventis (including off-balance sheet liabilities) will be assumed by Sanofi-Aventis.

Reports of the Merger Auditors (See page 61)

Under French law and regulations applicable to the merger, court-appointed merger auditors (Commissaires à la fusion) are required to produce a written report on the terms and conditions of the merger. Among other things, the role of the merger auditors is to check that the relative values ascribed to the shares of the constituent companies in the merger are relevant and that the merger exchange ratio is fair. The merger auditors must also produce a written report on the valuation of the assets contributed in kind in the merger.

Messrs. René Ricol and Dominique Ledouble were appointed merger auditors by order of Madame President of the Commercial Court of Paris on September 7, 2004. In their written reports, dated November 5, 2004, the merger auditors have concluded that:

- In their opinion, the exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares is fair;
- In their opinion, the value of €27,109,225,679 assigned to the assets contributed by Aventis in the merger is not overvalued and, as a result, the net asset value of the contributed assets is at least equal to the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, increased by the share issuance premium; and
- The merger auditors had no comment to make on the number Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which the Aventis BSAs will be exercisable after the merger.

Accounting Treatment (See page 103)

The acquisition of the Aventis securities will be accounted for using the purchase method under both French and U.S. GAAP.

Comparison of the Rights of Aventis Shareholders and Sanofi-Aventis Shareholders (See page 148)

There are differences between the rights of an Aventis shareholder and the rights of a Sanofi-Aventis shareholder. You should review the discussion under “Comparison of Shareholders’ Rights” for a summary of these differences.

Listing of Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs (See page 128)

Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares are currently listed and admitted to trade on the Premier marché Euronext Paris. Sanofi-Aventis ADSs are currently listed and admitted to trade on the NYSE. Sanofi-Aventis will also apply for the supplemental listing of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs to be issued in connection with the merger on Euronext Paris and on the NYSE, as applicable.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis (See page 97)

Based on the number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued and outstanding on September 30, 2004, the directors and executive officers of Sanofi-Aventis, individually and the group as a whole, beneficially hold less than one percent of the issued and outstanding Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

Based on the number of Aventis ordinary shares issued and outstanding on October 8, 2004, all members of the Aventis management board (directoire) and all members of the Aventis supervisory board (conseil de surveillance), individually and the group as a whole, hold less than one percent of the share capital of Aventis, including any Aventis ordinary shares held indirectly and assuming the exercise of all of their options.

Material French Tax and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (See page 71)

French taxation

The following applies to you if you are a nonresident of France for French tax purposes and you are not a member of a special class of taxpayers (as described under “Material French Tax and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” below). You will not be subject to French tax on any capital gain or loss recognized, for French tax purposes, as a result of exchanging your Aventis securities pursuant to the merger, unless you have a permanent establishment or fixed base in France and the Aventis securities exchanged are part of the business property of that permanent establishment or fixed base.

United States federal income taxation

The following applies to you if you are a U.S. holder (as defined under “Material French Tax and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” below) and you are not a member of a special class of taxpayers (as described under “Material French Tax and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” below) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result of exchanging your Aventis securities pursuant to the merger, you will generally recognize gain or loss, if any, for United States federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Sanofi-Aventis securities that you receive in the merger and the U.S. dollar value of your adjusted tax basis in your Aventis securities exchanged.

In general, if you are a non-U.S. holder (as defined in “Material French Tax and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” below), you will not be subject to United States federal income taxation on any gain or loss recognized in exchanging your Aventis securities in the merger. Exceptions, however, are described under “Material French Tax and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences — Tax Consequences of Acquiring Sanofi-Aventis

Sanofi-Aventis believes that all material regulatory approvals necessary for its acquisition of Aventis were obtained in connection with its offers. As a result, no further regulatory approvals are required in connection with the merger.

Appraisal Rights

Neither holders of Aventis ordinary shares nor holders of Aventis ADSs are entitled to appraisal or dissenters’ rights with respect to the merger as a matter of French law.

SELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, which gives effect to the offers and the merger, is presented in euros and reflects the combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis using the purchase method under French GAAP. The pro forma adjustments are based upon available information and certain assumptions that Sanofi-Aventis believes are reasonable, including the assumptions that pursuant to the offers and the merger:

- 98.03% of the outstanding Aventis securities are exchanged pursuant to the offers for cash and Sanofi-Aventis securities, with an aggregate cash component of €15,791 million (including €643 million in dividends paid on Sanofi-Aventis securities issued) and a share component valued at €35,071 million;
- 1.97% of the outstanding Aventis securities are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis securities at an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares;
- all of the outstanding Aventis BSAs were purchased for cash in the French offer, for aggregate consideration of €6 million;
- all of the outstanding Aventis stock options are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis stock options. The number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares subject to these options and the exercise price of the options will be adjusted to reflect the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares; and
- the net cash consideration paid in the offers (after taking into account the expected proceeds of €885 million from the disposals discussed below) is financed by €14,906 million of new Sanofi-Aventis debt at an interest rate of 3.6%.

In addition, the pro forma adjustments reflect the sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets on the terms announced on April 13, 2004, as well as the sale of Camppto® to Pfizer Inc. on the terms announced on June 25, 2004. For more information on these disposals, see “Regulatory Matters — Competition and Antitrust — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®” and “— Sale of Camppto®”. The pro forma adjustments also include adjustments that have been made to Aventis historical financial statements in order to conform their presentation to the pro forma presentation. In addition, pro forma adjustments have been made to Aventis historical statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2003, in order to reflect the disposal of Aventis Behring to CSL, which was completed on March 31, 2004. For further information, see Exhibit 99.3 to Aventis’s Form 6-K, dated April 30, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

The selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information also gives effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under the German Securities and Corporate Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz) for the 1.9% of the ordinary shares of Hoechst AG not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Sanofi-Aventis Mandatory Offer for Hoechst; Aventis Squeeze-Out Offer for Hoechst”. The selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information also gives effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under applicable Indian law for up to 4,606,125 shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India representing 20% of its outstanding share capital. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Sanofi-Aventis Mandatory Offer for 20% of the Share Capital of Aventis Pharma Limited India”.

The selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial condition of the combined entities that would have been achieved had the offers and the merger been completed during the periods presented, nor is the selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined entities. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information does not reflect any cost savings or other synergies which may result from the acquisition of Aventis or the effect of asset dispositions, if any, that have been or may be required by regulatory authorities, other than the contemplated sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets and the sale of Camppto® to Pfizer Inc. In particular, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not reflect the impact of the disposals and/or grants of licenses of certain products, in addition to Arixtra®, Fraxiparine® and Camppto®, requested by the European Commission as conditions to its approval of the proposed acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis, announced on April 26, 2004 because definitive agreements with respect to the disposal or licensing of these products have not yet been entered into. The unaudited pro forma financial information does not reflect any special items such as payments pursuant to change of control provisions or restructuring and integration costs which may be incurred as a result of the acquisition. Further, because prior to the settlement of the offers on August 20, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis only had access to publicly available financial information about Aventis's accounting policies, and because of the limited time available since the settlement to conduct a thorough review of those accounting policies, there can be no assurance that the accounting policies of Aventis conform to those of Sanofi-Aventis.

This selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis" and the related notes included in this document, and with the respective consolidated financial statements of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, as of and for the six month period ended June 30, 2004, and as of, and for the year ended, December 31, 2003, which are incorporated by reference into this document. All amounts are stated in euros. This pro forma information is subject to risks and uncertainties, including those discussed under "Risk Factors — We were not given the opportunity to conduct a due diligence review of the nonpublic records of Aventis before commencing or completing our offers for Aventis. Therefore, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis which may have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations" and "Risk Factors — In the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis, we have not been able to verify the reliability of all the information regarding Aventis in periods prior to the acquisition included in, or incorporated by reference into, this document and, as a result, our estimates of the impact of the acquisition of Aventis on the pro forma financial information in this document may be inaccurate."

The selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information is based on preliminary estimates and assumptions, which Sanofi-Aventis believes to be reasonable. The pro forma adjustments and allocation of purchase price are preliminary. In general, due to the limited financial and other information related to Aventis available to Sanofi-Aventis management prior to the settlement of the offers, the excess of purchase price over the book value of the assets to be acquired has been allocated according to a preliminary analysis by Sanofi-Aventis's management based on available public information. The final allocation of the purchase price will be completed after the asset and liability valuations are finalized by Sanofi-Aventis's management. There can be no assurance that the final allocation of the purchase price will not differ from the preliminary allocation.

SUMMARY SELECTED COMPARATIVE HISTORICAL AND PRO FORMA PER SHARE DATA

The following selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, which gives effect to the offers and the merger, is presented in euros and reflects the combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis using the purchase method under French GAAP. The pro forma adjustments are based upon available information and certain assumptions that Sanofi-Aventis believes are reasonable, including the assumptions that pursuant to the offers and the merger:

- 98.03% of the outstanding Aventis securities were exchanged pursuant to the offers for cash and Sanofi-Aventis securities, with a cash component of €15,791 million (including €643 million in dividends paid on Sanofi-Aventis securities issued) and a share component valued at €35,071 million;
- 1.97% of the outstanding Aventis securities are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis securities at an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares;
- all of the outstanding Aventis BSAs are purchased for cash in the French offer, for aggregate consideration of €6 million;
- all of the outstanding Aventis stock options are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis stock options. The number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares subject to these options and the exercise price of the options will be adjusted to reflect the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares; and
- the net cash consideration paid in the offers (after taking into account the expected proceeds of €885 million from the disposals discussed below) is financed by €14,906 million of new Sanofi-Aventis debt at an interest rate of 3.6%.

In addition, the pro forma adjustments reflect the sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets on the terms announced on April 13, 2004, as well as the sale of Campto® to Pfizer Inc. on the terms announced on June 25, 2004. For more information on these disposals, see “Regulatory Matters — Competition and Antitrust — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®” and “— Sale of Campto®”. The pro forma adjustments also include adjustments that have been made to Aventis historical financial statements in order to conform their presentation to the pro forma presentation. In addition, pro forma adjustments have been made to Aventis historical statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2003, in order to reflect the disposal of Aventis Behring to CSL, which was completed on March 31, 2004. For further information, see Exhibit 99.3 to Aventis’s Form 6-K, dated April 30, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

The summary selected comparative historical and pro forma per share data also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under the German Securities and Corporate Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz) for the 1.9% of the ordinary shares of Hoechst AG not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for Hoechst AG”. The summary selected comparative historical and pro forma per share data also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under applicable Indian law for up to 4,606,125 shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India not already held by Aventis or its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for Aventis Pharma Limited India”.

The summary selected comparative historical and pro forma per share data is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial condition of the combined entities that would have been achieved had the offers and the merger been completed during the periods presented, nor is the summary selected comparative historical and pro forma per share data necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined entities.

The summary selected comparative historical and pro forma per share data have been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the “Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis” and the related notes included in this document, and with the respective consolidated financial statements of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, as of and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and as of, and for the year ended, December 31, 2003, which are incorporated by reference into this document. All amounts are stated in euros. This pro forma information is subject to risks and uncertainties, including those discussed under “Risk Factors — We were not given the opportunity to conduct a due diligence review of the nonpublic records of Aventis before commencing or completing our offers for Aventis. Therefore, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis which may have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations” and “Risk Factors — In the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis, we have not been able to verify the reliability of all the information regarding Aventis in periods prior to the acquisition included in, or incorporated by reference into, this document and, as a result, our estimates of the impact of the acquisition of Aventis on the pro forma financial information in this document may be inaccurate.”

The pro forma per share data are based on preliminary estimates and assumptions, which Sanofi-Aventis believes to be reasonable. The pro forma adjustments and allocation of purchase price are preliminary. Due to the limited financial and other information related to Aventis available to Sanofi-Aventis management prior to the settlement of the offers, the excess of purchase price over the book value of the assets to be acquired has been allocated according to a preliminary analysis by Sanofi-Aventis’s management based on available public information. The final allocation of the purchase price will be completed after the asset and liability valuations are finalized by Sanofi-Aventis’s management. There can be no assurance that the final allocation of the purchase price will not differ from the preliminary allocation.

EXCHANGE RATE INFORMATION

The following tables show, for the periods indicated, information concerning the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the euro. The average rates for the monthly periods presented in these tables were calculated by taking the simple average of the daily noon buying rates, as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which we refer to as the “noon buying rates.” The average rates for the interim periods and annual periods presented in these tables were calculated by taking the simple average of the noon buying rates on the last day of each month during the relevant period. This information is provided solely for your information, and we do not represent that euros could be converted into U.S. dollars at these rates or at any other rate. These rates are not the rates used by Sanofi-Aventis or Aventis in the preparation of their respective consolidated financial statements incorporated by reference into this document.

The data provided in the following table are expressed in U.S. dollars per euro and are based on noon buying rates published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for the euro. On November 9, 2004, the most recent practicable date prior to the printing of this document, the exchange rate was €1.00 = $1.2930. The data provided in the following table for the period prior to January 1999 are based on noon buying rates for the French franc converted into the euro at the fixed rate established by the European Council of Ministers of FF 6.55957 = €1.00.

RISK FACTORS

In evaluating the merger, you should carefully consider the following risks that relate to the business combination of Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis, as well as the risk factors incorporated by reference into this document from Item 3.D of Sanofi-Aventis's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, and from Item 3 of Aventis's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, together with the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document. Any of these risks could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects, which could in turn affect the price of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares or Sanofi-Aventis ADSs.

The integration of the companies will present significant challenges that may result in the combined business not operating as effectively as expected or in the failure to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction.

The benefits and synergies expected to result from the combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis will depend in part on whether the operations of Aventis can be integrated in a timely and efficient manner with those of Sanofi-Aventis. Sanofi-Aventis faces significant challenges in consolidating Sanofi-Aventis's functions with those of Aventis, and integrating the organizations, procedures and operations of the two businesses. The integration of the two businesses will be complex and time-consuming, and management will have to dedicate substantial time and resources to it. These efforts could divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from day-to-day operational matters during the integration process. Failure to successfully integrate the operations of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis could result in the failure to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits from the transaction, including synergies and other operating efficiencies, and could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of Sanofi-Aventis.

The value of the Sanofi-Aventis securities to be received by the holders of Aventis securities pursuant to the merger will fluctuate.

At the effective time of the merger, the Aventis ordinary shares (including Aventis ordinary shares represented by Aventis ADSs) will be exchanged for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, at an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares (or approximately 1.17391 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share). There will be no adjustment to the exchange ratio for changes in the market price of either Aventis ordinary shares or Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares. Accordingly, the market value of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that holders of Aventis securities will receive upon completion of the merger will depend on the market value of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares at the time of completion of the merger and could vary significantly from the market value on the date of this document or the date on which the definitive merger agreement was signed and the merger exchange ratio agreed. The market value of the Sanofi-Aventis securities to be issued in connection with the merger will also continue to fluctuate after completion of the merger. For historical and current market prices of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, please refer to "Market Price and Dividend Data". You should obtain current market quotations for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs and for Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ADSs.

Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the euro will also affect the dollar equivalent of the euro price of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares traded on Euronext Paris, and, as a result, may affect the market price of the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs traded on the NYSE.

On settlement of the offers, we incurred a substantial amount of debt to finance the cash portion of the consideration for the Aventis securities acquired in the offers; in the future, this debt could restrict our ability to engage in additional transactions or incur additional indebtedness.

In connection with our acquisition of the Aventis securities, on April 24, 2004, we entered into a credit facility agreement that permitted us to borrow up to €16,000 million under this facility. We have borrowed €10,500 million under this credit facility, which we have used to finance part of the cash portion of the consideration paid to holders of Aventis securities pursuant to the offers. We may also borrow funds under this facility to refinance certain debt of Aventis and its subsidiaries. The credit facility includes terms and conditions customary for agreements of this type, which could restrict our ability to engage in additional transactions or incur additional indebtedness. For more information on the terms and conditions of the credit facility, please see “Source and Amount of Funds”.

We were not given the opportunity to conduct a due diligence review of the nonpublic records of Aventis before commencing or completing our offers for Aventis. Therefore, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis which may have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations.

In commencing and completing the offers, we relied solely and exclusively upon publicly available information relating to Aventis, including periodic and other reports for Aventis as filed with or furnished to the SEC on Form 20-F and Form 6-K, as well as Aventis’s 2003 document de référence, as filed with the AMF. Prior to settlement of the offers on August 20, 2004, on which date we acquired control of Aventis, we had no access to the books and records of Aventis and we were not able to conduct an independent due diligence review of, nor did we have access to, any nonpublic information about Aventis. As a result, after our acquisition of Aventis, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis, which liabilities might have otherwise been discovered if we had been permitted by Aventis to conduct a complete due diligence review and which liabilities may have an adverse effect on our profitability, results of operations, financial condition or prospects, and may, if known, have led us to determine different terms and conditions for the offers.

In the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis, we have not been able to verify the reliability of all the information regarding Aventis in periods prior to the acquisition included in, or incorporated by reference into, this document and, as a result, our estimates of the impact of the acquisition of Aventis on the pro forma financial information in this document may be inaccurate.

In respect of information relating to Aventis in periods before our acquisition of Aventis presented in, or incorporated by reference into, this document, including Aventis’s financial information, we have relied exclusively upon publicly available information, including information publicly filed by Aventis with securities regulatory authorities. Although we have no knowledge that would indicate that any statements contained in this document based upon such reports and documents are inaccurate, incomplete or untrue, we were not involved in the preparation of such information and statements and, in the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis we have not been able to verify the accuracy, completeness or truth of all such information or any failure by Aventis to disclose events that may have occurred, but that are unknown to us, that may affect the significance or accuracy of any such information. Any financial information regarding Aventis in periods prior to our acquisition of Aventis that may be detrimental to the combined entity and that has not been publicly disclosed by Aventis, or errors in our estimates due to reliance on information relating to such periods publicly filed by Aventis, may have an adverse effect on the benefits we expect to achieve from the acquisition of Aventis and could result in material inaccuracies in the pro forma financial information included in this document.

Because some existing holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs are entitled to two votes for every share they hold, the percentage of the voting rights of Sanofi-Aventis that you will own immediately after the merger will be less than the percentage of the outstanding share capital of Sanofi-Aventis that you will own.

Under Sanofi-Aventis’s existing bylaws (statuts), holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares who hold their shares in the same registered name for at least two years have the right to two votes for every share thus held. Under the ADS deposit agreement, holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs who have held their Sanofi-Aventis ADSs in the same registered name for at least two years also have the right to double-voting rights. As a result, new holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares (including Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares represented by Sanofi-Aventis ADSs), including holders of Aventis securities who receive Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in connection with the merger, will qualify to obtain double-voting rights only after holding those Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in the same registered name for two years. See “Description of Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares — Voting Rights”. As of September 30, 2004, 336,569,393 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares carried double-voting rights, representing approximately 24.2% of our outstanding share capital, approximately 25.6% of our outstanding share capital that is held by holders other than Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries, including Aventis, and approximately 20.4% of our voting rights. Immediately after the effective time of the merger, and taking into account the Sanofi-Aventis securities that were issued to holders of Aventis securities in settlement of the offers, the former holders of Aventis securities will own approximately 48.8% of our outstanding share capital (other than share capital held by Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries) and approximately 38.9% of our voting rights and the holders of Sanofi-Aventis securities that were not issued in connection with either the merger or the offers, other than Sanofi-Aventis, will hold approximately 51.2% of our outstanding share capital and approximately 61.1% of our voting rights. Similarly, the percentage of Sanofi-Aventis's voting rights that you will own immediately after the merger will be less than the percentage of the outstanding share capital of Sanofi-Aventis that you will own and may be less than the percentage of Sanofi-Aventis's voting rights owned by some Sanofi-Aventis shareholders who own the same number or fewer Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

Sanofi-Aventis's two largest shareholders immediately before the settlement of the offers continue to own a significant percentage of the enlarged share capital and voting rights of Sanofi-Aventis after the merger.

Immediately after the merger, Total and L'Oréal, Sanofi-Aventis's two largest shareholders, will own approximately 13.4% and approximately 10.7%, respectively, of the share capital (other than share capital held by Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries) and approximately 21.4% and approximately 17.1%, respectively, of the voting rights in Sanofi-Aventis. On November 24, 2003, Total and L'Oréal amended the shareholders' agreement so that it terminates on December 2, 2004 according to its terms, the parties having indicated that they do not intend to act in concert with respect to their shareholdings in Sanofi-Aventis as from that date. See "Recent Developments — Shareholders' Agreement".

Even after termination of the shareholders' agreement, to the extent these shareholders maintain such level of shareholding, Total and L'Oréal will remain in a position to exert heightened influence in the election of the directors and officers of Sanofi-Aventis and in other corporate actions that require shareholders' approval, including the merger. Continued ownership of a large percentage of the share capital and voting rights of Sanofi-Aventis by these two principal shareholders, affiliates of whom may also continue to be members of the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors, may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a future change in the control of Sanofi-Aventis and may discourage future bids for Sanofi-Aventis other than with the support of these shareholders.

Upon the termination of the existing shareholders' agreement between those two shareholders, on December 2, 2004, all of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares owned by these shareholders will become available to be sold in the public market, subject to applicable laws and regulations. Sales of a substantial number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, or a perception that such sales may occur, could adversely affect the market price for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. See "Item 10. Additional Information — Share Capital — Shares Eligible for Future Sale" in Sanofi-Aventis's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, for a more detailed description of the eligibility of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for future sale.

Holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares with respect to which the interim dividend of €0.97 was paid on May 5, 2004, received the €0.05 balance outstanding on the 2003 dividend.

Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in exchange for Aventis ordinary shares pursuant to the merger will have full dividend rights with respect to any dividend declared after their issuance, including any dividend paid in respect of Sanofi-Aventis's results for 2004. Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in exchange for Aventis ordinary shares pursuant to the merger will not be entitled to the €1.02 payment in respect of the 2003 dividend.

Sanofi-Aventis Mandatory Offer for Hoechst; Aventis Squeeze-Out Offer for Hoechst

As previously announced in the documentation for Sanofi-Aventis's offers for Aventis, under the German Securities Acquisition and Corporate Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz), on acquiring control of Aventis, and thereby indirect control of Hoechst AG, a company listed in Germany on the official market of the Frankfurt stock exchange, Sanofi-Aventis became obligated to make a mandatory public offer to acquire all the outstanding ordinary shares of Hoechst not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries. As of September 30, 2004, Aventis owned 548,451,852 non-par-value bearer shares of Hoechst (ISDN DE 005758007), representing approximately 98.09% of the 559,153,690 shares outstanding.

On August 23, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis published a notice pursuant to the German securities laws of its intention to make a mandatory offer for Hoechst. On October 1, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis launched a public offer for all the outstanding shares of Hoechst not held by Sanofi-Aventis, Aventis or any of their respective subsidiaries. The offer consideration is €51.23 per share, for a maximum aggregate transaction amount of approximately €550 million, including transaction costs. The offer is open for acceptance from October 1, 2004 until midnight (Central European Time) on December 10, 2004. The offer is being made to, and is open for acceptance by, holders of Hoechst shares resident in the United States. For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Reports on Form 6-K, dated August 24, 2004, and October 1, 2004, neither of which is incorporated into this document by reference.

As of November 4, 2004, 142,504 Hoechst shares, representing less than 0.03% of the share capital and voting rights of Hoechst had been tendered into the mandatory offer. For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated November 5, 2004, which is not incorporated into this document by reference.

Pursuant to applicable German law, a majority shareholder holding at least 95% of the shares of a subsidiary may make a squeeze-out offer to compulsorily acquire the minority shares in exchange for adequate cash compensation. On August 23, 2004, Aventis announced that it intended to acquire all the outstanding shares of Hoechst through a squeeze-out offer. On November 4, 2004, Aventis announced that it had confirmed its intention to acquire the Hoechst shares held by the minority shareholders pursuant to a squeeze-out offer.

At the conclusion of a valuation exercise applying the valuation methods required by applicable law in the context of a squeeze-out offer (which differ from the valuation methods required in the context of a mandatory offer), the cash compensation for the squeeze-out has been set by Aventis at €56.50 per bearer share of Hoechst. This amount of cash compensation will be included in the squeeze-out resolution to be considered and voted on by the shareholders of Hoechst AG at an extraordinary meeting of shareholders to be held in December 2004.

The cash compensation of €56.50 per bearer share of Hoechst takes into consideration the capitalized earnings value (Ertragswert), the average share price of Hoechst shares on the stock market during the last three months and an agreement for the benefit of outside shareholders that was entered into in 1999 in connection with the business combination of Hoechst and Rhône-Poulenc. The amount of cash compensation has been set by the management board of Aventis on the basis of a valuation report by BDO Deutsche Warentreuhand Aktiengesellschaft Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft.

Subject to certain conditions set forth in the offer document relating to its mandatory offer to the shareholders of Hoechst, in the event that Aventis undertakes a squeeze-out of the minority shareholders of Hoechst within one year of the publication of the results of the Sanofi-Aventis mandatory offer for the Hoechst shares and the cash compensation per Hoechst share stipulated in the squeeze-out resolution exceeds the €51.23 per share in the mandatory offer, Sanofi-Aventis has undertaken to the shareholders of Hoechst to pay the difference to any shareholder that tendered Hoechst shares into the Sanofi-Aventis mandatory offer.

For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K (relating to the mandatory offer for Hoechst shares), dated November 5, 2004 and Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated November 5, 2004, neither of which is incorporated into this document by reference.

The shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India are listed on the Stock Exchange, Mumbai and the National Stock Exchange of India Limited. The board of directors of Aventis Pharma Limited India has approved the acquisition of up to 4,606,125 fully paid up equity shares by Sanofi-Aventis pursuant to the Indian takeover regulations. The board of directors of Sanofi-Synthelabo (India) Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Sanofi-Aventis, has expressed that it has no objection to the proposed acquisition. The offer to the shareholders of Aventis Pharma Limited India is subject to the receipt of approval from the Foreign Investment Promotion Board and the Reserve Bank of India, under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999.

As of the date of this document, the offer documentation for the proposed acquisition is still under review by the competent Indian authorities.

The newly appointed General Managers will play a major role in developing the new group organization for Sanofi-Aventis. They have been tasked with defining the key management positions in their respective countries by the end of September 2004 and to ensure that the operations of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis in their respective countries are fully integrated before the beginning of 2005.

On September 22, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that it had appointed the managers of the new Group within the following departments:

Shareholders' Agreement

As previously disclosed, the shareholders' agreement, dated April 9, 1999 between Elf Aquitaine (subsequently acquired by Total) and its subsidiary Valorisation et Gestion Financière, on the one hand, and L'Oréal, on the other hand, each acting as shareholders of Sanofi-Aventis (the terms of which are described under Item 7.A "Major Shareholders and related Party Transactions — Major Shareholders — Shareholders' Agreement" of our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003) was amended on November 24, 2003. This amendment was notified to the AMF, which published a related notice on November 28, 2003 under the reference 203C2012. A copy of the amendment (in English translation for information purposes only) has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this document forms part.

During their mutual consultations relating to the offers on their original terms, in the context of the shareholders' agreement discussed above, Total (which was joined as a party to the shareholders' agreement by the amendment discussed above), Elf Aquitaine and Valorisation et Gestion Financière, on the one hand, and L'Oréal, on the other hand, entered into a protocol of agreement, dated January 25, 2004, in order to establish their common position on the offers. This protocol of agreement was notified to the AMF, and a summary of it was published in a notice dated February 6, 2004, under the reference 204C0196. A copy of this protocol of agreement (in English translation for information purposes only) is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this document forms part.

During their mutual consultations relating to the offers on their revised terms, Total, Elf Aquitaine and Valorisation et Gestion Financière, on the one hand, and L'Oréal, on the other hand, entered into a protocol of agreement, dated April 24, 2004, in order to establish their common position on the revised offers. This protocol of agreement was notified to the AMF, and a summary of it was published in a notice dated May 5, 2004, under the reference 204C0583. A copy of this protocol of agreement (in English translation for information purposes only) is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this document forms part.

In addition, on August 30, 2004, Total, Elf Aquitaine and Valorisation et Gestion Financière, on the one hand, and L'Oréal, on the other hand, entered into Amendment No. 2 to the shareholders' agreement, which was notified to the AMF and the following is an English translation of a summary that was published by the AMF in a notice dated September 9, 2004, under the reference 204C1085:

"Regarding the Organization of the Board of Directors

The parties to the shareholders' agreement undertake to act such that the eight directors that are to be nominated by them will be distributed in the following manner:

- three directors will be chosen from among the candidates proposed by the Total group;
- two directors will be chosen from among the candidates proposed by L'Oréal; and
- three directors will be chosen by mutual agreement by the Total group and L'Oréal from among candidates that are independent of both the Total group and L'Oréal.

Regarding the Number of Shares Subject to the Transfer Restriction

The parties to the shareholders' agreement have agreed to amend the number of shares subject to the original transfer restrictions in order to take into account the split in the nominal value of the shares that has occurred since the signature of the original agreement. Therefore, it is understood that the following shall be subject to the transfer restrictions provided by the shareholders' agreement:

- The number of Sanofi-Aventis shares held by L'Oréal, as of the date of Amendment No. 2 to the shareholder's agreement, equal to 142,235,088 shares, plus the number of shares that L'Oréal may come to hold as a result of acquisitions, subscriptions or other grants resulting in the shares mentioned above; and
- The number of Sanofi-Aventis shares held by the Total group, as of the date of Amendment No. 2 to the shareholder's agreement, equal to 142,235,088 shares, plus the number of shares that the Total group may come to hold as a result of acquisitions, subscriptions or other grants resulting in the shares mentioned above.

The parties reconfirm that until the expiration of the shareholders' agreement in the manner agreed in Amendment No. 1, which will occur on December 2, 2004, they are acting, and will continue to act, as a concert, in accordance with Article L.233-10 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), with a view to pursuing a common policy with respect to Sanofi-Aventis''.

Actonel® Alliance

Aventis is party to an agreement with the Procter & Gamble Company, or P&G, pursuant to which Aventis and P&G jointly commercialize Actonel® (risedronate sodium tablets), a third-generation bisphosphonate indicated for the prevention and treatment of osteoporosis in postmenopausal women. For the twelve-month period ended June 30, 2004, total global sales of Actonel® exceeded one billion dollars, up over 65% from the previous year. In accordance with their Actonel® alliance agreements, Aventis shares in Actonel®'s results in all of the countries where Actonel® is commercialized. Previously, Aventis had identified the Actonel® alliance as one of the significant joint ventures that was subject to a change of control provision that may have been triggered as a result of the acquisition of control of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis. For further information, see Note 11 to the consolidated financial statements of Aventis, filed as Exhibit 99.2 to Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated August 6, 2004, which is incorporated by reference into this document.

On October 8, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis and P&G announced that they had signed an agreement to maintain the collaboration on Actonel®. Sanofi-Aventis and P&G believe that this agreement will enhance the global market presence of Actonel®. The Actonel® alliance will continue to promote bone health and disease awareness through numerous activities to support physicians and patients. A common commitment has been formalized covering research and development and commercial efforts in support of Actonel®. In addition, P&G will jointly promote Actonel® with Sanofi-Aventis in some additional territories.

Separately, an option has been granted to P&G providing the right to acquire certain oral health care brands from Sanofi-Aventis — namely the Fluorcaril and Parogencyl brands. The agreement makes it possible to preserve employment within Sanofi-Aventis, thanks to an exclusive supply contract entered into with Sanofi-Aventis for a five-year period. This activity represented sales of less than €55 million in 2003.

For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated October 8, 2004, which is incorporated by reference into this document.

Exubera® Alliance

A German and a U.S. subsidiary of Aventis are party to various agreements with Pfizer, Inc. in connection with an alliance between Aventis and Pfizer for the development, production and global commercialization of an inhalation device for recombinant human insulin, or Exubera®. The global agreement governing this Exubera® alliance contains a change in control provision, which, if triggered, would give Pfizer the right either to sell its interest in the Exubera® alliance to Aventis or to purchase Aventis's interest in the Exubera® alliance, in each case at fair market value. Under the agreement, Pfizer has 45 days from an alleged change in control to request that the fair market value of the parties' interests in the Exubera® alliance be determined by internationally recognized investment banking firms appointed according to the agreement. After the investment banks have submitted their determination of fair market value, Pfizer would have the right, but not the obligation, to elect to sell its interests in the Exubera® alliance to Aventis or to purchase Aventis's interests.

Since late August, 2004, Pfizer and Sanofi-Aventis have exchanged correspondence in which Pfizer has indicated its belief that the change in control provision under the global agreement has been triggered and Sanofi-Aventis has indicated its contrary view. On September 10, 2004, Pfizer formally notified Aventis that it had elected to cause the valuation of the parties' interests in the Exubera® alliance to be determined and had selected and retained its investment bank. Aventis has replied to Pfizer's formal notice of September 10, 2004 and reiterated Aventis's position that no change in control has occurred under the terms of the global agreement. Without conceding or admitting that a change in control has occurred, Aventis has also notified Pfizer that Aventis has selected and retained its investment bank to value the parties' respective interests in the Exubera® alliance.

On September 24, 2004, Pfizer filed suit in the Supreme Court of the State of New York against the Aventis subsidiaries that are party to the global agreement, seeking a declaratory judgment that the acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis constitutes a change in control under the global agreement. The Aventis subsidiaries filed their answer to the complaint on October 27, 2004. Pfizer has also commenced a lawsuit against Aventis in Germany alleging a change in control under the Exubera® alliance.

At this time, Sanofi-Aventis is considering its options regarding the relationship between Aventis and Pfizer within the Exubera® alliance and under the terms of the global agreement. There can be no assurance that a change in control will not be found to have occurred under the global agreement or, if so, that Pfizer will not exercise its rights to terminate the Exubera® alliance by electing either to buy out Aventis's interest or to require Aventis to purchase Pfizer's interest.

Redemption of 8⅛% Guaranteed Cumulative Preference Shares, Series A of Rhône-Poulenc Overseas Limited

On October 15, 2004, Rhône-Poulenc Overseas Limited, a wholly owned financing subsidiary of Aventis, announced that, in accordance with their terms, it was calling all of its outstanding 8⅛% Guaranteed Cumulative Preference Shares, Series A, for redemption with a redemption date of November 19, 2004. The total redemption price payable will be U.S.$402.5 million, plus accrued and unpaid dividends through the redemption date in an aggregate amount of approximately U.S.$4.5 million. In accordance with their terms, on deposit of the total redemption amount, including accrued and unpaid dividends, with the paying agent, as of noon on November 19, 2004, the preference shares will cease to be outstanding and the sole right of the holders will be to receive the redemption proceeds on surrender of their share certificates for cancellation. In accordance with the terms of the preference shares, all payments in respect of the preference shares are irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteed by Aventis. As of the deposit of funds on the redemption date, the Aventis guarantee will also cease to be outstanding. Upon redemption, both the preference shares and the Aventis guarantees will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act in accordance with the rules of the SEC and the NYSE. For further information, see Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated October 15, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

Redemption of Perpetual Floating Rate Notes

Aventis has decided to redeem its perpetual floating rate notes that were issued in 1993 in a nominal amount of U.S.$370 million and of which notes in an aggregate nominal amount of U.S.$355 million remain outstanding. In accordance with the terms and conditions of these securities, which are governed by English law, Aventis published a notice to this effect on November 8, 2004, informing holders that the redemption will be effective as of the next interest payment date on December 10, 2004. The aggregate redemption price, including accrued and unpaid interest, amounts to U.S.$360,070,891. As of December 10, 2004, these securities shall cease to be outstanding and shall cease to accrue interest.

Recent Regulatory Approvals for Cancer Products

On November 4, 2004, Aventis announced that the European Commission has approved Taxotere® (docetaxel) Injection Concentrate for use in combination with prednisone as a treatment for men with androgen-independent (hormone-refractory) metastatic prostate cancer. This approval makes Taxotere® the only drug approved for breast, lung and prostate cancer, three of the most prevalent cancers in the world today.

On November 5, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that the U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Eloxatin™, in combination with conventional chemotherapy (infusional 5-fluorouracil/leucovorin, known as 5-FU/LV), for the adjuvant (postsurgical) treatment of patients with stage III colon cancer who have undergone complete resection of the primary tumor. This is the first new chemotherapy approval for the adjuvant treatment of colon cancer in over a decade.

For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated November 5, 2005, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

Date of Consolidation of Aventis

After concluding its consultations with the regulatory authorities in France and the United States, Sanofi-Aventis has determined that Aventis will be consolidated within the Sanofi-Aventis group for the first time with effect from August 31, 2004, the month end immediately following August 20, 2004, the date on which Sanofi-Aventis took control of Aventis on settlement of the offers.

Termination of Agreements with Genta Inc.

On November 9, 2004, Aventis announced that it had sent Genta Inc. a notice of termination of the agreements entered into by the companies in 2002 relating to the development of Genasense®. The termination will be effective on May 8, 2005.

At the time the agreements with Genta were entered into, Aventis was seeking a late-stage development opportunity that could potentially provide for a near-term product launch. After careful investigation, Aventis has determined it cannot continue to support the development of Genasense®, for the contemplated indications, given the recommendation of the ODAC (Oncology Drug Advisory Committee) of the FDA, with respect to melanoma, and the recent results of the CLL (chronic lymphocytic leukemia) phase III clinical trial.

For further information, see Exhibit 99.1 to Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K and Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, each dated November 9, 2004 and each of which is incorporated into this document by reference.

On November 9, 2004, the Steering Committee of RIO (Rimonabant In Obesity) issued a press announcement regarding the results of a two-year Phase III study that confirmed the long-term benefits of RimonabantTM. The results from the RIO-North America trial show that first-year improvements in cardiovascular risk factors are maintained in the second year of treatment. For further information, see Exhibit 99.2 to Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated November 9, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

Date, Time and Place

Sanofi-Aventis will hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders on Monday, December 13, 2004, if a quorum is present on the first call, or on Thursday, December 23, 2004, if held on the second call, at 10:00 a.m., Paris time, at Carrousel du Louvre, 99 rue de Rivoli, 75001 Paris, France.

Purpose of the Sanofi-Aventis Extraordinary General Meeting

At the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting, Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the following resolutions in connection with the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis:

- to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated thereby, including the increase in share capital of Sanofi-Aventis and the issuance of the new Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in payment of the merger consideration;
- to approve the accounting allocation of the merger premium and the write-off of the merger loss;
- to approve the assumption of the obligations of Aventis with respect to the Aventis BSAs and to waive, to the extent necessary, any preferential subscription rights in respect of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued to holders of the Aventis BSAs;
- to approve the assumption of the obligations of Aventis with respect to the Aventis subscription stock option plans and to waive any preferential subscription rights in respect of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued on exercise of the options;
- to approve December 31, 2004 as the effective date of the merger and of the related increase in share capital of Sanofi-Aventis;
- to approve the amendment of article VI of the bylaws (statuts) of Sanofi-Aventis to reflect the increase in the share capital of Aventis; and
- to authorize the board of directors to increase the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis by issuing shares reserved for employees who are participants in a savings plan of Sanofi-Aventis or any group company and to suppress preferential subscription rights in favour of these participants.

The Sanofi-Aventis board of directors unanimously recommends that the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders vote to approve these resolutions.

Shares Entitled to Vote

In general, all Sanofi-Aventis shareholders who have properly registered their Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares may participate in the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting. Shareholders may participate in the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting either in person or by proxy, and may vote in person, by proxy or by mail.

In order to participate in the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting, holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares must have their Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares registered in their name in a shareholder account maintained by or on behalf of Sanofi-Aventis by an agent appointed by Sanofi-Aventis on or before December 8, 2004 or December 18, 2004, as the case may be, five days prior to the date of the meeting. Similarly, a holder of bearer shares must obtain, from the accredited financial intermediary (intermédiaire financier habilité) with whom such holder has deposited its shares, a certificate (certificat d'immobilisation) indicating the number of bearer shares owned by such holder and evidencing the holding of such shares in its account until the date of the meeting. Such certificate must be deposited at BNP Paribas Securities Service — Service Emetteurs — Immeuble Tolbiac — 75450 Paris Cedex 09, France, the place specified in the notice of the meeting, on or before December 8, 2004 or December 18, 2004, as the case may be, five days before the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting.

As of September 30, 2004, 1,392,281,432 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares were issued and outstanding representing 1,652,635,092 voting rights. In general, each Sanofi-Aventis shareholder is entitled to one vote per Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting. However, any fully paid-up Sanofi-Aventis shares that have been held in registered form under the name of the same shareholder for at least two years acquire double voting rights. As of September 30, 2004, there were 336,569,393 Sanofi-Aventis shares that were entitled to double voting rights, representing approximately 25.6% of the total share capital (other than share capital held by Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries, including Aventis) and approximately 20.4% of the total voting rights of Sanofi-Aventis.

Under the French Commercial Code, shares of Sanofi-Aventis held in treasury or by entities controlled by Sanofi-Aventis are not entitled to voting rights.

Quorum

A quorum will be present at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting if the holders of at least one-third of the Sanofi-Aventis shares entitled to vote are present, either in person or by proxy, at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting.

If a quorum is not present at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting, the meeting will be adjourned. When an adjourned meeting is resumed, the quorum requirement is 25% of the shares entitled to vote, present in person or voting by mail or by proxy. If a quorum is not present, the reconvened meeting may be adjourned for a maximum of two months. No deliberation or action by the shareholders may take place without a quorum.

Double voting rights are not taken into account in determining whether a quorum exists, and Sanofi-Aventis shares held in treasury or by entities controlled by Sanofi-Aventis do not count for quorum purposes.

Vote Required

The adoption of the resolutions by the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes cast (either in person or by proxy or mail) at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting. Abstention from voting by those Sanofi-Aventis shareholders present at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting (either in person or by proxy or mail) will have the same effect as a vote against the resolutions submitted at such meeting.

Proxies and Votes by Mail

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting will be voted at the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting in the manner specified by the shareholders giving those proxies. In order to be counted, such proxies must be received at the address indicated on the notice convening the meeting at least three days prior to the date of the meeting. A Sanofi-Aventis shareholder may grant proxies only to his or her spouse or to another Sanofi-Aventis shareholder. A Sanofi-Aventis shareholder that is a corporation may grant proxies to a legal representative. Alternatively, the Sanofi-Aventis shareholder may send Sanofi-Aventis a blank proxy. In this case, the chairman of the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting will vote the blank proxies in favor of all resolutions proposed or approved by the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors and against all others.

With respect to votes by mail, Sanofi-Aventis will send Sanofi-Aventis shareholders a voting form upon request, received no later than six days prior to the date of the general meeting. The completed form must be returned to Sanofi-Aventis at least three days prior to the date of the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting.

By mailing this document, Sanofi-Aventis is not asking any Sanofi-Aventis shareholder for a proxy and Sanofi-Aventis shareholders are requested not to send one.

AVENTIS COMBINED ORDINARY AND EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

Aventis will hold a combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting of shareholders on Monday, December 13, 2004, at 9:00 a.m., Paris time, at Sofitel Bercy, 1 rue de Libourne, 75012 Paris, France.

Purpose of the Aventis Extraordinary General Meeting

At the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting, Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the following resolutions in connection with the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis:

- to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated thereby, and
- to approve the dissolution of Aventis, without liquidation.

In addition, the Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on seven ordinary resolutions, in general ratifying the appointment of the seven new members of the Aventis supervisory board who were first appointed on August 30, 2004.

The Aventis management board unanimously recommends that the Aventis shareholders vote to approve these resolutions.

Shares Entitled to Vote

In general, all Aventis shareholders who have properly registered their Aventis ordinary shares may participate in the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting. Shareholders may participate in the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting either in person or by proxy, and may vote in person, by proxy or by mail.

In order to participate in the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting, holders of Aventis ordinary shares must have their Aventis ordinary shares registered in their name in a shareholder account maintained by or on behalf of Aventis by an agent appointed by Aventis before December 11, 2004, two days prior to the date of the meeting. Similarly, a holder of bearer shares must obtain, from the accredited financial intermediary (intermédiaire financier habilité) with whom such holder has deposited its shares, a certificate (certificat d'immobilisation) indicating the number of bearer shares owned by such holder and evidencing the holding of such shares in its account until the date of the meeting. Such certificate must be deposited at Société Générale – Service Relations Sociétés Emettrices – Assemblées Générales – BP 812236 – 44312 Nantes Cedex 3 – France, the place specified in the notice of the meeting, before December 11, 2004, two days before the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting.

On October 8, 2004, approximately 807,607,696 Aventis ordinary shares were issued and outstanding, representing 807,277,210 voting rights. Each Aventis shareholder is entitled to one vote per Aventis ordinary share at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting.

Under the French Commercial Code, shares of Aventis held in treasury or by entities controlled by Aventis are not entitled to voting rights.

Quorum

A quorum will be present at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting if the holders of at least one-third of the Aventis shares entitled to vote are present, either in person or by proxy, at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting.

If a quorum is not present at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting, the meeting will be adjourned. When an adjourned meeting is resumed, the quorum requirement for the ordinary part is 25% of the shares entitled to vote, present in person or voting by mail or by proxy with no quorum requirement for the ordinary part. If a quorum is not present, the reconvened meeting may be adjourned for a maximum of two months. No deliberation or action by the shareholders may take place without a quorum.

Vote Required

The adoption of the resolutions by the Aventis shareholders requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes cast (either in person or by proxy or mail) at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting. Abstention from voting by those Aventis shareholders present at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting (either in person or by proxy or mail) is counted as a vote against the resolutions submitted at such meeting. However, because Sanofi-Aventis owns 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares (representing 98.02% of the votes entitled to be cast at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting), Sanofi-Aventis can cause the merger agreement and the merger to be approved by Aventis shareholders without the affirmative vote of any other Aventis shareholder and intends to do so. Therefore, neither Aventis nor Sanofi-Aventis is asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

Proxies and Votes by Mail

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting will be voted at the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting in the manner specified by the shareholders giving those proxies. In order to be counted, proxies related to registered shares must be received at Société Générale – Service Relations Sociétés Emettrices – Assemblées Générales – BP 812236 – 44312 Nantes Cedex 3 – France prior to December 11, 2004. For proxies relating to bearer shares, your financial institution may set an earlier deadline for submission. An Aventis shareholder may grant proxies only to his or her spouse or to another Aventis shareholder. An Aventis shareholder that is a corporation may grant proxies to a legal representative. Alternatively, the Aventis shareholder may send Aventis a blank proxy. In this case, the chairman of the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting will vote the blank proxies in favor of all resolutions proposed or approved by the Aventis management board and against all others.

With respect to votes by mail, Aventis will send Aventis shareholders a voting form upon request. The completed form must be returned to Aventis at least three days prior to the date of the Aventis combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting.

A full chronology of the background to and implementation of Sanofi-Aventis's acquisition of Aventis pursuant to the offers, restating and supplementing the sections entitled "Background and Reasons for the Offers — Background of the Offers" in our prospectus dated April 9, 2004 and "Background and Reasons for the Revised Offers — Background of the Revised Offers" in our prospectus dated May 27, 2004 is set forth in Annex D to this document. For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated August 9, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

See "— Existing Relationship between Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis — Acquisition of Aventis pursuant to the offers" for a further discussion of the results of the offers. Sanofi-Aventis also announced that, having obtained greater than two-thirds of the total share capital and voting rights of Aventis, it would provide a subsequent offering period in each of the French, German and U.S. offers of 17 French trading days (commencing on August 13, 2004) in which the terms and amounts of the consideration offered would be identical to those offered during the initial offering periods. On August 12, Sanofi-Aventis also confirmed that on settlement of the offers it would change its name to "Sanofi-Aventis" and that the eight directors nominated by the Aventis supervisory board would take office. For further information, see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated August 12, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

On August 31, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced, in its press release setting out its results for the first half of 2004, that the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors, at a meeting held on August 30, 2004, had authorized the study of a merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis with Sanofi-Aventis continuing as the surviving corporation in the merger, on the basis of an exchange ratio of 1.1739 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share (which is equivalent to exchange ratio under the all stock election in the offers, before the adjustment in respect of the 2003 Aventis dividend).

On September 2 and 3, 2004, the works' council (comité d'entreprise) of Aventis was informed about the proposed merger.

On September 4, 2004 and on September 6, 2004, respectively, at the request of the AMF, Sanofi-Aventis published notices in Le Figaro and Les Echos, announcing that the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors had authorized the study of a merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis on the basis of an exchange ratio equivalent to that offered under the all stock election in the offers.

On September 6, 2004, the subsequent offering period of Sanofi-Aventis's offer for Aventis expired.

On September 7, 2004, the merger auditors, Messrs. Ricol and Ledouble, were appointed by decision of the President of the Paris Court of Commerce on joint application of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis.

On September 16, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that the AMF had published the definitive results of its offers for Aventis after the subsequent offering periods, indicating that, on settlement of the tenders into the subsequent offering period, Sanofi-Aventis would hold 791,317,811 Aventis shares, representing 98.03% of the share capital and 98.09% of the voting rights of Aventis, based on 807,204,134 shares and 806,750,129 voting rights outstanding on August 31, 2004. See “— Existing Relationship between Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis — Acquisition of Aventis pursuant to the offers” for a discussion of the final results of the offers. After giving effect to the offers, on a fully-diluted basis, Sanofi-Aventis will hold 92.44% of the share capital and 92.49% of the voting rights of Aventis. In its press release, Sanofi-Aventis again reconfirmed that the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors, at a meeting held on August 30, 2004, had authorized the study of a merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis on the basis of an exchange ratio equivalent to that offered under the all stock election in the offers.

On September 24, 2004, the works' council (comité d'entreprise) of Aventis issued a notice regarding the merger, one member of the council having voted to approve the merger, two members voting against the merger and five members abstaining.

On September 30, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis paid a dividend in respect of its 2003 results of €1.02 per Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share. Holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that were issued in settlement of the offers were entitled to receive the full annual dividend, while holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that existed before the settlement of the offers were entitled to receive the balance of €0.05 per Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share, an interim dividend of €0.97 having been paid in respect of these shares on May 5, 2004. See “Recent Developments — Dividends”.

On October 6, 2004, the AMF issued its decision (Décision et information n°204C1182), announcing that Sanofi-Aventis had informed the AMF, in accordance with Article 5-6-6 of the General Regulation, that it intended to submit the proposed merger to general meetings of shareholders of both Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis and announcing the AMF's determination that there was no cause to require Sanofi-Aventis to make a compulsory acquisition offer (offre publique de retrait) to the minority Aventis shareholders. On October 8, 2004, the AMF published this decision in the Bulletin des Annonces Légales Obligatoires, or BALO, the French official legal gazette. As a result, the period during which this decision could be challenged in the French courts was set to expire on October 18, 2004.

On October 8, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis caused its draft prospectus (Document E) relating to the merger to be filed with the AMF.

On October 13, 2004, the Aventis management board met and voted unanimously to approve, among other things, the agreement and plan of merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, and particularly the proposed merger exchange ratio, the net asset value of Aventis's contribution, the assumption of the obligations of Aventis under the Aventis subscription stock options and Aventis BSAs, the consequences of the merger with respect to the Aventis debt securities and the substitution of Sanofi-Aventis in all the obligations of Aventis. The Aventis management board also approved the current drafts of the French Document E and the registration statement on Form F-4 of which this document forms part. The Aventis management board also voted unanimously to recommend that Aventis shareholders vote in favor of the transaction, and convened a combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting of Aventis shareholders to consider and approve the resolutions set forth in the notice included with this document.

On October 14, 2004, the Aventis supervisory board met, with one member not present, and voted (with one member abstaining) to approve the agreement and plan of merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, and particularly the proposed merger exchange ratio, the net asset value of Aventis's contribution, the assumption of the obligations of Aventis under the Aventis subscription stock options and Aventis BSAs, the consequences of the merger with respect to the Aventis debt securities and the substitution of Sanofi-Aventis in all the obligations of Aventis. The Aventis supervisory board therefore authorized the Aventis management board generally to take all steps necessary to effect the merger.

On October 14, 2004, the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors met (with all members present or represented) and voted unanimously to approve the agreement and plan of merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, and particularly the proposed merger exchange ratio, the net asset value of Aventis's contribution, the assumption of the obligations of Aventis under the Aventis subscription stock options and Aventis BSAs, the consequences of the merger with respect to the Aventis debt securities and the substitution of Sanofi-Aventis in all the obligations of Aventis. The Sanofi-Aventis board of directors also approved the current drafts of the French Document E and the registration statement on Form F-4 of which this document forms part. The Sanofi-Aventis board of directors also voted unanimously to recommend that Sanofi-Aventis shareholders vote in favor of the transaction, and convened an extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders to consider and approve the resolutions set forth under "Sanofi-Aventis Extraordinary General Meeting".

On October 14, 2004, Gérard Le Fur, President of the Aventis management board and Jean-Claude Leroy, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Sanofi-Aventis, each duly authorized by the Aventis management board and the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors, respectively, entered into the agreement and plan of merger providing for the merger on the terms and conditions described herein.

On October 15, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis caused a post-effective amendment to its existing registration statement (File no.: 333-112314) on Form F-4, including a preliminary form of this prospectus, to be filed with the SEC.

On October 18, 2004, at midnight, the period for filing an objection against the decision of the AMF pursuant to Article 5-6-6 of the General Regulation of the Conseil des marchés financiers, determining that the merger was not a transaction that gave rise to the need to implement a compulsory acquisition offer (offre publique de retrait) expired. No objection against this decision of the AMF was filed during the legal period for filing such objections.

On November 9, 2004, the AMF registered Sanofi-Aventis's prospectus (Document E) relating to the merger under reference number E.04-200.

Existing Relationship between Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis

Acquisition of Aventis pursuant to the offers

As a result of the approval by the Aventis annual general meeting held on June 11, 2004 of Aventis's dividend of €0.82 per share in respect of Aventis's 2003 results, in accordance with Sanofi-Aventis's revised offers, the adjusted and final terms of the revised offers were as follows:

- Standard Entitlement: 5 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and €115.08 in cash for 6 Aventis ordinary shares (or 0.8333 of a Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share and €19.18 in cash for each Aventis ordinary share; and 1.6667 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs and an amount in U.S. dollars equal to €19.18 in cash for each Aventis ADS);
- All Stock Election: 1.1600 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share (or 2.3200 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS); and

As of September 24, 2004, on the settlement of the purchase and exchange of the Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the subsequent offering periods ended September 6, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis acquired an aggregate of 791,317,811 Aventis ordinary shares representing 98.03% of the share capital and 98.09% of the voting rights of Aventis, based on 807,204,134 shares and 806,750,129 voting rights outstanding as of August 31, 2004. After giving effect to the offers, on a fully diluted basis, Sanofi-Aventis will hold 92.44% of the share capital and 92.49% of the voting rights of Aventis.

The following table summarizes the number of Aventis ordinary shares (including Aventis ordinary shares represented by Aventis ADSs) that were accepted pursuant to the standard entitlement, the all stock election and the all cash election, respectively, after giving effect to the proration and allocation adjustments of the offers:

In addition, Sanofi-Aventis acquired 257,248 Aventis BSAs on August 20, 2004 on settlement of the French offer.

For details of the financing of the consideration paid in respect of the settlements, see “Source and Amount of Funds”.

On October 14, 2004, in contemplation of the merger, and in order to ensure that the number of Aventis ordinary shares held by holders other than Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries is exactly divisible by 23, Sanofi-Aventis acquired 20 Aventis ordinary shares. As a result, as of the date of this document Sanofi-Aventis holds 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares.

As of October 8, 2004, as a result of the 23,575,234 Aventis ordinary shares formerly held in treasury by Aventis and tendered into the offer pursuant to an all stock election, Aventis holds 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

Agreement, dated April 25, 2004, between Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo

The following is a summary of the main terms of the Agreement, dated April 25, 2004, between Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo, which was amended on May 19, 2004. The following summary is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Agreement, which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this document forms a part and is incorporated into this document by reference.

Revised Offers. Sanofi-Synthelabo agreed to make an improved offer having the financial terms and other terms and conditions set forth in this prospectus supplement. Sanofi-Synthelabo also agreed (i) not to decrease the minimum tender condition in the revised offers or in any subsequent recommended offer, (ii) not to include an antitrust condition in the revised offers and (iii) to file the necessary documentation for the revised offers with the appropriate regulatory authorities as promptly as practicable.

Aventis Supervisory Board Recommendation. As a condition precedent to the revised offers, the Aventis supervisory board determined that the revised offers were in the interests of Aventis, its shareholders and its employees and has recommended that all holders of Aventis securities tender those securities in the revised offers. Aventis agreed to issue a press release announcing its recommendation and stating that a majority of the members of the Aventis supervisory board have agreed to tender all their Aventis securities in the revised offers. The Aventis press release will also state that the Aventis supervisory board has agreed to reschedule the Aventis Annual General Meeting in the manner set forth below. Aventis has agreed to file the necessary documentation for the Aventis supervisory board's recommendation of the revised offers with the appropriate regulatory authorities as promptly as practicable.

Company Name. Subject to the approval of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders at a duly called general meeting (which Sanofi-Synthelabo will use all reasonable efforts to call and which will in any event take place prior to the completion of the revised offers), Sanofi-Synthelabo will change its name to "Sanofi-Aventis", effective immediately following the completion of the revised offers. The worldwide working languages of the combined entity after the completion of the revised offers will be French and English.

Board of Directors; Committees. After the successful completion of the revised offers, the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors (conseil d'administration) will be composed of 17 persons, including Mr. Dehecq, as chairman and chief executive officer, 8 directors selected by the Aventis supervisory board ("Aventis Directors"), and 8 directors selected by the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors ("Sanofi-Synthelabo Directors"). The vice chairman of the board will be a German Aventis Director. The Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors will include employee representatives as non-voting members. Immediately following the successful completion of the revised offers and subject to the approval of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders at a duly called general meeting (which Sanofi-Synthelabo will use all reasonable efforts to call and which will in any event take place prior to the completion of the revised offers), Sanofi-Synthelabo will provide for the tenure of members of the board of directors to be four years. After the successful completion of the revised offers, and subject to the requirements of applicable law and stock exchanges, and with the aim to comply with best corporate governance practices, the Audit, Remuneration and Nominating and Scientific Committees of the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors will be composed of an equal number of Aventis Directors and Sanofi-Synthelabo Directors. In addition, Sanofi-Synthelabo will form a Strategic Committee that will consist of an equal number of Aventis Directors and Sanofi-Synthelabo Directors. Sanofi-Synthelabo Directors will be president of two of the foregoing committees and Aventis Directors will be president of the other two foregoing committees.

Integration Committee. An Integration Committee, chaired by Mr. Dehecq, will be established as soon as practicable to oversee the integration of the two companies' operations. The selection of managers of the combined company will be based upon criteria to discern the "best of the best" for the conduct of the ongoing operations of the combined enterprise.

Comité de Direction. A Management Committee (Comité de Direction) will be established, chaired by Mr. Dehecq and composed of equal numbers of Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis executives. The Management Committee will include the key officers and managers from the combined enterprise.

Termination Packages; Severance Policies. For 18 months following successful completion of the revised offers, Sanofi-Synthelabo will permit the Aventis employees who are members of the Aventis management board or the Aventis Operations Management Committee (a total of 12 people, not including Mr. Igor Landau) and whose employment is terminated (including if they decide to leave for professional dissatisfaction, but excluding termination for willful misconduct) to receive the compensation specified in their existing written termination packages, and Sanofi-Synthelabo will not contest the termination packages. Aventis represents that, to its best knowledge, such termination packages have been approved in accordance with applicable law. For 12 months following expiration of the revised offers, Sanofi-Synthelabo will maintain Aventis's existing severance policies.

Stock Option Liquidity Contracts. Sanofi-Synthelabo will treat Aventis stock options in general in a manner that preserves their economic value for their holders and enables the holders not to be affected by the revised offers and to benefit from their terms once the stock options become exercisable, without undue cost to the holders, Sanofi-Synthelabo or Aventis.

Statements by Sanofi-Synthelabo Shareholders. Total and L'Oréal have confirmed the following statements: "Total confirms that its strategy to divest over the medium term is unchanged and that there is no urgency to divest" and "L'Oréal is going to maintain its shareholding in the combined company." Sanofi-Synthelabo has been advised by Total and L'Oréal that, subject to the Agreement, they will vote in favor of the required share increase for Sanofi-Synthelabo and in favor of the other matters provided by the Agreement that require the approval of Sanofi-Synthelabo's shareholders.

Plavix® Disclosure. Sanofi-Synthelabo represents to Aventis that the disclosure in its Registration Statement on Form F-4 (including documents incorporated therein by reference) regarding the Plavix® litigation is true and correct in all material respects and in general is not materially misleading.

Warrants for German Aventis Employees. If requested by Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo will undertake as part of the revised offers to acquire the German BSAs (as defined below) for reasonable and equitable consideration in view of the terms of the German BSAs and the terms of the revised offers.

Franco-German Heritage; Frankfurt Operations. Sanofi-Synthelabo recognizes and affirms the importance of Aventis's Franco-German heritage, which will provide a stronger and wider European presence while expanding the international breadth of the combined enterprise in the United States, Japan and other Asian markets. The board of directors of the combined company will include German representation. Sanofi-Synthelabo considers the Aventis factory and research facilities located in Frankfurt Germany to be key assets and will maintain these operations and facilities for the foreseeable future.

Conduct of Business. Pending the completion of the revised offers, Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis will in general conduct their businesses in the ordinary and usual course and will generally preserve intact the value of their businesses, provided that Sanofi-Synthelabo will be permitted to negotiate and execute agreements for the disposal of assets in order to obtain regulatory approvals required in connection with the revised offers.

Cooperation. In general, each of Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis will use their respective reasonable efforts to consummate the transaction contemplated by the Agreement, including but not limited to cooperation in the preparation and filing of the documents relating to the revised offers and any required filings under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

No Solicitation. In general, and except to the extent required by the AMF, Aventis will not solicit, initiate or encourage or in any way seek to engage in any other business combination transaction. In the event that any third party files an offer, or makes an approach or publicly discloses its interest in acquiring Aventis, in accordance with applicable law, Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo will cooperate to determine the best conduct and most appropriate response.

Agreement to Withdraw Litigation. Aventis will withdraw with prejudice all litigation pending against the AMF and/or Sanofi-Synthelabo in connection with the offers and agrees not to contest the AMF's decision of April 23, 2004 regarding the Plavix® warrants.

Agreement to Cancel and Reschedule Aventis Annual General Meeting. Aventis will cancel its Annual General Meeting and will reschedule that meeting on the agenda previously published, except that the agenda will exclude any resolution relating to the Plavix® warrants or to the limitation of voting rights. The Aventis supervisory board agrees to recommend that shareholders vote against any similar resolution or any other resolution that may negatively impact the consummation of the revised offers.

Press Releases. Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis will use all reasonable efforts to consult with each other prior to issuing any press release in connection with the revised offers.

Letter Agreement with Igor Landau

On April 25, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo, represented by Mr. Jean-François Dehecq, and Mr. Igor Landau entered into a letter agreement confirming Mr. Landau's existing and previously publicly disclosed severance benefits and other employment-related benefits. The letter agreement has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this document forms part and is incorporated in this document by reference.

Confidentiality Agreement

On May 5, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis entered into a confidentiality agreement, effective as of April 26, 2004, relating to information to be exchanged between the two companies in connection with obtaining regulatory approvals for the acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the planning for the eventual integration of the two businesses. The confidentiality agreement provided customary terms and conditions for the protection and use of the nonpublic information of the two companies. According to its terms, the confidentiality agreement terminated on settlement of the offers and is no longer in effect.

Other than as set forth in this document, or in documents incorporated herein by reference, including the agreement and plan of merger set forth in Annex A, and the chronology set forth in Annex D to this document, each of which is incorporated into this document by reference, there have been no material contacts between Sanofi-Aventis and its affiliates and Aventis and its affiliates since January 1, 1999 relating to any merger, consolidation or acquisition; any tender offer or similar acquisition of securities; any election of directors; or any sale or other transfer of a material amount of assets.

Reasons for the Acquisition of Aventis

The reasons for the acquisition of Aventis set forth below should be considered in addition to the reasons for the offers set forth in the section “Background and Reasons for the Offers — Reasons for the Offers” in the prospectus dated April 9, 2004 and in the section “Background and Reasons for the Revised Offers — Reasons for the Revised Offers” in the prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004.

Sanofi-Aventis made its offers for Aventis in order to acquire, in the most expedient manner possible, control of Aventis through the acquisition of all, or a controlling majority, of the outstanding Aventis ordinary shares, including Aventis ordinary shares represented by Aventis ADSs. Sanofi-Aventis sought to acquire Aventis because Sanofi-Aventis believes that the combination of the two companies will create the number one pharmaceutical company in Europe and the number three worldwide. Sanofi-Aventis believes that the enhanced scale, financial strength and research and development resources of the combined company should allow it to serve patients worldwide and to enhance shareholder value in ways that were not likely to be achieved by either Sanofi-Aventis or Aventis on a stand-alone basis. Sanofi-Aventis believes that the strategic rationale for the acquisition is compelling for Aventis shareholders as well as for Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders. Sanofi-Aventis also believes that it has the capabilities to realize the potential benefits discussed in this section, “Reasons for the Acquisition of Aventis” and in the sections “Reasons for the Offers” and “Reasons for the Revised Offers” in the prospectus dated April 9, 2004, and the prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004. However, as with any investment decision, there can be no assurance that these benefits will be realized. For a discussion of the risk factors that you should consider carefully in evaluating the merger, see “Risk Factors”.

Sanofi-Aventis believes that both groups of shareholders have overwhelmingly endorsed the acquisition of Aventis. At the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders convened on June 23, 2004 to approve, among other things, the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis and the issuance of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued in exchange for the Aventis ordinary shares tendered in the offers, 98.99% of the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders represented at the meeting voted in favor of the resolutions, representing 76.26% of the total voting rights then outstanding. On September 16, 2004, the AMF announced that as a result of the offers, including the subsequent offering period, Sanofi-Aventis had acquired 791,317,811 Aventis ordinary shares, representing 98.03% of the Aventis ordinary shares outstanding as of August 31, 2004.

The strategic rationale for combining Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis includes the following:

- the increased size and scale of the combined group;
- the complementary aspects available by combining the existing strengths of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, which in particular create significant opportunities for the combined group in the United States and other fast-growing markets;
- the quality and complementary nature of the existing product portfolio of the combined group;

- the enhanced research and development capabilities and new product pipeline of the combined group, which will benefit from a larger number of molecules under development; and
- the opportunity to realize significant cost savings and other synergies.

Sanofi-Aventis believes that combining Aventis's and Sanofi-Aventis's resources to create the number one pharmaceuticals company in Europe and the number three worldwide has a genuine industrial logic and a compelling strategic rationale and has the potential to deliver strong, sustainable and profitable growth. In particular, Sanofi-Aventis believes that the combined company, under the leadership of Sanofi-Aventis, will be able to benefit from:

- a remarkable portfolio of pharmaceutical products in seven high-growth therapeutic categories: cardiovascular; thrombosis; oncology; diabetes; central nervous system; internal medicine and human vaccines;
- a strong base in Europe with a significant and growing presence in all the major world markets, particularly the United States;
- a dynamic sales and marketing policy, tailored to specific products and specific markets; and
- financial and human resources optimized for developing research into marketable products and thereby delivering medium- and long-term growth.

Reasons for the Merger

The proposed merger is viewed by the management of Sanofi-Aventis as the next step in the implementation of its strategic acquisition of Aventis and the creation of the largest pharmaceuticals group in Europe and the third largest pharmaceuticals group in the world.

In particular, the merger is intended to simplify the legal structure of the combined group and facilitate the integration of the business of the groups by allowing a more direct and effective management of the group's operating assets.

Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis also believe that by exchanging Aventis securities in connection with the merger, holders of Aventis securities (and holders of Aventis stock options) will be able to benefit from the greater liquidity of Sanofi-Aventis securities.

Decision of the Aventis Supervisory Board

At its meeting held on October 14, 2004, the Aventis supervisory board voted (with one member not present, and one member abstaining) to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the transactions contemplated by that agreement, including the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis and the dissolution of Aventis, without liquidation.

Recommendation of the Aventis Management Board

At its meeting on October 13, 2004, the Aventis management board voted unanimously to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the transactions contemplated by that agreement, including the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis and the dissolution of Aventis without liquidation, and voted unanimously to recommend that holders of Aventis ordinary shares vote to approve the merger.

Recommendation of the Sanofi-Aventis Board of Directors

At its meeting on October 14, 2004, the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors (with all directors present or represented at the meeting) voted unanimously to approve the agreement and plan of merger and the transactions contemplated by that agreement, including the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, and voted unanimously to recommend that holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares vote to approve the merger.

MERGER AGREEMENT

Sanofi-Aventis believes that the following summary describes all the material terms of the merger agreement and the operation of a merger (fusion par absorption) under French law. However, because the merger agreement is the primary legal document that governs the merger, you should read carefully the complete text of the merger agreement as it contains information that may be important to you. An English translation of the complete text of the merger agreement is included as Annex A to this document and is incorporated into this document by reference. The English translation is provided for information purposes, and only the original version of the merger agreement in the French language has any legal force.

Mergers under French Law

As provided under Chapter VI of Title III of Book 2 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), a merger (fusion par absorption) under French law is a transaction by which one company transfers all of its assets, rights and liabilities (patrimoine) to another company under the principle of the universal transfer of assets (transmission universelle de patrimoine). The company that transfers its assets and liabilities (la société absorbée) is dissolved, without any liquidation distribution, and ceases to exist. The surviving company (la société absorbante) succeeds to all of the assets and rights (subject to specific exceptions provided either by law or contract) of the dissolved company and assumes all of its liabilities.

At the effective time of the merger, the surviving company issues new shares to the holders of shares in the dissolving company in exchange for those shares, according to terms that are agreed in the merger agreement. Any shares of the dissolving company that are held by the dissolving company itself or by the surviving company are not exchanged for newly issued shares in the surviving company.

The constituent companies in a merger must enter into an agreement and plan of merger (projet de fusion). The merger must be approved by an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of each constituent company in the merger. The board of directors (conseil d'administration) or the management board (directoire) of the constituent companies must produce a written report on the merger that must be made available to their respective shareholders. Court-appointed merger auditors (commissaires à la fusion) must produce written reports on the merger consideration and on the valuation of the assets contributed by the dissolving company in the merger, as more fully described under “Reports of the Merger Auditors”.

The agreement and plan of merger, dated October 14, 2004, for the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis was filed with the Clerk of the Commercial Court of Paris (Tribunal de Commerce de Paris) on October 20, 2004, under the reference 00062594, and with the Clerk of the Court of Grand Instance of Strasbourg (Tribunal de Grande Instance de Strasbourg) on October 20, 2004, under the reference 2004-A-7202.

Description of the Parties; Motives and Objectives; Accounts; Valuation Methodologies

As required by the applicable regulations, the first chapter of the merger agreement sets forth a detailed legal description of Aventis, as the dissolving company in the merger, and Sanofi-Aventis, as the surviving company in the merger. For both Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis, among other things, the merger agreement sets forth the date of their incorporation, their share capital, the stock markets on which they are listed to trade, the various equity and debt securities that they have outstanding and the purposes for which they were incorporated. The first chapter of the merger agreement also sets forth the existing relationships between Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis and the motives and objectives for the merger. The first chapter of the merger agreement also summarizes any transactions that have had an effect on the capital of Aventis or Sanofi-Aventis since January 1, 2004 and other significant events that have occurred since January 1, 2004. In all material respects, this information is provided elsewhere in this document or has been incorporated into this document by reference.

The first chapter of the merger agreement also provides that the terms and conditions of the merger will be based on the financial accounts of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis as of December 31, 2003.

The Merger

In the merger, Aventis will merge with and into Sanofi-Aventis. Sanofi-Aventis will continue as the surviving company and Aventis will be dissolved. Pursuant to the merger agreement and in accordance with articles L.236-1 et seq. of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), Aventis will contribute to Sanofi-Aventis, and Sanofi-Aventis will accept and assume, all of the assets and liabilities that make up the entire estate (patrimoine) of Aventis. Because, for accounting and tax purposes, the merger will be given retroactive effect as of January 1, 2004, the merger contribution of Aventis will include all of the assets and liabilities taken into account on the balance sheet of Aventis, as of December 31, 2003, and all the subsequent transactions of Aventis, whether affecting its assets or its liabilities, will be deemed to have been carried out by Sanofi-Aventis.

Effective Time

For legal purposes, the merger agreement provides that the merger will become effective on December 31, 2004. At the effective time:

- all of the assets and liabilities of Aventis will be transferred to Sanofi-Aventis in accordance with French law through the universal transfer of assets (transmission universelle de patrimoine);
- Aventis will be dissolved and its separate corporate existence will cease; and
- the holders of Aventis ordinary shares (other than Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis) will receive 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for every 23 Aventis shares that they held immediately before the effective time.

As permitted by applicable French law and regulations, the merger agreement provides that, for French accounting and tax purposes, the merger will be given effect retroactively as of January 1, 2004. For French accounting and tax purposes, all transactions undertaken by Aventis between January 1, 2004 and December 31, 2004, the effective time of the merger, will be deemed to have been undertaken by Sanofi-Aventis.

Merger Exchange Ratio

Because the proposed merger is viewed by the management of Sanofi-Aventis as the next step in the implementation of its strategic acquisition of Aventis, following its tender offer for the Aventis ordinary shares, the merger exchange ratio has been determined on the basis of the same analyses used to define the exchange ratio in the all stock election of the offer, updated as necessary. The analyses used were:

- the average stock market prices, weighted by volumes, of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares preceding January 21, 2004, the last full trading day on Euronext Paris before rumors and press articles affected the share prices and trading volumes for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares;
- the average stock market prices, weighted by volumes, of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares preceding August 30, 2004, the last full trading day on Euronext Paris before Sanofi-Aventis announced its intention to study the merger;
- the relative consolidated net earnings per share (EPS) of the two groups; and
- the relative net dividend per share of the two groups.

For a translation of the financial analyses of the terms of the merger as prepared by Sanofi-Aventis, please see “Financial Analysis of the Merger”.

As a result of this valuation, the merger exchange ratio in the merger has been set at 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares (or approximately 1.17391 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share).

Merger Consideration

In accordance with article L.236-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), the merger agreement provides that no Sanofi-Aventis shares will be issued in exchange for any Aventis ordinary shares held by Sanofi-Aventis. As of the date of the merger agreement, Sanofi-Aventis held 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares.

After giving effect in the merger to the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares, in aggregate, 19,122,885 new Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares will be issued in exchange for 16,289,865 Aventis ordinary shares held by Aventis shareholders, other than Sanofi-Aventis.

Assuming that the number of Aventis ordinary shares held respectively by Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis does not change before the effective time of the merger, the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis will be increased by €38,245,770, taking it from €2,784,562,864 to €2,822,808,634, divided into 1,411,404,317 ordinary shares of €2 nominal value per share. These new Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares will be issued to the Aventis shareholders other than Sanofi-Aventis, according to the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares.

Treatment of Fractional Shares

The merger agreement provides that it is the responsibility of shareholders themselves, who hold an insufficient number of Aventis ordinary shares to allow them to exercise all of their rights, to purchase or to sell the number of Aventis shares necessary to hold a round-number multiple of 23 Aventis shares.

Sanofi-Aventis will not issue any fractional interests in any Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in the merger. If you hold Aventis ordinary shares, you will only be entitled to receive your merger consideration in full in respect of round-number multiples of 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold. As a result, in order to receive all your merger consideration, you must purchase or sell a number of Aventis ordinary shares such that you hold an exact multiple of 23 Aventis shares.

To facilitate this, after the effective time of the merger, Aventis ordinary shares (which will then represent only the right to receive the merger consideration) will continue to trade for one month on the Premier marché, and then for six months on the delisted securities market (Compartiment des valeurs radiées) of Euronext Paris. Under the merger agreement, subject to the effectiveness of the merger, until March 31, 2005, Sanofi-Aventis has agreed to pay the brokerage fees and value-added tax incurred by Aventis shareholders, up to 0.3% of the price of each Aventis ordinary share bought or sold and related to the purchase or sale of up to a maximum of 22 Aventis ordinary shares per holder.

For a description of the treatment of fractional interests in Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, please see “Treatment of Aventis ADSs in Connection with the Merger”.

Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares Issued in the Merger

The new Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in the merger will have exactly the same rights and privileges as the existing Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, subject to all the provisions of Sanofi-Aventis bylaws (statuts). In particular, the newly issued Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares will have full rights to the distribution of dividends, interim dividends or reserves declared after their issuance. The newly issued Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares will not, therefore, have dividend rights to the dividend paid by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004, in respect of its 2003 results. For a further description of the rights and privileges of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, see “Description of Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares”.

In addition, from and after the effective time of the increase in Sanofi-Aventis’s share capital as merger consideration, the merger agreement provides that all of the newly issued Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares will be freely tradable and an application will be made to have them admitted to trade on the Premier marché of Euronext Paris S.A. An application also will be made to have the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued to U.S. holders of Aventis shares admitted to trade on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. See “Regulatory Matters — Stock Exchanges”.

As a result of Aventis holding 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares immediately prior to the merger, immediately after the merger, Sanofi-Aventis will hold 76,215,733 of its own shares, taking into account the 48,868,462 shares that it already holds as of the date of the merger agreement, representing a total of approximately 5.40% of its share capital.

Increase in Share Capital of Sanofi-Aventis; Expected Merger Premium; Loss on Cancelled Shares

Article 12 of the merger agreement sets forth the calculations for the increase of the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis from €2,784,562,864 to €2,822,808,634. It also sets forth the calculations of the expected merger premium of €508,561,335, which will be recorded in a “merger premium” account under stockholders’ equity under the liabilities of Sanofi-Aventis. In addition, Article 12 of the merger agreement provides that the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and approve the allocation of an additional €27,894,216 to the “merger premium” account, representing the aggregate amount of the Sanofi-Aventis 2003 dividend that Aventis received in respect of the 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that Aventis acquired in the offer in exchange for the tender of the Aventis treasury shares.

The merger agreement therefore provides that the total amount expected to be allocated to the merger premium account is €536,455,551. The merger agreement further provides that the merger premium may be applied in any manner that complies with French GAAP and is approved by the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders. In particular, the merger agreement provides that the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders convened to approve the merger agreement will be asked to authorize the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors to apply the merger premium to any of the following:

- reconstituting on the liabilities side on the balance sheet of Sanofi-Aventis the statutory provisions and reserves that existed on the balance sheet of Aventis, in particular restoring the special reserve for long-term capital gain in an amount of €319,518,918;
- all or part of the fees, costs and expenses resulting from the merger; and
- reconstituting the legal reserve to 10% of the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, after giving effect to the merger.

Article 12 of the merger agreement also sets forth the calculation for the merger loss of €25,277,722,121, and provides that it will be proposed to the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders to charge this loss, without any economic significance, against the share issuance account and the additional paid-in capital recorded in the offers.

For a detailed description of this calculation, you should refer to Article 12 of the merger agreement, included as Annex A to this document.

Dissolution of Aventis

In accordance with article L.236-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis will be effective on December 31, 2004, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in the merger agreement. The merger will result in the dissolution of Aventis without liquidation and the universal transfer of all of the assets and liabilities of Aventis to Sanofi-Aventis.

Conditions

Completion of the merger is subject to the following conditions precedent:

- approval by the Aventis shareholders at an extraordinary general meeting of the merger agreement, and of the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated thereby, and of the dissolution of Aventis without liquidation contemplated thereby;
- approval by the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders at an extraordinary general meeting of:
 - the merger agreement and the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis contemplated thereby;

- the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis necessary to issue the merger consideration;
- the waiver of the preferential subscription rights of existing Sanofi-Aventis shareholders with respect to the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares to be issued from time to time on exercise of the Aventis subscription stock options, and, to the extent necessary, the Aventis BSAs; and
- The absence or dismissal of any objection filed in any court of competent jurisdiction in opposition to the decision of the AMF pursuant to Article 5-6-6 of the General Regulation of the Conseil des marchés financiers determining that there is no need to file a compulsory acquisition offer (offre publique de retrait) for the Aventis ordinary shares not held by Sanofi-Aventis. (This condition was satisfied on October 18, 2004, at midnight. At that time the period for filing any objection in opposition to the decision of the AMF expired and no objection had been filed during the objection period.)

Termination

If all of the conditions to the merger are not satisfied on or prior to December 31, 2004, the proposed merger will automatically lapse, unless Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis agree otherwise. On termination, neither party will have the right to seek an indemnity from the other party.

Treatment of Aventis Stock Options

The merger agreement expressly provides that Sanofi-Aventis, as successor to Aventis, agrees to be bound by Aventis's obligations under the Aventis subscription stock options. After the effective time of the merger, the Aventis subscription stock options will entitle their holders to subscribe for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares instead of Aventis ordinary shares. The number of shares subject to the options and their exercise price will be adjusted to give effect to the merger exchange ratio in the following manner:

- the number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that each holder of Sanofi-Aventis options shall have the right to subscribe under any given subscription option plan shall equal that number of Aventis ordinary shares that could formerly have been subscribed under that plan multiplied by the merger exchange ratio of 27/23 (or approximately 1.17391) applicable to shareholders, rounded down to the nearest whole number; and
- the exercise price per Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share shall be equal to the exercise price per Aventis ordinary share divided by the merger exchange ratio of 27/23 (or approximately 1.17391) applicable to shareholders, rounded down to the nearest whole euro centime; with all other terms of exercise remaining unaltered.

At the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders called to approve the merger, the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will also be asked to vote on a resolution to waive their preferential subscription rights with respect to the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that will be issued on the exercise of these subscription stock options.

With respect to the purchase option plans issued by Aventis Inc. (formerly known as Rhône-Poulenc Rorer, Inc.) and Hoechst which provide for the purchase of Aventis shares, the merger agreement provides that Sanofi-Aventis shall cause the regulations of these plans to be amended to provide that, after the effective time of the merger, holders of these purchase options may purchase Sanofi-Aventis shares after adjusting the purchase price and the number of shares subject to option by the merger exchange ratio in the same manner as set forth above, with all other terms of exercise remaining unaltered.

Treatment of Aventis BSAs

The merger agreement provides that in accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), Sanofi-Aventis assumes all the obligations of Aventis in relation to the Aventis BSAs.

As a result, the number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which the holders of Aventis BSAs may exercise the BSAs will be determined by applying the merger exchange ratio to the number of Aventis ordinary shares subject to the warrants. In aggregate, the BSAs issued in 2002 therefore will be exercisable for 108,812 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and the BSAs issued in 2003 will be exercisable for 193,174 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, subject to any other financial adjustments. The number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which the Aventis BSAs will be exercisable will be the subject of a notice issued by the merger auditors, acting in their capacity as contribution accountants (Commissaires aux apports) in accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French commercial code.

In accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French commercial code, the approval of the merger by the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders involves the waiver by Sanofi-Aventis shareholders of their preferential subscription rights under Article L.228-91 of the French commercial code. At the Sanofi-Aventis extraordinary general meeting called to approve the merger, to the extent necessary, the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will also be asked to vote on a resolution to waive their preferential subscription rights with respect to the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares that will be issued from time to time on the exercise of the BSAs.

Representations of Aventis

Pursuant to Article 19 of the merger agreement, Gérard Le Fur, as the authorized representative of Aventis, made certain customary representations on behalf of Aventis, including that Aventis:

- is not and has not been subject to any insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation or similar proceedings;
- is not subject to any criminal penalty or other measure that could adversely affect its legal capacity or its ability to transfer its assets freely;
- is duly registered under the reference 542 064 308 RCS Strasbourg;
- has made all tax and social security payments currently due and payable;
- will deliver all of its books and records to Sanofi-Aventis at the effective time of the merger; and
- has not taken any measures since January 1, 2004 that could affect the merger exchange ratio.

Gérard Le Fur, as the authorized representative of Aventis also made certain customary representations on behalf of Aventis regarding the assets and liabilities to be transferred in the merger, including that:

- Aventis has identified on a schedule all of the real estate and real property rights, including all of the leases, that will be transferred to Sanofi-Aventis pursuant to the merger;
- the assets and liabilities to be transferred to Sanofi-Aventis pursuant to the merger are not subject to any liens or other encumbrances, other than liens incurred in the ordinary course of business;
- the assets and liabilities to be transferred include no financial leases (contrat de credit-bail) relating to real property, or to equipment that are still in force and effect;
- the assets and liabilities to be transferred do not include any contract that could affect the merger exchange ratio; and
- the assets and liabilities to be transferred do not include any obligation, financial or otherwise, that could affect the merger exchange ratio.

Tax Representations and Tax Obligations

Pursuant to Article 15 of the merger agreement, Jean-Claude Leroy and Gérard Le Fur, as authorized representatives of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, respectively, make certain representations and undertakings on behalf of the parties to the merger agreement. These representations and undertakings are required by Article 210A of the French Tax Code (Code Général des Impôts) in order for the merger to qualify for preferential tax treatment. In particular, Article 210A provides that:

- Aventis will not be taxed on any capital gains realized in the merger; and
- Sanofi-Aventis will not be liable for any corporate income tax on any gain on the cancellation of its own shares that it acquires pursuant to the merger.

Description and Valuation of Assets Transferred and Liabilities Assumed

In the merger, Aventis will transfer to Sanofi-Aventis all of the assets on its balance sheet as of December 31, 2003. In accordance with applicable French law and regulations, the merger agreement sets forth the gross value, the accumulated depreciation and net book value, as of December 31, 2003, of the following classes of assets, each of which are described in further detail on a schedule to the merger agreement:

- fixed assets, including tangible and intangible assets and long-term investments;
- current assets; and
- prepayments and deferred income.

The total net book value, as December 31, 2003, of the assets to be contributed by Aventis to Sanofi-Aventis pursuant to the merger is stated as €40,998,606,469, which is to be increased by the proceeds from the exercise of Aventis subscription stock options after January 1, 2004, in the amount of €209,938,407 to €41,208,544,876.

The merger agreement provides that the transfer of Aventis's assets to Sanofi-Aventis is in consideration of the assumption by Sanofi-Aventis of all the liabilities of Aventis on its balance sheet as of December 31, 2003. The merger agreement sets forth the amount of the following classes of liabilities, each of which is described in further detail in a schedule to the merger agreement:

- participating shares and perpetual floating rate notes;
- provisions for risks and losses;
- debts; and
- accrued liabilities.

The value, as of December 31, 2003, of the liabilities to be assumed by Sanofi-Aventis pursuant to the merger is stated as €13,460,770,787, which is to be increased by the €638,548,410 dividend payable as of July 15, 2004, to a total of €14,099,319,197.

The net asset value of the property contributed by Aventis in the merger is therefore €27,109,225,679, the difference between the net book value of the assets contributed and the net book value of the liabilities assumed.

As a result of the merger, all of the liabilities of Aventis (including those liabilities that do not appear on the balance sheet of Aventis) will be assumed by Sanofi-Aventis. This assumption of liabilities will not cause a novation in favor of the creditors of Aventis. As a consequence, pursuant to articles L.236-14 and L.236-15 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis's creditors whose debt was created prior to the publication of the merger shall have the right to oppose its transfer for a thirty-day period running from the date of the latest publication in a journal of the legal notice of the merger or in the Bulletin des Annonces Légales Obligatoires (or BALO) publicizing the merger.

Off-Balance Sheet Commitments

In addition to the assets and liabilities set forth on Aventis's balance sheet, the merger agreement provides that Sanofi-Aventis will benefit from all of the commitments given in favor of Aventis, and will assume all of the commitments given by Aventis. A non-exclusive list of Aventis's commitments is set forth on a schedule to the merger agreement.

Vesting of Rights and Assets; Covenants

All of the rights and assets transferred by Aventis will vest in Sanofi-Aventis, at the effective time of the merger on December 31, 2004, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedents described above.

In accordance with applicable law, from and after the date of the merger agreement, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to accept at the effective time of the merger all of the assets and liabilities held by Aventis, whatever they then may be.

Aventis undertakes that, until the effective time of the merger, without the prior written consent of Sanofi-Aventis, it will not:

- dispose of any of its assets;
- act in any manner that will adversely affect or encumber any of its assets (particularly the Sanofi-Aventis shares that it holds); or
- act in any manner that will reduce the net asset value of its contribution or alter the fairness of the exchange presented by the merger.

TREATMENT OF AVENTIS ADSs IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER

An Aventis ADS represents an ownership interest in one Aventis ordinary share that has been deposited with the depositary, under the Aventis deposit agreement. Under the Aventis deposit agreement, a holder of an Aventis ADS has the right to receive the deposited Aventis ordinary shares against surrender of the Aventis ADS. In general, if the deposited Aventis ordinary shares are converted or exchanged for another security, including as a result of any reorganization, merger or consolidation of Aventis, the Aventis ADSs issued by the depositary will represent the security into which the Aventis ordinary shares are exchanged or converted.

In connection with the merger, Sanofi-Aventis has caused Aventis to remove Citibank, as depositary under the Aventis deposit agreement and to appoint The Bank of New York, as successor depositary, effective as of October 22, 2004.

In the merger, all of the deposited Aventis ordinary shares held by The Bank of New York, as the Aventis depositary, will be exchanged for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, according to the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares. As a result, immediately after the merger, one Aventis ADS will represent an ownership interest in approximately 1.17391 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares. In this section, we refer to the Aventis ordinary shares that are deposited under the Aventis deposit agreement, and the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which they will be exchanged in the merger, as the “deposited securities”.

In order to avoid the confusion over having two classes of ADSs in issue, each class representing a different number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, Aventis has agreed to cause the Aventis depositary to terminate the deposit agreement effective immediately after the effective time of the merger. Pursuant to the deposit agreement, upon termination, the depositary will discontinue the registration of transfers of Aventis ADRs, will suspend the distribution of dividends to the holders, and will not give any further notices or perform any further acts under the deposit agreement, other than collecting dividends and other distributions in respect of the deposited securities and delivering the deposited securities (and any dividends or distributions received in respect of the deposited securities) in exchange for Aventis ADRs surrendered to the depositary.

In contemplation of the merger, Aventis and the depositary have also amended the deposit agreement to provide that in connection with its termination, the following will occur:

- If you hold your ADSs in book-entry form, as of the termination of the Aventis deposit agreement:
 - you will be deemed to have surrendered your Aventis ADSs against delivery to you of your ownership interest in the deposited securities;
 - you will be deemed to have consented to, and authorized and instructed, the delivery to you of your ownership interest in the deposited securities in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, together with cash in lieu of any fractional interest in any Sanofi-Aventis ADSs; and
 - you will be deemed to have waived all rights under the deposit agreement other than the right to receive the deposited securities in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs.
- If you hold certificates, commonly known as American depositary receipts, or ADRs, evidencing your Aventis ADS, as of the termination of the Aventis deposit agreement:
 - you will be deemed to have consented to the delivery of your ownership interest in the deposited securities in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, together with cash in lieu of any fractional interest in any Sanofi-Aventis ADSs;

- you will be deemed to have waived all rights under the deposit agreement other than the right to receive the deposited securities in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs; but
- your interest in the deposited securities will only be delivered to you against physical surrender of your Aventis ADRs. As soon as practicable after the last of the conditions to the merger is satisfied, we will cause the Aventis depositary to deliver to you appropriate transmittal materials with which you may surrender your Aventis ADRs in order to receive your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs.

Sanofi-Aventis has caused The Bank of New York to mail a notice of amendment and termination to the holders of Aventis ADSs in accordance with the Aventis deposit agreement.

After giving effect to the amended Aventis deposit agreement, on its termination at the effective time of the merger, you will be entitled to receive 54 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs (each Sanofi-Aventis ADS representing one-half of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share) for every 23 Aventis ADSs that you hold immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, or approximately 2.3478 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS that you hold.

In no event will you be entitled to receive any fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. In lieu of any fraction of a Sanofi-Aventis ADS that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive in consideration of your Aventis ADS, you will receive an amount in cash equal to the product of that fraction and the average sale price per Sanofi-Aventis ADS, net of expenses, realized on the NYSE in the sale of all the fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that would otherwise be delivered in connection with the merger and the termination of the Aventis ADS deposit agreement.

In no event will interest be paid on the cash to be received in lieu of any fraction of a Sanofi-Aventis ADS, regardless of any delay in making the payment to the holder entitled to receive it, including any delay by a holder in surrendering any Aventis ADRs.

You will not be required to pay any cancellation fees under the Aventis deposit agreement in connection with the surrender of your Aventis ADSs or any deposit fees under the Sanofi-Aventis deposit agreement in connection with the issuance of the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs to be delivered to you. Sanofi-Aventis has agreed to pay these charges, if any, on your behalf.

The amendment to the deposit agreement and the arrangements described above are intended to protect and preserve the rights of the holders of Aventis ADSs to receive the deposited securities represented by their Aventis ADS at any time, against surrender of those ADSs, while at the same time providing them with the opportunity to exchange their Aventis ADSs for Sanofi-Aventis ADSs in connection with the merger without having to incur cancellation or deposit fees.

If you do not wish to receive your interest in the merger consideration in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, and wish to receive the merger consideration directly in the form of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, you must surrender your Aventis ADS against issuance of your underlying interest in the deposited securities before the effective time of the merger. By doing so, you will become the holder of Aventis ordinary shares before the effective time of the merger and as a result will be entitled to receive 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares that you hold. However, you will incur a cancellation fee of U.S.$5 for every lot (or part thereof) of 100 Aventis ADSs that you surrender to the Aventis depositary. In addition, you will not have the right to receive cash in lieu of any fractional interest in Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and will only be able to receive the full merger consideration to which you are entitled in respect of your Aventis ordinary shares if you arrange to hold round-number multiple of 23 Aventis ordinary shares. For further information, please see “Merger Agreement — Treatment of Fractional Shares”.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS OF THE MERGER

The following is a translation from French of the disclosure regarding the financial analysis of the merger set forth in the French merger prospectus (Document E) and as Schedule 6 to the merger agreement. Certain terminology has been conformed to the defined terms used in this document and certain typographical conventions have been conformed to United States usage. The analysis was made available to the merger auditors for their review in preparing their report on the fairness of the merger exchange ratio. However, the analysis was prepared by Sanofi-Aventis and not by the merger auditors.

While it is a requirement of applicable French law that the merger auditors be appointed by a court and that they review and render an opinion on the fairness of the merger exchange ratio provided by the agreement and plan of merger, the merger auditors do not themselves determine the merger exchange ratio. The merger exchange ratio is provided by the agreement and plan of merger as approved by the boards of the constituent companies and by the extraordinary general meetings of their shareholders.

Merger Exchange Ratio Determined by the Boards of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis

The merger exchange ratio determined by the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors and the Aventis management board and the Aventis supervisory board is 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares, or approximately 1.17391 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share.

Financial Analyses Used in Determining the Merger Exchange Ratio

Because the proposed merger is viewed by the management of Sanofi-Aventis as the next step in the implementation of its strategic acquisition of Aventis, following its tender offers for the Aventis ordinary shares, the merger exchange ratio has been determined on the basis of the same analyses used to define the exchange ratio in the all stock election of the offer, updated as necessary. The analyses used were:

- the average stock market prices, weighted by volumes, of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares preceding January 21, 2004, the last full trading day on Euronext Paris before rumors and press articles affected the share prices and trading volumes for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares;
- the average stock market prices, weighted by volumes, of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares preceding August 30, 2004, the last full trading day on Euronext Paris before Sanofi-Aventis announced its intention to study the merger;
- the relative consolidated net earnings per share (EPS) of the two groups; and
- the relative net dividend per share of the two groups.

Average stock market price

The following table summarizes the level of premiums implied by the merger exchange ratio, as compared to the implied exchange ratio based on:

- the average closing price, weighted by volumes, of Aventis ordinary shares and of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares between January 26, 2004, the date that Sanofi-Aventis announced its offers for Aventis, and August 30, 2004, the last full trading day before Sanofi-Aventis announced that it was studying the feasibility of merging Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis; and
- the average closing price, weighted by volumes, of Aventis ordinary shares and of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares between April 26, 2004, the date that Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis announced that they had entered into an agreement providing, among other things, for the terms and conditions of the revised offers, and August 30, 2004.

It also sets forth the implied exchange ratios based on the highest and lowest prices of Aventis ordinary shares and Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares during the periods indicated, as well as the implied exchange ratios based on the average closing prices weighted by volumes of each company for the selected periods ended on:

- January 21, 2004, the last full trading day on Euronext Paris before rumors and press articles affected the share prices and trading volumes for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ordinary shares, and
- August 30, 2004, the last full trading day on Euronext Paris before Sanofi-Aventis announced its intention to study the merger.

Financial Analysis Presented for Informational Purposes Only

Premiums offered in selected precedent transactions in the pharmaceutical industry

This analysis consisted of comparing the premiums implied by the merger exchange ratio over the average stock market prices in the periods preceding the first announcement of Sanofi-Aventis's offer for Aventis on January 26, 2004 with the premiums over the stock market price of the target companies in selected significant transactions in the pharmaceutical sector since 1998.

It should be noted that these selected transactions were effected exclusively through share exchanges. Except as noted below, the premiums were calculated based on the closing price or the average closing prices of the common or ordinary shares of the target company during the selected periods of between one day and one year prior to the public announcement of the relevant transaction, except as noted below.

The difference between the premiums implied by the offer price under the all cash election and the premiums in the selected transactions was calculated by subtracting the average and median of the premiums in the precedent transactions for each of the selected periods from the premiums implied by the offer price under the all cash election for the corresponding periods.

Financial Analyses Not Used

Discounted cash flow analysis

It should be recalled that during the preparation of Sanofi-Aventis's offers for Aventis, and in particular in connection with the determination of the exchange ratio, the management of Sanofi-Aventis did not have access to forecasts prepared by Aventis and did not have any discussions with Aventis's management team regarding forecasts.

The financial aspects of the tender offers were therefore determined on the basis of forecasts for the two companies provided by the consensus of available financial analyst's reports. (With respect to the original offer announced on January 26, 2004, the consensus forecasts were based on seven financial analysts' reports published since November 2003; with respect to the revised offer announced on April 26, 2004, the consensus forecasts were based on eleven financial analysts' reports published after the announcement of Aventis results for 2003 in February 2004.)

Sanofi-Aventis only began to have access to the nonpublic information of Aventis after the settlement of the offers on August 20, 2004. It is further noted that the information that Sanofi-Aventis has had knowledge of since that date does not call into question the forecasted outlook for the two companies that emerges from the consensus of financial analysts on which Sanofi-Aventis relied for determining the financial conditions of the tender offers.

At this time, the process of developing budgets is under way and the combined figures, developed according to consistent methodologies approved by the senior management of the new group, will not be available before the beginning of 2005.

As a result, Sanofi-Aventis did not deem it appropriate to use discounted forecasted cash flow analysis to determine the merger exchange ratio.

Book value and fair market value of net assets

These methods of financial analysis have not been used because the values of pharmaceutical companies are not necessarily properly reflected by the historical values of their assets.

Furthermore, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis have had a sufficiently long operating history such that their market values have diverged significantly from their book value.

The method of analyzing net revalued assets, which for pharmaceutical companies cannot be undertaken without using a discounted cash flow valuation (for the revaluation of drug portfolios, licenses, etc.), was not undertaken for the reasons set forth under “— Discounted cash flow analysis”.

Selected transaction multiples

Many precedent stock transactions have been effected in a stock market environment where the valuations of companies in the pharmaceutical sector in general were much higher than current stock market valuations in the sector. As a result, the transaction multiples derived from precedent transactions would generally be higher than the corresponding multiples implied in a transaction effected under the current stock market environment. Further, because the economic characteristics of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis are similar, the method would have led to the application of the same multiples to Sanofi-Aventis and to Aventis and would for this reason have been redundant with the consolidated net earnings per share analysis.

For this reason, implied multiples derived from precedent transactions were not used to evaluate the consideration in the offers.

REPORTS OF THE MERGER AUDITORS

Under French law and regulations applicable to the merger, court-appointed merger auditors (commissaires à la fusion) are required to produce a written report on the terms and conditions of the merger. Among other things, the role of the merger auditors is to check that the relative values ascribed to the shares of the constituent companies in the merger are relevant and that the exchange ratio is fair. The report must describe the methodologies used by management for determining the merger exchange ratio and must indicate whether these methodologies are relevant under the circumstances. The report must set forth the values implied by each of these methodologies and indicate the relative importance of each of these methodologies in determining the value that was adopted. The report must also detail any particular valuation difficulties, if they arose. The merger auditors must also produce a report on the valuation of the assets contributed by the dissolving company in the merger.

The report of the merger auditors on the merger exchange ratio must be made available to shareholders at the registered offices of the constituent companies in the merger at least one month before the date of the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders convened to approve the agreement and plan of merger. The report of the merger auditors on the valuation of the assets contributed in the merger must be filed with the clerk of the commercial court (tribunal de commerce) at the place where the constituent companies have their registered offices.

Messrs. René Ricol (of the firm Ricol-Lasteryie at 2, avenue Hoche — 75008 Paris) and Dominique Ledouble (of the firm Cabinet CDL at 99, boulevard Haussmann — 75008 Paris) have been appointed merger auditors by order of the President of the Commercial Court of Paris (Tribunal de Commerce de Paris) on September 7, 2004, at the joint request of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis.

Messrs. Ricol and Ledouble are auditors and accounting experts. In the previous two years, none of Mr. Ricol, Mr. Ledouble, or their respective firms, has had any material relationship with either Sanofi-Aventis or Aventis. The estimated aggregate fees that will be paid to the merger auditors are one million euros.

As set out in more detail below and in the written reports, dated November 5, 2004, translations of which are attached as Annex B and Annex C to this document, in preparing their written reports on the merger consideration and on the valuation of the assets contributed in the merger, and in rendering their opinions on the fairness of the merger exchange ratio and on the value of the assets contributed by Aventis, the merger auditors have followed procedures in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie nationale des commissaires aux comptes) applicable to these engagements.

At no time in carrying out their engagements did the merger auditors find themselves in a situation of incompatibility, prohibition or disqualification as provided by applicable law.

As set out in more detail below and in the written reports, dated November 5, 2004, translations of which are attached as Annex B and Annex C to this document, the merger auditors have concluded that:

- In their opinion, the exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares is fair;
- In their opinion, the value of €27,109,225,679 assigned to the assets contributed by Aventis in the merger is not overvalued and, as a result, the net asset value of the contributed assets is at least equal to the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, increased by the share issuance premium; and
- The merger auditors had no observations to make on the number Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which the Aventis BSAs will be exercisable after the merger.

Report of the Merger Auditors on the Merger Consideration

The following is a summary of the Report of the Merger Auditors on the Merger Consideration, dated November 5, 2004. The full text of this written report of the merger auditors, which sets forth any assumptions made, the procedures followed, and the matters considered is attached, in English translation for information purposes, as Annex B to this document. The full text of the written report also includes background information on the merger and on Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis that is not included in this summary in order to avoid repetition of information included elsewhere in this document. Holders of Aventis securities are urged to read Annex B carefully and in its entirety.

Introduction

The consideration paid for the assets of Aventis transferred in the merger is the result of the merger exchange ratio which was determined in the agreement and plan of merger, dated October 14, 2004, between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis. The responsibility of the merger auditors in their report on the merger consideration is to render an opinion on the fairness of the merger exchange ratio. For that purpose, the merger auditors carried out their assessment in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie nationale des commissaires aux comptes) applicable to this engagement. In particular, these standards require the merger auditors to undertake procedures intended, on the one hand, to verify that the relative values ascribed to the shares of the two companies involved in the merger are relevant and, on the other hand, to analyze the merger exchange ratio in comparison to the relative values deemed to be relevant.

Verification of the Relevance of the Relative Values Assigned to the Shares of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis

Procedures. The procedures undertaken by the merger auditors were in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie nationale des commissaires aux comptes) but cannot be likened to the due diligence procedures that would be carried out by a lender or a purchaser. The merger auditors:

- Met with the persons in charge of the merger, both to understand the proposed transaction and its context, and to analyze its terms and conditions for economic, accounting, legal and tax purposes;
- Familiarized themselves with the financial terms and conditions and the results of the offers;
- In order to verify the reliability of the financial statements and accounting information provided, assured themselves that the statutory auditors of Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis had issued an unqualified opinion on the respective annual and consolidated accounts for 2003, and that they had attested the consolidated accounts for the six months ended June 30, 2004 and the interim financial position prepared as of August 31, 2004;
- Familiarized themselves with the work papers of the statutory auditors;
- Reviewed the conclusions resulting from the work carried out by Aventis's legal and financial experts on the principal business and financial contracts of the Aventis group;
- Familiarized themselves with a selection of financial analysts' reports published on the Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis groups during the preceding fifteen months;
- Analyzed the financial analyses of the values of the Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis groups that was made available to them in order to assess the fairness of the exchange ratio by reference to all the relative values that were determined;
- With respect to the verification of the factors used to determine the relative values and the exchange ratio, in particular, assessed the relevance of the criteria adopted by Sanofi-Aventis management, verified the mathematical accuracy of the calculations and carried out sensitivity analysis of the exchange ratio with respect to different variables and assumptions; and
- Relied on the work that they carried out in their capacity as merger auditors responsible for assessing the value of the proposed asset transfers.

Review of valuation factors ruled out by Sanofi-Aventis management. The merger auditors considered the four valuation methodologies not taken into account by Sanofi-Aventis management: discounted future cash flows; net book value; net revalued asset value and valuations based on comparable transaction multiples or comparable company multiples.

- The merger auditors found that Sanofi-Aventis was unable to carry out a review of any non-public documents of Aventis before completing its offer and that Aventis's new management, after the close of the offer, has not prepared any projections. Therefore, the merger auditors found that Sanofi-Aventis lacked the data necessary to undertake a discounted future cash flow analysis. However, the merger auditors noted that the financial terms and conditions of the offer were determined on the basis of a consensus valuation among financial analysts that was based on future cash flows. The merger auditors assured themselves that the financial analysts have not significantly altered their projections for the sales of the main products of Aventis since the initial offer and that the management of Sanofi-Aventis had no knowledge of any event that could alter its view of the prospects for Aventis that were used to determine the financial terms of the offer.

- The merger auditors found that management of Sanofi-Aventis justifiably ruled out net book value as a valuation factor, because Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis have been in existence long enough such that book values are no longer in line with market values.
- The merger auditors found that the net revalued asset value methodology would have required the revaluation of intangible assets based on discounted future cash flows and that Sanofi-Aventis management could not perform such analysis due to the fact that Aventis's new management has not prepared projections.
- The merger auditors found that Sanofi-Aventis's decision not to base a valuation on comparable transaction multiples or comparable company multiples was appropriate because as publicly traded companies with liquid shares, the market price of their respective shares before the initial offer was a meaningful measure and developing a sample of truly comparable companies or transactions appeared to be a futile exercise.

Review of valuation factors considered by Sanofi-Aventis management. The merger auditors considered the three valuation methodologies considered by Sanofi-Aventis management: relative share prices, relative net income per share and relative dividends per share.

- Management of Sanofi-Aventis calculated implied exchange ratios based on comparing actual share prices for Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis over a period of one to twelve months ending on January 21, 2004, the last trading day prior to the market rumors regarding a business combination between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis and on August 30, 2004, the last trading day before Sanofi-Aventis announced its intention to study a merger project. For further information, see "Financial Analysis of the Merger — Financial Analysis Used in Determining the Merger Exchange Ratio — Average stock market price". Overall, the merger exchange ratio observed is between 0.87 and 0.91 for the period before January 21, 2004 and between 1.17 and 1.18 for the period before August 30, 2004.
- The merger auditors considered that relative share price was a key measure of the relative value of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, because the two groups are listed in Paris and in New York, trading volumes in their shares are high and the shares are followed by many analysts on a regular basis.
- The merger auditors analyzed the share price trends. They found that, after the announcement of the initial offer in January 2004, the price of Aventis ordinary shares has not been correlated with fundamentals but with the public offer price. The merger auditors assured themselves of the relevance of the relative share prices before January 21, 2004 with regard to the valuation of the two groups determined by financial analysts on the basis of projected future cash flows. The merger auditors also assured themselves that the financial analysts have not, since the initial offer, significantly altered their projections for the sales of the main products of Aventis.
- Sanofi-Aventis management also calculated implied merger exchange ratios by comparing the earnings capacity of the two groups in terms of consolidated net earnings per share and dividend per share for the years 2001, 2002 and 2003 and for the first half of 2004. For further information, see "Financial Analysis of the Merger — Financial Analysis Used in Determining the Merger Exchange Ratio — Consolidated net earnings per share (EPS)" and "— Dividends per share". This analysis results in a merger exchange ratio implied by income per share of between 1.24 and 1.51 and a merger exchange ratio implied by dividends of between 0.80 and 0.88.

- The merger auditors considered that consolidated net income before amortization of goodwill, exceptional and non-recurring items is a suitable valuation criterion; it enables the two groups to be assessed based on their recurring earnings capacity, while taking their financial structures into account. The merger auditors considered that dividends do not appear to be a meaningful criterion because dividend policy depends partly on choices made by the shareholders of each group.
- The merger auditors also calculated the merger exchange ratios implied by net income per share, after adjusting to exclude the contribution of divested, non-core businesses to Aventis's earnings in 2001 - 2003. The merger auditors calculated earnings per share for Aventis's core business based on non-audited consolidated data published in the annual reports of Aventis.
- In order to take into account the difference in growth rates between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, the merger auditors also expanded the reference period for the analysis to include projected earnings for 2004 to 2006, based on a consensus of projected adjusted earnings based on a selection of financial analysts' reports.
- The results of the merger auditors calculations are set forth in the following table:

Ratio of consolidated net earnings per share	Implied ratio
2001 — actual figures	1.51	(1.51)*
2002 — actual figures	1.25	(1.49)*
2003 — actual figures	1.24	(1.36)*
2004 half-year		1.27
2004 — based on consensus projections of financial analysts.....		1.24
2005 — based on consensus projections of financial analysts.....		1.14
2006 — based on consensus projections of financial analysts.....		1.07

* Figures in parenthesis are for the core business of Aventis, excluding the contribution to earnings from divested, non-core businesses.

- The difference in growth rates between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis results in implied ratios that are more favorable to Aventis for historic periods and more favorable to Sanofi-Aventis for projected periods 2005 and 2006.

Assessment of the fairness of the proposed merger exchange ratio

Procedures. The merger auditors carried out such procedures as they deemed necessary in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie nationale des commissaires aux comptes), in order to:

- Assess the fairness of the merger exchange ratio; and
- Assure themselves that any events occurring during the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger are not such that they are likely to call into question the fairness of the merger exchange ratio

In particular, the merger auditors relied on the work previously described above under the caption “— Verification of the Relevance of the Relative Values Assigned to the Shares of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis”.

The methodologies used to assess the range of relative values of the shares of Sanofi-Aventis and of Aventis are set forth in the table below:

	Implied Exchange Ratio
Share price — to January 21, 2004	0.87 - 0.91
Share price — to August 30, 2004	1.17 - 1.18
Earnings ratio 2001 - 2003	1.24 - 1.51
Earnings ratio 2001 - 2003 (Aventis core business)	1.36 - 1.51
Earnings ratio 2004 - 2006	1.07 - 1.24
Dividend ratio	0.80 - 0.88

The merger auditors noted the following factors in reaching their conclusion with respect to the fairness of the merger exchange ratio:

- The merger exchange ratio determined by the management of Sanofi-Aventis is 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares, or 1.17391;
- The merger exchange ratio is equivalent to the exchange ratio offered under the all stock election in the offers, or 1.1739;
- The offers met with a highly favorable response from:
 - Aventis shareholders, who tendered approximately 98% of the Aventis shares in the offers; and
 - Sanofi-Aventis shareholders, who voted overwhelmingly in favor of issuing the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in consideration for the Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the offers;
- Sanofi-Aventis's management has indicated to the merger auditors that it has no knowledge of any event that could call into question the financial terms of the offers that enabled Sanofi-Aventis to take control of Aventis;
- The merger exchange ratio of 1.17391 represents a premium of over 30% relative to the valuation implied by the share prices of Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis before January 21, 2004. This analysis, which in the opinion of the merger auditors is the most relevant criterion, results in a premium that is consistent with the premium observed for major takeovers in the sector;
- The merger exchange ratio has been confirmed by the stock market since April 25, 2004, when Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis entered into the agreement relating to the improved offer;
- The merger exchange ratio falls within the range of ratios derived from the relative assessment of the past and prospective earnings capacities of the two groups, it being acknowledged that the implied ratio changes over time because of the different growth prospects of the two groups; and
- The merger will enable Aventis shareholders (and the beneficiaries of Aventis stock options) to benefit from the liquidity of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

Conclusion

In conclusion, after carrying out their work, it is the opinion of the merger auditors that the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for 23 Aventis ordinary shares is fair.

Report of the Merger Auditors on the Value of the Assets Transferred

The following is a summary of the Report of the Merger Auditors on the Value of the Assets Transferred, dated November 5, 2004. The full text of this written report of the merger auditors, which sets forth any assumptions made, the procedures followed, and the matters considered is attached, in English translation for information purposes, as Annex C to this document. The full text of the written report also includes background information on the merger and on Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis that is not included in this summary in order to avoid repetition of information included elsewhere in this document. Holders of Aventis securities are urged to read Annex C carefully and in its entirety.

Introduction

The net assets of Aventis transferred in the merger have been determined in the agreement and plan of merger, dated October 14, 2004, between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis. The responsibility of the merger auditors in their report on the value of the assets transferred is to express an opinion on whether the value of the assets transferred is over-estimated. For that purpose, the merger auditors carried out their assessment in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie nationale des commissaires aux comptes) applicable to this engagement. These standards require the merger auditors carry out procedures intended to assess the value of the assets transferred, to ensure that this value is not over-estimated and to ascertain that it amounts to not less than the par value of the shares to be issued by the surviving company in the merger, increased by any share issuance premium.

In accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), it is also the responsibility of the merger auditors to issue an opinion on the number of shares in the capital of the surviving corporation for which the securities giving access to the capital of the non-surviving company shall be exercisable.

Procedures

The merger auditors carried out such procedures as they deemed necessary, in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie nationale des commissaires aux comptes) in order:

- To verify the existence of the assets transferred and the liabilities assumed;
- To check the value assigned to the assets transferred; and
- To assure themselves that any events occurring during the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger are not such that they call into question the valuation of the assets transferred.

These procedures cannot be likened to the due diligence procedures that would be carried out by a lender or a purchaser and do not include all the work required for such due diligence. The merger auditors:

- Met with the persons in charge of the merger, both to understand the proposed transaction and its context, and to analyze its terms and conditions for economic, accounting, legal and tax purposes;
- Familiarized themselves with the financial terms and conditions and the results of the offers;
- In order to verify the reliability of the financial statements and accounting information provided, assured themselves that the statutory auditors of Aventis had issued an unqualified opinion on the respective annual and consolidated accounts for 2003, and that they had attested the consolidated accounts for the six months ended June 30, 2004 and the interim financial position prepared as of August 31, 2004;
- Familiarized themselves with the work of the statutory auditors on the parent-company accounts and with summaries provided by the local auditors in the main countries;
- Reviewed the conclusions resulting from the work carried out by Aventis's legal and financial experts on the principal business and financial contracts of the Aventis group;
- Assured themselves of the ownership and free availability of the principal securities transferred by Aventis; and

- To assess the aggregate value of the assets transferred, relied on the work carried out as part of their engagement to analyze the fairness of the merger consideration.

Assessment of the value of the assets transferred

Determination of value of assets transferred. Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis agreed to value the assets contributed based on their net book value on the accounts of Aventis. For further information, see “The Merger Agreement — Description and Valuation of Assets Transferred and Liabilities Assumed”. The merger auditors noted that this method is authorized by applicable regulations in force through the end of 2004 and it did not elicit any further comment from the merger auditors.

Verification of assets transferred on an individual basis. Aventis is a holding company. The merger auditors assessed the individual value of the equity holdings transferred using valuation methods customarily used for subsidiaries (share of net assets, market multiples) and the merger auditors had no comments to make with respect to that work. Management confirmed to the merger auditors that there were no elements likely to appreciably affect the value of the financial instruments transferred. With respect to the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger, the merger auditors familiarized themselves with the interim position as of August 31, 2004, which shows a profit and management confirmed that Aventis is operating at a profit in the current financial year.

Aggregate value of the assets transferred. The assets are being transferred at their net book value. The merger auditors found that the net value of the assets transferred (approximately €27 billion) is far lower than the market capitalization of Aventis (approximately €43 billion at January 21, 2004 and approximately €55 billion at August 31, 2004) and than Aventis’s market value as evidenced by the value of the offer made by Sanofi-Aventis for all the shares of Aventis (€55 billion).

In light of the foregoing and upon completion of their work, the merger auditors found no matters that were likely to call into question the aggregate value assigned to the assets to be transferred by Aventis in the merger.

Conclusion

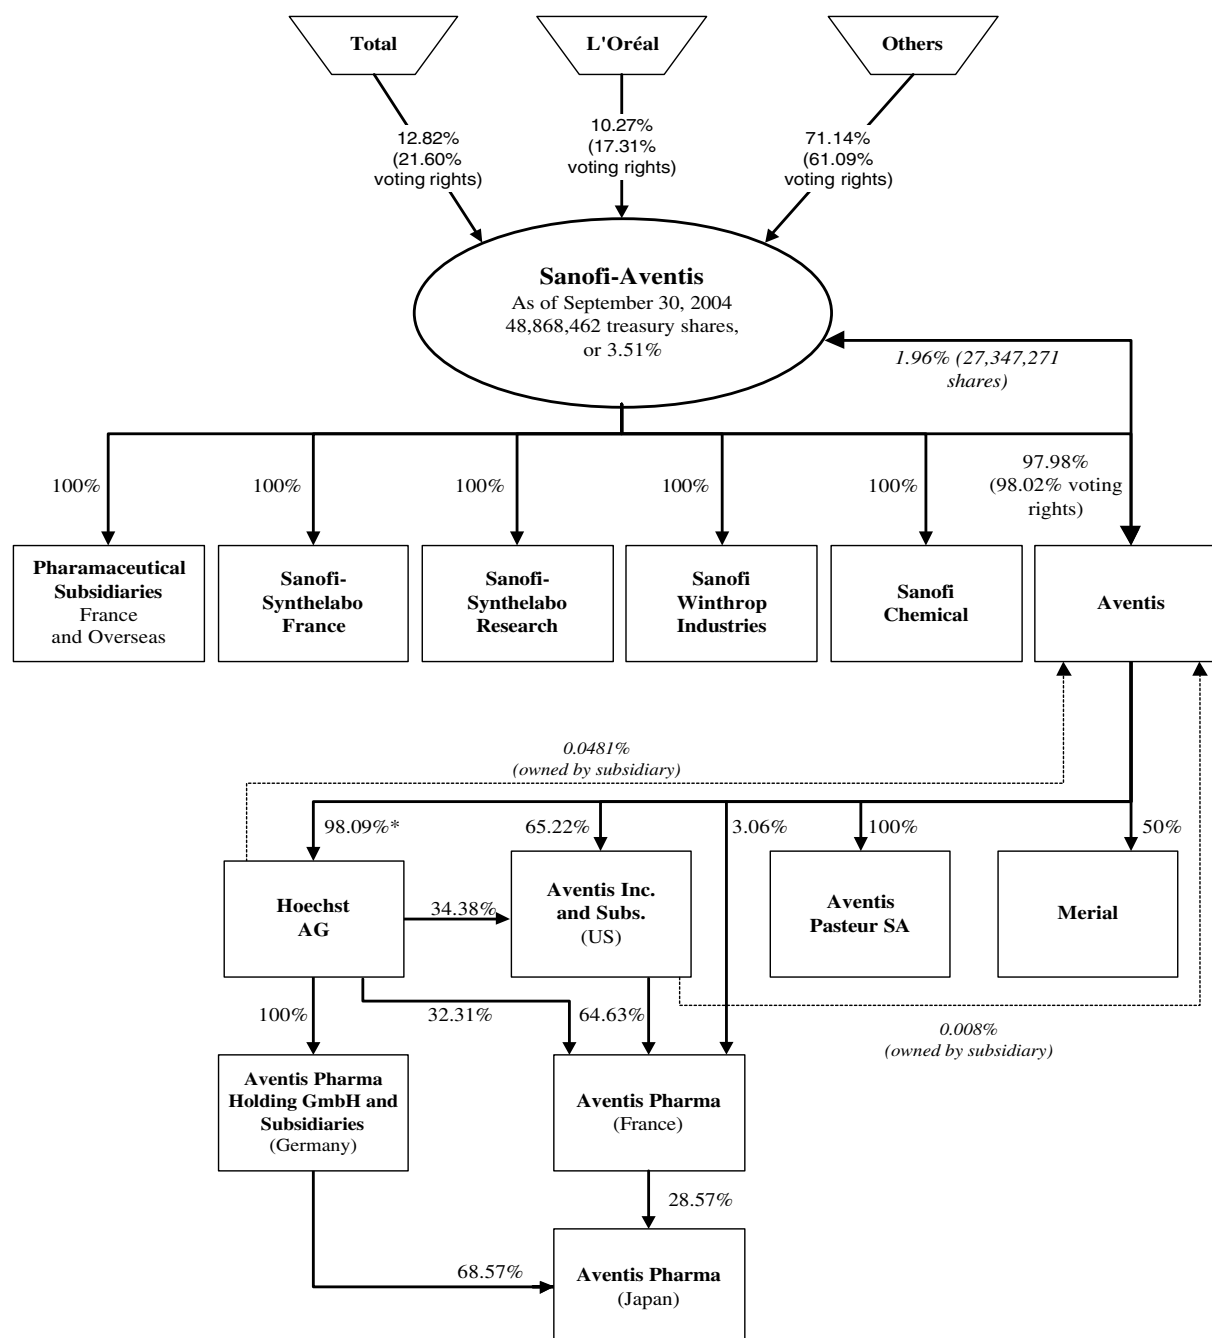

In conclusion, after carrying out their work:

- It is the opinion of the merger auditors that the value of €27,109,225,679 assigned to the assets contributed by Aventis in the merger is not overvalued and, as a result, the net asset value of the contributed assets is at least equal to the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, increased by the amount of the share issuance premium; and
- The merger auditors had no comment to make on the number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for which the Aventis BSAs will be exercisable after the merger.

- a partnership, S corporation or other pass-through entity;
- with respect to French taxation, a person that together with his or her spouse, if any, and their ascendants and descendants, directly or indirectly, hold or have held more than 25% of the rights to Aventis earnings (droits aux bénéfices sociaux) at any time during the five years preceding the exchange;
- a person that holds Aventis securities, or, after the merger, will hold Sanofi-Aventis securities, as part of a straddle or a hedging or conversion transaction; and
- a U.S. holder (as defined below) whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar.

This section does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects that may apply to you. This section does not constitute legal or tax advice. This section is based on the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations, published rulings and court decisions, and the French tax laws, as well as on the income tax convention between the United States of America and the Republic of France (the “French Treaty”), all as currently in effect. These authorities are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

You are a resident of France for French tax purposes if you are:

- an individual (1) whose principal residence is located in France, (2) who maintains his or her household in France, (3) who carries out his or her professional activity in France, or (4) whose principal center of economic interests is located in France; or
- an enterprise with its registered office located in France.

You are a non-resident of France if you are not a resident of France for French tax purposes.

You are a U.S. holder if you are a beneficial owner of Aventis securities that receives Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger, and you are for United States federal income tax purposes:

- a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any State;

- an estate whose income is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a United States court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

You are a non-U.S. holder if you are a beneficial owner of Aventis securities that receives Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger, and you are not a U.S. holder.

You should consult your own tax advisor regarding the United States federal, State and local, and the French and other tax consequences of acquiring Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger and of owning and disposing of Sanofi-Aventis securities in your particular circumstances. In particular, you should confirm whether you are eligible for the benefits of the French Treaty with your advisor and should discuss any possible consequences of failing to be so eligible.

Tax Consequences of Acquiring Sanofi-Aventis Securities in Connection with the Merger

French taxation

For French income tax purposes, if you are a non-resident of France, you will not be subject to French tax on any capital gain or loss recognized upon acquiring Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger unless you have a permanent establishment or fixed base in France and the Aventis securities exchanged are part of the business property of that permanent establishment or fixed base.

United States federal income taxation

U.S. Holders. Subject to the special rules described below, if you are a U.S. holder, you will generally recognize capital gain or loss, if any, as a result of acquiring Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger. Such capital gain or loss will be equal to the difference between:

- the sum of the value of the Sanofi-Aventis securities, determined in U.S. dollars (referred to as the amount realized); and
- your tax basis, determined in U.S. dollars, in the Aventis securities for which you received your Sanofi-Aventis securities.

For this purpose, the value of the Sanofi-Aventis securities received will equal the fair market value of such securities on the date of the exchange, determined in U.S. dollars. Fair market value is the price at which property would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither being under compulsion to buy or to sell and both having reasonable knowledge of the relevant facts. Thus, one approach to determining the fair market value of the Sanofi-Aventis securities may be to treat the mean between the highest and lowest selling prices of Sanofi-Aventis securities on the date of exchange as fair market value.

Your tax basis in each Sanofi-Aventis security that you receive in connection with the merger will equal its fair market value, as taken into account in determining the amount realized, and your holding period in each such share will begin on the day after the merger.

Special rules may apply to disallow or defer a loss recognized by a U.S. holder. In addition, special rules may apply in the event that the direct, indirect and constructive holders of Aventis securities owned, directly, indirectly or constructively, at least 50 percent of the Sanofi-Aventis securities (by vote or value) after the merger. Holders of Aventis securities who expect to recognize a loss should consult their tax advisors regarding the amount and character of income, gain or loss to them on the exchange.

For foreign tax credit purposes, gain or loss that you recognize upon acquiring Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger generally will be income or loss from sources within the United States if such gain or loss is capital gain or loss. Any gain or loss that you recognize upon acquiring Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger will generally be treated as "passive income," which is treated separately from other types of income for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

If you are a non-corporate U.S. holder, capital gain will be taxable at a maximum rate of 15% if your holding period in the Aventis security that you hold exceeds one year on the date of exchange. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Non-U.S. Holders. You will generally not be subject to United States federal income tax on any gain or loss recognized as a result of acquiring Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger unless:

- the gain or loss is “effectively connected” with your conduct of a trade or business in the United States, and the gain is attributable to a permanent establishment that you maintain in the United States if that is required by an applicable income tax treaty as a condition for subjecting you to United States taxation on a net income basis; or
- you are an individual who is present in the United States for at least 183 days in the taxable year of the sale, and certain other requirements are met.

If you are a corporate non-U.S. holder that under the rules described above is subject to United States federal income tax on acquiring your Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger, you may also, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate or at a lower rate if you are eligible for the benefits of an income tax treaty that provides for a lower rate.

Passive foreign investment company status

A non-U.S. corporation will be classified as a passive foreign investment company (a “PFIC”) for any taxable year if at least 75 percent of its gross income consists of passive income (such as dividends, interest, rents, royalties or gains on the disposition of certain minority interests), or at least 50 percent of the average value of its assets consists of assets that produce, or are held for the production of, passive income. If either Aventis or Sanofi-Aventis were characterized as a PFIC, U.S. holders would suffer adverse tax consequences, and U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those described above may apply. These consequences may include having gains realized on the disposition of securities treated as ordinary income rather than capital gain and being subject to punitive interest charges on certain dividends and on the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of securities. U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of the PFIC rules to their acquisition of Sanofi-Aventis securities in connection with the merger and their ownership of Sanofi-Aventis securities or Sanofi-Aventis ADSs acquired in connection with the merger.

Tax Consequences of Holding Sanofi-Aventis Shares and Sanofi-Aventis ADSs

For information regarding the tax consequences of owning and disposing of Sanofi-Aventis securities, see “Item 10.E. Taxation” in Sanofi-Aventis’s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated in this document by reference.

SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS

Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares Issued in the Offers and Expected to be Issued in the Merger

In connection with our acquisition of Aventis, on August 20, 2004, we issued 641,602,384 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in settlement of the exchange of the 769,920,773 Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the offers during the initial offering period ended July 30, 2004. Of these, 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares were issued in respect of the 23,575,234 Aventis ordinary shares tendered by Aventis pursuant to an all stock election. On September 24, 2004, we issued a further 17,830,975 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in settlement of the exchange of the 21,397,038 Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the offers during the subsequent offering period ended September 6, 2004. Based on the 807,204,134 Aventis ordinary shares issued and outstanding as of August 31, 2004, and assuming that no further Aventis ordinary shares are issued on the exercise of subscription stock options, we expect to issue an additional 18,649,162 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares pursuant to the merger in consideration of 15,886,323 Aventis ordinary shares held by holders other than Sanofi-Aventis or Aventis. In total, as of immediately after the effective time of the merger, and taking into account the Sanofi Aventis ordinary shares issued in settlement of the offers, we expect to have issued 650,735,250 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares (excluding the 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in respect of the Aventis treasury stock tendered into the offers), having an estimated aggregate value, according to French GAAP, of €35,144 million.

In connection with our offer for Aventis, we entered into a credit facility agreement dated April 24, 2004 permitting borrowing in the amount of up to €16,000 million, which was used mainly to finance the cash consideration to be paid to holders of Aventis securities pursuant to the offer and may also be used to refinance certain debt of Aventis and its subsidiaries. This facility was, subject to certain conditions, entirely underwritten by BNP Paribas and an affiliate of Merrill Lynch & Co.

The credit facility agreement provides that the credit facility is to be divided into a €5,000 million term loan facility (“Tranche A”) with a final maturity date of January 24, 2005 (which may be extended in two six-month increments), a €5,500 million term loan facility (“Tranche B”) with a final maturity date of January 25, 2007, and a €5,500 million revolving loan facility (“Tranche C”) with a final maturity date of January 25, 2009.

Each tranche is required to be repaid in its entirety on its final maturity date, except that we have an option to extend the final maturity date of Tranche A in two six-month increments until a date that falls one year following the original final maturity date.

Amounts borrowed under Tranche A and Tranche B may only be used to finance part of the cash consideration to be paid to holders of Aventis securities pursuant to the revised offers. Amounts borrowed under Tranche C may be used for various purposes, including to finance part of the cash consideration to be paid to holders of Aventis securities pursuant to the offers, to pay fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the offers and to refinance certain indebtedness of Aventis and its subsidiaries. Borrowings under Tranche A and Tranche B will be made available in euros only, whereas borrowings under Tranche C will be made available in euros and, if used other than to finance part of the cash consideration to be paid pursuant to the revised offers, may be available in U.S. dollars, pounds sterling and Japanese yen.

The credit facility is subject to terms and conditions customary for facilities of this type, including mandatory prepayment provisions (for example, in the event of certain asset disposals or a change of control of Sanofi-Aventis), events of default (for example, in the event of cross-default or insolvency), representations and warranties (such as in relation to status, power and authority and financial statements), covenants (such as information undertakings, negative pledge and financial ratio), indemnities, provisions to protect the margin due to the lenders and commitment fee arrangements. In particular, under the financial covenants our consolidated net debt (generally defined as our total financial borrowings less our total cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities) may not exceed 2.5 times our consolidated EBITDA (generally defined as our operating profit plus (1) any amortization and depreciation charges, (2) any purchase-accounting charge in respect of in-process research and development or a write-up of inventory to fair value that we are required to take as a result of the acquisition of Aventis, and (3) any restructuring charge of up to €1 billion per year incurred in 2004 or 2005 that is incurred directly in connection with the acquisition of Aventis). Also, in general, the total financial borrowings of our subsidiaries on a consolidated basis (excluding any borrowings under the credit facility) may not exceed our consolidated EBITDA. There are also customary restrictions on our ability, in general, to create any security interest in our assets, to sell, lease, transfer or dispose of our assets (unless, in general, the net proceeds are applied to prepaying borrowings under the credit facility), to make acquisitions or investments outside the ordinary course of business in an aggregate amount in excess of €10 billion, to enter into a merger or amalgamation (other than with a subsidiary) or to issue any bonds (unless, in general, the net proceeds are applied to prepaying borrowings under the credit facility).

The applicable margin for each tranche under the credit facility varies according to the credit ratings that will be assigned to us at the relevant time. The margin under Tranche A will be initially 0.40% per annum and may range from 0.35% per annum to 0.525% per annum, the margin under Tranche B will be initially 0.45% per annum and may range from 0.40% per annum to 0.575% per annum and the margin under Tranche C will be initially 0.50% per annum and may range from 0.45% per annum to 0.625% per annum. The margins determined above will be decreased by five basis points once more than 50% of the credit facility has been repaid and cancelled. Interest on euro-based borrowings shall accrue at the applicable margin plus EURIBOR, and interest on U.S. dollars, pounds sterling or Japanese yen shall accrue at the applicable margin plus LIBOR.

Sanofi-Aventis reasonably expects that it will be able to repay the amounts borrowed under the credit facility within five years out of internal cash flow. Sanofi-Aventis currently has no plans to refinance the credit facility.

On April 24, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis terminated the €12,000 million credit facility agreement dated January 25, 2004, which Sanofi-Aventis had entered into in connection with the proposed acquisition of Aventis on the terms and subject to the conditions of the original offers. See “Source and Amount of Funds” in Sanofi-Aventis’s prospectus dated April 9, 2004.

Cash Consideration in the Offers

On May 26, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced the successful completion of the first round of syndication of the €16,000 million credit facility. For further information, see Exhibit 99.1 to Sanofi-Aventis’s Report on Form 6-K, dated May 26, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

On August 20, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis paid an aggregate cash consideration of €14,767 million in settlement of the purchase of the 769,920,773 Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the offers during the initial offering period ended July 30, 2004. Sanofi-Aventis paid an additional €6 million in settlement of the purchase of the 257,248 Aventis BSAs tendered into the French offer. Sanofi-Aventis financed the cash consideration paid by drawing in full on the €5 billion Tranche A and the €5.5 billion Tranche B under the April 24, 2004 credit facility, by issuing commercial paper in the amount of €900 million and financing the balance from available cash.

On September 24, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis paid aggregate cash consideration of €410 million in settlement of the purchase of the 21,397,038 Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the offers during the subsequent offering period ended September 6, 2004. Sanofi-Aventis financed the cash consideration paid by issuing commercial paper in the amount of €50 million and financing the balance from available cash.

On September 30, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis paid an aggregate cash dividend of €645 million in respect of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in settlement of the Aventis ordinary shares tendered in the initial and the subsequent offering periods (excluding the 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in respect of the Aventis treasury stock tendered into the offers). Sanofi-Aventis financed this dividend by issuing commercial paper in the amount of €430 million and financing the balance from available cash.

Business Description

Sanofi-Aventis is an international pharmaceutical group engaged in the research, development, manufacture and marketing of pharmaceutical products for sale principally in the prescription market. In 2003, prior to our acquisition of Aventis, our consolidated net sales were €8,048 million ($10,138 million); our net income was €2,076 million ($2,615 million); and we invested €1,316 million in research and development and employed over 33,000 people worldwide. On the basis of sales for the last twelve months ended September 30, 2003, without taking into account Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis was the second largest pharmaceuticals group in France, the eighth largest pharmaceutical group in Western Europe and among the twenty largest pharmaceuticals groups in the world (based on data from IMS Health).

In our prescription business, prior to our acquisition of Aventis we specialized in four therapeutic areas:

- Cardiovascular/Thrombosis. Our Cardiovascular/Thrombosis products include two of the fastest-growing products on the Cardiovascular/Thrombosis market today: the blood pressure medication Aprovel®/Avapro® and the anti-clotting agent Plavix®.
- Central Nervous System, or CNS. Our CNS medicines include Stilnox®/Ambien®, the world's leading prescription insomnia medication, and Depakine®, one of the leading treatments for epilepsy.
- Internal Medicine. Our Internal Medicine products include Xatral®, a leading treatment for benign prostatic hypertrophy. In November 2003, we launched a once-a-day formulation in the United States under the brand name, Uroxatral®.
- Oncology. Our lead product in this strategic market is the cancer drug Eloxatin®, which is marketed in Europe and the United States as a first- and second-line treatment against colorectal cancer in combination with 5-FU/LV.

Prior to our acquisition of Aventis, our five strategic products were Aprovel®/Avapro®, Eloxatin®, Plavix®, Stilnox®/Ambien® and Xatral®, which together accounted for 54.7% of our total consolidated net sales, or €4,399 million, in 2003.

We have a strong commitment to research and development. We have 14 research centers and have over 6,800 employees devoted to research and development. At February 16, 2004, we had 56 compounds in development in the four therapeutic areas, 25 of which were in Phase II or Phase III clinical trials.

Taken together, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis are the largest pharmaceutical group in Europe and the third largest pharmaceutical group in the world. As of December 31, 2003, on a combined basis, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis were present in more than 100 countries on five continents and employed over 99,700 people worldwide (with a sales force of approximately 33,150). On a combined basis based on 2003 figures, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis had sales of approximately €25 billion (with a market share of approximately 5.6%) and invested approximately €4 billion in research and development.

Together, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis now specialize in seven therapeutic areas: cardiovascular, thrombosis, oncology, diabetes, central nervous system, internal medicine and vaccines.

History

Sanofi-Synthelabo was the result of the 1999 merger of Sanofi and Synthelabo, two major French pharmaceutical companies. Since the merger, we have combined the resources of the two companies to expand our global presence, particularly in the United States, and to increase our focus on research and development for products with strong future potential. In 2003, we celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of our group worldwide. On August 20, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo acquired control of Aventis on the settlement of its offers. At that time, we changed our name to Sanofi-Aventis.

Sanofi was founded in 1973 by Elf Aquitaine, a French oil company, when it took control of the Labaz Group (a pharmaceutical company) for diversification purposes. Sanofi launched its first major product on the market, Ticlid®, in 1978. At the time of the merger in 1999, Sanofi was the second largest pharmaceutical group in France in terms of sales. A majority of its share capital was owned by Elf Aquitaine, which was subsequently acquired by Total. Sanofi made a significant venture into the United States market in 1994, when it acquired the prescription pharmaceuticals business of Sterling Winthrop, an affiliate of Eastman Kodak. Sanofi launched its first major product on the U.S. market, Aprovel®, in 1997, followed by Plavix® in 1998.

Synthelabo was founded in 1970 through the merger of two French pharmaceutical laboratories, Laboratories Dausse (founded in 1834) and Laboratories Robert & Carrière (founded in 1899). In 1973, L'Oréal acquired the majority of its share capital and in 1988, Synthelabo launched two major products on the French market: Stilnox® and Xatral®. At the time of the merger, Synthelabo was the third largest pharmaceutical group in France in terms of sales. A majority of its share capital was still owned by the French cosmetics group L'Oréal. In 1993, Synthelabo launched Stilnox® in the United States under the brand name Ambien®. By 1994, Stilnox® had become the leading insomnia prescription medication worldwide, according to data from IMS Health.

Sanofi and Synthelabo agreed to merge at the end of 1998, and the merger became effective in the second quarter of 1999. Following the merger, Elf Aquitaine and L'Oréal were the largest shareholders of the new group, although neither held a majority of the share capital. The two principal shareholders entered into a shareholders' agreement that lasts until 2004. The terms of the shareholders' agreement are described under Item 7.A "Major Shareholders and Related Party Transactions — Major Shareholders — Shareholders' Agreement" of our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated by reference into this document. See "Additional Information for Securityholders". On November 24, 2003 and on August 30, 2004, Total and L'Oréal amended the shareholders' agreement, as further described under "Recent Developments — Shareholders' Agreement". A copy of the shareholders' agreement and a copy of the amendments (in English translation for information purposes only) are filed as exhibits to our registration statement on Form F-4 of which this document forms a part.

Part of our strategy following the merger was to concentrate on our core prescription pharmaceuticals business. To implement this strategy, we divested non-core businesses, including:

- in 1999, Sanofi's beauty business, our diagnostics business, our animal health and nutrition business and an equity affiliate in the cheese business; and
- in 2001, our custom chemicals business and two medical equipment businesses, as well as our direct shareholding in Laboratoires de Biologie Végétale Yves Rocher.

For a description of our principal capital expenditures and divestitures since 2001, our expectations as to future capital expenditures and divestitures and the impact of the merger and these divestitures on our results of operations and financial condition, see Item 5 "Operating and Financial Review and Prospects" in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated by reference into this document. We currently have no material capital expenditures or divestitures in progress.

Plavix® Litigation

In February 2002, Sanofi-Aventis learned that Apotex, a Canadian generic drug manufacturer, filed an Abbreviated New Drug Application, or ANDA, with the Food and Drug Administration, or FDA, challenging two of its U.S. patents relating to Plavix®. In April 2002, Sanofi-Aventis learned that Dr. Reddy's Laboratories, an Indian generic drug manufacturer, filed an ANDA with the FDA challenging three of Sanofi-Aventis's U.S. patents relating to Plavix®. More recently, in August 2004, Sanofi-Aventis was notified that Teva, an Israeli generic drug manufacturer, had amended an earlier filed ANDA and was challenging the validity of one of the U.S. patents relating to Plavix®. An ANDA is an application by a drug manufacturer to receive authority to market a generic version of an approved product, by demonstrating that it has the same properties as the original approved product. For more information on ANDAs, see Item 4 “Information on the Company — Business Overview — Regulation” in Sanofi-Aventis’s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated in this prospectus by reference. In general, an ANDA may not be filed until the expiration of the five-year market exclusivity period that applies to the original product following its initial market authorization. If the product is protected by a patent listed in the FDA’s list of Approved Drug Products with Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations, also known as the “Orange Book”, and owned by or licensed to the manufacturer of the original version, however, the ANDA cannot be approved until the patent expires unless the ANDA applicant challenges the patent. In that case, the ANDA may be filed four years following the initial market authorization of the original product.

On March 21, 2002, Sanofi-Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and Bristol-Myers Squibb Sanofi Pharmaceuticals Holding Partnership (or BMS Sanofi Holding, Sanofi-Aventis’s joint venture with Bristol-Myers Squibb) filed suit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against Apotex for the infringement of two of the U.S. patents relating to Plavix®. The lawsuit is captioned Sanofi-Synthelabo, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and Bristol-Myers Squibb Sanofi Pharmaceuticals Holding Partnership v. Apotex Inc. and Apotex Corp., 02-CV-2255 (SHS). The first patent, U.S. Patent No. 4,847,265, which expires in 2011, discloses and claims the compound clopidogrel, the active ingredient in Plavix®. The second patent, U.S. Patent No. 5,576,328, which expires in 2014, discloses and claims, among other things, the use of clopidogrel in the treatment of patients to prevent a secondary ischemic event. On May 14, 2002, Sanofi-Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and BMS Sanofi Holding filed suit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against Dr. Reddy’s Laboratories for infringement of these same two patents. That lawsuit is captioned Sanofi-Synthelabo, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and Bristol-Myers Squibb Sanofi Pharmaceuticals Holding Partnership v. Dr. Reddy’s Laboratories, LTD, and Dr. Reddy’s Laboratories, Inc., 02-CV-3672 (SHS).

On June 20, 2003, Sanofi-Aventis announced that U.S. Patent No. 5,576,328 has been withdrawn from the patent infringement lawsuits discussed above and Sanofi-Aventis is seeking to have it delisted from the FDA’s “Orange Book.” The withdrawal of this method patent from the lawsuit has no effect on U.S. Patent No. 4,847,265, which Sanofi-Aventis is vigorously defending (together with its alliance partner, Bristol-Myers Squibb, or BMS). As regards the proceedings, fact discovery was substantially completed on October 15, 2003. Expert deposition is expected to last until November 2004. The pre-trial order is currently set for December 8, 2004. The trial may reasonably be expected to take place in the first half of 2005, at a date to be fixed by the court.

On September 23, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and BMS Sanofi Holding filed suit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against Teva for infringement of the 2011 patent. That lawsuit is captioned Sanofi-Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and Bristol-Myers Squibb Sanofi Pharmaceuticals Holding Partnership v. Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., Teva Pharmaceuticals Industries, Ltd., 04-CV-07548. Sanofi-Aventis has indicated to the court that this suit is related to the other two lawsuits pending in the same court, but it is not yet known whether the suits will be consolidated.

If any of the challenges to U.S. Patent No. 4,847,265 were successful, the prevailing party would have the right to produce a generic version of Plavix® and market it in the United States in competition with Sanofi-Aventis and its alliance partner, BMS. Under U.S. law, the FDA will not be able to approve the ANDAs filed by Apotex, Dr. Reddy’s Laboratories or Teva until the earlier of May 17, 2005 (i.e., five years plus 30 months after the approval date of Sanofi-Aventis’s Plavix® NDA) or the issuance of a court decision that is adverse to Sanofi-Aventis’s U.S. Patent No. 4,847,265. Sanofi-Aventis believes that Plavix® will continue to benefit from its patent protection in the United States. Sanofi-Aventis intends to defend its interests in this matter vigorously.

In September 2002 and in January 2003, Sanofi-Aventis obtained two additional U.S. patents related to Plavix®. At the present time, Sanofi-Aventis does not believe that it has a basis to assert these patents against Apotex or Dr. Reddy’s Laboratories. In August 2004, Sanofi-Aventis learned that Watson Laboratories Inc., a U.S. generic company, filed an ANDA with the FDA challenging the earlier of these two patents and alleging noninfringement of the second patent. On October 7, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo Inc. and BMS Sanofi Holding filed suit in the United States District Court for New Jersey against Watson Laboratories for infringement of the first patent.

In March 2003, Sanofi-Aventis learned that Apotex filed an application with Canadian authorities for a marketing authorization for a generic version of Plavix®, alleging that Sanofi-Aventis's Canadian patent for clopidogrel was invalid and not infringed. On April 28, 2003, Sanofi-Aventis's Canadian subsidiary and Sanofi-Aventis commenced an application for judicial review in the Federal Court of Canada and the hearing is scheduled to take place from February 21 to February 25, 2005. Sanofi-Aventis expects that the Court will render a decision before April 28, 2005, which is the expiry of the applicable 24-month review period. Sanofi-Aventis believes that its Canadian patent, which protects Plavix® in Canada until August 2012, is valid and is defending its interests in this matter vigorously.

The Plavix® patent rights are material to Sanofi-Aventis's business, and if Sanofi-Aventis were unsuccessful in asserting them or they were deemed invalid, any resulting introduction of a generic prescription version of Plavix® in the United States would reduce the price that Sanofi-Aventis receives for this product and the volume of the product that Sanofi-Aventis would be able to sell. See Item 3 "Key Information — Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Industry — If we are unable to protect our proprietary rights, we may not compete effectively or operate profitably" in Sanofi-Aventis's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated in this document by reference.

As a reference, the developed sales of Plavix® in 2003 in the United States amounted to €1,817 million out of total worldwide developed sales of Sanofi-Aventis of €10,560 million. INFORMATION ABOUT AVENTIS

Aventis is a stock corporation (société anonyme) organized under the French Commercial Code. According to Aventis's bylaws, its corporate existence shall run through July 17, 2030, except in the event of earlier dissolution or extension by its shareholders. Aventis was formed in December 1999 through the business combination of former pharmaceutical-chemical conglomerates Hoechst of Germany and Rhône-Poulenc of France.

Aventis's registered office is 67917 Strasbourg Cedex 9, France; its telephone number is +33 3 88 99 11 00. Aventis's principal U.S. office is Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc., 300 Somerset Corporate Boulevard, Bridgewater, NJ 08807-2854.

Business Description

According to its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, Aventis is a global pharmaceutical company that discovers, develops, manufactures and markets branded prescription drugs and human vaccines to protect and improve the health of patients around the world. Aventis claims its therapeutic innovations rank among the leading treatments for lung and breast cancer, thrombosis, seasonal allergies, diabetes and hypertension.

According to Aventis's published reports, in 2003, in its core business Aventis generated sales of €16,791 million, net income of €2,444 million, invested €2,863 million in research and development and employed approximately 69,000 people worldwide.

Aventis's core business comprises its activities in branded prescription drugs and human vaccines as well as its 50% interest in the animal health joint venture Merial with Merck & Co., and corporate activities. Aventis does not consolidate sales of Merial; however, Aventis's 50% interest in Merial's earnings is included under the equity method of accounting.

Since 2000 Aventis has pursued a strategy of strengthening and focusing on its core pharmaceutical business. The divestments of two former non-core businesses, Aventis Animal Nutrition and Aventis CropScience, closed in April and June of 2002, respectively. From June 2002, Aventis's therapeutic proteins business, Aventis Behring, was no longer considered a "core" business. On December 8, 2003, Aventis announced that it had entered an agreement to sell Aventis Behring to CSL Limited for total proceeds of up to U.S. $925 million. This transaction closed on March 31, 2004. For further information, please refer to Exhibit 99.3 to Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated April 30, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference. In May 2004, Aventis announced that its subsidiary, Hoechst, had entered into an agreement, together with Bayer and BASF — the other owners — to sell Dystar to Platinum Equity, a Californian private equity investor. The transaction closed on August 5, 2004. Aventis expects to divest its minority interests in Rhodia and Wacker, its two remaining significant non-core holdings, in the future.

Aventis is recognized as a pharmaceutical industry leader — valued by patients and healthcare providers, sought after as an employer, and respected by the scientific community and by its competitors.

Allegra®

Defendants in the Allegra® patent infringement suits filed by Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. in the U.S. District Court of New Jersey moved to dismiss five of Aventis's formulation patent claims in summary judgment. No motions were filed with respect to Aventis's method-of-use patents or process patents also cited in Aventis's infringement claims. On September 17, 2004, the U.S. District Court of New Jersey rejected defendants' motion with respect to the '947 patent, but dismissed infringement claims relating to three other patents. The court has conducted a Markman hearing, which concluded on September 28, 2004, on defendants' motion to dismiss Aventis's infringement claim with respect to a fifth patent ('872). The court is expected to issue its opinion shortly. No dates are currently set for trial.

Actonel®

Patent infringement litigation has been initiated by P&G Pharmaceuticals and Merck Inc. in the U.S. District Court of Delaware against Teva Pharmaceuticals USA in response to Teva's application to market a generic version of Actonel® (risedronate sodium tablets) in the United States. Aventis is not currently named as a co-plaintiff in either suit. Actonel® is marketed by the Alliance for Better Bone Health, an alliance between P&G Pharmaceuticals and Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc.

Rhodia

On June 29, 2004, an action similar to the claims by Rhodia shareholders pending in France before the Commercial Court of Paris (Tribunal de Commerce de Paris) was filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York on behalf of two Rhodia shareholders (including one that had withdrawn its claims from the French suit) claiming damages of €60 million, in addition to unspecified punitive damages. The suit has been removed by the defendants to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. Plaintiffs have responded by filing a motion to remand the case back to state court.

With respect to the claims of Rhodia shareholders pending before the Commercial Court of Paris, a procedural hearing took place on October 14, 2004, during which the defendants asked that their claims before the Commercial Court of Paris be joined. The judge postponed consideration of the question of joining the claims until a hearing held on November 2, 2004. A decision on this question of joining the claims is expected at or around the end of November 2004.

Rilutek®

On August 30, 2004, the District Court of Delaware ruled that Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc.'s patent related to the use of Rilutek® for the treatment of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), also known as Lou Gehrig's disease, is valid, enforceable and would be infringed by the proposed generic product of Impax Laboratories Inc. The court has not yet entered final judgment in conjunction with its ruling. Impax has filed a motion with the court to stay entry of judgment and sought re-argument of the case, in light of a potential post-trial deposition. Impax's motion is currently before the court.

Government Investigations — Pricing and Marketing Practices

On October 1, 2004, Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. received a subpoena issued by the U.S. Attorney's office in Chicago which seeks information concerning sales and marketing practices relating to Lovenox from January 1, 1999 to the present. Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. will respond to the subpoena and provide all information required.

In March, September and October 2004, Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Aventis Behring received subpoenas issued by the U.S. Attorney's office in Boston requesting documents concerning payments and contacts between these companies and the Lahey Clinic, a Massachusetts healthcare facility, or certain of its employees, relating to various periods between January 1995 and October 2004. Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Aventis Behring have provided, and will continue to provide, documents in response to these subpoenas.

Sabril®

Aventis Pharma Ltd, UK, faces a group litigation in the United Kingdom relating to the anti-epilepsy drug Sabril®. The action alleges that patients have suffered irreversible visual field constriction as a result of taking Sabril® and seeks unspecified damages for these injuries. The revised and final deadline for new claimants to join the group was November 5, 2004. In April 2004, Aventis sold its rights to Sabril® for North America, but not for the rest of the world, to Ovation Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Aventis Pasteur Thimerosal Litigation

In Jay Blackmon, et al. v. American Home Products Corporation, et al., a case pending before the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas in which Aventis Pasteur is a defendant, the court has dismissed the plaintiffs' claims for fraud and for punitive damages. The court has also granted in part defendants' summary judgment motions, ruling that plaintiffs' claims alleging negligence, design defect and failure to provide direct warnings (either to the public in general or to the plaintiffs in particular) were barred by the Vaccine Act. The court denied that part of defendants' summary judgment motion as it pertained to the providing of a showing of material compliance with FDA regulations, finding that the burden of proof had not yet been met by defendants.

Aventis Pasteur Limited is a defendant in two putative class actions filed in Canada on behalf of persons vaccinated before reaching two years of age for diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis, since 1980. Before a ruling on class certification in one of these actions, the claimants' lawyers proposed to discontinue both actions. One of the two actions has already been discontinued and it is expected that the other action will be discontinued shortly.

GA-EPO Patent Litigation

On October 15, 2004, the U.S. District Court for Massachusetts ruled that certain claims of four patents held by Amgen Inc. are valid and are infringed by Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Transkaryotic Therapies in relation to GA-EPO (gene activated erythropoietin, a drug for the treatment of anemia) and the processes for the production of GA-EPO. Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Transkaryotic Therapies intend to appeal the District Court's decision to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

MCAA Industry Litigation and Investigation

The investigation by the EU Commission is ongoing, and a hearing was held in September 2004.

Lovenox® Antitrust Litigation

Upon completion of the acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida dismissed with prejudice the lawsuit originally filed in February 2003 by Organon Sanofi-Synthelabo LLC against Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. alleging that certain sales practices with respect to Lovenox® violated U.S. federal and Florida antitrust laws.

Lovenox® Patent Litigation and Reissue Patent Application

In the United States, two patents related to Lovenox® are currently listed in the Orange Book. These two patents are U.S. Patent No. 4,692,435 (the "'435 patent") which expires December 24, 2004 and U.S. Patent No. 5,389,618 (the "'618 patent") which expires February 14, 2012.

In May 2003, Aventis Pharma S.A. filed an application with the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office, or USPTO, for the reissuance of the '618 patent. A reissue patent application is typically used to seek modifications to the specification of a granted patent.

In June 2003, Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc. received notice that both Amphastar Pharmaceuticals and Teva Pharmaceuticals were seeking approval from the FDA for generic versions of Lovenox® and are challenging the validity of the '618 patent. Subsequently, Amphastar also challenged the '435 patent. Aventis Pharmaceuticals Inc.

brought a patent infringement suit on the '618 patent against both Amphastar and Teva in U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, and a trial has been scheduled for July 2005.

Aventis believes that the modifications it is seeking in the reissuance proceeding would strengthen its position in the pending litigation against Amphastar and Teva. The '618 patent will remain in force in its current form during the pendency of the reissuance proceeding. Aventis received a third rejection of its reissue patent application from the USPTO in October 2004. However, because this rejection is non-final, Aventis has the option of continuing the reissuance process with the U.S. patent examiner or filing an appeal against this rejection. Aventis remains committed to continuing the reissuance process. Aventis believes that if its arguments in response to this non-final rejection are favorably received, the USPTO could issue a notice of approval of Aventis' reissue application close to the end of 2004 and the USPTO could reissue the patent in 2005.

Options

Under French law, directors may not receive options solely as compensation for service on the Sanofi-Aventis board. Thus, only those directors who are also employees of Sanofi-Aventis may receive stock options. However, because Christian Mulliez was formerly an officer of Sanofi-Aventis, he holds Sanofi-Aventis options. In addition, because Jürgen Dormann, Jean-René Fourtou and Igor Landau were formerly executive officers of Aventis (or its predecessor companies) they hold Aventis stock options that will be converted into options on Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares at the effective time of the merger. For further information, see “The Merger Agreement — Treatment of Aventis Stock Options”.

Under Sanofi-Aventis's option plans existing as of September 30, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis senior management (21 persons total at September 30, 2004) held 1,964,200 stock options, of which 680,000 were held by Sanofi-Aventis's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and 345,000 were held by Sanofi-Aventis's Senior Executive Vice President, Scientific and Medical Affairs.

Under Aventis's option plans existing as of October 8, 2004, members of the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors and of Sanofi-Aventis's senior management held a total of 5,992,752 Aventis options that, at the effective time of the merger, will become options to subscribe for or purchase an aggregate of 7,034,970 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

Therefore, in aggregate, immediately after the effective time of the merger, the directors and senior management of Sanofi-Aventis will hold options on 8,999,170 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, representing approximately 0.6% of the outstanding share capital of Sanofi-Aventis.

Ownership of Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares

As of September 30, 2004, Total and L'Oréal were the only two entities that held more than 5% of the outstanding Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares. As of such date, Total held 178,476,513 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, representing 13.4% of Sanofi-Aventis's outstanding ordinary shares (other than ordinary shares held by Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries, including Aventis) and 21.4% of Sanofi-Aventis's aggregate voting rights, and L'Oréal held 143,041,202 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, representing 10.7% of Sanofi-Aventis's outstanding ordinary shares (other than ordinary shares held by Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries, including Aventis) and 17.1% of Sanofi-Aventis's aggregate voting rights.

On August 20, 2004, the Kuwait Petroleum Corporation, or KPC, which had been the largest single shareholder of Aventis, filed a statement on Schedule 13G with the SEC, on which it disclosed that it had received 85,040,230 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, representing approximately 6.19% of the outstanding Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, and aggregate cash consideration of €2,364,329,139 in exchange for the 108,027,006 Aventis ordinary shares that it had tendered into the offer. On September 13, 2004, following a secondary offering of its Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, KPC filed an amendment to its statement on Schedule 13G with the SEC, on which it disclosed that, as of that date, it held 47,040,230 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, representing approximately 3.4% of the outstanding Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, and that therefore it no longer held more than 5% of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares.

As of September 30, 2004, the Sanofi-Aventis directors and senior management (21 persons as at such date) beneficially held less than 1% of the total Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares outstanding as of such date.

Ownership of Aventis Ordinary Shares

As of October 14, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis was the only entity to hold more than 5% of the outstanding Aventis ordinary shares. As of such date, Sanofi-Aventis held 791,317,831 Aventis ordinary shares, representing 97.98% of Aventis's outstanding ordinary shares (other than ordinary shares held by Aventis) and 98.02% of Aventis's aggregate voting rights.

As of October 14, 2004, the members of the Aventis supervisory board and the members of the Aventis management board beneficially held less than 1% of the total Aventis ordinary shares outstanding as of such date.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF SANOFI-AVENTIS

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income, which give effect to the offers and the merger, are presented in euros and reflect the combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis using the purchase method under French GAAP. The pro forma adjustments are based upon available information and certain assumptions that Sanofi-Aventis believes are reasonable, including the assumptions that pursuant to the offers and the merger:

- 98.03% of the outstanding Aventis securities were exchanged pursuant to the offers for cash and Sanofi-Aventis securities, with a cash component of €15,791 million (including €643 million in dividends paid on Sanofi-Aventis securities issued) and a share component valued at €35,071 million;
- 1.97% of the outstanding Aventis securities are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis securities at an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares;
- all of the outstanding Aventis BSAs are purchased for cash in the French offer, for aggregate consideration of €6 million;
- all of the outstanding Aventis stock options are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis stock options. The number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares subject to these options and the exercise price of the options will be adjusted to reflect the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares; and
- the net cash consideration paid in the offers (after taking into account the expected proceeds of €885 million from the disposals discussed below) is financed by €14,906 million of new Sanofi-Aventis debt at an interest rate of 3.6%.

In addition, the pro forma adjustments reflect the sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets on the terms announced on April 13, 2004, as well as the sale of Campto® to Pfizer Inc on the terms announced on June 25, 2004. For more information on these disposals, see “Regulatory Matters — Competition and Antitrust — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®” and “— Sale of Campto®”. The pro forma adjustments also include adjustments that have been made to Aventis’s historical financial statements in order to conform their presentation to the pro forma presentation. In addition, pro forma adjustments have been made to Aventis’s historical statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2003, in order to reflect the disposal of Aventis Behring to CSL, which was completed on March 31, 2004. For further information, see Exhibit 99.3 to Aventis’s Form 6-K, dated April 30, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under the German Securities and Corporate Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz) for the 1.9% of the ordinary shares of Hoechst AG not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for Hoechst AG; Aventis’s Squeeze-Out Offer for Hoechst”. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under applicable Indian law for up to 4,606,125 shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India not already held by Aventis or its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for Aventis Pharma Limited India”.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial condition of the combined entities that would have been achieved had the offers and the merger been completed during the periods presented, nor is the selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined entities. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income do not reflect any cost savings or other synergies which may result from the acquisition of Aventis or the effect of asset dispositions, if any, that have been or may be required by regulatory authorities, other than the sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets and the sale of Campto® to Pfizer Inc. In particular, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not reflect the impact of the disposals and/or grants of licenses of certain products, in addition to Arixtra®, Fraxiparine® and Campto®, requested by the European Commission as conditions to its approval of the proposed acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis, announced on April 26, 2004, because definitive agreements with respect to the disposal or licensing of these products have not yet been entered into. The unaudited pro forma financial information does not reflect any special items, such as payments pursuant to change of control provisions or restructuring and integration costs which may be incurred as a result of the acquisition. Further, because prior to the settlement of the offers on August 20, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis only had access to publicly available financial information about Aventis's accounting policies, and because of the limited time available since the settlement to conduct a thorough review of those accounting policies, there can be no assurance that the accounting policies of Aventis conform to those of Sanofi-Aventis.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income have been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the respective consolidated financial statements of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, as of and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and as of, and for the year ended, December 31, 2003, which are incorporated by reference into this document. All amounts are stated in euros. This pro forma information is subject to risks and uncertainties, including those discussed under “Risk Factors — We were not given the opportunity to conduct a due diligence review of the nonpublic records of Aventis before commencing or completing our offers for Aventis. Therefore, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis which may have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations” and “Risk Factors — In the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis, we have not been able to verify the reliability of all the information regarding Aventis in periods prior to the acquisition included in, or incorporated by reference into, this document and, as a result, our estimates of the impact of the acquisition of Aventis on the pro forma financial information in this document may be inaccurate.”

The pro forma combined financial information is based on preliminary estimates and assumptions, which Sanofi-Aventis believes to be reasonable. The pro forma adjustments and allocation of purchase price are preliminary. In general, due to the limited financial and other information related to Aventis available to Sanofi-Aventis's management prior to the settlement of the offers, the excess of purchase price over the book value of the assets to be acquired has been allocated according to a preliminary analysis by Sanofi-Aventis's management based on available public information. The final allocation of the purchase price will be completed after the asset and liability valuations are finalized by Sanofi-Aventis's management. There can be no assurance that the final allocation of the purchase price will not differ from the preliminary allocation.

SANOFI-AVENTIS — FRENCH GAAP
NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 — Description of Transaction and Basis of Presentation

The transaction will be accounted for as a purchase by Sanofi-Aventis under the accounting principles generally accepted in France. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Aventis will be recorded as of the acquisition date, at their respective fair values, and added to those of Sanofi-Aventis.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated condensed financial statements have been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical consolidated financial statements, including the notes thereto, of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis. For Sanofi-Aventis, consolidated financial statements as of, and for the year ended, December 31, 2003 are included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated into this document by reference. Sanofi-Aventis's consolidated financial statements as of, and for the six months ended June 30, 2004, are included as Exhibit 99.1 to its Current Report on Form 6-K, dated September 14, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

For Aventis, consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 are included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated into this document by reference. See "Additional Information for Securityholders — Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference". Aventis's consolidated financial statements as of, and for the six months ended June 30, 2004, are included as Exhibit 99.2 to its Current Report on Form 6-K, dated August 6, 2004, which Exhibit (but not the entirety of the Form 6-K) is incorporated into this document by reference.

For further information on how you obtain these financial statements, see "Additional Information for Securityholders — Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference".

The transaction

The business combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis comprises two steps: a public offer for all the outstanding Aventis ordinary shares followed by a merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, with Sanofi-Aventis continuing as the surviving corporation. The offer (including the subsequent offering period) was completed on September 6, 2004 and fully settled on September 24, 2004. Subject to the satisfaction of all conditions, the merger is expected to be effective on December 31, 2004.

The Offer. Sanofi-Aventis made a public offer to acquire all of the outstanding Aventis ordinary shares, including Aventis ordinary shares represented by Aventis ADSs. For legal reasons, in order to satisfy regulatory requirements, Sanofi-Aventis made three separate offers, a French offer, a German offer and a U.S. offer, which were made on substantially similar terms and were subject to the same conditions. Under the terms of the revised offers, which were recommended by the Aventis supervisory board and the Aventis management board, and after giving effect to the adjustment in respect of the 2003 Aventis dividend, holders of Aventis ordinary shares received €19.18 in cash and 0.8333 of a Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share in exchange for each Aventis ordinary share validly tendered in the offers. Holders of Aventis ADSs received an amount in U.S. dollars equal to €19.18 in cash and 1.6667 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs in exchange for each Aventis ADS validly tendered in the U.S. offer. See "Background and Reasons for the Merger — Existing Relationship between Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis — Acquisition of Aventis pursuant to the offers". The revised French offer was also made to acquire all of the outstanding Aventis BSAs for an aggregate consideration of approximately €6 million. The revised offers included a mix and match feature whereby holders of Aventis securities could elect to receive only Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares or Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, as applicable, or only cash in exchange for any or all of the Aventis securities that they tendered. Under the all stock election, holders of Aventis securities could elect to receive 1.1600 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share (or 2.3200 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs for each Aventis ADS). Under the all cash election holders of Aventis securities could elect to receive €68.11 in cash for each Aventis ordinary share (or an amount in U.S. dollars equal to €68.11 in cash for each Aventis ADS). However, these elections were subject to proration and allocation adjustments that ensured that, in the aggregate (after giving effect to the adjustment in respect of the 2003 Aventis dividend) 71.84% of the Aventis ordinary shares (including Aventis ordinary shares represented by Aventis ADSs) tendered in the offers were exchanged for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares (including Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares represented by Sanofi-Aventis ADSs) and 28.16% were exchanged for cash. The initial offering period in the revised offers closed on July 30, 2004 and, on the settlement date of August 20, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis acquired 769,920,773 Aventis ordinary shares representing 95.47% of the share capital and 95.52% of the voting rights of Aventis, on an issued and outstanding basis as at July 31, 2004. Sanofi-Aventis provided a subsequent offering period in the offers, on the same terms and conditions, from August 21 to September 6, 2004. On September 24, 2004, the settlement date for the subsequent offering periods, Sanofi-Aventis acquired an additional 21,397,038 Aventis ordinary shares. Therefore, as of September 24, 2004, pursuant to the offers, Sanofi-Aventis had acquired, in aggregate, 791,317,811 Aventis ordinary shares representing 98.03% of the share capital and 98.09% of the voting rights of Aventis, on an issued and outstanding basis as at August 31, 2004.

The Merger. Following the acquisition of control of Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis decided to seek to merge Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, with Sanofi-Aventis continuing as the surviving company, in order to create a more streamlined legal structure that will better reflect the operational organization of the new Group. At their respective meetings held on October 13, 2004 and October 14, 2004, the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors and the Aventis supervisory board and the Aventis management board each approved an agreement and plan of merger. Pursuant to this merger agreement and applicable French Law, at the effective time, all of the assets and liabilities of Aventis will be transferred in accordance with French law to Sanofi-Aventis, Aventis will be dissolved, without liquidation, and the holders of Aventis ordinary shares (other than Sanofi-Aventis or Aventis) will receive 27 newly-issued Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares in exchange for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares that they hold (or approximately 1.1739 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for each Aventis ordinary share). Completion of the merger is subject to the approval of both Aventis shareholders and Sanofi-Aventis shareholders and must be approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the voting power present at their respective extraordinary general meetings of shareholders. However, because Sanofi-Aventis holds 98.09% of the voting rights of Aventis, approval by the Aventis shareholders is assured.

Pro forma adjustments

Because prior to the settlement of the offers, Sanofi-Aventis had access only to publicly available financial information about Aventis, the pro forma adjustments include a number of assumptions and adjustments, which the management of Sanofi-Aventis believes to be reasonable. See “Risk Factors — We were not given the opportunity to conduct a due diligence review of the nonpublic records of Aventis before commencing or completing our offers for Aventis. Therefore, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis which may have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations” and “Risk Factors — In the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis, we have not been able to verify the reliability of all the information regarding Aventis in periods prior to the acquisition included in, or incorporated by reference into, this document and, as a result, our estimates of the impact of the acquisition of Aventis on the pro forma financial information in this document may be inaccurate.”

The pro forma adjustments are directly attributable to the transaction. The pro forma financial information does not reflect any cost savings potentially realizable from the elimination of certain expenses and from the synergies expected to be created and the anticipated costs of implementing such cost savings or synergies or the effect of asset dispositions, if any, that may be required by regulatory authorities, other than the announced sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets and the announced sale of Camppto® to Pfizer Inc. In particular, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not reflect the impact of the disposals and/or grants of licenses of certain products (in addition to Arixtra®, Fraxiparine® and Camppto®) requested by the European Commission as conditions to its approval of the proposed acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis, announced on April 26, 2004, because definitive agreements with respect to the disposal or licensing of these products have not yet been entered into. Based on IMS Health data, aggregate revenues for these products were approximately €32 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004 and €53 million for the year ended December 31, 2003. The unaudited pro forma financial information does not reflect any special items such as payments pursuant to change of control provisions or restructuring and integration costs which may be incurred as a result of the transaction.

The unaudited pro forma financial information is based on preliminary estimates and assumptions set forth below and in Notes 2, 6, 7 and 8, which Sanofi-Aventis believes to be reasonable. The pro forma adjustments and allocation of purchase price are preliminary. Due to the limited financial and other information related to Aventis available to Sanofi-Aventis's management prior to the settlement of the offers, the excess of the purchase price over the book value of the assets to be acquired has been allocated according to a preliminary analysis by Sanofi-Aventis's management based on available public information. The final allocation of the purchase price will be completed after asset and liability valuations are finalized by Sanofi-Aventis's management. There can be no assurance that the final allocation of the purchase price will not differ from the preliminary allocation.

The pro forma financial information assumes that pursuant to the offers and the merger:

- 98.03% of the outstanding Aventis securities were exchanged pursuant to the offers for cash and Sanofi-Aventis securities, with a cash component of €15,791 million (including €643 million in dividends paid on Sanofi-Aventis securities issued) and a share component valued at €35,071 million;
- 1.97% of the outstanding Aventis securities are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis securities at an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares;
- all of the outstanding Aventis BSAs are purchased for cash in the French offer, for aggregate consideration of €6 million;
- all of the outstanding Aventis stock options are exchanged pursuant to the merger for Sanofi-Aventis stock options. The number of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares subject to these options and the exercise price of the options will be adjusted to reflect the merger exchange ratio of at an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares for every 23 Aventis ordinary shares; and
- the net cash consideration paid in the offers (after taking into account the expected proceeds of €885 million from the disposals discussed below) is financed by €14,906 million of new Sanofi-Aventis debt at an interest rate of 3.6%.

In addition, the pro forma adjustments reflect the sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® and related assets on the terms announced on April 13, 2004, as well as the sale of Campto® to Pfizer Inc on the terms announced on June 25, 2004. For more information on these disposals, see “Regulatory Matters — Competition and Antitrust — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®” and “— Sale of Campto®”. The pro forma adjustments also include adjustments that have been made to Aventis's historical financial statements in order to conform their presentation to the Sanofi-Aventis presentation. In addition, pro forma adjustments have been made to Aventis's historical statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2003, in order to reflect the disposal of Aventis Behring to CSL, which was completed on March 31, 2004. For further information, see Exhibit 99.3 to Aventis's Form 6-K, dated April 30, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under the German Securities and Corporate Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz) for the 1.9% of the ordinary shares of Hoechst AG not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for Hoechst AG; Aventis Squeeze-Out Offer for Hoechst”. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under applicable Indian law for up to 4,606,125 shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India not already held by Aventis or its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Sanofi-Aventis Mandatory Offer for 20% of the Share Capital of Aventis Pharma Limited India”.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of June 30, 2004 assumes that the transactions were consummated as of that date. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004 and for the year ended December 31, 2003, give effect to the transactions as if they had been consummated as of January 1, 2003 the first day of the earliest financial period presented.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial condition of the combined entities that would have been achieved had the transactions been consummated on the respective dates assumed and are not necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial condition of the combined businesses of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis.

Sensitivity analysis

The stock price used to compute the estimated purchase price for the remaining Aventis ordinary shares to be acquired pursuant to the merger is based on the closing price of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share on September 16, 2004, the measurement date for the value of Sanofi-Aventis's ordinary shares issued in settlement of the subsequent offering period. However, the actual measurement date for the value of Sanofi-Aventis's ordinary shares will occur on the date that the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders votes to approve the merger agreement. For each €1.00 increase or decrease in the price of a Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share, the aggregate consideration payable pursuant to the terms of merger would increase or decrease by approximately €18.6 million and annual amortization would increase or decrease by approximately €0.6 million.

Note 2 — Purchase Price Computation and Allocation

The following table sets out the calculation of a preliminary estimate of the aggregate purchase price for Aventis, in accordance with French GAAP. The table sets forth the actual purchase price for the 769,920,773 Aventis ordinary shares tendered during the initial offering period ended July 30, 2004, the actual purchase price for the 21,397,038 Aventis ordinary shares tendered during the subsequent offering period ended September 6, 2004, as well as an estimate of the purchase price for the remaining 15,886,323 Aventis ordinary shares not held by Sanofi-Aventis, Aventis or any of their subsidiaries, pursuant to the merger. The estimated purchase price also includes the actual cash consideration paid for the Aventis BSAs acquired in the French offer, as well as an estimate of transaction costs, net of tax. The aggregate estimated purchase price calculated in this manner is €52,105 million. The estimate is based on the 807,204,134 Aventis ordinary shares outstanding as of August 31, 2004, including 23,575,234 Aventis ordinary shares tendered into the French offer by Aventis, pursuant to an all stock election, and now held by Sanofi-Aventis.

As of June 30, 2004, there were 805,615,946 Aventis shares outstanding, of which 23,575,234 were held as treasury shares by Aventis. The second two columns in the following table set forth the calculations of an estimated pro forma purchase price for those 805,615,946 Aventis ordinary shares, assuming that these Aventis ordinary shares (other than the Aventis treasury shares) were tendered into the initial offering period and the subsequent offering period of the offers in the same proportion as the actual shares tendered into the offers and pursuant to the same mix of elections. The calculation assumes that all the Aventis treasury shares were tendered into the French offer, pursuant to an all stock election and that the balance of shares not tendered is exchanged pursuant to the merger. The pro forma estimated purchase price includes the actual cost of the Aventis BSAs and the same assumption with respect to estimated transaction costs. The pro forma estimated purchase price calculated in this manner is €52,000 million.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this document has been prepared based on the estimated pro forma purchase price of €52,000 million, in order not to take into account in the purchase price the 1,588,188 Aventis shares issued after June 30, 2004 because the effects of these share issuances (pursuant to the exercise of options) are not otherwise reflected in financial statements of Aventis as of June 30, 2004.

The estimated total costs relating to the transaction amount to €190 million, of which €100 million are direct transaction costs relating to the acquisition. The balance of €90 million relates to the fees attributable to the financing facility, which the management of Sanofi-Aventis considered to be primarily comprised of fees related to the establishment of the line of credit.

As required by Rule 99-02 of the Comité de la Réglementation Comptable (“CRC”) issued on April 29, 1999, the purchase price allocated to in-process research and development will be immediately expensed. Goodwill will be amortized over 30 years.

We do not have sufficient information at this time to provide specifics with regard to individual products, valuation methods and appraisal methods.

A valuation performed in accordance with the generally accepted accounting guidance would entail a determination of fair value using the income approach on a project-by-project basis utilizing the following information: a forecast of the estimated future net cash flows expected for a successful outcome of the project, adjusted by an estimate of the probability of success based on the stage of completion (risk) of the project, and then discounting these adjusted estimated future net cash flows to their present value using an appropriate discount rate. This adjustment would reflect the probability of success of each project based upon the nature of the product, the scientific data associated with the technology, the current patent situation and the stage of completion of the project. The forecast of future cash flows would require the following assumptions to be made:

- revenue that is likely to result from specific in-process research and development projects, if they are successful, including the estimated number of units to be sold, estimated selling prices, estimated market penetration and estimated market share and year-over-year growth rates over the product-life cycles;
- cost of sales related to the potential products using historical data, industry data or other sources of market data;
- sales and marketing expense using historical financial data of the acquired company, industry data or other market data;
- general and administrative expenses; and
- research and development, or R&D, expenses.

In the absence of more detailed information, we defined identifiable intangible assets as developed technology and the associated trademarks. We tentatively approximated the identifiable intangible assets value using an income approach, applied to consensus sales forecasts publicly available in the pharmaceutical industry, with a discount rate of 10%, and using certain other assumptions consistent with our first-hand knowledge of the industry. Identifiable intangible assets were amortized on a linear basis over a period equal to the number of years it would take to contribute 90% of the value of the identifiable intangible asset. These assumptions do not reflect any input from Aventis’s management or accountants.

With respect to in-process research and development, Sanofi-Aventis only had access to publicly available financial information about Aventis prior to the settlement of the offers and has not had sufficient time since the settlement of the offers to gather the detailed data that would be needed to conduct a valuation of specific projects in the manner described above. Therefore, Sanofi-Aventis determined that the €4,000 million in-process research and development charge included as part of the pro forma condensed combined financial statements was a reasonable estimate based upon what is known about the various products within the Aventis pipeline, the market for the potential products it has been able to identify from publicly available information, including the probabilities of success of compounds in various stages of completion, Sanofi-Aventis's own extensive experience with R&D activities, as well as a review of publicly available information for precedent combination and acquisition transactions in the healthcare industry. The estimation was performed using a discount rate of 10%, applied to the above publicly available market information adjusted by an estimate of the probability of success based on the stage of completion (risk) of the project. These assumptions do not reflect any input from Aventis's management or accountants.

Although Sanofi-Aventis believes that its estimate of the identifiable intangible assets valuation and of the in-process research and development charge arising from the acquisition of Aventis is reasonable based upon publicly available information, no assurance can be given that a compound-by-compound valuation based upon the above cited factors will confirm Sanofi-Aventis's estimate. If the actual compound-by-compound valuation, which Sanofi-Aventis expects to be completed within twelve months from the consummation of the offers, differs from the €30,830 million estimate and the €4,000 million estimate, respectively, for the identifiable intangible assets valuation and for the in-process research and development charge, Sanofi-Aventis will adjust the expected accounting entries and write-off to those amounts. The expected accounting entries, write-off and related disclosures will be included in Sanofi-Aventis's annual filings with the AMF and the SEC.

Note 3 — Accounting Policies and Financial Statement Classifications

Because prior to the settlement of the offer Sanofi-Aventis had access only to publicly available financial information about Aventis's accounting policies, there can be no assurance that the accounting policies of Aventis conform to those of Sanofi-Aventis. Please see "Risk Factors — We were not given the opportunity to conduct a due diligence review of the nonpublic records of Aventis before commencing or completing our offers for Aventis. Therefore, we may be subject to unknown liabilities of Aventis which may have an adverse effect on our profitability and results of operations" and "Risk Factors — In the limited time since our acquisition of Aventis, we have not been able to verify the reliability of all the information regarding Aventis in periods prior to the acquisition included in, or incorporated by reference into, this document and, as a result, our estimates of the impact of the acquisition of Aventis on the pro forma financial information in this document may be inaccurate."

Upon completion of the transaction, accounting policies and financial statement classifications will be reviewed. As a result of that review, it may become necessary to make certain additional reclassifications to the combined company's financial statements to conform to those accounting policies and classifications that are determined to be more appropriate.

Based upon publicly available information, we identified certain differences in the presentation of the balance sheet and of the statement of income between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis. Accordingly, we have reclassified certain items in the statement of income of Aventis to conform to Sanofi-Aventis's presentation.

Adjustments included in the column under the heading "Reclassifications to Conform Historical Aventis to Historical Sanofi-Aventis" primarily relate to the following:

- (a) To reclassify amounts recording amortization and impairment of intangible assets from various captions under which they are recorded on Aventis's historical statements of income to the caption "Intangible — Amortization and Impairment" to conform to Sanofi-Aventis's presentation, for an aggregate amount of €74 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and €163 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.
- (b) To reclassify net gains on disposal of intangibles from under the caption "Other operating income/(expenses), net" in Aventis historical accounts to "Exceptional items" under Sanofi-Aventis's presentation, in an amount of €299 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and €354 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.

- (c) To reclassify goodwill amortization from under the caption “Other operating income/(expenses), net” in the column Aventis historical accounts to “Goodwill amortization” under Sanofi-Aventis’s presentation, in an amount of €228 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and €480 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.
- (d) To reclassify preferred remuneration to minority interests (€18 million and €52 million respectively as of, and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004 and the year ended December 31, 2003).

Certain other differences were identified that should have been reclassified to conform Aventis’s historical financial statements to Sanofi-Aventis’s presentation; however, such reclassification could not be performed in the absence of more detailed information. These differences relate in particular to license income, restructuring provisions, product sales and foreign exchange gains and losses on the consolidated statement of income.

Note 4 — Intercompany Transactions

Upon completion of the transaction, any transactions that occurred between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis would be considered intercompany transactions. Balances and transactions between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis as of and for the period presented are not significant.

Note 5 — Disposal of Aventis Behring

This column reflects the impact of the disposal of Aventis Behring to CSL, which was completed on March 31, 2004, in the manner and for the amounts disclosed in note 30 to Aventis’s consolidated financial statements as of, and for the year ended, December 31, 2003, which are incorporated into this document by reference.

Note 6 — Disposal of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®, and Campto®

This column reflects adjustments that give effect to the sale to GlaxoSmithKline of Arixtra®, Fraxiparine® and related assets, including the manufacturing facility located at Notre Dame de Bondeville, France. Sanofi-Aventis announced on April 13, 2004 that it had entered into an agreement regarding the divestment of these assets to GlaxoSmithKline having previously announced on January 26, 2004 that it had begun a sales process to divest its interests in Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® in order to be able to respond to possible demands of the competition authorities. See “Regulatory Matters — Competition and Antitrust — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®”. The disposal of these assets to GlaxoSmithKline was conditioned on the successful completion of the offers and was completed on September 1, 2004. The adjustments reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are based on historical figures as included in Sanofi-Aventis’s consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003, and as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2004 which are incorporated into this document by reference. For purposes of these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, proceeds from the disposal have been estimated at €453 million. Prior to entering into the agreement with GlaxoSmithKline, Sanofi-Aventis had acquired in February 2004 all of NV Organon’s interests relating to Arixtra® (fondaparinux sodium), idraparinux and other oligosaccharides in consideration of certain payments largely based on future sales. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements reflect only the effects of this transaction with Organon related to Arixtra®. These effects are based on preliminary estimates made by management. Sanofi-Aventis is in the process of determining the expected accounting entries and related disclosures, which will be included in Sanofi-Aventis’s filings with the AMF and with the SEC.

This column also reflects adjustments that give effect to the contemplated sale to Pfizer Inc. of Aventis’s interests in Campto® (irinotecan) that Sanofi-Aventis announced on June 25, 2004 in response to requests made by the competition authorities. The agreement to divest these interests was conditioned on the successful completion of Sanofi-Aventis’s offer for Aventis. Subject to obtaining the necessary clearances from the US Federal Trade Commission, Pfizer will take over key clinical studies for Campto® that are currently conducted by Aventis, together with certain patents and other assets pertaining to territories where Pfizer currently markets irinotecan, including the United States. Subject to certain conditions, including obtaining the necessary clearances from the European competition authority, Pfizer will also acquire all the other assets relating to Campto® held by Aventis. The aggregate consideration for the transaction is $620 million, which includes milestone payments for the registration of future indications. See “Regulatory Matters — Competition and Antitrust — Sale of Campto®”. Aventis’s sales of Campto® reached €264 million in 2003 and €150 million in the six months ended June 30, 2004.

- (a) Net gains on the sale of Fraxiparine® and Arixtra® have been recorded on the line “exceptional items” in an amount of €190 million as at December 31, 2003.
- (b) Campto® net assets have been valued at their net realizable value through the purchase price allocation, the only effects on net results are:
 - financial interest at a rate of 3.6% calculated on the consideration received; and
 - the reversal of the amortization of the intangible Campto® (€17 million as at June 30, 2004 and €35 million as at December 2003).

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as at June 30, 2004 gives effect to the above transactions as if they had taken place on June 30, 2004 and the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income for the six months ended June 30, 2004 and for the year ended December 31, 2003, give effect to these transaction as if they had taken place on January 1, 2003, the first day of the earliest financial period presented.

Note 7 — Acquisition of Minority Interests in Hoechst and Aventis Pharma Limited India

Adjustments included in the column under the heading “Acquisition of Minority Interests in Hoechst and Aventis Pharma Limited India” give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under the German Securities and Corporate Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz) for the 1.9% of the ordinary shares of Hoechst AG not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for Hoechst AG”. Adjustments included in the column also give effect to the mandatory offer that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under applicable Indian law for up to 4,606,125 shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India representing 20% of its outstanding share capital. For further information, see “Recent Developments — Mandatory Offer for 20% of the Share Capital of Aventis Pharma Limited India”.

These adjustments assume:

- all of the 10,701,838 Hoechst shares not held by Aventis or any of its subsidiaries are acquired by Sanofi-Aventis for a cash compensation of €51.23 per Hoechst share;
- the maximum transaction amount (including transaction costs) is financed by €550 million of new Sanofi-Aventis debt at an interest rate of 3.6%;
- 4,606,125 shares of Aventis Pharma Limited India representing 20% of its outstanding share capital are acquired by Sanofi-Aventis for a cash compensation of $17.30 per share; and
- the consideration paid in the Indian Offer is financed by $79.7 million (€65 million) of new Sanofi-Aventis debt at an interest rate of 3.6%.

Goodwill on the Hoechst offer has been calculated as the difference between purchase price of €550 million and the minority interest as at June 30, 2004, amounting €123 million.

Goodwill on Aventis Pharma Limited India offer has been calculated as the difference between purchase price of €65 million and the minority interest (40% of the missing shares) as at June 30, 2004 amounting €14 million.

Note 8 — Pro Forma Adjustments

Adjustments included in the column under the heading “Pro Forma Adjustments” primarily relate to the following:

- (a) To eliminate historical goodwill and historical intangible assets (€9,114 million, excluding software), and related amortization expense recorded by Aventis of approximately €228 million and €74 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and €480 million and €163 million for the year ended December 31, 2003, respectively, and to eliminate historic goodwill on equity investee which amount to €199 million and related amortization expense recorded by Aventis of respectively €6 million and €11 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004 and the year ended December 31, 2003.
- (b) To record the allocation of the estimated purchase price as at June 30, 2004: to reflect the difference between the book value and the fair value of net assets acquired, and also the accrual of estimated direct transaction costs for €65 million net of tax, related taxes amount to €35 million. The differences between the book value and the fair value of net assets acquired are the following (see Note 2):
 - To record goodwill: €24,970 million;
 - To record identifiable intangible assets at fair value: €30,830 million;
 - To record identifiable tangible assets at fair value: €162 million;
 - To record in-process research and development: €4,000 million;
 - To increase equity investees to fair value: €1,420 million;
 - To increase inventory to fair value, based on the net realizable value, estimated as the expected selling price in the ordinary course of business less reasonable costs of completion and disposal and a reasonable profit allowance for the completion and selling effort: €2,100 million;
 - To increase benefit plan liability to fair value, based on the unrecognized net actuarial gains and losses of Aventis, as of June 30, 2004: €1,268 million, classified as a reduction in long-term assets on the asset side for €923 million and as an increase of provision and other long-term liabilities for €345 million;
 - To decrease the participating shares and capital equity notes to their estimated fair value: €16 million;
 - To record the Aventis BSAs for €6 million; and
 - To compute deferred taxes on the above adjustments: €11,349 million.

- (d) To record the amortization expense related to goodwill from the purchase price allocation, which is being amortized over an estimated useful life of 30 years, of approximately €416 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and €832 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.
- (e) To eliminate the historical amortization of actuarial gains and losses as a result of the step-up of the pension liabilities to fair value for an amount of approximately €32 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004, and €63 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.
- (f) To record the interest costs of the bridge financing, which were computed using an effective interest rate of 3.6%, for an amount of approximately €284 million for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004 and €568 million for the year ended December 31, 2003. See “Source and Amount of Funds”.

- (k) To record the reversal of the step-up on inventory as the result of the sale of this inventory in 2003.

Note 9 — Significant Differences Between French GAAP and U.S. GAAP

Sanofi-Aventis prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with French GAAP, which, as applied by Sanofi-Aventis, differs in certain significant respects from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (commonly known as U.S. GAAP). The effects of the application of U.S. GAAP on the pro forma adjustments, and ultimately on combined pro forma net income and shareholders' equity, are set out in the following tables.

Historical U.S. GAAP adjustments for Sanofi-Aventis (then known as Sanofi-Synthelabo) relative to the year ended December 31, 2003 have been derived from the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 that are included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated into this document by reference. Historical U.S. GAAP adjustments for Sanofi-Aventis relative to the six months ended, and as of, June 30, 2004 are set out in footnote 1 to the tables included below in “— 9.1 Reconciliation of combined pro forma net income and combined pro forma shareholders' equity” and have been derived from the consolidated financial statements included as Exhibit 99.1 to its Current Report on Form 6-K, dated September 14, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference. See “Additional Information for Securityholders — Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference”.

Historical U.S. GAAP adjustments for Aventis have been derived from the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 that are included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated into this document by reference. Historical U.S. GAAP adjustments for Aventis relative to the six months ended, and as of, June 30, 2004 have been derived from Note 14 to the consolidated financial statements included as Exhibit 99.2 to its Current Report on Form 6-K, dated August 6, 2004, which Exhibit (but not the entirety of the Form 6-K) is incorporated into this document by reference. See “Additional Information for Securityholders — Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference”.

The transaction is considered to be an acquisition by Sanofi-Aventis under French GAAP. Management carefully considered all of the factors in paragraph 17 of SFAS 141, and, in particular, the fact that if the merger is completed, taking into account the Aventis securities that were validly tendered and exchanged in the offers, immediately after the effective time of the merger, the holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares (including Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares represented by Sanofi-Aventis ADSs), other than Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares issued in connection with the offers and the merger, will own approximately 51% of the share capital and approximately 60% of the voting rights of the combined entity and the former holders of Aventis ordinary shares (including Aventis ordinary shares represented by Aventis ADSs) will own approximately 49% of the share capital and approximately 40% of the voting rights of the combined entity on a fully-diluted basis taking into account all options exercisable at the effective time of the merger. Management also considered, among other factors, that, immediately after the merger, and taking into account the Aventis securities that were validly tendered and exchanged in the offers, Total and L'Oréal, Sanofi-Aventis's principal shareholders immediately prior to its acquisition of Aventis, will own approximately 13% and approximately 11%, respectively, of the share capital and approximately 21% and approximately 17%, respectively, of the voting rights of the combined entity, while the Kuwait Petroleum Corporation, the largest former shareholder of Aventis (before its acquisition by Sanofi-Aventis) would own approximately 6% of the share capital and approximately 5% of the voting rights in the combined entity. Management also considered that, based on a price of €58.72 per Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share, which was the average of the daily closing prices, weighted by volume, for Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris during the calendar month ended on January 21, 2004, the terms of the revised offers and of the merger value each Aventis ordinary share at €68.93, which represents a premium of 31.4% over the average of the daily closing prices, weighted by volume, for Aventis ordinary shares on Euronext Paris during the same period, which was €52.46 per Aventis ordinary share. Management further considered that the composition of neither the board of directors nor the senior management of the combined entity will reflect a majority in favor of Aventis and that the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Sanofi-Aventis before its acquisition of Aventis will continue to be the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the combined entity and will select the senior managers who will form the Comité de Direction (management committee) of the combined entity. Based on this analysis, management has concluded that, under U.S. GAAP, the transaction is also to be treated as an acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis.

Shareholders' equity, as determined under U.S. GAAP	13,096	12,736

The main adjustments were as follows:

(a) Purchase accounting:

- Sanofi-Aventis was formed following the merger of the Sanofi Group and the Synthelabo Group in 1999. Under French GAAP, the transaction between the Sanofi Group and the Synthelabo Group was accounted for as a merger, effective July 1, 1999, which resulted in the harmonization of accounting policies and the revaluation of assets and liabilities of both the Sanofi Group and the Synthelabo Group to adjust them to their value to the Group.

Under U.S. GAAP, the merger is required to be accounted for as a purchase. The Sanofi Group is deemed to be the accounting acquirer with the assets and liabilities of the Synthelabo Group being recorded at their estimated fair values.

With effect from January 1, 2002, the goodwill recorded in U.S. GAAP on the merger between Sanofi and Synthelabo is no longer amortized.

- In September 1994, Sanofi acquired the worldwide assets of the human healthcare division of Eastman Kodak ("Sterling"). Under French GAAP, no goodwill or intangibles associated with the acquisition of Sterling are reflected in the Sanofi-Synthelabo consolidated financial statements.
- Under U.S. GAAP certain intangible assets, including acquired in-process research and development, intellectual property rights and an assembled workforce, were valued and recorded, and were being amortized over their estimated useful lives ranging from 8 to 20 years.
- Under French GAAP, no goodwill or intangible assets associated with certain other acquisitions made by the Sanofi Group before June 30, 1999 are reflected in the Sanofi-Aventis consolidated financial statements. Under U.S. GAAP, certain intangible assets, including assembled workforce, were initially valued and recorded, and were amortized over their estimated useful lives.
- Effective January 1, 2002, assembled workforces have been reclassified as goodwill and are no longer amortized.
- Goodwill and intangible assets accounted following business combinations have been subject to impairment tests. These tests, performed as of October 1, 2003 identified no impairment of goodwill. Impairment tests performed on identified intangible assets during the periods ended

June 30, 2004 and December 31, 2003 resulted in the recognition of an impairment loss of respectively 73 and 67 million euros.

(b) Stock-based compensation:

Under French GAAP, no compensation expense related to stock-based compensation plans is recognized in the financial statements. The shares issued upon exercise of the options are reflected as an increase in share capital upon exercise of the option.

Under U.S. GAAP, prior to 2003, the company accounted for stock-based employee compensation plans under the recognition and measurement provisions of APB Opinion No. 25, “Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees”, and related Interpretations. Under APB 25, when the exercise price of the stock options is less than the market price of the underlying shares on date of grant, compensation expense is recognized over the related vesting period, if any.

Effective January 1, 2003, the Group voluntarily adopted the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation”. Under the modified prospective method of adoption selected by the Group under the provisions of FASB Statement No. 148, “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure”, compensation cost recognized in 2003 and 2004 is the same as that which would have been recognized had the recognition provisions of Statement 123 been applied from its original effective date. In accordance with the modified prospective method of adoption, results for prior years have not been restated. In accordance with FAS 123, compensation expense for options is measured by the fair value of the option at the date of grant and recognized over the vesting period. This fair value is estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model.

(c) Revenue recognition — BMS Alliance:

Not all U.S. GAAP revenue recognition criteria were met for sales made by alliance entities under the operational management of BMS to certain wholesalers made between 1999 and 2002. The related revenues have therefore been restated under U.S. GAAP.

Certain revenues were recognized on the date of shipment, whereas under U.S. GAAP they should have been recognized on a consignment basis. In the case of these sales, the risks and rewards of ownership are not treated as having been transferred under U.S. GAAP, in that the wholesalers were holding inventory in excess of the requirements of their normal business cycle. Consequently, the seller had a future commitment to reduce the selling price to cover the costs incurred by the wholesalers in carrying the excess inventories.

Revenue recognition on a consignment basis involves accounting for the sale as deferred revenue on shipment, and accounting for the inventory physically held by the wholesaler as consignment inventory priced at cost. The revenue is recognized when the inventory is no longer subject to specific rebate conditions in favor of the wholesaler, or on final sale by the wholesaler at the latest.

These adjustments relate to entities treated as equity investees in the Group’s U.S. GAAP financial statements, and have an impact on these financial statements, primarily on the following three lines:

- Revenues from licensing agreements;
- Other income and expense, income from equity investees and minority interests; and
- Income tax.

In 2003 no more sales have been made on a consignment basis and as at December 31, 2003 all specific rebate conditions in favor of wholesaler have been accrued.

(d) Other:

The aggregate adjustment included as “Other” in the reconciliations of consolidated net income and shareholders’ equity as of and for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2004 and June 30, 2003 and as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003, consists of:

	Net Income			Shareholders’ Equity
	June 2004 (unaudited)	June 2003 (unaudited)	2003 (audited)	June 2004 (unaudited)	2003 (audited)
(In millions of euros)

Pensions and post-retirement benefits . .	—	(6)	(11)	(145)	(140)

Marketable and investment securities	1	(3)	(4)	3	6
Total adjustment, before tax	26	6	(16)	(673)	(635)

Treasury shares

Under French GAAP, treasury shares repurchased for purposes of re-allocating them to employees pursuant to a stock-based compensation plan are recorded as an asset in the Group’s balance sheet. Their valuation depends on the probability of exercise at the closing date:

- purchase options whose future exercise is deemed probable, because their exercise price is less than their stock market value at the closing date, are valued separately for each plan at the lower of cost or exercise price; and
- purchase options whose future exercise is deemed not probable, because their exercise price is higher than their stock market value at the closing date, are valued at the lower of their average acquisition cost or average stock market value during the last month; treasury shares repurchased that are not yet allocated to specific plans or that became expired during the period are valued in accordance with the same method.

Under U.S. GAAP, treasury shares repurchased are recorded, at cost, as a reduction of shareholders’ equity.

As of June 30, 2004, the Group held 13,028,354 of its common shares in treasury for the purposes of stock-based compensation plans, for a net value of 577 million euros.

Pensions and post-retirement benefits

Under French GAAP, the Group’s pension schemes and post-retirement benefits are reflected in the balance sheet as liabilities and in the statement of income as expense based on actuarial computations that comply with French GAAP requirements.

Under U.S. GAAP, the Group accounts for its pension and post-retirement benefit plans in accordance with SFAS 87, “Employers’ Accounting for Pensions” and SFAS 106, “Employers’ Accounting for Postretirement Benefits”. Transition obligations for pensions were calculated as of December 31, 1999 as permitted for companies outside the United States and have been amortized from the initial implementation date of SFAS 87 in 1989 over a period equal to the higher of 15 years or the remaining expected service life of employees.

In U.S. GAAP financial statements, an additional minimum pension liability is required when, as result of unamortized actuarial losses, prior service costs and transition obligation, the accrued liability is lower than the excess of the accumulated benefit obligation over the fair value of the plan assets. This additional minimum pension liability is recorded, according to SFAS 87, with a counterpart in an asset account included in intangible assets for an amount limited to the addition of unrecognized prior service costs and transition obligation. The residual amount is recorded with a counterpart in other comprehensive income.

This adjustment reflects the tax effects of the adjustments reflected in the reconciliations of shareholders' equity and net income.

The Group is in a net deferred tax liability position under U.S. GAAP principally due to the deferred tax liabilities recognized related to identified intangible assets recorded under U.S. GAAP in connection with the merger of Sanofi and Synthelabo. The reversal of these deferred tax liabilities will allow the Group to realize the benefit of certain deferred tax assets under U.S. GAAP. Therefore, this adjustment also includes the recognition of certain deferred tax assets under U.S. GAAP.

(f) Deferred income taxes on equity investees:

Under French GAAP, a deferred tax liability is recorded for a taxable distribution when such distribution is considered probable.

Under U.S. GAAP, a deferred tax liability is recorded for the excess of the amount for financial reporting over the tax basis of investments in a 50%-or-less owned entity.

Recent accounting pronouncements

Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities

In January 2003, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities", an interpretation of ARB No. 51, which was subsequently revised, in December 2003, through the issuance of Interpretation No. 46 (revised) ("FIN 46"). FIN 46 requires variable interest entities ("VIE") to be consolidated by the primary beneficiary of the VIE. Generally, entities are considered to be VIEs if the equity investors in the entity do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or if the entity does not have sufficient equity at risk for it to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties.

The consolidation requirements of FIN 46 were effective immediately for all VIEs created after January 31, 2003.

For VIEs created prior to February 1, 2003, the transition provisions of FIN 46 (revised) stipulate different transition provisions for application depending on whether or not a VIE constitutes a special purpose entity. For VIEs that are also considered to be special purpose entities, Sanofi-Aventis is required to apply the consolidation requirements of FIN 46 to that entity as of January 1, 2004. For VIEs that are not considered to be special purpose entities, Sanofi-Aventis is required to apply the consolidation requirements of FIN 46 to that entity as of June 30, 2004.

The application of FIN 46 to variable interest entities did not have any material impact on the consolidated financial statements of Sanofi-Aventis as of June 30, 2004.

Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity

In May 2003, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity" ("SFAS 150"). SFAS 150 establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances). SFAS 150 affects the issuer's accounting for three types of freestanding financial instruments:

(1) Mandatorily redeemable shares, which embodies an unconditional obligation requiring the issuer to redeem the instrument in exchange for cash or other assets at a specified or determinable date(s) or upon an event that is certain to occur;

(2) Instruments that require or may require the issuer to repurchase some of its shares in exchange for cash or other assets, including written put options and forward purchase contracts; and

(3) Obligations that must or may be settled by issuing a variable number of equity shares, the monetary value of which is fixed, tied solely or predominantly to a variable such as a market index or varies inversely with the value of the issuers' shares.

SFAS 150 does not apply to features embedded in a financial instrument that is not a derivative in its entirety. SFAS 150 is effective for all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003. For instruments entered into prior to May 31, 2003, the provisions of SFAS 150 are effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003 (for the Company, as of January 1, 2004).

The adoption of SFAS 150 did not have a material impact on the results of operations, financial position or cash flows of the Group.

Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables

In November 2000, the EITF reached a consensus on EITF 00-21, "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables". EITF 00-21 provides guidance on how to account for arrangements that involve the delivery or performance of multiple products, services and/or rights to use assets. The provisions of EITF 00-21 apply to revenue arrangements entered into in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2003.

The adoption of EITF 00-21 did not have a material impact on the results of operations, financial position or cash flows of the Group.

(2) Differences between French GAAP and U.S. GAAP, as they relate to Aventis

These adjustments reflect the total of the U.S. GAAP adjustments on net income and on shareholders' equity, as reported by Aventis in its consolidated financial statements as of and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2004 and the year ended December 31, 2003.

Aventis's consolidated financial statements as of, and for the year ended, December 31, 2003 are included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003 and are incorporated into this document by reference. Refer to Note 34 of Aventis's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003 for a description of the differences between French and U.S. GAAP as they apply to Aventis.

Historical U.S. GAAP adjustments for Aventis relative to the six months ended, and as of, June 30, 2004 have been derived from Note 14 to the consolidated financial statements included as Exhibit 99.2 to its Current Report on Form 6-K, dated August 6, 2004, which Exhibit (but not the entirety of the Form 6-K) is incorporated into this document by reference. See "Additional Information for Securityholders — Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference".

(3) Reversal of French GAAP pro forma adjustments already accounted for in U.S. GAAP

In Aventis U.S. GAAP statements, certain assets were revalued at their fair market value.

In the French GAAP Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed statements of income of Sanofi-Aventis, these assets are also reflected at fair market value.

This adjustment is to remove the double accounting of these revaluations under U.S. GAAP.

(4) Reversal of the write-off of historical goodwill amortization under French GAAP

Aventis's historical goodwill is amortized under French GAAP, and reversed under U.S. GAAP. In the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income under French GAAP, Aventis's historical goodwill amortization is eliminated as part of the pro forma adjustments.

This adjustment is to remove the double elimination, so that Aventis's historical goodwill amortization is properly eliminated in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income under U.S. GAAP.

(5) Elimination of historical goodwill and intangible assets amortization and impairment under U.S. GAAP

Under U.S. GAAP, certain adjustments are performed by Aventis to record the purchase price allocation resulting from the recognition of certain acquisitions, and in particular the initial business combination in 1999, as purchase combinations. As a consequence, the U.S. GAAP statements of income of Aventis include an additional amortization and depreciation charge related to the intangible assets and goodwill recorded as part of these business combinations.

This adjustment is to eliminate the historical net book value of intangible assets and goodwill in the balance sheet of Aventis under U.S. GAAP, and to eliminate the amortization and depreciation charge recorded in the statements of income under U.S. GAAP on intangible assets and goodwill by Aventis.

(6) Reversal of goodwill amortization under French GAAP

Under French GAAP, goodwill is amortized. The combined pro forma statements of income were prepared with goodwill amortized over 30 years. Under U.S. GAAP, in accordance with the requirements of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS No. 142"), goodwill is not amortized.

This adjustment is to reverse goodwill amortization under French GAAP.

(7) Income tax effect on the above adjustments

This adjustment reflects the tax effects of the adjustments included in the reconciliation which relate to the transaction.

(8) Differences between French GAAP and U.S. GAAP, as they relate to the measurement of purchase price

Under French GAAP, the purchase price is obtained, among other items, by multiplying the number of shares issued at closing by the Sanofi-Aventis stock price at the closing date which was equal to €55.55 on August 12, 2004 in respect of the Aventis ordinary shares purchased in the initial offering period ended July 30, 2004 and €57.30 in respect of the Aventis ordinary shares purchased in the subsequent offering period ended September 6, 2004. Under U.S. GAAP, this same element is obtained by multiplying the number of shares issued by the average Sanofi-Aventis stock price for the period beginning two days before and ending two days after April 25, 2004, the date when the revised terms of the transaction were agreed to and announced, in accordance with EITF 99-12, "Determination of the Measurement Date for the Market Price of Acquirer Securities Issued in a Purchase Business Combination", for an amount of €53.81 per share.

This adjustment is to reflect the impact on goodwill (and share capital) of the difference of purchase price as measured under French GAAP and U.S. GAAP.

Moreover, under U.S. GAAP, the fair value of the exchanged vested Aventis stock options is considered part of the cost of acquisition.

(9) To remove the U.S. GAAP differences of Aventis on shareholders' equity

Under French GAAP, the historical balance of the shareholders' equity of Aventis is removed to record the consideration paid through the issuance of ordinary shares by Sanofi-Aventis, the exchange of stock options, and the estimated write-off of in-process research and development. Under U.S. GAAP, the historical balance of the shareholders' equity of Aventis should also be removed.

This adjustment is to remove the historical differences between French GAAP and U.S. GAAP on the shareholders' equity of Aventis, resulting in the complete elimination of the historical balance of the shareholders' equity of Aventis under U.S. GAAP.

Note 10 — Significant Differences Expected between French GAAP and IFRS

In the fourth quarter of 2003, Sanofi-Aventis began the project of converting its consolidated accounts prepared according to French GAAP to IFRS accounting principles, which will allow Sanofi-Aventis to present its consolidated accounts according to IFRS accounting principles for the year ended December 31, 2005 and to present the estimated impact in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004.

The accounting treatment adopted by Sanofi-Aventis under French GAAP to give effect to the acquisition of Aventis in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements differs from the accounting treatment that will be adopted under IFRS accounting principles mainly in the following ways (based on IFRS 3 on business combinations and on IAS 38 revised 2004):

- Under French GAAP, in-process research and development is immediately expensed. Under IFRS 3, in-process research and development, provided it satisfies the criteria of an intangible asset distinct from goodwill defined under IAS 38, is included as an asset and amortized over its estimated economic life.
- Under French GAAP, the goodwill attributable to the acquisition is amortized over its estimated economic life. Under IFRS 3, goodwill would not be amortized and would give rise to annual impairment tests.
- Under French GAAP, the costs directly attributable to the acquisition are included in the acquisition cost net of taxes. Under IFRS accounting principles, these costs are included in the acquisition cost before taxes.
- Under French GAAP, earnings per share can be calculated using both the treasury stock method and the excess earnings method. IFRS only allows the treasury stock method. Sanofi-Aventis chose to use the excess earnings method for the preparation of the pro formas.
- Under French GAAP, stock option plans are not valued, whereas under IFRS stock option plans are valued in the balance sheet at their fair market value.

REGULATORY MATTERS

Sanofi-Aventis is not aware of any material licenses or regulatory permits that it holds that might be adversely affected by the completion of the merger with Aventis or of any material approval or other action by any federal, provincial, state or foreign government or any administrative or regulatory agency that would be required to be obtained prior to the completion of the merger, except as have been obtained or applied for or as described in this document. Sanofi-Aventis believes that it has or can obtain all material approvals required in connection with the merger. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that all such material approvals will be obtained prior to the completion of the merger.

Competition and Antitrust

European Union competition laws

Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis each conducts business in the member states of the European Union. Council Regulation (EEC) No. 4064/89, as amended, requires that certain mergers or acquisitions involving parties with aggregate worldwide sales and individual European Union sales exceeding specified thresholds be notified to and approved by the European Commission before such mergers and acquisitions are consummated. This Regulation also gives the member states of the European Union the right to request that the European Commission refer jurisdiction to review a merger to their national competition authorities under the provisions of the relevant national merger law where it may have an effect on competition in a distinct national market. No such referral was notified to the European Commission in connection with the offers.

Sanofi-Aventis first submitted its proposed acquisition of Aventis to the European Commission in December 2003; on January 7, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis filed a draft Form CO and on March 9, 2004, filed its Form CO with the European Commission. The European Commission reviewed the acquisition of Aventis pursuant to the offers to determine whether the acquisition is compatible with the common market, and, accordingly, whether or not to allow it to proceed. An acquisition that does not create or strengthen a dominant position that would significantly impede effective competition in the common market or a substantial part of it must be declared compatible with the common market and must be allowed to proceed. If, following a preliminary Phase I investigation, the European Commission determines that it needs to examine an acquisition more closely because the acquisition raises serious doubts as to its compatibility with the common market, it must initiate a Phase II investigation. If the European Commission initiates a Phase II investigation, it must issue a final decision as to whether or not an acquisition is compatible with the common market no later than four months after the initiation of the Phase II investigation.

On April 26, 2004, the European Commission announced that it had approved Sanofi-Aventis's proposed acquisition, subject to conditions. As a result, the European Commission will not initiate a Phase II investigation. The conditions to the European Commission's approval generally require Sanofi-Aventis to divest or grant licenses to products that, in aggregate, generated approximately €660 million of revenues in the year ended December 31, 2003, representing approximately 2.7% of the pro forma combined sales of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis. These divestitures and required licenses are described further in the Commission's press release and are summarized as follows:

- sale of all of Sanofi-Aventis's business involving the marketing of Vitamin B12 Delagrange® in France;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Aventis's rights and obligations relating to the marketing of Perfan® in the United Kingdom and Belgium;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's business involving the marketing of Hexopal® in Ireland;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's business involving the marketing of Lioton 1000® in Italy;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's rights and obligations under co-marketing contracts relating to the marketing of Naxy® in France;

- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's business involving the marketing of the generic product Vancomycine Dakota® in France;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's business involving the marketing of Plaquinol® in Portugal;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's rights and obligations relating to the marketing of Adalpur® and Coltramyl® in Portugal;
- sale of, or grant a license for, all of Sanofi-Aventis's rights and obligations relating to the marketing of Imovane® in Greece, Ireland, Luxembourg and Sweden;
- sale of all of Sanofi-Aventis's development, production and marketing activities relating to Fraxiparine® and Arixtra® worldwide. On April 13, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that it had signed an agreement with GlaxoSmithKline to sell these interests. See "Recent Developments — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®"; and
- sale of all of Aventis's development, production and marketing activities in the countries covered by the licensing contract which Aventis holds for Campto®, and all the rights and obligations that Aventis holds under that license and all other patents and intellectual property rights and/or know-how concerning Campto® held by Aventis, including outside the countries covered by the license.

Sanofi-Aventis is confident that complying with the European Commission's conditions in this manner did not materially impair the value of the transaction to Sanofi-Aventis or its shareholders. For information on the planned sales of Arixtra®, Fraxiparine®, and Campto®, please see "— Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®" and "— Sale of Campto®", below.

United States Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or the HSR Act, and its associated rules, our offer for Aventis could not be completed until notification had been filed with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, or the FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, or the Antitrust Division, and the required waiting period had expired or been terminated.

We filed our notification and report form under the HSR Act with respect to the offers for Aventis on April 5, 2004. Accordingly, the 30-day waiting period under the HSR Act with respect to our offers was scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on May 5, 2004, unless this waiting period is terminated before that date. However, before the expiration of this deadline, on May 5, 2004, as is standard practice when investigating a recommended acquisition of the significance of Sanofi-Aventis's offer for Aventis, the FTC extended the waiting period by requesting additional information and material from Sanofi-Aventis (a second request) in order to permit the FTC to complete its review of the acquisition. As a result of this second request the waiting period was extended until 11:59 p.m. New York City time, on the thirtieth calendar day after Sanofi-Aventis substantially complied with this second request, unless the FTC terminated the waiting period earlier. On June 22, 2004, the AMF announced that it had extended the expiration date of the offers from June 30, 2004 until July 30, 2004.

On July 15, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that the Bureau of Economics and Competition of the FTC had completed its review of the Sanofi-Aventis acquisition of Aventis and had forwarded a proposed consent decree to the Commission for acceptance and for placement on the public record. On July 29, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that the FTC had accepted the consent decree for public comment, thereby clearing the way for Sanofi-Aventis to complete the acquisition of Aventis.

Sanofi-Aventis believes that the product divestitures required by the FTC consent decree are not material to the combined businesses of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis. In addition to the sales of Arixtra® to GlaxoSmithKline and certain of Aventis's Campto® assets to Pfizer, the consent decree also requires Sanofi-Aventis to divest a royalty interest that Aventis holds in Estorra™, an insomnia treatment expected to be marketed by Sepracor in the United States later in 2004.

Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®

On January 7, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that it had reached agreement with NV Organon to acquire all of Organon's interests relating to Arixtra® (fondaparinux sodium), idraparinux and other oligosaccharides. For further information, please see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated January 8, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

On January 26, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis began a sales process to divest its interests in Arixtra® and Fraxiparine® in order to be able to respond to possible demands of the competition authorities with respect to the acquisition of Aventis.

On April 13, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that it had signed an agreement with GlaxoSmithKline, or GSK, regarding the divestment by Sanofi-Aventis, on a worldwide basis, of Arixtra®, Fraxiparine®, and related assets, including the manufacturing facility located in Notre-Dame de Bondeville, France. As part of this transaction, it was announced that GSK will assume responsibility for ongoing Arixtra® clinical trials. The closing of this divestiture transaction was conditioned on the successful completion of Sanofi-Aventis's offer for Aventis as well as on obtaining the requisite clearances from EU and U.S. competition authorities. The purchase price to be paid by GSK in this transaction is €453 million and will be satisfied by GSK in cash upon completion. For further information, please see Sanofi-Aventis's Report on Form 6-K, dated April 13, 2004, which is incorporated into this document by reference.

On September 1, 2004, GSK announced that it had successfully completed the acquisition of Arixtra®, Fraxiparine®, and related assets, including the manufacturing facility located in Notre-Dame de Bondeville, France. GSK's press release confirmed that as part of the transaction, GSK was assuming responsibility for the ongoing clinical trials of Arixtra®.

Sale of Campto®

On June 25, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis announced that it had signed an agreement with Pfizer Inc. regarding the divestment of Aventis's interests in Campto® (irinotecan) in response to requests made by the competition authorities. Pursuant to the agreement, which was subject to the consent of the FTC and the successful completion of Sanofi-Aventis's offer for Aventis, Pfizer will take over key clinical studies for Campto® that are currently conducted by Aventis, together with certain patents and other assets relating to territories where Pfizer currently markets irinotecan, including the United States. In addition, subject to certain conditions, including clearance by European competition authority, Pfizer will acquire all the other assets relating to Campto® held by Aventis.

The aggregate consideration for the transaction is $620 million, which includes milestone payments for the registration of future indications. In 2003, Aventis' sales of Campto® reached €264 million.

On October 1, 2004, Pfizer announced that it had successfully completed the acquisition of the rights to Campto®.

DESCRIPTION OF SANOFI-AVENTIS ORDINARY SHARES

The following information is a summary of the material terms of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares of nominal value €2, as set forth in Sanofi-Aventis's corporate bylaws (statuts) and the material provisions of applicable French law, including Title II of Book 2 of the French Commercial Code (previously French Company Law No. 66-537 of July 24, 1966, as amended). This description is a summary and does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to applicable French law and to our statuts. You are encouraged to read our statuts, an English translation of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement on Form F-4 of which this document forms a part and which are incorporated by reference into this document. You may also obtain copies of our statuts in French from the greffe (Clerk) of the Registre du Commerce et des Sociétés de Paris (Registry of Commerce and Companies of Paris, France).

Share Capital

As of September 30, 2004, our registered share capital was €2,784,562,864 divided into 1,392,281,432 shares with a nominal value of €2 per share. All of our outstanding shares are of the same class and are fully paid.

At an extraordinary general meeting held on June 23, 2004, our shareholders authorized our board of directors to increase our share capital, through the issuance of shares, securities with or without preferential rights or warrants, by an aggregate maximum nominal amount of €1,250 million. See “Changes in Share Capital — Increases in Share Capital” below.

Our statuts provide that shares may be held in registered form or in bearer form, at the option of the shareholder. Our statuts provide that any fully paid-up shares acquire double voting rights if held in registered form for at least two years under the name of the same shareholder.

Our statuts allow us to obtain from Euroclear France the name, nationality, address and number of shares held by the holders of our securities that have, or may in the future have, voting rights. If we have reason to believe that an individual on any list provided by Euroclear France holds for the account of another person, our statuts allow us to request such information regarding beneficial ownership directly of any shareholder named on the list provided by Euroclear France. See “— Form, Holding and Transfer of Shares” below.

Voting Rights

In general, each shareholder is entitled to one vote per share at any general shareholders' meeting. However, our statuts provide that any fully paid-up shares that have been held in registered form under the name of the same shareholder for at least two years acquire double voting rights. As of September 30, 2004 there were 336,569,393 shares that were entitled to double voting rights, representing 24.2% of the total share capital, approximately 25.6% of our outstanding share capital that is held by holders other than Sanofi-Aventis and its subsidiaries, including Aventis, and 20.4% of the total voting rights of Sanofi-Aventis.

Double voting rights are not taken into account in determining whether a quorum exists.

Under the French Commercial Code, shares of a company held in treasury or by entities controlled by that company are not entitled to voting rights and do not count for quorum purposes.

Shareholders' Meetings

General

In accordance with the French Commercial Code, there are three types of shareholders' meetings: ordinary, extraordinary and special.

Ordinary general meetings of shareholders are required for matters such as:

- electing, replacing and removing directors;
- appointing independent auditors;
- approving the annual accounts;

- declaring dividends or authorizing dividends to be paid in shares, provided the statuts contain a provision to that effect; and
- approval of stock repurchase programs.

Extraordinary general meetings of shareholders are required for approval of matters such as amendments to Sanofi-Aventis's statuts, including any amendment required in connection with extraordinary corporate actions. Extraordinary corporate actions include:

- changing our company's name or corporate purpose;
- increasing or decreasing our share capital;
- creating a new class of equity securities;
- authorizing the issuance of convertible or exchangeable securities;
- establishing any other rights to equity securities;
- selling or transferring substantially all of our assets; and
- the voluntary liquidation of the company.

Special meetings of shareholders of a certain category of shares (such as, among others, shares with double voting rights) are required for any modification of the rights derived from that category of shares. The resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting affecting these rights are effective only after approval by the relevant special meeting.

Annual ordinary meetings

The French Commercial Code requires the board of directors to convene an annual ordinary general meeting of shareholders for approval of the annual accounts. This meeting must be held within six months of the end of each fiscal year. This period may be extended by an order of the President of the Commercial Court. The board of directors may also convene an ordinary or extraordinary general meeting of shareholders upon proper notice at any time during the year. If the board of directors fails to convene a shareholders' meeting, our independent auditors may call the meeting. In case of bankruptcy, the liquidator or court-appointed agent may also call a shareholders' meeting in some instances. In addition, any of the following may request the court to appoint an agent for the purpose of calling a shareholders' meeting:

- one or several shareholders holding at least 5% of our share capital;
- any interested party in cases of urgency;
- the workers' council in cases of urgency; or
- duly qualified associations of shareholders who have held their shares in registered form for at least two years and who together hold at least 1% of the voting rights of our company.

Notice of shareholders' meetings

We must announce general meetings at least 30 days in advance by means of a preliminary notice (avis de réunion), which is published in the Bulletin des Annonces Légales Obligatoires, or BALO. The preliminary notice must first be sent to the AMF. The AMF also recommends that prior to or simultaneously with the publication of the preliminary notice we publish a summary of the notice indicating the date and place of the meeting in a newspaper of national circulation in France. The preliminary notice must contain, among other things, the agenda, a draft of the resolutions to be submitted to the shareholders and the procedure for voting by mail.

At least 15 days prior to the date set for a first call, and at least 6 days prior to any second call, we must send a final notice (avis de convocation) containing the final agenda, the date, time and place of the meeting and other information for the meeting. Such final notice must be sent by mail to all registered shareholders who have held shares in registered form for more than one month prior to the date of the final notice and by registered mail, if shareholders have asked for it and paid the corresponding charges. The final notice must also be published in a newspaper authorized to publish legal announcements in the local administrative department (département) in which our company is registered as well as in the BALO, with prior notice having been given to the AMF. If no shareholder has proposed any new resolutions to be submitted to the vote of the shareholders at the meeting and provided that the board of directors has not altered the draft resolutions included in the preliminary notice, we are not required to publish the final notice; publishing a preliminary notice which stipulates that it shall be deemed to be equivalent to a final notice will be deemed sufficient.

In general, shareholders can only take action at shareholders' meetings on matters listed on the agenda. As an exception to this rule, shareholders may take action with respect to the dismissal of directors and certain other matters even though these actions have not been included on the agenda. Additional resolutions to be submitted for approval by the shareholders at the meeting may be proposed to the board of directors, for recommendation to the shareholders, within ten days of the publication of the preliminary notice in the BALO by:

- one or several shareholders together holding a specified percentage of shares;
- a duly qualified association of shareholders who have held their shares in registered form for at least two years and who together hold at least 1% of our voting rights; or
- the workers' council.

The board of directors must submit these resolutions to a vote of the shareholders after having made a recommendation thereon.

Following the date on which documents must be made available to the shareholders, a shareholder may submit written questions to the board of directors relating to the agenda for the meeting. The board of directors must respond to these questions during the meeting.

Attendance at Shareholders' Meetings; Proxies and Votes by Mail

In general, all shareholders who have properly registered their shares may participate in general meetings. Shareholders may participate in general meetings either in person or by proxy. Shareholders may vote in person, by proxy or by mail.

In order to participate in any general meeting, a holder of registered shares must have its shares registered in its name in a shareholder account maintained by us or on our behalf by an agent appointed by us at least five days prior to the date of the meeting. Similarly, a holder of bearer shares must obtain from the accredited financial intermediary (intermédiaire financier habilité) with whom such holder has deposited its shares, a certificate (certificat d'immobilisation) indicating the number of bearer shares owned by such holder and evidencing the holding of such shares in its account until the date of the meeting. Such certificate must be deposited at the place specified in the notice of the meeting at least five days before the meeting.

Attendance in person

Shareholders may attend ordinary general meetings and extraordinary general meetings and exercise their voting rights subject to the conditions specified in the French Commercial Code and our statuts. There is no requirement that a shareholder have a minimum number of shares in order to attend, to be represented or to vote at an ordinary or extraordinary general meeting.

Proxies and votes by mail

Proxies will be sent to any shareholder on request. In order to be counted, such proxies must be received at our registered office, or at any other address indicated on the notice convening the meeting, prior to the date of the meeting (in practice, we request that shareholders return proxies at least three business days prior to the meeting). A shareholder may grant proxies only to his or her spouse or to another shareholder. A shareholder that is a corporation may grant proxies to a legal representative. Alternatively, the shareholder may send us a blank proxy without nominating any representative. In this case, the chairman of the meeting will vote the blank proxies in favor of all resolutions proposed or approved by the board of directors and against all others.

With respect to votes by mail, we must send shareholders a voting form upon request received six days prior to the general meeting date. The completed form must be returned to us at least three days prior to the date of the shareholders' meeting.

Quorum

The French Commercial Code requires that shareholders together holding at least 25% of the shares entitled to vote must be present in person, or vote by mail or by proxy, in order to fulfill the quorum requirement for:

- an ordinary general meeting, and
- an extraordinary general meeting where only an increase in our share capital is proposed through incorporation of reserves, profits or share premium.

For any other extraordinary general meeting, the quorum requirement is one-third of the shares entitled to vote, present in person, or voting by mail or by proxy.

For a special meeting of holders of a certain category of shares, the quorum requirement is half of the shares entitled to vote in that category, present in person, or voting by mail or by proxy.

If a quorum is not present at a meeting, the meeting is adjourned. When an adjourned meeting is resumed, there is no quorum requirement for an ordinary meeting or for an extraordinary general meeting where only an increase in our share capital is proposed through incorporation of reserves, profits or share premium. However, only questions that were on the agenda of the adjourned meeting may be discussed and voted upon. In the case of any other reconvened extraordinary general meeting or special meeting, the quorum requirement is 25% of the shares entitled to vote (or voting shares belonging to the relevant category for special meetings of holders of shares of such specific category), present in person or voting by mail or by proxy. If a quorum is not present, the reconvened meeting may be adjourned for a maximum of two months. No deliberation or action by the shareholders may take place without a quorum.

Votes Required for Shareholder Action

A simple majority of shareholders may pass a resolution at either an ordinary general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting where only an increase in our share capital is proposed (through incorporation of reserves, profits or share premium). At any other extraordinary general meeting and at any special meeting of holders of a specific category of shares, a two-thirds majority of the shareholder votes cast is required.

A unanimous shareholder vote is required to increase liabilities of shareholders.

Abstention from voting by those present or those represented by proxy or voting by mail is counted as a vote against the resolution submitted to a shareholder vote.

Amendments Affecting Shareholder Rights

Shareholder rights can be amended only after an extraordinary general meeting of the class of shareholders affected has taken place. Two-thirds of the shares of the affected class voting either in person or by mail or proxy must approve any proposal to amend shareholder rights. The voting and quorum requirements applicable to this type of special meeting are the same as those applicable to an extraordinary general meeting, except that the quorum requirements for a special meeting are 50% of the voting shares, or 25% upon resumption of an adjourned meeting.

Financial Statements and Other Communications with Shareholders

In connection with any shareholders' meeting, we must provide a set of documents including our annual report and a summary of the results of the five previous fiscal years to any shareholder who so requests.

Dividends

Sanofi-Aventis may only distribute dividends out of our “distributable profits,” plus any amounts held in our reserve that the shareholders decide to make available for distribution, other than those reserves that are specifically required by law or our statuts. “Distributable profits” consist of our unconsolidated net profit in each fiscal year, as increased or reduced by any profit or loss carried forward from prior years, less any contributions to the reserve accounts pursuant to law or our statuts.

Legal reserve

The French Commercial Code requires us to allocate 5% of our unconsolidated statutory net profit for each year to our legal reserve fund before dividends may be paid with respect to that year. Funds must be allocated until the amount in the legal reserve is equal to 10% of the aggregate nominal value of the issued and outstanding share capital. This restriction on the payment of dividends also applies to each of our French subsidiaries on an unconsolidated basis. At September 30, 2004, our legal reserve was €278,456,286, representing 10% of the aggregate nominal value of our issued and outstanding share capital as of that date. The legal reserve of any company subject to this requirement may only be distributed to shareholders upon liquidation of the company.

Approval of dividends

According to the French Commercial Code, our board of directors may propose a dividend for approval by the annual general meeting of shareholders. If we have earned distributable profits since the end of the preceding fiscal year, as reflected in an interim income statement certified by our auditors, our board of directors may distribute interim dividends to the extent of the distributable profits for the period covered by the interim income statement. Our board of directors exercises this authority subject to French law and regulations and may do so without obtaining shareholder approval.

Distribution of dividends

Dividends are distributed to shareholders pro rata according to their respective holdings of shares. In the case of interim dividends, distributions are made to shareholders on the date of our board of directors’ meeting in which the distribution of interim dividends is approved. The actual dividend payment date is decided by the shareholders at an ordinary general meeting or by our board of directors in the absence of such a decision by the shareholders. Shareholders that own shares on the actual payment date are entitled to the dividend.

Dividends may be paid in cash or, if the shareholders’ meeting so decides by ordinary resolution, in kind, provided that all shareholders receive a whole number of assets of the same nature paid in lieu of cash. Our statuts provide that, upon a decision of the shareholders’ meeting taken by ordinary resolution, each shareholder may be given the choice to receive his dividend in cash or in shares.

Timing of payment

According to the French Commercial Code, we must pay any existing dividends within nine months of the end of our fiscal year, unless otherwise authorized by court order. Dividends on shares that are not claimed within five years of the date of declared payment revert to the French State.

Changes in Share Capital

Increases in share capital

As provided by the French Commercial Code, our share capital may be increased only with the shareholders’ approval at an extraordinary general meeting following the recommendation of our board of directors. Increases in our share capital may be effected by:

- issuing additional shares;
- increasing the nominal value of existing shares; or

- creating a new class of equity securities.

Increases in share capital by issuing additional securities may be effected through one or a combination of the following:

- in consideration for cash;
- in consideration for assets contributed in kind;
- through an exchange offer;
- by conversion of debt securities previously issued;
- by capitalization of profits, reserves or share premiums; or
- subject to various conditions, in satisfaction of debt incurred by Sanofi-Aventis.

Decisions to increase the share capital through the capitalization of reserves, profits and/or share premiums require the approval of an extraordinary general meeting, acting under the quorum and majority requirements applicable to ordinary shareholders' meetings. Increases effected by an increase in the nominal value of shares require unanimous approval of the shareholders, unless effected by capitalization of reserves, profits or share premiums. All other capital increases require the approval of an extraordinary general meeting acting under the regular quorum and majority requirements for such meetings. See “— Quorum” and “— Votes Required for Shareholder Action” above.

The shareholders may delegate the right to carry out any increase in share capital to our board of directors, provided that the increase has been previously authorized by the shareholders. Our board of directors may further delegate this right to our chairman and chief executive officer.

On June 23, 2004, our shareholders approved resolutions to delegate to the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors the power to increase the Sanofi-Aventis share capital, on one or more occasions until 26 months after such approval as it deems appropriate, up to an aggregate par value amount of €750 million with respect to Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares carrying preemptive rights, up to an aggregate par value amount of €750 million with respect to Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares carrying no preemptive rights, and up to an aggregate value of €500 million with respect to Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares convertible from share premiums, reserves, profits or other sums, with an overall cap on all such increases equal to €1,250 million.

On June 23, 2004, our shareholders also approved resolutions to delegate to the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors the power to increase the share capital, on one or more occasions until 26 months after such approval, up to 2% of the share capital on the date of the Sanofi-Aventis board's decision, by issuing shares or other securities convertible into Sanofi-Aventis's capital reserved for employees, early retirees or retirees of the company under the Sanofi-Aventis employee savings plan. Under such resolution, the issue price for the new Sanofi-Aventis shares may not exceed the average of the first quoted prices of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on the Premier marché during the 20 consecutive trading days preceding the date on which the decision is taken setting the opening date for subscriptions, and may not be more than 20% below such average for members of an employee savings plan or 30% where the period of inaccessibility stipulated by the plan in application of L.443-6 of the French Labor Code is greater than or equal to 10 years.

On June 23, 2004, our shareholders also authorized our board for 38 months after this authorization to grant options to Sanofi-Aventis employees. The options to purchase Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares could not exceed 2% of the share capital as of the day the decision is made by the Sanofi-Aventis board. Under such resolution, the option price may not be lower than the average of the first quoted prices of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on the Premier marché during the 20 consecutive trading days preceding the date on which the options are granted.

Decreases in share capital

According to the French Commercial Code, any decrease in our share capital requires approval by the shareholders entitled to vote at an extraordinary general meeting. The share capital may be reduced either by decreasing the nominal value of the outstanding shares or by reducing the number of outstanding shares. The number of outstanding shares may be reduced either by an exchange of shares or by the repurchase and cancellation of shares. Holders of each class of shares must be treated equally unless each affected shareholder agrees otherwise.

Our shareholders may delegate the right to effect a decrease in our share capital to our board of directors, provided that the decrease has been previously approved by the shareholders.

Preferential Subscription Rights

According to the French Commercial Code, if we issue specific kinds of additional securities, current shareholders will have preferential subscription rights to these securities on a pro rata basis. These preferential rights require us to give priority treatment to current shareholders. The rights entitle the individual or entity that holds them to subscribe to an issue of any securities that may increase the share capital of our company by means of a cash payment or a set-off of cash debts. Preferential subscription rights are transferable during the subscription period relating to a particular offering. These rights may also be listed on the Premier marché of Euronext Paris.

Preferential subscription rights with respect to any particular offering may be waived by the vote of shareholders holding a two-thirds majority of the shares entitled to vote at an extraordinary general meeting. Our board of directors and our independent auditors are required by French law to present reports that specifically address any proposal to waive preferential subscription rights. In the event of a waiver, the issue of securities must be completed within the period prescribed by law. Shareholders also may notify us that they wish to waive their own preferential subscription rights with respect to any particular offering if they so choose.

The shareholders may decide at an extraordinary general meeting to give the existing shareholders a nontransferable priority right to subscribe to the new securities, during a limited period of time.

In the event of a capital increase without preferential subscription rights to existing shareholders, French law requires that the capital increase be made at a price equal to or exceeding the average market price of the shares in any consecutive ten trading day period within the 20 trading days preceding the capital increase.

Form, Holding and Transfer of Shares

Form of shares

Our statuts provide that the shares may be held in either bearer form or registered form at the option of the holder.

Holding of shares

In accordance with French law relating to the dematerialization of securities, shareholders' ownership rights are represented by book entries instead of share certificates. Sanofi-Aventis maintains a share account with Euroclear France (a French clearing system, which holds securities for its participants) for all shares in registered form, which is administered by BNP Paribas Securities Services. In addition, we maintain separate accounts in the name of each shareholder either directly or, at a shareholder's request, through the shareholder's accredited intermediary. Each shareholder account shows the name of the holder and the number of shares held. BNP Paribas Securities Services issues confirmations (attestations d'inscription en compte) to each registered shareholder as to shares registered in the shareholder's account, but these confirmations are not documents of title.

Shares of a listed company may also be issued in bearer form. Shares held in bearer form are held and registered on the shareholder's behalf in an account maintained by an accredited financial intermediary and are credited to an account at Euroclear France maintained by such intermediary. Each accredited financial intermediary maintains a record of shares held through it and issues certificates of inscription for the shares it holds. Transfers of shares held in bearer form may only be made through accredited financial intermediaries and Euroclear France.

Shares held by persons who are not domiciled in France may be registered in the name of intermediaries who act on behalf of one or more investors. Under a French statute dated May 15, 2001, when shares are so held, we are entitled to request from such intermediaries the names of the investors. Also, we may request any legal person (personne morale) who holds more than 2.5% of our shares, to disclose the name of any person who owns, directly or indirectly, more than a third of its share capital or of its voting rights. A person who does not provide the information requested in time, or who provides incomplete or false information will be deprived of its voting rights at shareholders' meetings and will have its payment of dividends withheld until it has provided the requested information in strict compliance with French law. If such a person acted willfully, the person may be deprived by a French court of either its voting rights or its dividends or both for a period of up to five years.

Transfer of shares

Our statuts do not contain any restrictions relating to the transfer of shares.

Registered shares must be converted into bearer form before being transferred on the Premier marché on the shareholders' behalf and, accordingly, must be registered in an account maintained by an accredited financial intermediary on the shareholders' behalf. A shareholder may initiate a transfer by giving instructions to the relevant accredited financial intermediary. For dealings on the Premier marché, a tax assessed on the price at which the securities were traded, or impôt sur les opérations de bourse, is payable at the rate of 0.3% on transactions of up to €153,000 and at a rate of 0.15% thereafter. This tax is subject to a rebate of €23 per transaction and a maximum assessment of €610 per transaction. However, non-residents of France are not required to pay this tax. In addition, a fee or commission is payable to the broker involved in the transaction, regardless of whether the transaction occurs within or outside France. No registration duty is normally payable in France, unless a transfer instrument has been executed in France.

Liquidation Rights

If we are liquidated, any assets remaining after payment of our debts, liquidation expenses and all of our remaining obligations will be first distributed to repay in full the nominal value of our shares. Any surplus will be distributed pro rata among shareholders in proportion to the nominal value of their shareholdings.

Disclosure of Holdings Exceeding Certain Percentages

Statutory requirements

The French Commercial Code provides that any individual or entity, acting alone or in concert with others, that becomes the owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 5%, 10%, 20%, 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %, 50% or 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the outstanding shares or voting rights of a listed company in France, such as Sanofi-Aventis, or that increases or decreases its shareholding or voting rights above or below any of those percentages, must notify the company, within five trading days of the date when it crosses the threshold, of the number of shares it holds and their voting rights. The individual or entity must also notify the Autorité des marchés financiers, or AMF, within five trading days of the date when it crosses the threshold. The AMF makes the notice public.

French law and AMF regulations impose additional reporting requirements on persons who acquire more than 10% or 20% of the outstanding shares or voting rights of a listed company. These persons must file a report with the company and the AMF within 10 trading days of the date that they cross the threshold. In the report, the acquirer must specify if it acts alone or in concert with others and specify its intentions for the following 12-month period, including whether or not it intends to continue its purchases, to acquire control of the company in question or to seek nomination to the board of directors. The AMF makes the report public. The acquirer must also publish a press release stating its intentions in a financial newspaper of national circulation in France. The acquirer may amend its stated intentions, provided that it does so on the basis of significant changes in its own situation or shareholding. Upon any change of intention, it must file a new report.

In order to permit holders to give the required notice, we must publish in the BALO, not later than 15 calendar days after the annual ordinary general meeting of shareholders, information with respect to the total number of voting rights outstanding as of the date of such meeting. In addition, if the number of outstanding voting rights changes by 5% or more between two annual ordinary general meetings, we must publish in the BALO, within 15 calendar days of such change, the number of voting rights outstanding. In both cases, we must also provide the AMF with a written notice setting forth the number of voting rights outstanding. The AMF publishes the total number of voting rights so notified by all listed companies in a weekly notice (avis), mentioning the date each such number was last updated.

If any proprietary owner fails to comply with the legal notification requirement, the shares or voting rights in excess of the relevant threshold will be deprived of voting rights for all shareholders' meetings until the end of a two-year period following the date on which the owner complies with the notification requirements. In addition, any shareholder who fails to comply with these requirements may have all or part of its voting rights suspended for up to five years by the Commercial Court at the request of our Chairman, any shareholder or the AMF, and may be subject to criminal fines.

Under AMF regulations, and subject to limited exemptions granted by the AMF, any person or persons acting in concert that crosses the ownership threshold of 33⅓% of the share capital or voting rights of a French listed company must initiate a public tender offer for the balance of the share capital of such company.

Requirements under Sanofi-Aventis statutes

In addition, our statuts provide that any person or entity, acting alone or in concert with others, who becomes the owner of 1% of our share capital or our voting rights, or any multiple of that percentage, must notify us by certified mail, return receipt requested, within five trading days of the total number of shares and voting rights that such person then owns. The same provisions of our statuts apply to each increase or decrease in excess of 1%. Any person or entity that fails to comply with such notification requirements, upon the request of one or more shareholders holding at least 5% of our share capital or of our voting rights made at the general shareholders' meeting, will be deprived of voting rights with respect to the shares in excess of the relevant threshold for all shareholders' meetings until the end of a two-year period following the date on which such person or entity complies with the notification requirements.

- On August 30, 2004, the Caisse de Dépôts et Consignations reported that it had fallen below the 1% threshold provided by our bylaws (statuts) and held 11,755,112 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and voting rights, representing 0.85% of our share capital and 0.70% of our voting rights.
- The Caisse National des Caisses d'Epargne et de Prévoyance has reported that it had fallen below and subsequently risen above various thresholds provided by our bylaws (statuts) with respect to our voting rights and our share capital. As of October 12, 2004, Caisse National des Caisses d'Epargne et de Prévoyance held 9,776,355 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and voting rights, representing 0.70% of our share capital and 0.58% of our voting rights.
- On September 13, 2004, the Kuwait Petroleum Corporation reported that it had fallen below the 5% thresholds with respect to our share capital and voting rights and held 47,040,230 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and voting rights, representing 3.42% of our share capital and 2.83% of our voting rights.
- The Société Générale group has reported that on October 8, 2004 it rose above and, subsequently on October 15, 2004, it fell below the 1% threshold with respect to our share capital. On October 15, 2004, the Société Générale group held 9,883,357 Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares, representing 0.72% of our share capital and 0.60% of our voting rights.

Purchase of Our Own Shares

Under French law, Sanofi-Aventis may not issue shares to itself. However, Sanofi-Aventis may, either directly or through a financial intermediary acting on its behalf, acquire up to 10% of its share capital within a maximum period of 18 months, provided our shares are listed on a regulated market. To acquire our shares for this purpose, we must file a note d'information that has received the approval (visa) of the AMF. We can elect to file such note d'information either prior to obtaining our shareholders' approval at an ordinary general meeting, or after our board of directors, duly authorized by our shareholders, has decided to initiate the share purchase plan.

If we repurchase our shares in the foregoing manner, we have three options. We may:

- keep the shares;
- sell or transfer them, including to our employees under an authorized profit-sharing plan or stock option plan; or
- cancel the shares, with our shareholders' approval at an extraordinary general meeting.

We may not cancel more than 10% of our outstanding share capital over any 24-month period. Our repurchase of shares also must not result in our company holding, directly or through a person acting on our behalf, more than 10% of our outstanding share capital, or if we have different classes of shares, 10% of the shares of each class.

We must hold any shares that we repurchase in registered form. These shares also must be fully paid up. Shares repurchased by us are deemed outstanding under French law but are not entitled to dividends or voting rights, and we may not exercise the preferential subscription rights attached to them.

The shareholders, at an extraordinary general meeting, may decide not to take these shares into account in determining the preferential subscription rights attached to the other shares. However, if the shareholders decide to take them into account, we must either sell the rights attached to the shares we hold on the market before the end of the subscription period or distribute them to the other shareholders on a pro rata basis.

The purchase and possible cancellation of 10% of our shares (up to €7.3 billion) was authorized by our shareholders on May 22, 2002. Under this authorization, the purchase price for any share purchased could not be greater than €100, and the selling price of any share sold could not be lower than €40, except for shares sold to beneficiaries of certain stock option plans (which could be sold at a price between €5.86 and €64.50). The authorization permitted us to purchase our shares from the date of our shareholders' meeting of May 22, 2002 through November 22, 2003. The prospectus (note d'information) relating to this share repurchase program was granted visa n° 02-421 by the COB.

On May 19, 2003, our shareholders authorized the purchase and possible cancellation of 10% of our shares (up to €5.8 billion). Under this authorization, the purchase price for any share purchased may not be greater than €80, and the selling price of any share sold may not be lower than €20, except for shares sold to beneficiaries of certain stock option plans (which may be sold at a price between €6.01 and €69.94). We may purchase our shares from the date of our shareholders' meeting, which was May 19, 2003 through the period ending 18 months from that date, which is November 19, 2004. The prospectus (note d'information) relating to this share repurchase program was granted visa n° 03-299 by the COB.

During 2003, pursuant to the May 22, 2002 and May 19, 2003 share purchase authorizations, we acquired 20,192,769 of our own shares at an average share price of €50.43. Fees associated with such purchases were €2,422,416 before taxes, or approximately €0.12 per share. During 2003, we sold 550,882 of our shares in connection with the exercise of purchase options at an average price of €23.41 per share, and sold 28,000 of our shares on the market at an average price of €65.84 per share.

On June 23, 2004, our shareholders approved a resolution to authorize us to purchase up to 10% of our shares for an additional 18-month period. Such authorization was effective as of the meeting date of the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors held to review Sanofi-Aventis's financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and voided any unused portion of the May 19, 2003 share purchase authorization as of that effective date. Under this authorization, the purchase price for each Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share may not be greater than €90.00, and the maximum amount that Sanofi-Aventis could pay for the repurchases is €13,026,566,790. A prospectus (note d'information) describing this share repurchase programme as adopted by the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors on August 30, 2004 was granted visa n° 04-757 by the AMF on September 13, 2004.

Trading in Our Own Shares

European regulation n°2273/2003, dated December 22, 2003 (which we refer to in this section as the Regulation), in application of European directive 2003/6/CE, dated January 2003, known as the “Market Abuse Directive” and relating to share repurchase programs and the stabilization of financial instruments, came into effect on October 13, 2004.

The entry into force of the Regulation has resulted in changes in the manner in which share repurchase programs are implemented. Under the Regulation, an issuer will benefit from a safe harbor for share transactions that comply with certain conditions relating to the pricing, volume and timing of transactions and that are made in connection with a share repurchase program having for its purpose the cancellation of the repurchased shares or the covering of the exercise of stock options under stock option plans or the conversion of convertible debt securities. In order to qualify for the safe harbor, the issuer must comply with the following timing, pricing and volume restrictions:

- a share purchase must be made at a price no higher than the last independent transaction or, if higher, the last independent bid price, on the market where the share purchase is made;
- subject to certain exceptions for illiquid securities, the issuer may not purchase more than 25% of the average daily volume of its shares, as calculated based on the average daily volume during the month preceding the month in which the share repurchase program was published. If the share repurchase program does not make reference to this volume, the average daily volume will be calculated based on the 20 trading days preceding the purchase; and
- the issuer must not:
 - resell the shares acquired pursuant to the repurchase program, except in connection with covering the exercise of stock options or convertible securities and in a transaction that is managed by a financial services intermediary acting independently;
 - effect any transaction during a “blackout period” imposed by the applicable law of the member state in which the transaction occurs; or
 - effect any transaction in securities with respect to which the issuer has decided to defer disclosure of any material, non-public information.

Transactions that do not comply with these conditions or that are effected for other purposes will not qualify for the safe harbour.

On October 13, 2004, the AMF published certain guidance regarding the implementation of the Regulation in France and its relationship to existing regulations and practices, including the following:

- An issuer that already has in place a valid share repurchase program may continue to implement that program without seeking a new authorization from its shareholders and without filing a new prospectus with the AMF. However, the issuer must seek a new authorization at its next annual general meeting of shareholders for a repurchase program that complies with the Regulation.
- The foregoing conditions with respect to transaction pricing, volumes and timing supersede those set forth in article 7 of the COB regulation n°90-04.
- As permitted by the Directive, which provides for the continuation of existing practices that do not constitute market manipulation and that conform with certain criteria set forth in European directive 2004/72, dated April 29, 2004, as soon as practicable, the AMF expects to publish exceptions to permit the following existing market practices:
 - transactions pursuant to a liquidity agreement concluded with a financial services intermediary that complies with the ethics guidelines (charte de déontologie) of the AMF; and
 - the repurchase of shares that are subsequently used as acquisition currency in a business combination transaction.

The AMF confirmed that all transactions directed at maintaining the liquidity of an issuer's shares must be conducted pursuant to a liquidity agreement with a financial services intermediary, acting independently.

- Issuers must report all transactions in their own shares publicly within seven trading days of the transaction in a prescribed format.
- During the life of any share repurchase program, the issuer must keep a strict record of the shares repurchased and the purposes for which those shares were used. Immediately after purchase, the issuer must allocate a specific purpose to the repurchased shares and must not subsequently use the shares for a different purpose. The issuer must report the purposes to which the repurchased shares were put to each annual general meeting of its shareholders.
- With respect to shares repurchased before October 13, 2004, the AMF is studying the conditions under which issuers will be able to:
 - allocate the shares to a purpose that will qualify for the safe harbour;
 - allocate the shares to one of the exceptional existing market practices set forth above; or
 - sell the shares through a financial intermediary acting independently.

The AMF is expected to publish these conditions in a subsequent communication, after it has undertaken the appropriate analysis and consulted the relevant representative bodies.

Ownership of Shares by Non-French Persons

The French Commercial Code currently does not limit the right of non-residents of France or non-French persons to own and vote shares. However, non-residents of France must file an administrative notice with French authorities in connection with the acquisition of a controlling interest in our company. Under existing administrative rulings, ownership of 20% or more of our share capital or voting rights is regarded as a controlling interest, but a lower percentage might be held to be a controlling interest in certain circumstances depending upon factors such as:

- the acquiring party's intentions;
- the acquiring party's ability to elect directors; or
- financial reliance by the company on the acquiring party.

General

The Bank of New York, as depositary, will issue Sanofi-Aventis ADSs in certificated form (evidenced by an American depositary receipt, or ADR) or book-entry form. Each ADR is a certificate evidencing a specific number of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. Each Sanofi-Aventis ADS will represent one-half of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share (or the right to receive one-half of one Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share) deposited with the Paris, France office of BNP Paribas, as custodian.

Each Sanofi-Aventis ADS will also represent any other securities, cash or other property that may be held by the depositary under the deposit agreement. The Bank of New York's Corporate Trust Office is located at 101 Barclay Street, New York, New York 10286. The principal executive office of the depositary is located at One Wall Street, New York, New York 10286.

You may hold Sanofi-Aventis ADSs either directly or indirectly through your broker or other financial institution. The following description assumes you hold your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs directly, in certificated form evidenced by ADRs. If you hold the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs indirectly, you must rely on the procedures of your broker or other financial institution to assert the rights of ADR holders described in this section. You should consult with your broker or financial institution to find out what those procedures are.

As a holder of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, we will not treat you as one of our shareholders, and you will not have shareholder rights. French law governs shareholder rights. The depositary will be the holder of the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares underlying your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. Your rights as a holder of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs are set forth in the deposit agreement between Sanofi-Aventis and The Bank of New York, as depositary, and your ADR. New York law governs the deposit agreement and the ADRs.

The following is a summary of the deposit agreement, a form of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement on Form F-4 of which this document forms a part and which is incorporated by reference into this document. For more complete information, you should read the entire deposit agreement and the ADR itself. You may also inspect a copy of the deposit agreement at the depositary's Corporate Trust Office.

Share Dividends and Other Distributions

Receipt of dividends and other distributions

The depositary has agreed to pay to holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs the cash dividends or other distributions that it or the custodian receives on the deposited Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares and other deposited securities after deducting its fees and expenses. Holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs will receive these distributions in proportion to the number of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that they hold.

Cash. The depositary will convert any cash dividend or other cash distribution paid on the shares into U.S. dollars if it can do so on a reasonable basis and can transfer the U.S. dollars to the United States. If that is not possible or if any approval from the French government is needed and cannot be obtained, the deposit agreement allows the depositary to distribute the dividends only to those ADR holders to whom it is possible to do so. It will hold the foreign currency it cannot convert into U.S. dollars for the account of the ADR holders who have not been paid. It will not invest the funds it holds and it will not be liable for any interest.

Before making a distribution, any withholding taxes that must be paid under French law will be deducted. The depositary will distribute only whole U.S. dollars and cents and will round fractional cents to the nearest whole cent. If the exchange rates fluctuate during a time when the depositary cannot convert the euro, you may lose some or all of the value of the distribution.

Shares. The depositary may, and at our request will, distribute new ADRs representing any shares we distribute as a dividend or free distribution, if we furnish it promptly with satisfactory evidence that it is legal to do so. The depositary will only distribute whole Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. It will sell shares that would require it to deliver a fractional Sanofi-Aventis ADS and distribute the net proceeds in the same way as it distributes cash. If the depositary does not distribute additional Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, the outstanding ADRs will also represent the new shares.

Rights to Receive Additional Shares. If we offer holders of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares any rights to subscribe for additional shares or any other rights, the depositary after consultation with us may make these rights available to you. The depositary must first consult with us and we must furnish it with satisfactory evidence that it is legal to do so. If we do not furnish this evidence and/or give these instructions and the depositary decides it is practical to sell the rights, the depositary will sell the rights and distribute the proceeds in the same way as it distributes cash. The depositary may allow rights that are not distributed or sold to lapse. In that case, holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs will receive no value for them.

If the depositary makes rights available to holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, upon instruction from such holders, it will exercise the rights and purchase the shares on such holder's behalf. The depositary will then deposit the shares and deliver ADRs to such holders. It will only exercise rights if holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs pay it the exercise price and any other charges the rights require such holders to pay.

U.S. securities laws may restrict the sale, deposit, cancellation and transfer of ADRs issued upon exercise of rights. For example, holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs may not be able to trade these Sanofi-Aventis ADSs freely in the United States. In this case, the depositary may deliver Sanofi-Aventis ADSs under a separate restricted deposit agreement that will contain the same provisions as the deposit agreement, except for changes needed to put the restrictions in place.

Other Distributions. The depositary will send to holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs anything else we distribute on deposited securities by any means it thinks is legal, fair and practical. If it cannot make the distribution in that way, the depositary has a choice. It may decide to sell what we distributed and distribute the net proceeds in the same way as it distributes cash, or it may choose any method to distribute the property it deems equitable and practicable.

The depositary is not responsible if it decides that it is unlawful or impractical to make a distribution available to any holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. We have no obligation to register Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, shares, rights or other securities under the Securities Act. Other than our obligation to register the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, we also have no obligation to take any other action to permit the distribution of ADRs, shares, rights or anything else to holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. This means that you may not receive the distribution we make on our shares or any value for them if it is illegal or impractical for the depositary to make them available to such holders.

Deposit, Withdrawal and Cancellation

Delivery of ADRs

The depositary will deliver ADRs if you or your broker deposit shares or evidence of rights to receive shares with the custodian. Upon payment of its fees and expenses and any taxes or charges, such as stamp taxes or stock transfer taxes or fees, the depositary will register the appropriate number of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs in the names you request and will deliver the ADRs to the persons you request at its Corporate Trust Office.

Obtaining Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares

You may turn in your ADRs at the depositary's Corporate Trust Office. Upon payment of its fees and expenses and any taxes or charges, such as stamp taxes or stock transfer taxes or fees, the depositary will deliver (1) the underlying shares to an account designated by you and (2) any other deposited securities underlying the ADR at the office of a custodian or, at your request, risk and expense, the depositary will deliver the deposited securities at its Corporate Trust Office.

Voting Rights

You may instruct the depositary to vote the Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares underlying your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, but only if we ask the depositary to ask for your instructions. Otherwise, you will not be able to exercise your right to vote unless you withdraw the shares from the ADR program and vote as an ordinary shareholder. However, you may not know about the meeting sufficiently in advance to withdraw the shares.

If we ask for your instructions, the depositary will notify you of the upcoming vote and arrange to deliver our voting materials to you. The materials will (1) describe the matters to be voted on and (2) explain how you may instruct the depositary to vote the shares or other deposited securities underlying your ADRs as you direct. For instructions to be valid, the depositary must receive them on or before the date specified. The depositary will try, as far as practical, subject to French law and the provisions of our statuts, to vote or to have its agents vote the shares or other deposited securities as you instruct. The depositary will only vote or attempt to vote as you instruct.

We cannot assure you that you will receive the voting materials in time to ensure that you can instruct the depositary to vote your shares. The depositary and its agents are not responsible for failing to carry out voting instructions or for the manner of carrying out voting instructions. This means that you may not be able to exercise your right to vote and there may be nothing you can do if your shares are not voted as you requested.

Similar to our shares, Sanofi-Aventis ADSs evidenced by ADRs registered in the name of the same owner for at least two (2) years will be eligible for double voting rights if certain procedures are followed, as set out in the deposit agreement. For additional information regarding double voting rights, see “Description of Sanofi-Aventis Ordinary Shares — Voting Rights”.

The deposit agreement allows the depositary and Sanofi-Aventis to change the voting procedures or require additional voting procedures in addition to the ones described above if necessary or appropriate to comply with French or United States law or our statuts. For example, you might be required to arrange to have your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs deposited in a blocked account for a specified period of time prior to a shareholders’ meeting in order to be allowed to give voting instructions.

Fees and Expenses

Sanofi-Aventis will pay specified fees, charges and expenses of The Bank of New York as agreed between Sanofi-Aventis and The Bank of New York. The fees for which a holder of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs is responsible include those set forth in the following table:

ADS holder must pay:

$5.00 (or less) per 100 Sanofi-Aventis ADSs
(or portion thereof)

$0.02 (or less) per Sanofi-Aventis ADS

Registration or Transfer Fees

Expenses of The Bank of New York

Taxes and other governmental charges the depositary or the custodian have to pay on any Sanofi-Aventis ADS or shares underlying Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, including, for example, stock transfer taxes, stamp duty or withholding taxes

For:

Each issuance of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, including as a result of a distribution of shares or rights or other property

Cancellation of ADSs for the purpose of withdrawal, including if the deposit agreement terminates

Any cash payment

Transfer and registration of Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares on the share register of the foreign registrar from your name to the name of the depositary or its agent when you deposit or withdraw Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares

Conversion of foreign currency to U.S. dollars

Cable, telex and facsimile transmission expenses

Servicing of shares or deposited securities

As necessary

ADS holder must pay:

A fee equal to the fee that would be payable if securities distributed to you had been shares, and the shares had been deposited for issuance of ADSs

For:

Distribution of securities to holders of deposited securities by the depositary

Payment of Taxes

You will be responsible for any taxes or other governmental charges payable on your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs or on the deposited securities underlying your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. The depositary may refuse to transfer your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs or allow you to withdraw the deposited securities underlying your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs until such taxes or other charges are paid. It may apply payments owed to you or sell deposited securities underlying your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs to pay any taxes owed, and you will remain liable for any deficiency. If it sells deposited securities, it will, if appropriate, reduce the number of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs to reflect the sale and pay to you any proceeds, or send to you any property, remaining after it has paid the taxes.

Changes Affecting Deposited Securities

If we:

- change the nominal or par value of our Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares;
- recapitalize, reorganize, merge, liquidate, sell all or substantially all of our assets, or take any similar action;
- reclassify, split up or consolidate any of the deposited securities; or
- distribute securities on the deposited shares that are not distributed to you;

then either:

- the cash, shares or other securities received by the depositary will become deposited securities and each Sanofi-Aventis ADS will automatically represent its equal share of the new deposited securities; or
- the depositary may, and will if we ask it to, distribute some or all of the cash, shares or other securities it receives. It may also deliver new ADRs or ask you to surrender your outstanding ADRs in exchange for new ADRs identifying the new deposited securities.

Disclosure of Interests

The obligation of a holder or other person with an interest in our shares to disclose information under French law and under our statuts also applies to you and any other persons with an interest in the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs other than the depositary. The consequences for failure to comply with these provisions will be the same for you and any other persons with an interest as a holder of our ordinary shares. For additional information regarding these obligations, see “Description of Sanofi-Aventis’s Ordinary Shares — Disclosure of Holdings Exceeding Certain Percentages”.

Amendment and Termination

We may agree with the depositary to amend the deposit agreement and the ADRs without your consent for any reason. If the amendment adds or increases fees or charges, except for taxes and other governmental charges or registration fees, cable, telex or facsimile transmission costs, delivery costs or other such expenses, or prejudices a substantial right of holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, it will only become effective 30 days after the depositary notifies such holders of the amendment. At the time an amendment becomes effective, such holders will be considered, by continuing to hold their ADR, to have agreed to the amendment and to be bound by the ADR and the deposit agreement as amended.

The depositary will terminate the agreement if we ask it to do so. The depositary may also terminate the agreement if the depositary has told us that it would like to resign and we have not appointed a new depositary bank within 90 days. In both cases, the depositary must notify you at least 30 days before termination.

After termination, the depositary and its agents will be required to do only the following under the deposit agreement: (1) collect distributions on the deposited securities and (2) deliver shares and other deposited securities upon cancellation of ADRs. One year or more after termination, the depositary may sell any remaining deposited securities by public or private sale. After that, the depositary will hold the money it received on the sale, as well as any other cash it is holding under the agreement for the pro rata benefit of the holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that have not surrendered their Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. It will not invest the money and will have no liability for interest. The depositary's only obligations will be to account for the proceeds of the sale and other cash and with respect to indemnification. After termination, our only obligation will be with respect to indemnification and to pay certain amounts to the depositary.

Limitations on Obligations and Liability to Holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs

The deposit agreement expressly limits our obligations and the obligations of the depositary, and it limits our liability and the liability of the depositary. We and the depositary:

- are obligated only to take the actions specifically set forth in the deposit agreement without negligence or bad faith;
- are not liable if either is prevented or delayed by law or circumstances beyond its control from performing its obligations under the deposit agreement;
- are not liable if either exercises discretion permitted under the deposit agreement;
- have no obligation to become involved in a lawsuit or other proceeding related to the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs or the deposit agreement on your behalf or on behalf of any other party; and
- may rely upon any documents it believes in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party.

In the deposit agreement, we and the depositary agree to indemnify each other under certain circumstances.

Requirements for Depositary Actions

Before the depositary will deliver or register the transfer of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, make a distribution on Sanofi-Aventis ADSs or process a withdrawal of shares, the depositary may require:

- payment of stock transfer or other taxes or other governmental charges and transfer or registration fees charged by third parties for the transfer of any shares or other deposited securities;
- production of satisfactory proof of the identity and genuineness of any signature or other information it deems necessary; and
- compliance with regulations it may establish, from time to time, consistent with the deposit agreement, including presentation of transfer documents.

The depositary may refuse to deliver Sanofi-Aventis ADSs, register transfers of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs or permit withdrawals of shares when the transfer books of the depositary or our transfer books are closed, or at any time if the depositary or we think it advisable to do so.

Right to Receive the Shares Underlying the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs

You have the right to cancel your Sanofi-Aventis ADSs and withdraw the underlying Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares at any time except:

- when temporary delays arise when we or the depositary have closed our transfer books or the deposit of shares in connection with voting at a shareholders' meeting, or the payment of dividends;

- when you or other holders of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs seeking to withdraw shares owe money to pay fees, taxes and similar charges; or
- when it is necessary to prohibit withdrawals in order to comply with any laws or governmental regulations that apply to Sanofi-Aventis ADSs or to the withdrawal of shares or other deposited securities.

This right of withdrawal may not be limited by any other provision of the deposit agreement.

Pre-Release of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs

Unless we tell the depositary not to, the deposit agreement permits the depositary to deliver Sanofi-Aventis ADSs before deposit of the underlying shares. This is called a pre-release of the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs. The depositary may also deliver shares upon cancellation of pre-released Sanofi-Aventis ADSs (even if the Sanofi-Aventis ADSs are cancelled before the pre-release transaction has been closed out). A pre-release is closed out as soon as the underlying shares are delivered to the depositary. The depositary may receive Sanofi-Aventis ADSs instead of shares to close out a pre-release. The depositary may pre-release Sanofi-Aventis ADSs only under the following conditions: (1) before or at the time of the pre-release, the person to whom the pre-release is being made must represent to the depositary in writing that it or its customer (i) owns the shares or Sanofi-Aventis ADSs to be deposited, (ii) assigns all beneficial rights, title and interest in such shares or ADRs to the depositary and (iii) will not take any action with respect to such shares or ADRs that is inconsistent with the transfer of beneficial ownership, other than in satisfaction of such pre-release; (2) the pre-release must be fully collateralized with cash, U.S. government securities or other collateral that the depositary considers appropriate; and (3) the depositary must be able to close out the pre-release on not more than five business days' notice. In addition, the depositary will limit the number of Sanofi-Aventis ADSs that may be outstanding at any time as a result of pre-release, although the depositary may disregard the limit from time to time, if it thinks it is appropriate to do so.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

If the merger is completed, all outstanding Aventis ordinary shares will be converted into the right to receive Sanofi-Aventis ordinary shares. The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders and the rights of Aventis shareholders. Because each of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis is a limited liability corporation (société anonyme) organized under French law, these differences arise primarily from the differences between the corporate bylaws (statuts) of the two companies. The following information is a summary and does not purport to be complete. For more complete information, you should read our statuts and the statuts of Aventis. An unofficial translation of our statuts has been included as an exhibit to our registration statement on Form F-4 of which this document is a part and which has been filed with the SEC. Aventis's statuts are filed as an exhibit to Aventis's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003. To find out where you can obtain these documents, see "Additional Information for Securityholders — Where You Can Find More Information".

General

The rights of holders of ordinary shares of Sanofi-Aventis are governed by Book 2 (Livre 2) of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) and the decree n°-67-236 of March 23, 1967 and by the provisions of Sanofi-Aventis's statuts dated September 16, 2004, as amended.

The rights of holders of ordinary shares of Aventis are governed by Book 2 (Livre 2) of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) and the decree n°-67-236 of March 23, 1967 and by the provisions of Aventis's statuts dated June 11, 2004, as amended.

French law allows the shareholders of a limited liability corporation (société anonyme) to adopt a governance structure that has a single board of directors (conseil d'administration) or a two-tiered board structure, with a supervisory board (conseil de surveillance) and a management board (directoire). Sanofi-Aventis has a single board of directors and Aventis has a management board and a supervisory board. The following summary of the material differences between the rights of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders and the rights of Aventis shareholders includes a discussion of the material differences arising from these different statutory governance structures, as well as from differences arising from each company's statuts.

Size and Qualifications of the Board of Directors

Sanofi-Aventis's statuts provide that the board of directors shall consist of between 3 and 18 members. The board of directors currently has 17 members.

Under Sanofi-Aventis's statuts, as soon as the number of directors who are 70 years of age or older represents more than one-third of the directors in office, the oldest director shall be deemed to have resigned, and his or her term of office shall end at the date of the next ordinary shareholders' meeting.

French law allows entities, including corporations, to be members of the board of directors of Sanofi-Aventis. If an entity is a director, it must appoint an individual to act as its permanent representative on the board of directors. Permanent representatives are subject to the same qualification requirements as other individual directors.

Supervisory Board.

The supervisory board is responsible for supervising the management board, including appointing the members of the management board, the chairman of the management board and any vice chairman or managing director (directeur général).

Under French law, any sale of real property or of equity interests or the giving of any guaranty or surety must be approved by the supervisory board. In addition, Aventis's statuts provide that any corporate decision that is of major strategic importance to, or that is likely to have a material effect on the financial situation of, Aventis or its subsidiaries requires the prior approval of the supervisory board.

Management Board.

Aventis's statuts provide that the management board shall consist of up to 7 members. The management board currently has 7 members. Members of the management board need not be shareholders. Under French law, members of the management board must be individuals. Aventis's statuts provide that no person may be appointed a member of the management board if he or she is over 65 years of age. Any member of the management board who reaches the age of 65 shall be deemed to have resigned at the end of the next meeting of the supervisory board.

Supervisory Board.

Aventis's statuts provide that the supervisory board of directors shall consist of up to 16 members. Under French law, the supervisory board must have at least 3 members. The supervisory board currently has 11 members. French law requires each member of the supervisory board to

Liability of Members of the Board	French law provides that members of Sanofi-Aventis's board of directors (conseil d'administration) can be civilly liable, individually or jointly, to the company or to third parties for violations of legal and regulatory provisions applicable to "sociétés anonymes", violations of the company's bylaws or for mismanaging the company. Mismanagement is broadly defined as any act, intentional or unintentional, contrary to the interest of the company and which damages the company. If the mismanagement results in the company's bankruptcy, the directors themselves, in their individual capacity, may be subject to the bankruptcy proceedings. Directors are generally jointly and severally liable for the misconduct of the board, unless misconduct can only be attributed to certain directors. In particular, all directors will be jointly and severally liable for actions taken by the board of directors unless an individual director can prove that he or she did not attend the meeting at which the action was taken for a real reason or they opposed the action, made their opposition known in the minutes of the meeting and took all steps available to them to prevent the action from being taken. In any suit against the directors for mismanagement, third parties, including shareholders, have the burden of proving that they have suffered a loss, either personally or through the company, and the action of the directors caused the loss. Members of the Sanofi-Aventis board can also incur criminal liability for violating certain provisions of the Management Board. French law provides that members of the management board (directoire) of a dual-board company (société anonyme à conseil de surveillance et à directoire) are subject to the same liability as directors (administrateurs) in a single board company (société anonyme à conseil d'administration). Accordingly, members of the management board of Aventis are subject to the same liability as the members of Sanofi-Aventis's board of directors set forth opposite. Supervisory Board. French law provides that members of the supervisory board are individually liable to the company or to third parties only in the case of their personal misconduct. Members of the supervisory board are not liable for the mismanagement of the company or for the consequences of such mismanagement. They can, however, be held liable for civil claims for the crimes (délits) of members of the management board if they knew of those crimes and did not disclose them at the shareholders' meeting.

French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) and other laws and regulations, including employment laws and securities laws. In particular, the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) provides that a director can be fined and/or imprisoned if he or she, in bad faith and for his or her own direct or indirect benefit, uses the company's assets or credit for purposes which he or she knows are not to the company's benefit.

The French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) prohibits any provision in a company's statuts purporting to limit a director's liability.

Voting Rights

Under Sanofi-Aventis's statuts, each Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share generally entitles its holder to one vote. A double voting right, however, is assigned to each Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share that has been paid in full and registered in the name of the same shareholder for at least two years. This double voting right ceases automatically for any Sanofi-Aventis ordinary share converted into a bearer share or transferred from one owner to another, subject to exceptions provided by French company law.

Aventis's statuts do not provide for double voting rights. Each Aventis ordinary share entitles its holder to one vote.

Bonus shares arising from an increase of share capital by incorporation of reserves, profits or share premiums receive the benefit of the double vote as from the time of their issue insofar as they have been assigned on the basis of shares already benefiting from the right.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

Adjusted Net Income

Sanofi-Aventis defines “core business” as the combination of Sanofi-Synthelabo’s activities and Aventis’s activities in prescription drugs and human vaccines, together with Aventis’s 50% interest in Merial, its animal health joint venture with Merck & Co., and its corporate activities. The non-core segment therefore consists of legacy Aventis businesses that Aventis already considers as non-core activities and with respect to which Sanofi-Aventis intends to continue Aventis’s program of divestitures. Sanofi-Aventis believes that the presentation of a segmentation between its core and non-core businesses will enhance investors’ understanding of the business on a comparative basis, as Aventis has reported its results in this manner in the past. Sanofi-Aventis also believes that the presentation of the performance of the combined company’s entire pharmaceutical business, in addition to its GAAP consolidated results, will enhance comparability with Sanofi-Aventis’s historic performance because prior to the transaction Sanofi-Aventis operated in one business segment: the research and development, production, marketing and sale of pharmaceutical products. With the completion of planned divestitures the non-core segment has disappeared, and as announced Aventis has ended the distinction between “core” and “non-core” as of the first quarter 2004. The distinction will, however, remain pertinent for the purposes of comparisons with periods before that time.

Sanofi-Aventis also believes that investors’ understanding of Sanofi-Aventis’s performance following the acquisition of Aventis will be enhanced by disclosing “adjusted net income” for Sanofi-Aventis’s core business. Sanofi-Aventis defines “adjusted net income”, a non-GAAP financial measure, as net income as determined under French GAAP (which will include under the equity method Aventis’s 50% interest in the earnings of Merial), excluding the impact of purchase accounting for the Aventis acquisition and acquisition-related integration and restructuring costs. Sanofi-Aventis views adjusted net income as an operating performance measure and believes that the most directly comparable French GAAP measure is net income.

Adjusted net income excludes the effects of purchase-accounting treatments under French GAAP related to the acquisition of Aventis. The purchase-accounting effects on net income will primarily relate to the one-time charge for purchased in-process research and development, the charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the workdown of purchased inventory that was written up to fair value, the charges related to the amortization of Aventis’s goodwill and the charges related to the amortization of Aventis’s definite-lived intangible assets. Sanofi-Aventis believes that excluding these non-cash charges will enhance an investor’s understanding of Sanofi-Aventis’s underlying economic performance after the combination with Aventis because the excluded charges are not considered by management and the board of directors of Sanofi-Aventis to reflect the combined entity’s ongoing operating performance after the business combination. Rather, management and the board of directors of Sanofi-Aventis consider that each of the excluded fixed, non-cash charges reflects the decision, in 2004, to acquire the businesses of Aventis.

Sanofi-Aventis also believes (subject to the material limitations discussed below) that disclosing “adjusted net income” will also enhance the comparability of its ongoing operating performance. The elimination of the non-recurring items (the one-time charge for purchased in-process research and development and the charges to cost of goods sold resulting from the workdown of purchased inventory that was written up to fair value) will enhance comparability after the combination from one period to the other. The elimination of the amortization of goodwill resulting from the acquisition of Aventis will also enhance comparability (1) across periods after the combination (because in April 2005, Sanofi-Aventis will be required to publish its financial statements under IFRS, and it is presently expected that, under IFRS, goodwill will no longer be amortized) and (2) relative to its peers in the pharmaceutical industry (many of which, including Eli Lilly, Johnson & Johnson, Pfizer, Bristol Myers Squibb, Abbott, Wyeth, Merck & Co. and Schering Plough, report their results under U.S. GAAP, under which accounting principles goodwill is not amortized). Lastly, Sanofi-Aventis believes that the elimination of charges related to the amortization of Aventis’s definite-lived intangible assets will also enhance the comparability of its ongoing operating performance relative to its peers in the pharmaceutical industry that carry these intangible assets (principally patents and trademarks) at low book values either because they are the result of in-house research and development that has already been expensed in prior periods or because they were acquired through business combinations that were accounted as poolings-of-interest.

Sanofi-Aventis anticipates that the acquisition of Aventis will give rise to significant integration and restructuring costs. Sanofi-Aventis intends to exclude these costs from adjusted net income because these integration and restructuring costs will be directly and only incurred in connection with this transaction, and Sanofi-Aventis reasonably believes that these costs will disappear or become immaterial within eighteen months. Sanofi-Aventis currently expects to have incurred substantially all of the integration and restructuring costs by the end of 2005. The costs will occur over an eighteen-month period because of the unusual complexity and size of this global business combination and the highly regulated nature of our operations. It is not the business or past practice of Sanofi-Aventis to restructure on a continuous basis. The last material integration and restructuring costs incurred arose out of the May 1999 merger between Sanofi and Synthelabo and were substantially expensed by the end of 2001, in accordance with the expectations of management at the time of that merger. Since 2001, there have been no material restructuring charges.

Management intends to use adjusted net income to manage and to evaluate Sanofi-Aventis's performance and believes it is appropriate to disclose this non-GAAP financial measure, as a supplement to its French GAAP reporting, to assist investors with their analysis of the factors and trends affecting Sanofi-Aventis's business performance. On completion of the acquisition of Aventis, management intends to revise the format of its internal management reporting to include this measure as a subtotal and will consider adjusting its segment information in accordance with SFAS 131 criteria to take into account this revised format. Management expects to use the measure as a component in setting incentive compensation targets, because it better measures the underlying operational performance of the business and excludes charges over which managers have no control. Management also intends that, after the acquisition of Aventis, future earnings guidance for the combined entity will be given on the basis of non-GAAP adjusted net income. As announced on January 26, 2004, management also intends to use adjusted net income to manage and analyze dividend policy for the combined group. After the acquisition of Aventis, in general, and subject to any applicable legal restrictions on distributions, Sanofi-Aventis intends to propose that its shareholders approve an annual dividend determined as a percentage of adjusted net income achieved in respect of the relevant year, and management intends to manage and analyze dividends paid as a ratio of non-GAAP adjusted net income, which it believes provides a consistent basis for comparison across periods. Accordingly, management believes that an investor's understanding of the evolution of Sanofi-Aventis's dividend policy will be enhanced by disclosing non-GAAP adjusted net income.

Sanofi-Aventis reminds investors, however, that non-GAAP adjusted net income should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, net income reported in accordance with French GAAP. In addition, Sanofi-Aventis strongly encourages investors and potential investors, including holders of Aventis ordinary shares prior to the vote on the merger, not to rely on any single financial measure but to review its financial statements, including the notes thereto, and its other publicly-filed reports carefully and in their entirety.

There are material limitations associated with the use of non-GAAP adjusted net income as compared to the use of French GAAP net income in evaluating Sanofi-Aventis's performance, as described below:

- The results presented by non-GAAP adjusted net income cannot be achieved without incurring the following costs that the measure excludes:
 - Amortization of identifiable intangible assets acquired from Aventis. Although this amortization is a non-cash charge, it is important for investors to consider it because it represents an allocation in each reporting period of a portion of the purchase price that we will pay for the identifiable intangible assets of Aventis (principally patents and trademarks). Sanofi-Aventis estimates that it will pay an aggregate of €30,830 million for these intangible assets (which, in general, will be amortized over their useful lives ranging from 7 to 17 years). A large part of our revenues after the combination could not be generated without owning these assets. Also, a significant portion of the purchase price paid for these assets will be financed by debt obligations which will need to be repaid in cash in the future. Further, if we do not continuously replace revenue-generating intangible assets as they become unproductive (for example, through researching and developing new pharmaceutical products), we may not be able to maintain or grow our revenues.

- Integration and restructuring costs. Non-GAAP adjusted net income will not reflect any integration and restructuring costs even though it will reflect any synergies that may arise from the combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis.
- The difference in treatment of similar charges may complicate the use of non-GAAP adjusted net income as a comparative measure:
 - Amortization of identifiable intangible assets. Non-GAAP adjusted net income will reflect amortization charges related to intangible assets that Sanofi-Aventis owns at the time that it acquires Aventis (and to intangible assets that it may acquire after that acquisition), even though non-GAAP adjusted net income will not reflect the amortization charges related to identifiable intangible assets acquired from Aventis.
 - Amortization of Goodwill. Non-GAAP adjusted net income will reflect the amortization of goodwill that Sanofi-Aventis has recorded on its accounts at the time that it acquires Aventis (and the amortization of goodwill that Sanofi-Aventis may acquire after that acquisition), even though non-GAAP adjusted net income will exclude the amortization of goodwill that arises as a result of the acquisition of Aventis.

Sanofi-Aventis will compensate for the above described material limitations by using non-GAAP adjusted net income only to supplement its French GAAP financial reporting (and any reconciliation of French GAAP results to U.S. GAAP that Sanofi-Aventis is required to make under the rules of the SEC) and by ensuring that its disclosures provide sufficient information for a full understanding of all adjustments included in non-GAAP adjusted net income. In addition, subject to applicable law, Sanofi-Aventis may in the future decide to report additional non-GAAP financial measures which, in combination with non-GAAP adjusted net income, may compensate further for some of the material limitations described above.

In determining the level of future dividend payments, and in analyzing dividend policy on the basis of non-GAAP net income, Sanofi-Aventis's management intends to take into account the fact that a significant portion (approximately €10.5 billion) of the purchase price paid for Aventis (including the purchase price allocated to identifiable intangible assets and goodwill) will have been financed under the credit facility and that this borrowed money will have to be repaid in cash in the medium term. See "Source and Amount of Funds". Further, management intends to take into account the fact that the adjustments reflected in non-GAAP adjusted net income have no effect on the underlying amount of cash available to pay dividends, and that although the adjustments relating to the elimination of the effect of the purchase accounting treatment of the Aventis acquisition represent non-cash charges, the adjustments relating to integration and restructuring costs may represent significant cash charges in the periods immediately following the closing of the offers.

Because non-GAAP adjusted net income is not a standardized measure, it may not be comparable with the non-GAAP financial measures of other companies having the same or a similar name.

A reconciliation between pro forma combined net income, as reported under French GAAP, reflecting the combination of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, and adjusted pro forma combined net income, showing the breakdown between core and non-core business, as considered by the Sanofi-Aventis board of directors on April 24, 2004, follows:

(1) For details of how the pro forma combined net income for the periods is derived, please see "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis".

The adjusted pro forma combined net income is based on preliminary assumptions that Sanofi-Aventis made, on the basis of limited publicly available information. In particular, with the exception of the amortization of goodwill, all other purchase accounting adjustments, and in particular those relating to inventories and amortization of existing intangible assets, are entirely allocated to the core business.

Comparable Sales

When Sanofi-Aventis refers to the change in its sales on a “comparable” basis, Sanofi-Aventis means that it excludes the impact of exchange rate fluctuations and changes in Group structure (acquisitions and divestitures of entities and rights to products as well as change in the consolidation percentage for consolidated entities).

For any two periods, Sanofi-Aventis excludes the impact of exchange rates by recalculating sales for the earlier period on the basis of exchange rates used in the later period.

Sanofi-Aventis excludes the impact of acquisitions by including sales for a portion of the prior period equal to the portion of the current period during which it owned the entity or product rights based on sales information that Sanofi-Aventis receives from the party from whom it makes the acquisition. Similarly, Sanofi-Aventis excludes sales in the relevant portion of the prior period when it has sold an entity or rights to a product.

For a change in the consolidation percentage of a consolidated entity, the prior period is recalculated on the basis of the consolidation method used for the current period.

Set out below is a reconciliation of sales on a reported basis, under French GAAP, to comparable basis sales for the first half of 2003:

Reconciliation of First-Half 2003 Reported-Basis Sales to First-Half 2003 Comparable-Basis Sales

First-Half 2003 Reported-Basis Sales	3,903
Impact of changes in Group structure	(5)
Impact of exchange rates	(147)
First-Half 2003 Comparable-Basis Sales	3,751

Developed Sales

When Sanofi-Aventis refers to “developed sales” of a product, it means consolidated sales, excluding sales of products to its alliance partners, but including those that are made through its alliances and which are not included in its consolidated sales (with Bristol-Myers Squibb on Plavix®/Iscover® (clopidogrel) and Aprovel®/Avapro®/Karvea® (irbesartan) and with Fujisawa on Stilnox®/Myslee® (zolpidem)). Our alliance partners provide us with information regarding their sales in order to allow us to calculate developed sales.

Sanofi-Aventis believes that developed sales are a useful measurement tool because they demonstrate trends in the overall presence of Sanofi-Aventis’s products in the market.

Set out below is a reconciliation of consolidated sales, under French GAAP, to developed sales for the first half of 2004:

Reconciliation of First-Half 2004 Consolidated Sales to First-Half 2004 Developed Sales

	(In millions of euros)
First-Half 2004 Consolidated Sales	4,460
Non-consolidated sales of Plavix®/Iscover® net of sales of product to Bristol-Myers Squibb	1,051
Non-consolidated sales of Aprovel®/Avapro®/Karvea® net of sales of product to Bristol-Myers Squibb	302
Non-consolidated sales of Stilnox®/Myslee® net of sales of product to Fujisawa ...	19
First-Half 2004 Developed Sales	5,832

SERVICE OF PROCESS AND ENFORCEABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES UNDER U.S. SECURITIES LAWS

Sanofi-Aventis is a limited liability corporation (société anonyme) organized under the laws of France. Sanofi-Aventis's directors and officers, as well as certain experts named in this document, are not citizens or residents of the United States, and all or a substantial part of the assets of these individuals may be located outside the United States. Also, a large part of Sanofi-Aventis's assets are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process on such persons within the United States. It may also be difficult to enforce against them, either inside or outside the United States, judgments obtained against them in U.S. courts, or to enforce in U.S. courts, judgments obtained against them in courts in jurisdictions outside the United States, in any action based on civil liabilities under the U.S. federal securities laws. There is doubt as to the enforceability against such persons in France, whether in original actions or in actions to enforce judgments of U.S. courts, of liabilities based solely on the U.S. federal securities laws. Actions for enforcement of foreign judgments against such persons would require such persons who are of French nationality to waive their right under Article 15 of the French Civil Code to be sued only in France. We believe that no such French person has waived such right with respect to actions predicated solely upon U.S. federal securities laws. In addition, actions in the United States under the U.S. federal securities laws could be affected under certain circumstances by the French law of July 26, 1968, as amended, which may preclude or restrict the obtaining of evidence in France or from French persons in connection with such actions. Additionally, awards of punitive damages in actions brought in the United States or elsewhere may be unenforceable in France.

2 Motives and goals of the transaction

The present agreement and plan of merger between the two companies is viewed as the next step following the mixed cash tender/exchange offer initiated by Sanofi-Aventis on Aventis shares on April 26, 2004 and described in a prospectus (note d'information) that was approved by the French financial authority (Autorité des marchés financiers) ("AMF") n°04-384 dated May 7, 2004 (the "Offer"),¹ in order to create the largest pharmaceutical group in Europe and the third largest worldwide.

In light of the results of the Offer, including the subsequent offering period,² evidencing the very enthusiastic welcome given to this business combination by Aventis' shareholders, Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis have decided to start the merger process, Sanofi-Aventis having reserved the right to do so in the prospectus (note d'information) approved by the AMF on February 12, 2004 under reference 04-0090 and incorporated into the May 7, 2004 prospectus (n°04-384) by reference.

This merger is intended to simplify the legal structures of the new group and to facilitate the integration of the two groups by allowing a direct and dynamic management of their operating assets.

This merger will also allow the shareholders of Aventis (and the holders of Aventis options) to benefit from the liquidity of Sanofi-Aventis shares.

² The Offer expired on July 30, 2004. After accounting for the definitive results of this initial offering period, there was a subsequent offering period from August 13 until September 6, 2004.

3 Financial statements of the concerned companies used to settle the terms of the merger

The terms of the merger have been determined on the basis of the financial statements of the two companies as of December 31, 2003. Those financial statements appear in Schedules 4 and 5.

The financial statements of Sanofi-Aventis, as of December 31, 2003 were approved by its Board of Directors on February 13, 2004 and certified by its Auditors.

The financial statements of Aventis, as of December 31, 2003 were approved by its Management Board on February 26, 2004 and certified by its Auditors.

The financial statements of Sanofi-Aventis and those of Aventis, as of December 31, 2003, have been approved by the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders on June 23, 2004 and by the general meeting of Aventis shareholders on June 11, 2004, respectively.

In addition, interim financial information, as of August 31, 2004, has been prepared for each of the companies. This interim information has been the subject of a limited review by the Auditors of each company and will be made available to shareholders in accordance with applicable law.

4 Valuation methods

The parties agree to adopt the net book value as of December 31, 2003 as the contribution value of the contributed assets and the assumed liabilities.

The valuation methods used to determine the exchange ratio of Aventis shares for newly-issued Sanofi-Aventis shares are set forth in Schedule 6.

ARTICLE 6 OWNERSHIP AND ENJOYMENT OF THE MERGER CONTRIBUTION OF AVENTIS

Sanofi-Aventis shall become the owner and shall take possession of the property and rights contributed by Aventis from the effective time of this Agreement, which is December 31, 2004, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent provided for in Article 14 of Chapter II of this Agreement.

Pursuant to the provisions of article L.236-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), Sanofi-Aventis undertakes, from the date of this Agreement, to accept, on the day that such property and rights are remitted to it, all the assets and liabilities making up the estate (patrimoine) of Aventis, as they then exist.

Aventis undertakes, until the effective time of the merger not to undertake, without the prior written authorization of Sanofi-Aventis, on the one hand, any act of disposal or action that can affect the ownership or the free disposal of those assets (in particular the Sanofi-Aventis shares), and, on the other hand, any action that can reduce the value of the net assets contributed or modify the exchange ratio used for the present merger.

ARTICLE 7 LIABILITIES AND GENERAL CONDITIONS OF THE MERGER OF AVENTIS

As stated in Article 3 above, the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis is subject to the condition that Sanofi-Aventis pays the liabilities of Aventis.

Those liabilities and off-balance sheet liabilities will be assumed by Sanofi-Aventis, who will become the obligor of those debts and other liabilities in place of Aventis without such assumption effecting a novation.

As a consequence, pursuant to articles L.236-14 and L.236-15 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), the creditors of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis whose debt was created prior to the announcement of this agreement and plan of merger shall have the right to object for a period of thirty days running from the latest announcement of this agreement and plan of merger placed in an official legal paper for notices or in the Bulletin des Légales Obligatoires.

The merger contribution of Aventis is also granted and accepted subject to the following charges and conditions:

1. Sanofi-Aventis will take the goods contributed in the state they are in at the effective time of the merger, without any power of recourse for whatever reason, including for the poor condition of buildings, equipment and furnishings, problems with the soil or sub-soil, errors in the description, boundaries, registration numbers in the land register and the registration of real estate located abroad and the indicated capacity, all positive or negative variances between the indicated capacity and the actual capacity, in excess of one-twentieth, shall be for the profit or loss of Sanofi-Aventis without recourse against Aventis.
2. Sanofi-Aventis shall purely and simply succeed to all the rights and powers of Aventis.
3. Sanofi-Aventis will suffer any negative servitudes, apparent or disguised, ongoing or discontinued, capable of being asserted against the contributed real estate, except it may defend against such negative servitudes and benefit from positive servitudes, if any, at all times at its own risk and peril, without recourse against Aventis, provided that this provision shall confer no further rights on any person whatsoever beyond those that they enjoy by virtue of regular unrestricted title or applicable law.
4. Sanofi-Aventis shall be required to pay the liabilities contributed by Aventis according to the terms and conditions on which they are and will become payable, to pay all the interests and more generally to perform all the terms and conditions of any existing loan contract or commercial paper in the same manner as Aventis was obligated. This requirement includes any early payment if applicable. In particular, Sanofi-Aventis shall succeed to all the rights and obligations of Aventis relating to any debt securities issued by Aventis and described in Section I.1.1 of this Agreement.

Sanofi-Aventis shall be subject to all the guarantees that have been granted on the liabilities that Sanofi-Aventis assumes.

Sanofi-Aventis shall also be subject, subject to the same conditions, to the obligations under the guarantees and sureties granted by Aventis. Sanofi-Aventis shall benefit from all counter-guarantees and securities.

5. Sanofi-Aventis will bear all the charges that occur after the date of the effective time of the merger (taxes, fees, salaries, etc.) to which the property and assets contributed can or could be subjected.

6. Sanofi-Aventis shall be subrogated to the benefit of all rights, as well as the benefits and obligations of any contract, treaty, convention or pact entered into by Aventis with any administrative agency or third party, as well as to the benefits and obligations of any licenses or permits that may have been granted to Aventis.

In this respect, Aventis undertakes jointly with Sanofi-Aventis to effect all the prior legal formalities necessary for this subrogation as soon as practicable.

7. Sanofi-Aventis shall continue to keep in effect all the contracts to which Aventis is a party, until their expiration or shall terminate such contracts at its sole expense, without recourse against Aventis.

8. Pursuant to the provisions of articles L.122-12 and L.123-8 of the French Labor Code (Code de travail), Sanofi-Aventis shall be, solely by the effectiveness of this merger and without further action, subrogated to Aventis in the benefits and obligations under the provisions of all labor contracts, commitments and agreements relating to retirement benefits of any kind existing at the time of transfer.

9. Sanofi-Aventis shall succeed to the rights and obligations of Aventis regarding the right to occupy, in whatever form (lease, rent, domiciliation) the real estate assets to which Aventis has title and shall pay all the corresponding rents all at its own risk and peril.

10. Sanofi-Aventis shall have, from and after the effective time of the merger, all powers to, in lieu of Aventis, initiate or continue to prosecute any judicial action or arbitration proceedings, whether as defendant or claimant, to acquiesce in any decision, to pay or receive all amounts due as a result of such actions, procedures and decisions relating to the transfer of Aventis' estate (including, without limitation, the items set forth on Schedule 16).

11. Solely by the effectiveness of this merger and without further action, the securities and rights held by Aventis in any other company included in the merger contribution or that Aventis possesses and that have been issued by venture capital mutual funds or by other mutual funds subject to French law or to any other right shall be transferred to the benefit of Sanofi-Aventis. Sanofi-Aventis will become directly the shareholder or partner of those companies or the holder of those securities or rights, subject to any applicable regulatory and contractual provisions. Aventis shall comply with all legal and regulatory provisions relating to the transferability of these securities and these rights and to all applicable contractual or by-law provisions, particularly those regarding approval and preemptive rights. Aventis, or Sanofi-Aventis, as the case may be, shall notify any third party of the transfer of securities by operation of the merger, pursuant to the applicable provisions in each case.

It is specified that the absence of any approval, when such approval is legally required, shall not compromise the validity of the merger and of this Agreement in any way; moreover, in case of the exercise of any other preemptive right, the merger contribution would apply to the repurchase price of the preempted securities.

Sanofi-Aventis will procure, at its own cost, the registration in the books for its benefit of the securities, shares and equity interests of any kind contributed to Sanofi-Aventis.

Similarly, Sanofi-Aventis will notify, at its own cost, any authority, individual or legal entity concerned, that Sanofi-Aventis holds the securities, shares and equity interests of any kind contributed in the merger.

12. Sanofi-Aventis will comply with all laws, regulations, decrees, ordinances and practices regarding the use of the property and assets contributed.

13. With respect to the trademarks and the internet domain names included in the merger contribution of Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis shall have the sole right to dispose of this property and all rights attached thereto, from and after the effective time of the merger.

As a result, from and after the effective time of the merger, Sanofi-Aventis will have the sole right to exploit these rights as it sees fit and to the risks and profits of these rights throughout the entire territory where these intangible rights are or may be protected, it being understood that Sanofi-Aventis will be substituted and subrogated in all the respective rights and obligations under any contract with a third party relating to these intangible rights.

14. Sanofi-Aventis will complete all the required procedures in order to perfect and to make the transfer of the various assets and rights contributed in the merger enforceable against third parties, including, without limitation, those assets and rights set forth on Schedules 13 and 16. The holder of a copy or a certified extract of this Agreement shall have all powers to effect the foregoing. Aventis shall, at the first request of Sanofi-Aventis, cooperate to execute any instrument that complements, modifies, reiterates or ratifies this Agreement, and shall provide any documentary evidence or signature necessary to transfer the assets and rights contributed, including, without limitation, the guarantees and sureties being transferred, and shall also hand over any title or deed in its possession regarding the assets and rights contributed.

15. Sanofi-Aventis will be responsible for all the costs, fees and charges resulting from this Agreement, from any action necessary to give effect to the merger and all taxes resulting directly or indirectly therefrom.

ARTICLE 8 ASSUMPTION BY SANOFI-AVENTIS OF THE OBLIGATIONS OF AVENTIS UNDER THE SUBSCRIPTION STOCK OPTIONS AND BSAs OF AVENTIS

1. Sanofi-Aventis expressly assumes the obligations of Aventis in respect of the holders of the subscription stock options of Aventis set forth on Schedule 1.

As a result, the subscription stock options set forth on Schedule 1 will, as a result of the merger contemplated hereby, entitle the holder to subscribe for Sanofi-Aventis shares in lieu of Aventis shares, after adjusting the exercise price and the number of shares subject to option to give effect to the exchange ratio provided by Article 10 below in the following manner subject to any subsequent adjustments:

- the number of Sanofi-Aventis shares that each holder of options shall have the right to subscribe under any given subscription option plan shall equal that number of Aventis shares that could formerly have been subscribed under such plan multiplied by the merger exchange ratio of 27/23 applicable to shareholders, rounded down to the nearest whole number; and
- the exercise price per Sanofi-Aventis share shall be equal to the exercise price per Aventis share divided by the merger exchange ratio of 27/23 applicable to shareholders, rounded down to the nearest whole euro centime;

with all other terms of exercise remaining unaltered.

With respect to the purchase option plans issued by Aventis Inc. and Hoechst providing for the purchase of Aventis shares, Sanofi-Aventis shall cause the regulations of these plans to be amended to provide that holders of these purchase options may purchase Sanofi-Aventis shares after adjusting the purchase price and the number of shares subject to option by the merger exchange ratio in the foregoing manner, with all other terms of exercise remaining unaltered.

The extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders convened to approve the merger contemplated hereby will also ratify the assumption of the options and the shareholders of Sanofi-Aventis shall be asked to vote to waive their preferential rights of subscription with respect to the Sanofi-Aventis shares that will be issued from time to time on the exercise of the subscription stock options.

2. In accordance with Article 228-101 of the French Commercial Code, Sanofi-Aventis fully assumes the obligations of Aventis arising under the BSAs.

As a result, the number of Sanofi-Aventis shares for which the holders may exercise their BSAs will be determined by application of the exchange ratio provided under Article 10 to the number of Aventis shares for which they used to be exercisable. The BSAs issued in 2002 will therefore give the right to subscribe for 108,812 Sanofi-Aventis shares and those issued in 2003 will give the right to subscribe for 193,174 Sanofi-Aventis shares, subject to any other financial adjustments. The number Sanofi-Aventis shares for which these BSAs will be exercisable will be the subject of a notice of the merger accountants (Commissaires aux apports) in accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French Commercial Code.

In accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French Commercial Code, the approval of the merger by the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders requires the waiver by the Sanofi-Aventis shareholders of their preferential rights of subscription contemplated by Article 228-91 of the French Commercial Code in favour of the holders of the BSAs. The extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders convened to approve the merger contemplated by this Agreement will be invited to consider and vote upon, to the extent necessary, the waiver of their preferential rights of subscription of the Sanofi-Aventis shares to be issued from time to time in respect of the exercise of the BSAs.

ARTICLE 9 DECLARATIONS REGARDING AVENTIS AND ITS CONTRIBUTION IN THE MERGER

- Mr. Gérard Le Fur makes, ex officio, the following declarations:

- that Aventis is registered at the INSEE under reference: 542 064 308 RCS Strasbourg;

III
EXCHANGE RATIO;
MERGER CONSIDERATION;
INCREASE IN THE SHARE CAPITAL OF SANOFI-AVENTIS; EXPECTED AMOUNT OF THE MERGER PREMIUM;

ARTICLE 10 EXCHANGE RATIO

In order to determine the merger consideration for the contribution of Aventis, an evaluation of the relative values of Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis, as well as of their shares, was undertaken according to certain principles set forth in Schedule 6.

As a result of these evaluations, the exchange ratio has been fixed at 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for every 23 Aventis shares.

ARTICLE 11 MERGER CONSIDERATION

In accordance with article L.236-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis will not be exchanged in the merger. As of the date hereof, Sanofi-Aventis holds 791,317,831 Aventis shares.

Giving effect to the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for 23 Aventis shares, 19,122,885 Sanofi-Aventis shares will be created in exchange for 16,289,865 Aventis shares held by Aventis shareholders, other than Sanofi-Aventis.

Assuming that the number of Aventis shares held respectively by Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis will not change until the effective time of the merger, Sanofi-Aventis will therefore proceed to a capital increase of 38,245,770 euros, increasing its capital from 2,784,562,864 euros to 2,822,808,634 euros, divided into 1,411,404,317 shares, nominal value 2 euros per share. These shares will be distributed among the Aventis shareholders other than Sanofi-Aventis, at the rate of 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for 23 Aventis shares.

Aventis shareholders who do not hold enough shares to exercise all of their rights will have the individual responsibility of purchasing or selling the necessary number of shares to exercise those rights. Subject to the effectiveness of the merger, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes until March 31, 2005, to pay for the brokerage fees and value-added tax incurred by shareholders of Aventis, up to 0.3% of the price of each share bought or sold and related to the purchase or sale of up to a maximum of 22 Aventis shares per holder.

These new shares will be identical to and fungible with the existing Sanofi-Aventis shares, subject to all the provisions of the Sanofi-Aventis bylaws, and will in particular be entitled to all distributions of dividends, interim dividends and any reserves declared after their issuance, which will be on December 31, 2004, subject to the conditions precedent provided in Article 14 hereof (therefore, the new shares will not have dividend rights to the dividend paid by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004 in respect of its 2003 results).

Moreover, the Sanofi-Aventis shares will be freely tradable from and after the effective time of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis effected to provide the merger consideration (which will be December 31, 2004, subject to the conditions precedent provided by Article 14) in accordance with Article L.228-10 of the French Commercial Code, and will be the subject of an application for trading privileges on the Premier marché of Euronext Paris SA.

An application to list the new Sanofi-Aventis shares, and to list Sanofi-Aventis ADSs representing the new Sanofi-Aventis shares for trading purposes, will also be made with the New York Stock Exchange in due course.

As Aventis holds 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis shares before the merger, Sanofi-Aventis will hold, after the merger, 76,215,733 of its own shares, taking into account the 48,868,462 Sanofi-Aventis shares that Sanofi-

Aventis held as of September 30, 2004, representing in total approximately 5.40% of the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis.³

ARTICLE 12 INCREASE IN SHARE CAPITAL OF SANOFI-AVENTIS — EXPECTED AMOUNT OF MERGER PREMIUM — LOSS ON CANCELLED SHARES

1 Capital increase of Sanofi-Aventis

As stated in Article 11 above, Sanofi-Aventis will create 19,122,885 new shares, nominal value 2 euros per share, in exchange for the merger contribution of Aventis, and will therefore proceed with an increase of its share capital of 38,245,770.

The share capital of Sanofi-Aventis will be increased by	38,245,770 euros
And will therefore increase from	2,784,562,864 euros
To	2,822,808,634 euros

The share capital will be divided into 1,411,403,317 shares, nominal value 2 euros per share, fully paid and all of the same class.

2 Expected amount of merger premium

The net asset value of the merger contribution of Aventis amounts to	27,109,225,679 euros
Less: that part of the net asset value of the merger contribution of Aventis that corresponds to the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis, amounting to	(26,562,418,574) euros
and the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, amounting to	(38,245,770) euros
The difference representing the expected amount of the merger premium	508,561,335 euros

In respect of 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis shares that it held, Aventis received a dividend of 27,894,216 euros on September 30, 2004. On account of the retroactivity of the merger for accounting purposes, the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders called to approve the merger will be asked to consider and approve the allocation of this amount of dividends to the “merger premium” account. The total amount allocated to the “merger premium” account will thus amount to 536,455,551 euros.

This amount will be allocated to the “merger premium” account, in which the existing and the new shareholders of Sanofi-Aventis will have rights, and which will be recognized in the liabilities side of the balance sheet.

The merger premium may receive any allocation that complies with the general principles in force and decided by the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders. In particular, the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders convened to approve this agreement and plan of merger, will be asked to consider and authorize the board of directors of Sanofi-Aventis to make any debit against the merger premium for the purposes of: (i) restoring, on the liabilities side of the balance sheet, the statutory provisions and reserves that existed on the balance sheet of Aventis, in particular the special reserve for long-term capital gain by an amount of 319,518,918 euros, as well as all other reserves or provisions, the restoration of which is considered necessary; such restoration, if any, may be completed by utilizing all other premiums and reserves; (ii) attributing all or part of the fees, costs and expenses resulting from the merger; and (iii) restoring the legal reserve to 10% of the share capital, after the merger.

3 Loss on cancelled shares

The cancellation of the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis will lead to a loss on cancelled shares in an amount of 25,277,722,121 euros:

That part of the net asset value of the merger contribution of Aventis that corresponds to the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis, in amount of	26,562,418,574 euros
Less: the net book value of the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis, amounting to	51,840,140,695 euros
Equals the loss on cancelled shares, amounting to	25,277,722,121 euros

The general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will be asked to consider and approve the recognition of this loss on cancelled shares, without any economic significance, against the premium for stock issuance released in the initial and subsequent offering period of the offer.

ARTICLE 13 AVENTIS DISSOLUTION

In accordance with article L.236-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis will be effective on December 31, 2004, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in Article 14, and will result in the dissolution without liquidation of Aventis and the universal transfer by operation of law of all the assets and liabilities of Aventis to Sanofi-Aventis.

IV

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT — TAX TREATMENT OF THE MERGER

ARTICLE 14 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE MERGER

The merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis and the resulting increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis shall become effective, from a legal point of view, on December 31, 2004, subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions precedent:

- Approval by the extraordinary general meeting of Aventis shareholders of this Agreement, of the merger which is agreed herein and of the dissolution without liquidation of Aventis;
- Approval by the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders of this Agreement, of the merger which is agreed herein, of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis to permit the payment of the merger consideration set forth in Article 11 above, of the waiver of preferential rights of subscription to the Sanofi-Aventis shares to be issued as a result of the assumption of the subscription stock options of Aventis and, to the extent necessary, the waiver of preferential rights of subscription to the Sanofi-Aventis shares to be issued as a result of the assumption of the obligations of Aventis with respect to the BSAs; this meeting will be held last and it being understood that the effective time of the merger and the dissolution without liquidation of Aventis will take effect on December 31, 2004;
- The absence or dismissal of any objection filed in any court of competent jurisdiction in opposition to the decision by the AMF stating that there is no need to file a compulsory acquisition offer (offre publique de retrait) for the Aventis shares pursuant to Article 5-6-6 of the General Regulation of the Conseil des marchés financiers.

If all these conditions are not met on December 31, 2004, at the latest, the plan and agreement of merger will automatically become null and void and of no legal effect, except if Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis otherwise agree, without any right of indemnity on either side.

The delivery of a copy or a certified extract of the minutes of extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders that takes notice of the satisfaction of the conditions precedent shall be sufficient to establish the satisfaction of those conditions precedent.

ARTICLE 15 TAX DECLARATIONS AND TAX OBLIGATIONS

Mr. Jean-Claude Leroy and Mr. Gérard Le Fur, ex officio, declare that:

- Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis are limited liability companies (sociétés anonymes) that have their principal place of business in France, and therefore, are subject to the French corporate income tax (impôt des sociétés);
- Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis elect to have the merger treated under the preferential tax regime provided by articles 816 of the French tax code (Code Général des Impôts) and 301 A to 301 F of Annex II of the French tax code regarding registration taxes, and article 210 A of the French tax code regarding corporate income tax and article 115-1 of the French tax code.

As a result, the elections and undertakings relating to this Agreement, according to the current state of the law and subject to changes to the law and the regulations, provide as follows:

1. Undertakings according to article 210A of the CGI

The companies elect to have the merger treated under article 210 A of the Code Général des Impôts (“CGI”).

Sanofi-Aventis undertakes therefore to respect all the provisions set forth in article 210 A of the CGI and particularly:

- to record the provisions of Aventis, on which tax is deferred and which will not be cancelled because of the present merger, as liabilities on its balance sheet, to record in addition, and if needed, the long-term capital gains reserve earlier subject to corporate income tax at a reduced rate, as well as the special reserve for provisions for inventory price changes;
- to substitute for Aventis for the add-back of the income which taxation would be delayed for Aventis, according to article 210 A-3 b of the CGI;
- to calculate the future capital gains made when non-depreciable assets that are contributed are sold, considering the value these assets had from a tax point of view, in Aventis book entries the day of the merger's achievement, according to article 210 A-3 c of the CGI (securities on hand are included, since they are assimilated to elements of fixed assets pursuant to article 210 A-6 of the CGI);
- to add back in its taxable income, according to the terms and conditions of article 210 A-3 d of the CGI, capital gains made when Aventis's depreciable assets are contributed to, and, if one of these assets is later sold, to take notice of the immediate taxation of the capital gain's part relating to that asset that would still not have been added back;
- to book the elements other than fixed assets received from Aventis for the value they had, from a tax point of view, in Aventis's books; if it is not done, Sanofi-Aventis would have to include in its income of the tax year of the merger the profits relating to the difference between the new value of these elements and the value they had, from a tax point of view, in Aventis's books;
- if need be, given that rights relating to a financial lease are assimilated to elements of fixed assets according to article 210 A-5 of the CGI, to calculate, to the extent necessary, the capital gain realized in the event of a subsequent sale of rights relating to a contract of leasing or a land are sold, considering the value these rights had, for tax purposes, on the books of Aventis.

2. Declaratory undertakings

Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to join to its declaration of income a statement in the official form provided by the tax administration, that discloses, for each kind of element included in the merger contribution of Aventis, all information necessary to calculate the taxable income arising out of the subsequent sale of these items, according to article 54 septies I of the CGI and article 38 quindecies of Annex III of the CGI.

Moreover, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to comply with the procedures provided by article 54 septies of the CGI by indicating the amount of the capital gains shown by the non-depreciable assets included in the merger contribution, and on which taxation has been delayed, on the register created for this purpose.

Moreover, at the same time that it files its last tax return, which must be signed within 60 days of the effective time of the merger, Aventis will sign an informational tax return regarding the deferral of capital gains tax as provided under Article 54 septies I of the French general tax code.

3. Treatment of costs of issuing loans

By virtue of the election provided by article 39 1-1° quarter of the CGI, Aventis has proceeded to pay by installment the issuance costs for the loans that Aventis entered into during the 2001 and 2003 financial years.

As a result, Sanofi-Aventis, as the surviving corporation, takes the place of Aventis with respect to the obligations related to this treatment with respect to the loans issued by Aventis as the absorbed company.

4. Consolidation of the income of Aventis from the retroactive effectiveness date

Moreover, because for accounting and tax purposes the merger will be given effect retroactively as of January 1, 2004, Aventis income generated after this date will be included in Sanofi-Aventis taxable income.

5. Recovery of Aventis accounting entries

Because the entire contribution is being recorded on the basis of its net book value, Sanofi-Aventis will include on its balance sheet the accounting entries of Aventis (original value, depreciation, loss provisions) and will continue to calculate the depreciation charges on the basis of the original value of the assets recorded on the entries of Aventis, according to the guidelines dated August 3, 2000 (BOI 4 I-2-OO dated August 18, 2000).

6. Regarding registration taxes

The registration procedures will be carried out at a fixed fee of 230 euros, according to article 816 of the CGI.

7. Value-added-tax (VAT)

The Parties confirm that the operation will be governed by the tax guidelines, 3 A-6-90, dated February 22, 1990.

According to the aforementioned guidelines, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to subject to VAT the subsequent sale of equipment assets and to proceed, if need be, to adjustments, according to articles 210 and 215 of the CGI Annex II, that Aventis should have done if it had carried on its activities.

According to the solution referenced under 8 A-1131 n°21 in the administrative documentation up to date as of November 15, 2001, Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis declare that, notwithstanding the provisions of this contribution by merger, the transfer of real property will be deemed to be non-existent pursuant to article 257-7° of the CGI.

Pursuant to article 210-III of the CGI Annex II, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to proceed to VAT adjustments related to real property, that Aventis should have done according to articles 210-I and 215-I of the CGI Annex II.

In order to benefit from the tax exemption provided by the administrative doctrine registered 3 A-1151 n°6 dated October 20, 1999, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to allocate goods to a resale taxable at VAT or giving right to a deduction (exonerated intra-community deliveries, exports).

Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to proceed, if need be, to taxation of self-addressed deliveries (article 257-8° of the CGI) or to tax adjustments (article 271 of the CGI), likely to concern assets other than fixed assets if the VAT relating to the goods or other elements included therein may have been subject to a partial or total deduction from Aventis.

According to the administrative doctrine registered 3 D-1411, n°73, dated November 2, 1996, Aventis declares its VAT credit as of the effective time of the merger purely and simply transferred to Sanofi-Aventis, who will be subrogated in its rights and obligations.

Aventis specifies that it expressly reserves the right, if need be, to submit to VAT all or part of the goods included in the capital contribution. A mention shall be made relating to that tax on a document equivalent to an invoice made out in the name of Sanofi-Aventis that would pay the amount of the said tax to Aventis.

Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to address to the competent tax administration a declaration in two copies making reference to the merger operations in which it will mention first, the undertaking to proceed to readjustments Aventis would have done relating to real and personal property concerned by these readjustments and then, the amount of VAT credit possibly transferred, and the undertaking to submit to VAT the later sales of equipment assets and goods.

8. Business use tax

By virtue of the principle according to which the business use tax is due for the whole year by the tax payer who was carrying out the taxable activity on January 1, Aventis will remain liable for business use tax for 2004. Aventis will indicate the change of owner by, at the latest, December 31 of the year in which the transaction is effective.

9. Employment training tax; contribution to the continuing professional education; tax on salaries; corporate social security tax

Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to assume the employment training tax and the employers contribution to the financing of continuing professional education, that could remain due by Aventis on the effective date of the merger and to proceed, according to articles 229-A and 235 ter KD of the CGI, on Aventis's behalf, within a period of 60 days provided by article 201 of the CGI, to make the special tax return with respect to employment training tax and the contribution to continuing professional education and the payments related to it.

Moreover, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to assume the tax on salaries and the social security tax that could remain due by Aventis at the effective date of the merger and to proceed, according to articles 89 of the CGI and 369 of the CGI Annex III, on Aventis's behalf, within a period of 60 days pursuant to article 201 of the CGI, to make the special tax return with respect to the tax on salaries and the payments related to it.

10. Aventis profit-sharing scheme

This merger will not lead to the acceleration of the rights of transferred employees arising under the profit-sharing agreements currently in force at Aventis.

Sanofi-Aventis will assume the obligations of Aventis under the profit-sharing agreements, towards the transferred employees.

11. Participation-building

According to article 163 of the CGI Annex II, Sanofi-Aventis will take over the Aventis' investment obligations arising from the salaries paid by Aventis since January 1, 2003.

In order to ensure the reporting of excess investments made by Aventis, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes also to:

- take over on its balance sheet the investments made by Aventis; and
- to expressly be subject to the Aventis's obligations related to the former investments.

12. Previous transactions

Sanofi-Aventis assumes and Mr. Jean-Claude Leroy, acting in his official capacity, binds the company, the profit and/or the cost of any tax commitments that may have been undertaken previously by Aventis on the occasion of any merger, any so-called "English Merger", split, partial merger or any other similar transactions, subject to the preferential tax treatment of mergers, according to the law dated July 12, 1965, regarding registration tax and/or corporate income tax, or subject to any other deferred or suspended period.

According to article 145-1-c) of the CGI, Sanofi-Aventis undertakes to assume all the commitments undertaken by Aventis, if need be, to hold for two years the shares of associated companies acquired under the parent company statutory regime and included in Aventis' merger contribution, especially those listed in Schedule 15.

ARTICLE 16 DELIVERY OF DEEDS

At the effective time of this Agreement, Sanofi-Aventis will be given all the title deeds, instruments, documents and other papers related to the contributed assets.

ARTICLE 17 POWERS — ELECTION OF RESIDENCE

1. The holder of an original, of a copy or of a certified extract of this Agreement shall have all necessary powers to make any registrations or announcements required by law, especially in order to cause the objection period accorded to creditors to have run before the holding of the general meetings of shareholders convened to consider and vote on this Agreement, and in general, to fulfil any statutory requirements and to make any notification that would be necessary.

2. In addition, Aventis confers all power on Jean-Claude Leroy, Laurence Debroux and Jean-Luc Renard, who can act alone, together, or by a proxy designated by them, to bring about the effectiveness of the merger transactions, and, if needed, to reiterate the contribution effected to Sanofi-Aventis, to make any confirmatory, complementary or corrective instruments, to certify the conformity of any instrument (including this Agreement), to take any actions and to make all useful formalities in order to facilitate and make the transfer of the estate of Aventis enforceable against third parties and, in particular, to permit the transfer of real property assets and rights according to any regulations applicable to them and to make all declarations.

A copy or an extract from this Agreement will be published in the relevant office of mortgages after being filed as notarized minutes, duly acknowledged and verified, in order to comply with the necessary legal requirement of publication applicable to real estate and property situated in France.

3. For the execution of this Agreement, the undersigned, in their official capacities, have elected to be resident at the registered office of the companies they represent.

To the Shareholders:

In performance of the engagement assigned to us by the order of the President of the Paris Commercial Court (Tribunal de Commerce) dated September 7, 2004 pertaining to the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, we have prepared this report on the consideration paid for the assets transferred, as provided by Article L 236-10 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), it being understood that our assessment of the value of the assets transferred is the subject of a separate report.

The consideration paid for the assets transferred is the result of the exchange ratio which was determined in the agreement and plan of merger signed by the representatives of the relevant companies on October 14, 2004. It is our responsibility to express an opinion on the fairness of the exchange ratio. For this purpose, we have carried out our assessment in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie Nationale des Commissaires aux Comptes) applicable to this engagement. These standards require that we carry out procedures intended, on the one hand, to check that the relative values assigned to the shares of the companies involved in the transaction are relevant and, on the other hand, to analyse the position of the exchange ratio in comparison to those relative values that are deemed to be relevant.

At no time did we find ourselves in a situation of incompatibility, prohibition or disqualification as provided by law.

We ask that you take notice of our findings and our conclusion, which are presented below as follows:

1. Overview of the Transaction

- 1.1 Background of the transaction and companies involved
- 1.2 Obligations and conditions of the transaction
- 1.3 Description, valuation and consideration paid for assets transferred

2. Verification of the Relevance of the Relative Values Assigned to the Shares of the Companies Involved in the Transaction

- 2.1 Procedures carried out
- 2.2 Verification of the relevance of the relative values assigned to the shares

3. Assessment of the Fairness of the Proposed Merger Exchange Ratio

- 3.1 Procedures carried out

- 3.3 Conclusion

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

1. Overview of the Transaction

The proposed transaction is the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis.

1.1 Background of the transaction and companies involved

Background of the transaction

The present merger is a logical follow-on to the mixed cash and stock offer made by Sanofi-Aventis at the beginning of 2004 for all the shares of Aventis and intended to create Europe's largest and the world's third largest pharmaceutical company.

Sanofi-Aventis (formerly Sanofi-Synthélabo) is the No. 2 pharmaceutical company in France, No. 8 in Western Europe and No. 15 in the world (source: IMS data, September 2003). The shares of Sanofi-Aventis are listed on the Premier Marché of Euronext Paris SA and on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares.

Aventis is the No. 1 pharmaceutical company in France, No. 3 in Western Europe and No. 7 in the world (source: IMS data, September 2003). Its shares are listed on the Premier Marché of Euronext Paris SA, on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares and on the Xetra Stars market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange FWB.

The main consolidated data for the two groups are as follows:

 Before amortization of goodwill

Sanofi-Aventis's offer for the shares of Aventis was made simultaneously in France, Germany and in the United States and took place in two stages:

- A main mixed cash and stock offer and secondary all-stock and all-cash offers made on January 26, 2004 (prospectus approved by the AMF under visa no. 04-0090 on February 12, 2004);
- An improved offer compared with the unsolicited offer, made on April 26, 2004 (prospectus approved by the AMF under visa no. 04-0384 on May 7, 2004), which was reopened from August 13, until September 6, 2004.

This second offer followed the agreement signed by Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis on April 25, 2004 regarding the conditions of an improved offer.

At a combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting held on June 23, 2004, the shareholders of Sanofi-Aventis voted overwhelmingly in favour of the business combination. The response of the Aventis shareholders was highly favourable, and they tendered 95.47% of Aventis's share capital, as of July 31, 2004, to the offer.

Consequently, the Sanofi-Aventis group took control of Aventis on August 20, 2004 (the delivery/settlement date for the Aventis shares tendered to the offer). Sanofi-Aventis received authorisation from its board of directors, at the board meeting of August 30, 2004, to study a merger before December 31, 2004, based on the exchange ratio under the all-stock election in the offer (1.1739).

After the closing date of the reopened offer, which expired on September 6, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis held approximately 97.98% of the share capital and 98.02% of the voting rights of Aventis.

In sum, the simplified organisation chart of the companies involved in the merger is as follows:

The present merger is therefore a logical follow-on to the take-over offer initiated by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004, which met with a highly favorable response from the shareholders of both Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis.

The purpose of the merger is to simplify the new entity's legal structures and to facilitate the integration of the two groups by enabling their operating assets to be managed directly and dynamically. In addition, this merger will enable Aventis shareholders (and the Aventis optionholders) to benefit from the liquidity of Sanofi-Aventis shares.

Surviving company (société absorbante)

Sanofi-Aventis is a limited liability joint stock company (société anonyme) with share capital of €2,784,562,864 divided into 1,392,281,432 fully-paid shares of €2 per share, all of the same class.

Sanofi-Aventis has issued no securities other than the shares that make up its share capital and the subscription and purchase stock options described in the agreement and plan of merger.

Sanofi-Aventis is a holding company. Its head office is located at 174, avenue de France - 75013 Paris, and it is registered with the Paris corporate and trade register under number 395 030 844.

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

Non-surviving company (société absorbée)

Aventis is a société anonyme with share capital of €3,085,061,398.72 divided into 807,607,696 fully-paid shares of €3.82 per share, all of the same class. Aventis does not hold any of its own shares in treasury.

Aventis has issued securities other than those shares that make up its share capital. These securities, which are described in the merger agreement, include, in particular, stock options and equity warrants (bons de souscription d'actions, BSAs). The right to exercise subscription stock options has been suspended from October 8, 2004 until December 31, 2004.

Aventis is a holding company. Its head office is located at 16, avenue de l'Europe, Espace Européen de l'Entreprise - 67300 Schiltigheim. Aventis is registered with the Strasbourg corporate and trade register under number 542 064 308.

Relations between the companies

On October 14, the date of the agreement and plan of merger:

- Sanofi-Aventis directly owned 791,317,831 Aventis shares, or approximately 97.98% of the share capital and 98.02% of the voting rights in Aventis, and 257,248 BSAs).
- Aventis directly owned 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis shares, or approximately 1.96% of Sanofi-Aventis share capital, after tendering its Aventis treasury shares pursuant to an all-stock election in the offer made by Sanofi-Aventis for Aventis shares on April 26, 2004.

1.2 Terms and conditions of the transaction

The conditions of the transaction were based on the annual accounts of the surviving and non-surviving merger companies at December 31, 2003, the closing date of the last financial year of each of the two companies.

Sanofi-Aventis will own and be entitled to the property and rights transferred by Aventis as of the effective time of the merger, which will be December 31, 2004, effective retroactively as of January 1, 2004 for accounting purposes.

All the accounting transactions carried out by the non-surviving company as from January 1, 2004 until the effective time of the merger will be deemed to have been made on behalf of the surviving company.

For legal purposes, the effectiveness of the merger is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent:

- approval of this merger at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the shareholders of the non-surviving company;
- approval by the shareholders of the surviving company at an extraordinary general meeting of this merger, the waiver of the pre-emptive rights to subscribe for the shares to be issued as a result of the assumption of the subscription stock options and, to the extent necessary, the waiver of the pre-emptive rights to the shares to be issued as a result of the assumption of the obligations with respect to the BSAs;
- absence or dismissal of all actions taken in the competent courts against the AMF's decision that there was no requirement for Sanofi-Aventis to proceed with a squeeze out of Aventis shares.

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

The merger will be retroactive as of January 1, 2004 for tax purposes and will be governed by the tax treatment provided for under Article 210 A of the French Tax Code (Code Général des Impôts) as regards corporate income tax and under Article 816 I of the Code as regards registration duties.

1.3 Description, valuation and compensation paid for assets transferred

Description and valuation of assets transferred

Under the terms of the merger proposal, the assets transferred consist of all the assets and liabilities of the non-surviving company that appear on its balance sheet at December 31, 2003. The assets transferred are valued at their net book value at December 31, 2003.

The aggregate value of assets transferred is €27,109,225,679, after taking into account the dividend paid in July 2004 for FY 2003 and the amount of cash proceeds from the exercise of stock options between January 1, 2004 and October 8, 2004.

Consideration paid for assets transferred

As the merger is a follow-on to the public offer, the merger exchange ratio is equivalent to the exchange ratio applied in the all stock election in the offer, before giving effect to the adjustment in respect of the Aventis dividend (1.1739), and leads to an exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for 23 Aventis shares.

Because Sanofi-Aventis cannot become the owner of its own shares, if the merger is completed, it will waive its rights as a shareholder of the non-surviving company. Consequently, to remunerate shareholders of the non-surviving company other than itself, Sanofi-Aventis will issue 19,122,885 new shares of €2 per share and will record an increase in share capital of €38,245,770.

As the total net assets transferred by Aventis to Sanofi-Aventis amount to €27,109,225,679, this gives rise to the following:

- first, the difference between the portion of net assets transferred corresponding to the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis (€26,562,418,574) and the book value of the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis (€51,840,140,695) will constitute a merger loss of €25,277,722,121;
- second, the difference between the portion of net assets transferred corresponding to the Aventis shares held by shareholders other than Sanofi-Aventis (€546,807,105) and the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis (€38,245,770) will constitute a merger premium of €508,561,335.

The extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will be asked to approve a resolution to allocate the merger loss, which has no economic significance, to the share issue premium generated as part of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis, resulting from the offer and the reopened offer in consideration for the Aventis shares tendered to these offers.

Moreover, the merger premium may be allocated in any manner that conforms with current regulations, as decided by the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders. In particular, the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders, convened to approve the agreement and plan of merger, will be asked to authorize the board of directors of Sanofi-Aventis to allocate the merger premium in order to reconstitute in the liabilities of Sanofi-Aventis, the regulatory reserves and provisions that existed on the balance sheet of Aventis, and, in particular, the special reserve for long-term gains in the amount of €319,518,918, as well as any other reserve or provision that it is deemed necessary to reconstitute.

In accordance with Article L. 228-101 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), Sanofi-Aventis will be automatically substituted for Aventis with respect to its obligations to the holders of the BSAs. As a result, the number of Sanofi-Aventis shares to which the holders of Aventis BSAs shall be entitled will be determined by applying the merger exchange ratio of 1.17391 to the number of Aventis shares for which the BSAs would have been exercisable. The BSAs issued in 2002 will be exercisable for a maximum number of 108,812 Sanofi-Aventis shares and the BSAs issued in 2003 will be exercisable for a maximum number of 193,174 Sanofi-Aventis shares, subject to any subsequent financial adjustments.

2. Verification of the Relevance of the Relative Values Assigned to the Shares of the Companies Participating in the Transaction

2.1 Procedures carried out

We carried out such procedures as we deemed necessary, in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie Nationale des Commissaires aux Comptes), in order:

- to verify that the relative values assigned to the shares of the companies involved in the transaction are relevant; and
- to assure ourselves that any events occurring during the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger are not such that they call into question the values adopted.

These procedures cannot be likened to the due diligence procedures that would be carried out by a lender or purchaser and do not include all work required for such due diligence.

We met with the persons in charge of the merger, both to understand the proposed transaction and its context, and to analyse its terms and conditions for economic, accounting, legal and tax purposes.

We familiarised ourselves with the financial terms and conditions and the results of the public offer made by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004 on the Aventis shares; this offer enabled Sanofi-Aventis to take control of the Aventis group on August 20, 2004.

In order to verify the reliability of the financial statements and accounting information provided to us, we assured ourselves that the statutory auditors of the non-surviving company and the surviving company had issued an unqualified opinion on the annual consolidated accounts for the year ended December 31, 2003 and that they had attested the half-year consolidated accounts for the six months ended June 30, 2004 and the interim accounting position prepared as of August 31, 2004. In fulfilling the objectives of our engagement, we familiarised ourselves with their work papers.

We reviewed the conclusions resulting from the work carried out by Aventis's legal and financial experts on the principal business and financial contracts of the Aventis group.

We familiarised ourselves with a selection of financial analyses published on the Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis groups during the past fifteen months.

We analysed the financial analyses of the values of the Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis groups made available to us by the Sanofi-Aventis group in order to assess the fairness of the exchange ratio by reference to all the relative values that were determined.

More specifically, with respect to the verification of the factors used to determine the relative values and the exchange ratio, we assessed in particular the relevance of the criteria adopted by the management, verified the mathematical accuracy of the calculations and carried out sensitivity analyses of the exchange ratio with respect to different variables and assumptions.

We also relied on the work that we carried out in our capacity as merger auditors responsible for assessing the value of the proposed asset transfers.

2.2 Verification of the relevance of relative values assigned to the shares

As the merger is a follow-on to the public offer, the merger exchange ratio was determined based on the same factors as those used to assess the exchange ratio for the all stock election in the offer, supplemented by any updated information available.

Review of valuation factors ruled out by the management

Sanofi-Aventis was unable to carry out a review of non-public Aventis documents that were not public prior to initiating and completing its offer. As the merger was decided immediately on taking control, Aventis's new management has not prepared any projections.

However, the financial terms and conditions of the offer were determined primarily on the basis of a consensus on the value calculated by financial analysts based on future cash flows. We assured ourselves that the financial analysts have not, since the initial offer, significantly altered their projections for the sales of the main products of Aventis and that management of Sanofi-Aventis had no knowledge of any event that could alter its view of the prospects for Aventis that were used to determine the financial parameters of the offer.

Net book value and net revalued asset value

Management justifiably ruled out net book value as a criterion, because the two groups have been in existence long enough such that the book values are no longer in line with market values.

The net revalued asset value methodology requires revaluing intangible assets (the drug portfolio) based on discounted future cash flows; this could not be performed due to the lack of any projections developed by Aventis's new management.

Comparable transaction multiples

In addition, a comparison based on market multiples for listed companies or multiples paid for comparable transactions was not made. This decision seems appropriate to us, because:

- Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis are listed companies and the price of their shares before the initial offer is a meaningful reference, given the liquidity of their shares;
- Developing a sample of truly comparable companies or transactions would appear to be a futile exercise.

Review of financial analyses used by the management

Share price

Management calculated an exchange ratio based on actual share prices over a period of one to twelve months ending on January 21, 2004, the last trading day prior to the market rumours announcing a merger between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, and on August 30, 2004, the last trading day before Sanofi-Aventis announced its intention to review a merger proposal.

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

Overall, the exchange ratio observed is between 0.87 and 0.91 for the period before January 21, 2004 and between 1.17 and 1.18 for the period before August 30, 2004.

Share price appears to us to be a key measure of the relative value of Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, because the two groups are listed in Paris and in New York, trading volumes in their shares are high and they are followed by many analysts on a regular basis.

We conducted an analysis of share price trends. This analysis shows that, since the initial offer was announced in January 2004, the Aventis share price has not been correlated to its fundamentals but rather to the public offer.

We assured ourselves of the relevance of the share prices before January 21, 2004 with regard to the valuation of the two groups determined by financial analysts on the basis of projected future cash flows. We also assured ourselves that the financial analysts have not, since the initial offer, significantly altered their projections for the sales of the main products of Aventis.

Weighing of factors

Management determined exchange ratios by comparing the earnings capacity of the two groups in terms of consolidated net income per share and dividend per share for the years 2001, 2002 and 2003 and for the first half of 2004.

This analysis results in an exchange ratio implied by income per share of between 1.24 and 1.51 and implied by dividends, of between 0.80 and 0.88.

Consolidated net income before amortization of goodwill, exceptional and non-recurring items is a suitable criterion; it enables the two groups to be assessed based on their recurring earnings capacity while taking their financial structures into account. Dividends do not appear to be a meaningful criterion because the dividend policy depends partly on choices made by the shareholders of each group.

As the Aventis group has sold most of its significant non-core businesses (Aventis Crop Science in 2002, Aventis Behring in 2004), we deemed it necessary also to calculate the ratio implied by the core businesses by neutralising the contribution of the divested businesses to 2001-2003 earnings. Hence, we calculated earnings ratios based on unaudited consolidated figures published in Aventis's annual reports.

To take into account the difference in growth rates between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis, we expanded the reference period to the years 2004 to 2006, based on a consensus of projected adjusted earnings based on a selection of financial analysts' reports used for the improved public offer.

2001 — actual figures	1.51	(1.51)
2002 — actual figures	1.25	(1.49)
2003 — actual figures	1.24	(1.36)
2004 half-year	1.27
2004 — based on consensus of financial analysts	1.24
2005 — based on consensus of financial analysts	1.14
2006 — based on consensus of financial analysts	1.07

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

The difference in growth rates between Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis leads to ratios that are more favorable to Aventis for actual figures and more favorable to Sanofi-Aventis for projections for the years 2005 and 2006.

3. ASSESSMENT OF THE FAIRNESS OF THE PROPOSED MERGER EXCHANGE RATIO

3.1 Procedures carried out

We carried out such procedures as we deemed necessary, in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie Nationale des Commissaires aux Comptes), in order:

- to assess the fairness of the merger exchange ratio; and
- to assure ourselves that any events occurring during the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger are not such that they are likely to call into question the fairness of the exchange ratio.

In particular, we relied on the work described previously, which we conducted for the purpose of verifying the relevance of the relative value of the shares of the companies involved in the transaction.

We then assessed the fairness of the proposed exchange ratio in the light of the terms and conditions of the mixed cash and share offer made by Sanofi-Aventis for the Aventis shares.

3.2 Assessment of the fairness of the exchange ratio

The approaches used to assess the relative values of the shares of Sanofi-Aventis and of Aventis are summarised in the table below:

	Implied exchange ratio
Share price — January 21, 2004	0.87-0.91
Share price — August 30, 2004	1.17-1.18
Earnings ratio — 2001 to 2003	1.24-1.51
Earnings ratio — 2001 to 2003 — core businesses	1.36-1.51
Earnings ratio — 2004 to 2006	1.07-1.24
Dividend ratio	0.80-0.88

This exchange ratio is equivalent to the exchange ratio offered under the all stock election in the offer (1.1739).

This mixed cash and stock offer met with a highly favourable response, both from Aventis shareholders, who tendered approximately 98% of the Aventis shares to the offer, and from Sanofi-Aventis shareholders, who overwhelmingly voted in favor of issuing the shares in consideration for the Aventis shares tendered to the offer.

Sanofi-Aventis's management indicated to us that it had no knowledge of any event that could call into question the financial parameters of the offer that enabled Sanofi-Aventis to take control of Aventis.

The 1.17391 merger exchange ratio reflects a premium of over 30% relative to the valuation implied by the share prices before January 21, 2004. This approach, which in our opinion is the most relevant criterion, results in a premium that is consistent with the premium observed for major takeovers in the sector.

Furthermore, we note that exchange ratio has been confirmed by the market since April 25, 2004, when Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis entered into their agreement regarding an improved offer.

This exchange ratio also falls within the range of ratios derived from the relative assessment of the past and prospective earnings capacities of the two groups, while noting that the implied ratio changes over time because of the different growth prospects of the two groups.

It is also worth noting that the merger will enable Aventis shareholders (and the beneficiaries of Aventis stock options) to benefit from the liquidity of the Sanofi-Aventis shares.

3.3 Conclusion

In conclusion, after carrying out our work, we are of the opinion that the merger exchange ratio of 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for 23 shares Aventis is fair.

To the Shareholders:

In performance of the engagement assigned to us by the order of the President of the Paris Commercial Court (Tribunal de Commerce) dated September 7, 2004 pertaining to the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis, we have prepared this report, as provided by Article L.225-147 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce).

The net assets transferred have been determined in the agreement and plan of merger signed by the representatives of the relevant companies on October 14, 2004.

It is our responsibility to express an opinion on whether the value of the assets transferred is over-estimated. For this purpose, we have carried out our assessment in accordance with the standards of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie Nationale des Commissaires aux Comptes) applicable to this engagement; these standards require that we carry out procedures intended to assess the value of the assets transferred, to ensure that this value is not over-estimated and to ascertain that it amounts to not less than the par value of the shares to be issued by the surviving company in the merger, increased by any share issuance premium.

In accordance with the provisions of Article L.228-101 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), it is also our responsibility to issue an opinion on the number of shares in the capital of the surviving company for which the securities giving access to the capital of the non-surviving company shall be exercisable.

At no time did we find ourselves in a situation of incompatibility, prohibition or disqualification as provided by law.

We ask that you take notice of our findings and our conclusion, which are presented below as follows:

1. Overview of the Transaction and Description of Assets Transferred

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

1. Overview of the Transaction and Description of Assets Transferred

The proposed transaction is the merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis.

1.1 Background of the transaction and companies involved

Background of the transaction

The present merger is a logical follow-on to the mixed cash and stock offer made by Sanofi-Aventis at the beginning of 2004 for all the shares of Aventis and intended to create Europe's largest and the world's third largest pharmaceutical company.

Sanofi-Aventis (formerly Sanofi-Synthélabo) is the No. 2 pharmaceutical company in France, No. 8 in Western Europe and No. 15 in the world (source: IMS data, September 2003). The shares of Sanofi-Aventis are listed on the Premier Marché of Euronext Paris SA and on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares.

Aventis is the No. 1 pharmaceutical company in France, No. 3 in Western Europe and No. 7 in the world (source: IMS data, September 2003). Its shares are listed on the Premier Marché of Euronext Paris SA, on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares and on the Xetra Stars market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange FWB.

The main consolidated data for the two groups are as follows:

Sanofi-Aventis's offer for the shares of Aventis was made simultaneously in France, Germany and in the United States and took place in two stages:

- A main mixed cash and stock offer and secondary all-stock and all-cash offers made on January 26, 2004 (prospectus approved by the AMF under visa no. 04-0090 on February 12, 2004);
- An improved offer compared with the unsolicited offer, made on April 26, 2004 (prospectus approved by the AMF under visa no. 04-0384 on May 7, 2004), which was reopened from August 13, until September 6, 2004.

This second offer followed the agreement signed by Aventis and Sanofi-Aventis on April 25, 2004 regarding the conditions of an improved offer.

At a combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting held on June 23, 2004, the shareholders of Sanofi-Aventis voted overwhelmingly in favour of the business combination. The response of the Aventis shareholders was highly favourable, and they tendered 95.47% of Aventis's share capital to the offer on July 31, 2004.

Consequently, the Sanofi-Aventis group took control of Aventis on August 20, 2004 (the delivery/settlement date for the Aventis shares tendered to the offer). Sanofi-Aventis received authorisation from its board of directors, at the board meeting of 30 August, to study a merger before December 31, 2004, based on the exchange ratio under the all-stock election in the offers (1.1739).

After the closing date of the reopened offer, which expired on September 6, 2004, Sanofi-Aventis held approximately 97.98% of the share capital and 98.02% of the voting rights of Aventis.

In sum, the simplified organisation chart of the companies involved in the merger is as follows:

The present merger is therefore a logical follow-on to the takeover offer initiated by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004, which met with a highly favorable response from the shareholders of both Sanofi-Aventis and Aventis.

The purpose of the merger is to simplify the new entity's legal structures and to facilitate the integration of the two groups by enabling their operating assets to be managed directly and dynamically. In addition, this merger will enable Aventis shareholders (and the Aventis optionholders) to benefit from the liquidity of Sanofi-Aventis shares.

Surviving company (société absorbante)

Sanofi-Aventis has issued no securities other than the shares that make up its share capital and the subscription and purchase stock options described in the agreement and plan of merger.

Sanofi-Aventis is a holding company. Its head office is located at 174, avenue de France-75013 Paris, and it is registered with the Paris corporate and trade register under number 395 030 844.

Aventis is a société anonyme with share capital of €3,085,061,398.72 divided into 807,607,696 fully-paid shares of €3.82 per share, all of the same class. Aventis does not hold any of its own shares in treasury.

Aventis has issued securities other than those shares that make up its share capital. These securities, which are described in the merger agreement, include, in particular, stock options and equity warrants (bons de souscription d'actions, BSAs). The right to exercise subscription stock options has been suspended from October 8, 2004 until December 31, 2004.

Aventis is a holding company. Its head office is located at 16, avenue de l'Europe, Espace Européen de l'Entreprise-67300 Schiltigheim. Aventis is registered with the Strasbourg corporate and trade register under number 542 064 308.

Relations between the companies

On October 14, the date of the agreement and plan of merger:

- Sanofi-Aventis directly owned 791,317,831 Aventis shares, or approximately 97.98% of the share capital and 98.02% of the voting rights in Aventis, and 257,248 BSAs.
- Aventis directly owned 27,347,271 Sanofi-Aventis shares, or approximately 1.96% of Sanofi-Aventis's share capital, after tendering its Aventis treasury shares pursuant to an all-stock election in the offer made by Sanofi-Aventis for Aventis shares on April 26, 2004.

1.2 Terms and conditions of the transaction

The conditions of the transaction were based on the annual accounts of the surviving and non-surviving companies at December 31, 2003, the closing date of the last financial year of each of the two companies.

Sanofi-Aventis will own and be entitled to the property and rights transferred by Aventis as of the effective time of the merger, which will be December 31, 2004, effective retroactively as of January 1, 2004 for accounting purposes.

All the accounting transactions carried out by the non-surviving company as from January 1, 2004 until the effective time of the merger will be deemed to have been made on behalf of the surviving company.

For legal purposes, the effectiveness of the merger is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent:

- approval of this merger at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the shareholders of the non-surviving company;
- approval by the shareholders of the surviving company at an extraordinary general meeting of this merger, the waiver of the pre-emptive rights to subscribe for the shares to be issued as a result of the assumption of the subscription stock options and, to the extent necessary, the waiver of the pre-emptive rights to the shares to be issued as a result of the assumption of the obligations with respect to the BSAs;
- absence or dismissal of all actions taken in the competent courts against the AMF's decision that there was no requirement for Sanofi-Aventis to proceed with a squeeze out of Aventis shares.

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

The merger will be retroactive as of January 1, 2004 for tax purposes and will be governed by the tax treatment provided for under Article 210 A of the French Tax Code (Code Général des Impôts) as regards corporate income tax and under Article 816 I of the Code as regards registration duties.

1.3 Description, valuation and consideration paid for assets transferred

Description of assets transferred

Under the terms of the agreement and plan of merger submitted to you for approval, the assets transferred and liabilities assumed consist of all rights, property and obligations of the non-surviving company and can be summarised as follows:

Intangible fixed assets	€16,046,419
Tangible fixed assets	€13,507,953

Provisions for liabilities and charges	€405,857,469
Liabilities	€12,673,734,581
Liability suspense account.....	€46,692,996
Transactions during the interim period(3)	€428,610,003
Plus:
Cash proceeds from the exercise of subscription stock options and BSAs between January 1, 2004 and October 8, 2004	€209,938,407
Less:
Dividends paid by Aventis on 15 June 2004 for FY 2003	€638,548,410
Total net assets transferred (1)-(2)-(3)	€27,109,225,679

Valuation of assets transferred

Management has fixed the value of the assets transferred and of the liabilities assumed at their net book value at December 31, 2003, as shown on the annual accounts approved at the combined ordinary and extraordinary general meeting of Aventis shareholders on June 11, 2004.

Consideration paid for assets transferred

As the merger is a follow-on to the public offer, the merger exchange ratio is equivalent to the exchange ratio applied in the all stock election in the offer, before giving effect to the adjustment in respect of the Aventis dividend (1.1739) and corresponds to 27 Sanofi-Aventis shares for 23 Aventis shares.

Because Sanofi-Aventis cannot become the owner of its own shares, if the merger is completed, it will waive its rights as a shareholder of the non-surviving company. Consequently, to remunerate shareholders of the non-surviving company other than itself, Sanofi-Aventis will issue 19,122,885 new shares of €2 per share and will record an increase in share capital of €38,245,770.

As the total net assets transferred by Aventis to Sanofi-Aventis amount to €27,109,225,679, this gives rise to the following:

- first, the difference between the portion of net assets transferred corresponding to the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis (€26,562,418,574) and the book value of the Aventis shares held by Sanofi-Aventis (€51,840,140,695) will constitute a merger loss of €25,277,722,121;
- second, the difference between the portion of net assets transferred corresponding to the Aventis shares held by shareholders other than Sanofi-Aventis (€546,807,105) and the amount of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis (€38,245,770) will constitute a merger premium of €508,561,335.

The extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders will be asked to approve a resolution to allocate the merger loss, which has no economic significance, to the share issue premium generated as part of the increase in the share capital of Sanofi-Aventis resulting from the offer and the reopened offer in consideration for the Aventis shares tendered to these offers.

Moreover, the merger premium may be allocated in any manner that conforms with current regulations, as decided by the general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders. In particular, the extraordinary general meeting of Sanofi-Aventis shareholders, convened to approve the agreement and plan of merger, will be asked to authorize the board of directors of Sanofi-Aventis to allocate the merger premium in order to reconstitute in the liabilities of Sanofi-Aventis, the regulatory reserves and provisions that existed on the balance sheet of Aventis, and, in particular, the special reserve for long-term gains in the amount of €319,518,918, as well as any other reserve or provision that it is deemed necessary to reconstitute.

In accordance with Article L.228-101 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), Sanofi-Aventis will be automatically substituted for Aventis with respect to its obligations to the holders of the BSAs. As a result, the number of Sanofi-Aventis shares to which the holders of Aventis BSAs shall be entitled will be determined by applying the merger exchange ratio of 1.17391 to the number of Aventis shares for which the BSAs would have been exercisable. The BSAs issued in 2002 will be exercisable for a maximum number of 108,812 Sanofi-Aventis shares and the BSAs issued in 2003 will be exercisable for a maximum number of 193,174 Sanofi-Aventis shares, subject to any subsequent financial adjustments.

2. Procedures and Assessment of the Value of Assets Transferred

2.1 Procedures carried out

We carried out such procedures as we deemed necessary, in accordance with the standard of the National Society of Auditors (Compagnie Nationale des Commissaires aux Comptes), in order:

- to verify the existence of the assets transferred and the liabilities assumed;
- to check the value assigned to the assets transferred; and
- to assure ourselves that any events occurring during the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger are not such that they call into question the valuation of the assets transferred.

These procedures cannot be likened to the due diligence procedures that would be carried out by a lender or purchaser and do not include all work required for such due diligence.

Merger of Aventis with and into Sanofi-Aventis

We met with the persons in charge of the merger, both to understand the proposed transaction and its context, and to analyse its terms and conditions for economics, accounting, legal and tax purposes.

We familiarised ourselves with the financial terms and conditions and the results of the public offer made by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004 on the Aventis shares; this offer enabled Sanofi-Aventis to acquire 98% of the shares that make up the share capital of Aventis.

In order to verify the reliability of the financial statements and accounting information provided to us, we assured ourselves that the statutory auditors of the non-surviving company had issued an unqualified opinion on the annual consolidated accounts for the year ended December 31, 2003 and that they had attested the half-year consolidated and parent-company accounts for the six months ended June 30, 2004 and the interim accounting position prepared as of August 31, 2004. In fulfilling the objectives of our engagement, we familiarised ourselves with their work on the parent-company accounts and with summaries provided by the local auditors in the main countries.

We familiarised ourselves with the conclusions resulting from the work of Aventis's legal and financial experts on the principal business and financial contracts of the Aventis group. We also assured ourselves of the ownership and free availability of the principal securities transferred by the non-surviving company, Aventis.

To assess the aggregate value of the assets transferred, we relied on the work that we carried out as part of our engagement to analyse the consideration paid for the assets transferred.

2.2 Assessment of the value of assets transferred

Method of determining the value of assets transferred

The parties decided to value the transfer based on the net book value of its constituent items in the accounts of the non-surviving company.

This method is authorised by applicable regulations in force until the end of calendar year 2004 and does not elicit any other comment from us.

Aventis serves as a holding company for a group of pharmaceutical subsidiaries and conducts "corporate" activities on the group's behalf.

We assessed the individual value of the equity holdings transferred using the valuation methods customarily used for subsidiaries (share of net assets, market multiples) and we have no comments to make with respect to this work. With respect to financial instruments specifically, management confirmed to us that there were no elements likely to appreciably affect the value of the assets transferred.

With respect to the period between January 1, 2004 and the merger, we familiarised ourselves with the interim position at August 31, 2004, which shows a profit, and management confirmed that the company is also operating at a profit in the current financial year.

Direct approach to aggregate value of assets transferred

The assets are transferred at their net book value. We find that the value of the net assets transferred (€27 billion) is far lower than Aventis's market capitalisation (€43 billion at January 21, 2004, €55 billion at August 30, 2004) and than Aventis's market value as evidenced by the public offer made by Sanofi-Aventis in 2004 for all the shares of Aventis (€55 billion).

In light of the foregoing and upon completion of our work, we found no matters that were likely to call into question the aggregate value assigned to the assets to be transferred by the non-surviving company.

2.3 Conclusion

In conclusion, after carrying out our work,

- in our opinion, the value of €27,109,225,679 assigned to the assets transferred is not over-valued and, as a result, the value of the net assets transferred is at least equal to the amount of the increase in the share capital of the surviving company, increased by the share issuance premium; and
- we have no observations to make on the number of Sanofi-Aventis shares for which the BSAs issued by the non-surviving company will be exercisable.

BACKGROUND OF THE ACQUISITION OF AVENTIS

The following text combines and updates the disclosure regarding the background of the acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Aventis (formerly known as Sanofi-Synthelabo), as set forth in our prospectus, dated April 9, 2004, relating to the original offers and our prospectus supplement, dated May 27, 2004, relating to the revised offers, each of which were filed under Rule 424(b) with the SEC on April 12, 2004 and May 28, 2004, respectively. References in this Annex D to Sanofi-Synthelabo refer to Sanofi-Aventis by its former name.

Since the completion of the merger of Sanofi and Synthelabo in 1999, the management of Sanofi-Synthelabo has periodically analyzed and assessed the strategic options for Sanofi-Synthelabo as part of its ongoing effort to strengthen Sanofi-Synthelabo's business, to improve its product mix and geographical market diversification, and to create value for its shareholders.

At the time of the merger, Elf Aquitaine (itself subsequently acquired by Total) and Valorisation et Gestion Financière, on the one hand, and L'Oréal, on the other hand, the controlling shareholders of Sanofi and Synthelabo, respectively, entered into a shareholders' agreement providing, among other things, that they would act in concert with respect to their shareholdings in Sanofi-Synthelabo and agreeing to certain restrictions on the transfer of their Sanofi-Synthelabo ordinary shares. The shareholders' agreement had an initial term of six years, subject to a termination option, to be exercised by either party no later than December 2, 2003. On November 24, 2003, Total, Elf Aquitaine and Valorisation et Gestion Financière and L'Oréal amended the shareholders' agreement so that it terminates on December 2, 2004 according to its terms. For further information on the shareholders' agreement, see "Recent Developments" and Item 7.A "Major Shareholders and Related Party Transactions — Major Shareholders — Shareholders' Agreement" of Sanofi-Synthelabo's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2003.

As part of Sanofi-Synthelabo's ongoing strategic review, during 2002 Sanofi-Synthelabo retained Merrill Lynch Capital Markets (France) S.A.S., or Merrill Lynch (France), an affiliate of Merrill Lynch & Co., as its financial adviser to assist its management in assessing Sanofi-Synthelabo's strategic options. Merrill Lynch (France) assisted management in analyzing the competitive dynamic in the worldwide pharmaceutical industry, the strategies pursued by key competitors of Sanofi-Synthelabo and the relative strengths and weaknesses of those competitors.

In 2002 and 2003, Jean-François Dehecq, Sanofi-Synthelabo's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, while attending professional meetings of the pharmaceutical industry, including meetings of the European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations, took part in informal conversations with certain members of the Aventis management board (directoire) and supervisory board (conseil de surveillance), including Igor Landau, Chairman of the management board, regarding the future of the pharmaceutical industry. In the course of these conversations, among other potential scenarios for the industry, the merits of a possible future combination of Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis was discussed in general terms.

During the first eight months of 2003, a small number of Sanofi-Synthelabo's top management, assisted by representatives of Merrill Lynch (France), further studied Sanofi-Synthelabo's strategic alternatives, including the possibility of a strategic combination with Aventis in strict confidence. Throughout this period no discussions or negotiations regarding any potential business combination took place with Aventis's management.

In September 2003, Mr. Dehecq asked the senior management team which had been studying the possibility of a business combination with Aventis to consider the resources and the nature of the preparations that would be required if Sanofi-Synthelabo were to pursue a public offer for all the Aventis securities.

In Fall 2003, Mr. Dehecq first discussed with Total and L'Oréal, Sanofi-Synthelabo's controlling shareholders, the possibility of a strategic business combination with Aventis, through a public offer for all the Aventis securities. Total and L'Oréal agreed with Mr. Dehecq that the possibility of such a transaction merited further detailed analysis and consideration.

Also, in Fall 2003, Sanofi-Synthelabo assembled a team of outside advisers to assist in analyzing the feasibility of a possible public offer for all the Aventis securities, including an unsolicited public offer. Sanofi-

Synthelabo retained BNP Paribas to act as its co-financial adviser with respect to any potential public offer for all of the Aventis securities. For legal counsel, Sanofi-Synthelabo retained Linklaters, Darrois Villey Maillot Brochier and Rambaud Martel to advise on French law and potential European antitrust issues and retained Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz to advise on U.S. securities law issues and related matters, and Arnold & Porter to advise on U.S. antitrust considerations. Sanofi-Synthelabo also retained Publicis SA as its communications adviser.

Through the end of 2003, Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management team worked with Sanofi-Synthelabo's advisers to analyze the opportunity presented by a combination with Aventis and begin preliminary preparations for a possible unsolicited offer for all the Aventis securities that would be presented directly to Aventis's shareholders. During this period, drafts of the applicable offer documentation required to be filed with stock market and securities regulators in France, Germany and the United States were prepared and Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management and legal advisers negotiated with BNP Paribas and an affiliate of Merrill Lynch & Co. the terms of the debt that would be required to finance the cash portion of the offer consideration.

During December 2003, Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management had confidential discussions with representatives of its controlling shareholders, at the end of which each controlling shareholder agreed that Sanofi-Synthelabo's management continue to analyze the possibility of an offer for all the Aventis securities. Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management and advisers periodically updated representatives of its controlling shareholders on the progress of the preparations for a possible offer for all the Aventis securities through January 2004.

In mid-December 2003, Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management and advisers reviewed with Mr. Dehecq various aspects of a possible transaction with Aventis, including the potential financial impact of a possible transaction with Aventis under a range of possible offer terms. However, no decision was made to proceed with the offer or regarding the definitive terms of any offer.

Prior to the announcement of the offers, Sanofi-Synthelabo's U.S. antitrust counsel and a member of Sanofi-Synthelabo's management engaged in confidential discussions with members of the staff of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, or FTC, regarding potential competition issues arising out of a possible tender offer for Aventis securities by Sanofi-Synthelabo and related matters. In addition, Sanofi-Synthelabo's European antitrust counsel and a member of Sanofi-Synthelabo's management engaged in confidential discussions with members of staff of the European Commission regarding potential competition issues. On January 7, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo submitted confidentially a draft Form CO to the European Commission. Prior to the announcement of the offers, representatives of Sanofi-Synthelabo's U.S. legal advisers contacted the staff of the SEC to discuss certain aspects of the U.S. offer and related documentation.

On January 7, 2004, Mr. Dehecq received an unsolicited call from Mr. Landau. During the telephone conversation that followed, Mr. Dehecq did not respond to Mr. Landau's inquiry as to whether Sanofi-Synthelabo was preparing to make an unsolicited offer to acquire Aventis.

On January 16, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo issued a press release stating:

Following market rumors, and at the express request of the French Financial Regulatory Authority — Autorité des marchés financiers (AMF) — Sanofi-Synthelabo indicates that, while it continues to evaluate any transaction that might consolidate its medium- and long-term future, it is not engaged in any negotiation to that effect.

Subsequently on January 16, 2004, Aventis issued a press release stating:

Responding to market speculation concerning a potential transaction, and at the request of the French stock market authority AMF, Aventis wishes to make clear that it is not engaged in any discussions.

Prior to making a recommendation to proceed with the offer for Aventis, Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management had confidential discussions with representatives of its controlling shareholders, at the end of which each controlling shareholder indicated its support for Sanofi-Synthelabo's management to proceed with such recommendation, subject to a detailed presentation to the board. Total and L'Oréal have indicated to Sanofi-

Synthelabo that, pursuant to the shareholders' agreement by which they are bound, Total and L'Oréal have consulted each other with respect to the offers in a manner satisfactory to each of them.

On January 25, 2004, the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors (conseil d'administration) held a special meeting in Paris, France, at which Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management and its financial and legal advisers were present. Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management gave presentations on the background and strategic rationale for the proposed acquisition of Aventis. Representatives of Sanofi-Synthelabo's financial advisers assisted in the review of the financial aspects of the proposed transaction. Representatives of Sanofi-Synthelabo's French and German legal advisers reviewed the legal aspects of the French offer and the German offer and a representative of Sanofi-Synthelabo's U.S. legal adviser reviewed the legal aspects of the U.S. offer and related matters. The Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors also reviewed the regulatory considerations, including European and U.S. antitrust matters, of the proposed transaction. Following extensive discussion and deliberation, the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors voted unanimously:

- to approve the French offer, the German offer and the U.S. offer on the terms and conditions set forth in this prospectus and to approve the terms of the related letter of engagement between Sanofi-Synthelabo and Merrill Lynch and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to finalize and execute any related documents and to take all necessary steps to commence the offers, including filing the French offer documentation with the AMF, the German offer documentation with the BaFin and the U.S. offer documentation with the SEC;
- to approve the terms of the credit agreement negotiated in connection with the offers and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to finalize and execute the definitive credit agreement and any related agreements (in accordance with French law, Lindsay Owen-Jones, who is also a member of the board of directors of BNP Paribas, recused himself from this vote);
- to approve the terms of the guarantee that Sanofi-Synthelabo may put in place with respect to the indebtedness of certain of its subsidiaries under the terms of the credit agreement approved above and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to finalize and execute the definitive guarantee and any related agreements (in accordance with French law, Mr. Owen-Jones, who is also a member of the board of directors of BNP Paribas, recused himself from this vote);
- to decide to call an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders for the purpose of approving the issuance of the additional Sanofi-Synthelabo ordinary shares to be issued in exchange for the Aventis securities pursuant to the terms of the offers; and
- to approve the terms of the letters of engagement between Sanofi-Synthelabo and BNP Paribas and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to negotiate and execute the definitive letters of engagement and any related agreements (in accordance with French law, Mr. Owen-Jones, who is also a member of the board of directors of BNP Paribas, recused himself from this vote).

Late in the evening on January 25, 2004, Mr. Dehecq called Jean-René Fourtou, Vice Chairman of the Aventis Supervisory Board, and Mr. Landau to inform them that Sanofi-Synthelabo was proceeding with its offer for Aventis.

On January 26, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo filed its French offer documentation with the AMF and the AMF published the material terms of the French offer in an official notice (avis de dépôt). On January 26, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo publicly announced its intention to make the U.S. offer, the French offer and the German offer by issuing a press release that stated (most footnotes and annex omitted):

Sanofi-Synthelabo announced a share and cash offer on Aventis's shares. The offer documents have been filed in Paris today and will be filed in the coming days in the United States and Germany.

Completion of the transaction will create the No. 1 pharmaceutical group in Europe, No. 3 in the world, with pro forma 2002 consolidated sales of €25 bn in the core business, and a strong direct presence in all major world markets. The headquarters will be in Paris.

The new group will benefit from a large portfolio of high-growth drugs, with 9 products that individually generated annual sales of over €500 million in 2003. It will enjoy firmly established positions in key fast-growth therapeutic fields such as cardiovascular, thrombosis, oncology, diabetes, central nervous system, urology, internal medicine and human vaccines.

The new group will have the third largest R&D budget in the industry, with close to 60 projects in late-stage clinical development (Phases II, III and life cycle management), to drive medium and long-term growth.

Annual synergies are expected to be €1.6 bn before tax, with 10% achievable in 2004, 60% in 2005 and 100% from 2006. The integration and restructuring costs are forecast at approximately €2 bn before tax.

The offer is attractive for Aventis's shareholders, with a premium of 15.2% based on the average share price over the month ended January 21, 2004, valuing each Aventis share at €60.43.

The transaction is expected to be accretive to adjusted net income per share of the core business from 2004 onwards.

The offer was approved unanimously by the Board of Directors of Sanofi-Synthelabo on January 25, 2004 and is fully supported by Total and L'Oréal, Sanofi-Synthelabo's principal shareholders.

"This major strategic project will enable us to take advantage of our exceptional complementary businesses to create a market leader with strong, sustainable, profitable growth for the benefit of patients," said Mr. Jean-François Dehecq.

"Our goals are:

- to accelerate expected revenue growth by tailoring our strategy to products and geographic markets*
- to optimize upcoming major product launches through the combined marketing and sales resources of Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis*
- to enhance R&D productivity by focusing combined resources on the most promising projects in order to continue providing patients with innovative medicines*
- to improve profitability through a strategy based on rapid growth and an optimized organization*

"The combination of Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis will create long-term value for all shareholders and will be successful thanks to the dedication of both groups' employees around a shared future".

The principal terms of the offer are as follows:

- a "standard entitlement" of 5 Sanofi-Synthelabo shares and €69 in cash for 6 Aventis shares (1)
- an "all stock election": 35 Sanofi-Synthelabo shares for 34 Aventis shares (1)
- an "all cash election": €60.43 for each Aventis share

(1) 0.8333 Sanofi-Synthelabo share and 411.50 in cash for 1 Aventis share for standard entitlement; 1.0294 Sanofi-Synthelabo shares for 1 Aventis share for all stock election.

Aventis shareholders can opt for either or a combination of the above, provided that, in aggregate, 81% of the Aventis shares tendered will be exchanged for Sanofi-Synthelabo shares and 19% of the Aventis shares tendered will be exchanged for cash.

The offer is conditional on obtaining over 50% of the issued share capital and the voting rights on a fully diluted basis, as well as expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the US Hart-Scott Rodino Act and no order being entered prohibiting the transaction.

A General Meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders will be convened to approve the issuance of the new shares to be exchanged for the Aventis shares tendered.

Sanofi-Synthelabo estimates that the offer should be completed during the second quarter of 2004.

On January 26, 2004, Total issued a press release that stated:

Sanofi-Synthelabo has just announced a public offer for the shares of Aventis. This operation would lead to the creation of the No. 1 player in the pharmaceutical industry in Europe and No. 3 worldwide.

Total has approved this offer and will approve the capital increase that will be submitted to the general meeting of the shareholders of Sanofi-Synthelabo.

On January 26, 2004, L'Oréal issued a press release that stated, among other matters, that "L'Oréal has approved Sanofi-Synthelabo's offer for Aventis announced today and will approve the issuance of new shares that will be submitted to the shareholders' meeting. L'Oréal will keep its Sanofi-Synthelabo shares."

On January 26, Aventis issued a press release that stated:

Aventis has been informed that Sanofi-Synthelabo has submitted an unsolicited offer to take control of Aventis.

The Aventis Management Board, led by Chairman Igor Landau, would like to emphasize that the offer, which was launched without any prior approach from Sanofi-Synthelabo, is of a hostile nature and does not take into account the wide range of risks associated with this move.

Furthermore, the offer contains a premium of 3.6% over the last closing price of the Aventis share. The Management Board of Aventis believes that this proposal is not in the best interest of its shareholders, because it offers inferior value compared to the achievement of the current stand-alone strategy and would compel its shareholders to assume significant risks associated with Sanofi's main products.

The Management Board believes that there are other scenarios with a stronger industrial and social rationale.

For these reasons, the Management Board has decided to recommend to the Supervisory Board to reject the offer. Jürgen Dormann, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, and Jean-René Fourtou, Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board, will also recommend a rejection of the offer.

On January 28, 2004, Aventis issued a press release that stated:

After a review and consideration of the terms and conditions of the unsolicited offer put forward by Sanofi-Synthelabo on Monday, January 26, 2004, the Supervisory Board of Aventis has unanimously concluded today that this bid is not in the best interest of Aventis shareholders and employees. Of the 16 Supervisory Board members, 15 were present at the meeting including the representative of Kuwait Petroleum Corp.

Consequently, the Supervisory Board recommends to the shareholders of Aventis to reject this hostile bid.

“The Supervisory Board supports the Management Board in its rejection of this offer and has mandated the Management Board to explore all scenarios offering a stronger industrial and social rationale for both our shareholders and our employees,” said Jürgen Dormann, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, and Jean-René Fourtou, Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

On January 29, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo caused the registration statement on Form F-4 (including a preliminary prospectus) relating to the Sanofi-Synthelabo securities to be exchanged for Aventis securities in the U.S. offer to be filed with the SEC. On January 30, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo caused the draft German offer documents (Angebotsunterlage und Verkaufsprospekt) to be filed with the BaFin.

On February 3, 2004, the AMF announced (Décision et Information n° 204C0182) that it had examined the terms of the French offer and declared it “recevable”, meaning that the AMF has cleared the terms of the French offer as complying with applicable French tender offer rules. In its clearance decision, the AMF announced that the expiration date of the French offer would be fixed after the AMF had received the recommendation statement (note d’information en réponse) of Aventis and after the AMF had received evidence that the FTC had “authorized” the acquisition. In addition, the AMF confirmed that it had agreed to set the expiration date for the French offer such that the French offer, the German offer and the U.S. offer would expire at the same time. Notice of the AMF’s clearance decision was published in BALO on February 6, 2004, with the result that, under applicable French regulations, the decision could be challenged in the French courts on or before February 16, 2004.

On February 5, 2004, Aventis announced its results for 2003. In presentations at a press conference and an analyst conference in London on February 5, 2004, Igor Landau confirmed that Aventis had firmly rejected Sanofi-Synthelabo’s offer.

On February 13, 2004, Aventis filed an appeal with the Court of Appeals of Paris challenging the AMF’s clearance decision (Décision et Information n° 204C0182), dated February 3, 2004. In its notice of appeal (déclaration de recours), Aventis committed to file a memorandum of law setting forth the reasons for its appeal within fifteen days.

On February 12, 2004, the French prospectus (note d’information) was granted visa n° 04-0090 by the AMF.

On February 16, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo announced its results for 2003. In presentations at information meetings in Paris and London on February 16, 2004, Jean-François Dehecq confirmed that Sanofi-Synthelabo believes that there is a compelling strategic rationale for the offers, that Sanofi-Synthelabo believes that the creation of the number one pharmaceutical company in Europe and the number three worldwide should allow the combined company to achieve strong, sustainable and profitable growth and to create value, and that Sanofi-Synthelabo believes that the terms of the offers are attractive to Aventis shareholders and to Sanofi-Synthelabo’s shareholders. For a discussion of the risk factors that you should consider carefully in evaluating the U.S. offer, see “Risk Factors”.

On February 16, 2004, the French prospectus (note d’information), in the final form that was granted visa n° 04-0090 by the AMF, was published in France in Les Echos, a French daily financial newspaper of general circulation. On February 16, 2004, the AMF published a notice (Décision et Information n° 204C0182) announcing that the French offer would open on February 17, 2004 and that the expiration date would be fixed at a later date. Also on February 16, 2004, Aventis filed a request with the Court of Appeals of Paris for a suspension of the AMF’s clearance decision.

On February 17, 2004, the French offer was opened.

On February 17, 2004, Aventis issued a press release that stated:

At a meeting today, the Supervisory Board of Aventis concluded unanimously that Sanofi-Synthelabo’s offer is clearly inadequate from a financial standpoint. In addition, the Supervisory Board determined that the offer entails important social risks with limited benefits for Aventis. All members of the Supervisory Board were present or represented at the meeting.

The Supervisory Board concluded that the Offer is not in the interest of the Company, its shareholders and its employees and, therefore, recommends that Aventis' shareholders do not tender their Aventis shares in the Offer. None of the Supervisory Board intend to tender their own securities into the Offer.

The Supervisory Board directed the Management Board to study all alternatives with stronger industrial, social and financial rationale in the interest of the shareholders and employees of Aventis.

The Supervisory Board resolved that the treasury shares held by Aventis and its subsidiaries not be tendered in the Offer, and gave authority to the Chairman of the Management Board to finalize and sign the "note d'information en réponse", which will be filed with the AMF and published following its approval.

On February 17, 2004, the AMF filed with the Court of Appeals of Paris its comments in response to Aventis's request for a suspension of the AMF's clearance decision.

On February 19, 2004, Total announced its results for 2003. In its press release issued on that day, Total stated:

With a 24.4% interest in Sanofi-Synthelabo, Total is closely monitoring the progress of the proposed merger with Aventis. Total supports the proposed transaction, considering that value will be created. Further, Total confirms that its strategy to divest over the medium term is unchanged. The Group anticipates that it will benefit from increased flexibility to exit at the appropriate times and to capture the value creation.

In its presentation in Paris on that day, Total publicly confirmed its strategy to divest its interest in the medium term, stating that there was "no urgency to divest". The presentation also stated Total's belief that the proposed combination will create value.

On February 20, 2004, L'Oréal announced its results for 2003. At a press conference on that day, Mr. Owen-Jones, L'Oréal's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, stated, in respect of Sanofi-Synthelabo: "We are going to maintain our shareholding in this company. We see this transaction as the logical outcome of our involvement in the pharmaceutical sector for several years. It's a choice."

On February 20, 2004, Aventis filed with the Court of Appeals of Paris its memorandum of law setting forth the reasons for its appeal against the AMF's decision (Décision et Information n° 204C0182), dated February 3, 2004, to clear the terms of the French offer as complying with applicable French tender offer rules. Also on February 20, 2004, at a hearing before the Court of Appeals of Paris to determine certain procedural matters, the AMF undertook to set the expiration date of the French offer to be at least eight days after the Court of Appeals of Paris announces its decision on the appeal by Aventis.

On February 23, 2004, Aventis filed an appeal with the Court of Appeals of Paris challenging the AMF's decision, dated February 12, 2004, to grant the French prospectus (note d'information) its visa (n° 04-0090). In its notice of appeal (déclaration de recours), Aventis committed to file a memorandum of law setting forth the reasons for its appeal within fifteen days.

On February 27, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo caused the final German offer documents to be filed with the BaFin.

On March 1, 2004, Aventis filed with the Court of Appeals of Paris its memorandum of law setting forth the reasons for its appeal against the AMF's decision to grant the French prospectus (note d'information) its visa (n° 04-0090). On March 1, 2004, the Court of Appeals of Paris issued its decision on Aventis' request for a suspension of the AMF's clearance decision (avis de recevabilité), ruling that because the AMF had undertaken to set the expiration date for the French offer to be at least eight days after the Court of Appeals of Paris announces its decision on the appeals by Aventis, there was no need to rule on Aventis' request for a suspension of the AMF's clearance decision.

On March 4, 2004, Aventis's recommendation statement (note d'information en réponse) responding to Sanofi-Synthelabo's offer was granted a visa (n° 04-0135) by the AMF.

On March 5, 2004 Aventis issued a press release stating that it had obtained the AMF's visa for its recommendation statement (note d'information en réponse) and setting forth the reasons why Aventis was rejecting Sanofi-Synthelabo's offer.

On March 9, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo caused its Form CO to be filed with the European Commission.

On March 10, 2004, the BaFin approved the German offer document for publication and March 15, 2004 was set as the date on which the German offer would open.

On March 11, 2004, at a press and analysts' conference in Paris, Mr. Dehecq made a presentation rebutting the arguments and correcting misstatements of fact made by Aventis in its recommendation statement.

On March 12, 2004, Novartis AG issued a press release that stated:

Responding to a request by AMF, the French market authority, Novartis AG confirms they are exploring the feasibility of a combination with Aventis. No decision has been taken yet whether or not to pursue such a transaction.

On March 18, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo announced the successful completion of the first round of syndication of the credit facility entered into in connection with the offers. See "Source and Amount of Funds".

On March 23, 2004, Novartis AG issued a press release that stated:

Following a second request from the French market authority (AMF) to clarify its position regarding Aventis, Novartis confirmed today that it had completed its feasibility study on a potential combination with Aventis. This study concluded that a business case is viable.

A working hypothesis included a potential spin-off of non-core Aventis and Novartis products into a new entity that would preserve jobs, specifically in France and Germany, creating a pharmaceutical company with product development, licensing and commercial operations including manufacturing.

Although the business case looks viable, the negative attitude of the French Government has influenced Novartis' consideration to a point that it will only enter into a negotiation phase if formally invited by the Aventis Supervisory Board and if the French Government assumed a neutral position.

The company stated that neither negotiations nor discussions about price have taken place.

On April 2, 2004, Aventis issued a press release that stated (footnote omitted):

At its meeting today, the Supervisory Board of Aventis reviewed the current status of the unsolicited offer from Sanofi-Synthelabo of January 26, 2004, and reiterated that this bid is not in the best interests of Aventis, its shareholders and its employees.

During the meeting, the Management Board reported to the Supervisory Board on the discussions between Aventis and Novartis. After consideration of this report, the Supervisory Board unanimously mandated the Management Board to enter into negotiations with Novartis on the terms and conditions of a potential combination and to pursue discussions with the relevant authorities in France and Germany to address their specific issues. Of the 16 Supervisory Board members, 15 were present or represented at the meeting including the representative of Kuwait Petroleum Corp.

"We are inviting Novartis to enter negotiations because we believe that such a combination would offer significant advantages for Aventis shareholders and employees as it would create the leading European pharmaceutical company with an attractive portfolio, a strong product pipeline and outstanding R&D capabilities,’’ Jürgen Dormann and Jean-René Fourtou, Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Aventis Supervisory Board, said in a joint statement. “We are aware of the views of the French and German governments and Aventis will do its best to address them.”

The Supervisory Board also proposed resolutions to be presented to Aventis shareholders for their approval at the next Aventis General Meeting, which is scheduled for May 19, 2004, including a dividend for 2003 of €0.82 per share and the renewal of 10 Supervisory Board member mandates for three years.

Furthermore, a resolution will be proposed to amend the Articles of Association of the company to limit shareholders’ voting rights to a maximum of 15%. Such a limitation, which has been adopted by several other listed companies in France, would prevent shareholders from obtaining control of the company with less than a 50% shareholding. This limitation would not apply if a shareholder obtained 50% or more of the voting rights following a public offer.

The Supervisory Board has also considered how to protect Aventis shareholders against the significant decline in value which would be caused by the potential loss of the Plavix patent. A resolution to issue warrants (Bons de Souscriptions d’Actions) will be proposed to shareholders in order to prevent Sanofi-Synthelabo from shifting their Plavix patent risk to Aventis shareholders.

Under the proposed terms, Aventis shareholders would receive one warrant for each Aventis share, each warrant conferring the right to subscribe to 0.28 new Aventis shares at their nominal value of €3.82 per share in the event that:

- the hostile offer of Sanofi-Synthelabo were to succeed against the recommendation of the Supervisory Board of Aventis, and
- a generic version of Plavix were launched in the U.S. before the end of 2007.

If all warrants were to be exercised, the resulting new shares would represent about 22% of Aventis’ increased share capital.

While the issuance of such warrants, if approved by Aventis shareholders, would provide protection against the Plavix patent risk, the Aventis Supervisory Board continues to consider the Sanofi-Synthelabo offer inadequate.

On April 2, 2004, Novartis issued a press release that stated:

Novartis takes note of the invitation by the Aventis Supervisory Board to enter into negotiations regarding a potential transaction.

Novartis now expects that the Supervisory Board and management of Aventis will clarify with the French Government the importance of such a transaction for the shareholders of Aventis as well as its benefits for employment and for research and development.

On April 5, 2004, Mr. Dehecq sent a letter to Mr. Landau which reflected concerns regarding Aventis’s publicity campaign of systematically denigrating Sanofi-Synthelabo and certain of its products, in particular Plavix®. The letter served as formal notice (mise en demeure) that Mr. Landau and Aventis desist from denigrating Sanofi-Synthelabo and its products immediately and reserved Sanofi-Synthelabo’s legal rights with respect to Aventis’s past actions as well as any actions that Aventis may take in the future in breach of the formal notification to desist.

On April 5, 2004, Aventis organized an analyst conference call with senior management to discuss in more detail the decisions taken by the Aventis Supervisory Board on April 2, 2004.

On April 5, 2004, pursuant to the HSR Act, Sanofi-Synthelabo filed with the FTC its notification and report form with respect to its proposed acquisition of Aventis. Accordingly, the initial waiting period with respect to the offers was initially scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. on May 5, 2004.

On April 8, 2004, Mr. Dehecq made a presentation regarding the proposed acquisition of Aventis by Sanofi-Synthelabo in Strasbourg to the Group Council of Aventis (le comité de groupe d'Aventis), the representative body of Aventis's French employees constituted pursuant to Article 439-1 of the French Labor Code.

On April 9, 2004, the proposed resolutions for the upcoming general meeting of Aventis shareholders were published in the Bulletin des Annonces Légales Obligatoires, or BALO, the French official legal gazette.

On April 9, 2004, the SEC declared effective the registration statement on Form F-4, which included a form of the prospectus dated April 9, 2004, a final version of which was filed on April 12, 2004, under Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act.

On April 12, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo filed with the SEC its tender offer statement on Schedule TO and commenced the U.S. offer. On that same day, Sanofi-Synthelabo began to deliver the prospectus, dated April 9, 2004, and the related U.S. offer documents, to holders of Aventis securities eligible to participate in the U.S. offer.

On April 13, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo announced that it had signed an agreement with GlaxoSmithKline regarding the divestment by Sanofi-Synthelabo, on a worldwide basis, of Arixtra®, Fraxiparine®, and related assets including the manufacturing facility located in Notre-Dame de Bondeville, France. For further information see "Recent Developments — Sale of Arixtra® and Fraxiparine®" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004 filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) on May 27, 2004.

On April 15, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo announced that in accordance with a resolution adopted on February 13, 2004, at its meeting held on April 14, 2004, the board of directors of Sanofi-Synthelabo had decided to distribute an interim dividend of €0.97 per Sanofi-Synthelabo ordinary share to be paid on May 5, 2004. For further information see "Recent Developments — Dividends" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004 filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) on May 27, 2004.

On April 15, 2004, Mr. Landau sent a letter to Mr. Dehecq in reply to Mr. Dehecq's letter, dated April 5, 2004, which had reflected concerns regarding Aventis's publicity campaign of systematically denigrating Sanofi-Synthelabo and certain of its products, in particular Plavix®. Mr. Landau's letter rejected the charge that Aventis had engaged in a campaign of systematically denigrating Sanofi-Synthelabo and its products. Mr. Landau asserted that Aventis's actions had been motivated by a duty to inform holders of Aventis securities about the possible risks associated with the offers.

On April 16, 2004, Aventis filed with the SEC its recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9, in which Aventis recommended that the holders of Aventis securities eligible to participate in the U.S. offer should not tender their Aventis securities in the U.S. offer.

On April 19, 2004, the AMF announced that it would announce its decision on April 23, 2004 regarding the legality of the warrants to subscribe for additional Aventis ordinary shares (bons de souscription d'actions) that Aventis has proposed for approval at the upcoming general meeting of Aventis shareholders. Pursuant to their proposed terms, these warrants, which we refer to as the Plavix® warrants, would become exercisable under certain conditions, including in the event that the offers are successful and that a generic version of Plavix® is introduced on the U.S. market on or before 2007.

On April 19, 2004, Aventis filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey alleging that the public filings and public statements of Sanofi-Synthelabo in connection with the U.S. offer violate Section 14(d) and Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act. For further information see "Recent Developments — Aventis Litigation Relating to the U.S. Offer" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004 filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) on May 27, 2004.

On April 21, 2004, Aventis announced that in order to satisfy any potential concerns regarding the principle of free and fair competition in bid situations, Aventis has informed the AMF that the draft resolution to be presented to the general meeting of Aventis shareholders, scheduled for May 19, 2004, that contemplates the issuance of the Plavix® warrants would provide for the cancellation of the issuance of those warrants in the event that a competing offer to that of Sanofi-Synthelabo is declared admissible by the AMF. On April 22, 2004, Novartis AG issued a press release announcing its results for the first quarter of 2004. That press release also stated that: “the Board of Directors of Novartis has decided to accept the offer of the Aventis supervisory board to negotiate conditions for a potential business combination. No assurances can be given that an agreement can be reached.”

On April 22, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo announced its consolidated sales figures for the first quarter of 2004. See “Recent Developments — Sanofi-Synthelabo 2004 First Quarter Sales” in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004, filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) on May 27, 2004.

On the afternoon of April 22, 2004, Mr. Dehecq and Mr. Landau met for the first time since the public announcement of the offers to discuss in general terms the possibility of an agreed offer by Sanofi-Synthelabo for Aventis, pursuant to which Sanofi-Synthelabo would make an improved offer and Aventis would recommend that offer to its shareholders. At this meeting, there was no discussion or negotiation of the amount by which Sanofi-Synthelabo would or should increase its offer. The meeting concluded with Mr. Dehecq and Mr. Landau agreeing to continue the discussions the next day.

On April 23, 2004, the AMF issued a press release announcing its decision regarding the Plavix® warrants and concluding “that the issuance of the warrants contemplated by Aventis is not consistent with the principles that regulate the orderly conduct of public tender offers.” Among other things, the press release stated that:

[The AMF] takes note, moreover, that the warrants, apparently intended to cover the Plavix® risk, already known by the market, could be exercised even though this risk has not materialized and could be cancelled even though this risk continues.

[The AMF] believes that the issuance of the warrants in reality constitutes an indirect method of unilaterally raising the price offered by the bidder which creates an ambiguous situation with respect to the bidder’s control of its offer terms and an uncertainty with respect to the well-ordered conduct of the offer procedures of which the AMF is the caretaker.

While the AMF reaffirms the principle according to which defensive measures against a public tender offer may be adopted during the pendency of an offer by a general meeting of shareholders convened for that purpose, the AMF believes that it would not be able to accept devices intended only to act in opposition to one of the possible participants and the use of which would be likely to provoke a sequence of reactions creating great disorder for the market.

For this reason the AMF considers that the plan to issue warrants in the manner set forth in the draft resolution contemplated by the Management Board and the Supervisory Board of Aventis, of which it takes notice, is inconsistent with the principles that regulate the orderly conduct of public tender offers and that the AMF has the responsibility to enforce.

On April 23, 2004, Mr. Dehecq, Mr. Lindsay Owen-Jones, a member of the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of L’Oréal, and Mr. Thierry Desmarest, a member of the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Total, on the one hand, met with Mr. Landau, Mr. Jürgen Dormann, Chairman of the Aventis supervisory board, and Mr. Jean-René Fourtou, Vice Chairman of the Aventis supervisory board, on the other hand. At this meeting the parties continued to discuss the possibility of an agreed transaction. At this meeting, there was no discussion or negotiation of the amount by which Sanofi-Synthelabo would or should increase its offer.

On April 23 and April 24, 2004, various advisors and representatives of Sanofi-Synthelabo had contacts and discussions with various advisors and representatives of Aventis to explore the possibility of an agreed transaction.

The foregoing discussions generally covered the following material topics: the possible name of the combined company; the corporate governance of the combined company, including the composition of its board of directors; its standing board committees and its management committee (Comité de direction); termination policies and severance arrangements; arrangements for the treatment of Aventis stock options and the warrants issued to German employees; and the ongoing commitment of the combined company to maintain the manufacturing and research facilities of Aventis located in Frankfurt, Germany.

On April 24, 2004, the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors (conseil d'administration) held a meeting in Paris, France, at which all of the members of the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors were present, except for Pierre Gilles de Gennes. Certain members of Sanofi-Synthelabo's senior management were present and representatives of Sanofi-Synthelabo's financial and legal advisers were available to answer questions raised by the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors. Mr. Dehecq presided at the meeting. The meeting received presentations confirming the strategic rationale for the proposed acquisition of Aventis, providing an update on the progress of the offers to date and the likely future timetable for the offers, and setting forth the proposed terms and conditions for the revised offers. The Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors also reviewed the regulatory considerations, including European and U.S. antitrust matters, of the revised offers. The Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors also received an update on the discussions and contacts that had taken place over the previous two days with representatives and advisors of Aventis with respect to the possibility of an agreed transaction between Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis. Following extensive discussion and deliberation, the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors voted unanimously:

- to approve the terms of the credit agreement negotiated in connection with the revised offers and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to negotiate and execute the definitive credit agreement and any related, necessary or useful agreements or contracts and generally to take all actions necessary or desirable in order to put in place the credit facility (in accordance with French law, Mr. Owen-Jones, who is also a member of the board of directors of BNP Paribas, recused himself from this vote);
- to approve the guarantee that may be granted by Sanofi-Synthelabo, in connection with the above credit agreement, with respect to the obligations of its subsidiaries that become borrowers under such credit agreement, for an amount equal to the principal amount able to be borrowed under tranche C of the credit facility (plus an amount of 15% of such principal amount to cover interest, fees and other related charges) and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full power of delegation) to negotiate and execute the final guarantee and any related, necessary or useful agreements or contracts and generally to take all actions necessary or desirable in relation to this matter (in accordance with French law, Mr. Owen-Jones, who is also a member of the board of directors of BNP Paribas, recused himself from the vote); this authorization was given in addition to the one given on December 10, 2003 but replaced the authorization given on January 25, 2004 in relation to the guarantee related to the credit facility entered into by Sanofi-Synthelabo on January 25, 2004;
- to approve (1) the revised offers on the terms and conditions set forth in this prospectus supplement, (2) the drafts of the revised offer documentation relating to the revised French offer and the revised U.S. offer, (3) the draft information notice required to be published under regulation n° 2002-04 of the COB (communiqué) and (4) the revised letter of engagement between Sanofi-Synthelabo and Merrill Lynch and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to file the improved offer, to take all necessary steps (including negotiations with the target on the basis agreed by the board of directors) and to negotiate and execute any necessary documents (including filing the necessary documentation with governmental and administrative authorities in various countries in connection with the revised offers) and generally to take all necessary actions to effect the revised offers;
- to approve the terms of a revised letter of engagement between Sanofi-Synthelabo and BNP Paribas and to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to negotiate and execute the definitive letters of engagement and any related agreements (in accordance with French law, Mr. Owen-Jones, who is also a member of the board of directors of BNP Paribas, recused himself from this vote);
- to supplement the agenda and the draft resolutions to be put to the general meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders on May 24, 2004 (as well as the notice of that meeting) so as to include the additional resolution (number 27) necessary to increase the capital of

Sanofi-Synthelabo through the issuance of the number of new ordinary shares to be issued in exchange for the Aventis ordinary shares tendered in the revised offers (a draft of which resolution was reviewed by the board), it being understood that no vote would be taken on this resolution at the meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders on May 24, 2004 except in the case that Sanofi-Synthelabo had received satisfactory assurances that the Aventis resolution relating to the issuance of the Plavix® warrants and/or the Plavix® warrants themselves had been withdrawn, cancelled or become null and void. In the case that no such assurance had been received, the board authorized Mr. Dehecq to ensure that a vote would be taken on this resolution at another general meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders to be held no later than five trading days before the expiration date of the revised offers;

- to amend the report of the board of directors to be presented to the shareholders' meeting on May 24, 2004;
- to establish a special ad hoc committee of the board of directors, composed of Mr. Dehecq, René Barbier de la Serre, Robert Castaigne, Christian Mulliez, and Gérard Van Kemmel and to authorize this committee to finalize the official extract of the minutes (l'extrait du procès-verbal) of the meeting of the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors; and
- to authorize Mr. Dehecq (with full powers of delegation) to execute all documents and to take all action necessary to give effect to the revised offers.

On the morning of April 25, 2004, pursuant to the authorization to negotiate granted by the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors, Mr. Dehecq faxed a letter to Mr. Landau together with an executed agreement setting out the terms on which Sanofi-Synthelabo was willing to make an improved offer for Aventis; provided, among other things, that the Aventis supervisory board agree to recommend that all holders of Aventis ordinary shares and Aventis ADSs tender their Aventis securities into the revised offer. The main terms of this agreement had been reviewed by the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors at its meeting on April 24, 2004. Mr. Dehecq's letter stated that Sanofi-Synthelabo's enclosed agreement to make an improved offer would expire unless agreed to in writing by the Aventis management board and the Aventis supervisory board by 10:00 p.m. on April 25, 2004. The letter and the proposed agreement generally covered the topics set forth in the description of the agreement in its final form, see "Background and Reasons for the Revised Offers — Past Contacts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004, filed with the SEC under the Rule 424(b) on May 28, 2004. The letter and the proposed agreement were the first communication between Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis concerning the specific price terms on which Sanofi-Synthelabo was prepared to make the revised offers.

Throughout the day on April 25, 2004, various representatives and advisors of Sanofi-Synthelabo had contacts and discussions with various representatives and advisors of Aventis, generally related to the terms and conditions of an improved offer by Sanofi-Synthelabo to be recommended by the Aventis supervisory board and the final terms of the proposed agreement between Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis.

In the afternoon of April 25, 2004, the Aventis supervisory board met. At the end of that meeting, Aventis communicated to Sanofi-Synthelabo that the Aventis supervisory board had concluded that Sanofi-Synthelabo's revised offers were in the interest of the Company, its shareholders and employees and that the Aventis supervisory board, therefore, had authorized the Aventis management board to execute the agreement between Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo and that the Aventis supervisory board was recommending that Aventis shareholders tender their Aventis shares in the revised offers.

Following the meeting of the Aventis supervisory board, representatives of Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis negotiated the definitive agreement between the companies, and Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis executed the definitive agreement.

On April 26, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo filed its revised French offer documentation with the AMF, and the AMF published the material terms of the revised French offer in an official notice (avis de dépôt n° 204C0545).

On April 26, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo publicly announced the revised offers by issuing a press release that stated (most footnotes and annex omitted):

Following an agreement reached between the two groups, Sanofi-Synthelabo (Paris: SAN, NYSE: SNY) announces a friendly improved offer for Aventis. This improved offer has been filed today in Paris and will be filed over the next few days in the United States and Germany.

Sanofi-Synthelabo's offer, which creates value for all shareholders, offers a very attractive premium to Aventis shareholders and is immediately accretive to adjusted net earnings for Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders.

This offer was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of Sanofi-Synthelabo on April 24, 2004 and is fully supported by Total and L'Oréal, Sanofi-Synthelabo's two principal shareholders, who, in view of the agreement, will approve the corresponding increase in share capital.

The offer was approved on April 25, 2004 by the Management Board and by the Supervisory Board of Aventis, which recommends that Aventis shareholders tender their shares into Sanofi-Synthelabo's offer.

Sanofi-Synthelabo is delighted by the agreement reached with Aventis, which achieves a friendly business combination between two companies to create the third largest pharmaceutical group in the world, and the number one in Europe. It will be led by Jean-François Dehecq, with a management team drawn equally from both groups, respecting the cultures of each, with a strong presence in France and Germany. The strategic project presented by Sanofi-Synthelabo will thus be implemented.

Main Terms of the Agreement

The agreement will be made public in its entirety.

Besides the financial elements of the offer and the recommendation of the Supervisory Board of Aventis, it covers the following main points:

- Company name: SANOFI-AVENTIS
- Board of Directors: the Board will be composed of 17 members, of which Jean-François Dehecq, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, 8 members chosen by Aventis and 8 members chosen by Sanofi-Synthelabo. In addition to the three existing board committees (Audit, Remuneration, Scientific), a Strategic Committee will be created. These committees will have equal representation.
- Management Committee: the management Committee will be chaired by Jean-François Dehecq who will nominate an equal number of persons selected from Sanofi-Synthelabo and Aventis.
- Withdrawal of the proposed resolutions to the annual general meeting of shareholders of Aventis relating to the Plavix® warrants and to the limitation of voting rights and withdrawal of all legal proceedings.

Terms of the Offer

- «Standard entitlement»: 5 Sanofi-Synthelabo shares and €120 in cash for 6 Aventis shares,
- All-stock election: 1.1739 Sanofi-Synthelabo shares for each Aventis share,
- All-cash election: €68.93 in cash for each Aventis share,

- Aventis shareholders are free to choose one or other election, or a combination of different elections. However, the all-stock election and the all-cash election will be adjusted and prorated such that, in aggregate, the consideration offered shall always be 71% in shares and 29% in cash.

The offer is subject to the condition that shares representing more than 50% of the share capital and voting rights of Aventis are tendered, on a fully diluted basis.

The improved offer will not be subject to the condition precedent of the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the US Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and no order being entered prohibiting the transaction.

The extraordinary meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders will be convened on May 24, 2004 for the purpose of approving the issuance of the Sanofi-Synthelabo shares to pay for the Aventis shares tendered in the offer.

On April 26, 2004, Aventis issued a press release that stated:

On April 25, 2004, Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo agreed on a substantially improved offer as well as a balanced governance structure. After reviewing this new offer, the Management Board and the Supervisory Board decided to recommend this offer to Aventis shareholders. This decision was based on a majority of 13 members, with two opposing votes by employee representatives and an abstention by the representative of Kuwait Petroleum Corporation, Mrs. Seham Razzouqi. All members of the Aventis Supervisory Board were present or represented.

Igor Landau, Chairman of the Management Board, said: “We are pleased to have reached an agreement that recognizes the value of Aventis from a financial standpoint as well as the talent and expertise of our employees. By being equally represented in the management of Sanofi-Aventis, this agreement provides the necessary conditions for the success and development of the new group.”

Terms of the Offer

Under the revised offer terms, Sanofi-Synthelabo offers:

- 0.8333 of a newly issued Sanofi-Synthelabo ordinary share and a cash compensation of €20 for each Aventis ordinary share tendered (2003 dividend attached), and
- 1.6667 newly issued Sanofi-Synthelabo ADSs and a cash compensation of €20 for each Aventis ADS.

The offer consists of 71% Sanofi-Synthelabo shares and 29% cash.

This improved offer would value one Aventis share at €68.93 based on the unaffected share price of Sanofi-Synthelabo (one month-average) prior to the launch of their initial offer on January 26, 2004, which valued Aventis with €60.43 per share.

The improved offer values Aventis in total at €55.3 billion compared to €48.5 billion for the initial offer.

Principles for the new combined company

The combined company will operate and function under the following principles:

- the name of the new group will be Sanofi-Aventis
- the Board of Directors will be made up of 17 members: Jean-François Dehecq, Chairman and CEO (President Directeur General), eight members selected by the Aventis Supervisory Board, including the Vice-Chairman of the board of directors, who will be a German representative, and eight members selected by the Sanofi-Synthelabo board of directors;

- the Board of Directors of the combined company will appoint four committees (Strategic Committee, Compensation and Nomination Committee, Audit Committee and Scientific Committee) which will consist of an equal number of Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo directors, two of such committees being chaired by a director designated by Aventis and two being chaired by a director designated by Sanofi-Synthelabo;
- a Comité de Direction will include an equal number of persons from Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo selected by Mr. Jean-François Dehecq as Chairman;
- an integration committee consisting of an equal number of members selected from Aventis and Sanofi-Synthelabo and Mr. Jean-François Dehecq as Chairman, will oversee the integration of the two companies and select the managers of the combined group.

Reasons for Recommending the Offer

The Supervisory Board determined that:

- the terms of the improved offer reflect a substantial increase in the premium offered to Aventis shareholders which is now in line with comparable transactions based on various valuation methods;
- compared to Sanofi-Synthelabo's initial offer, the improved terms reflect adequately the expected growth potential of Aventis in the next few years and its expected contribution to the results and growth of the combined group;
- the governance rules and contemplated integration processes, as defined in the proposed agreement, should allow a successful and fair integration between the two companies;
- the status of the review and negotiation with the antitrust authorities in Europe and in the U.S., indicate that Sanofi-Synthelabo's commitments to secure approval should not significantly impact the growth profile of the combined group;
- Sanofi-Synthelabo has assured Aventis that the disclosure in its Registration Statement on US Form F-4 regarding the Plavix litigation is true and correct in all material respects and that there are no material omissions from that disclosure that make such disclosure misleading; and
- completion of the transaction can be reasonably expected in a short time frame.

Aventis to withdraw outstanding litigation and specific resolutions from Aventis Annual General Meeting

Aventis will withdraw all claims against Sanofi-Synthelabo and the Autorite des Marches Financiers in connection with Sanofi-Synthelabo's offer, and will withdraw the resolutions relating to the issuance of Plavix warrants and the limitation of voting rights from its Annual General Meeting, for which a new date will be scheduled.

On April 22, 2004, Novartis accepted the offer of the Aventis Supervisory Board to negotiate the conditions of a potential business combination. During the course of these negotiations, Aventis invited Novartis to submit an offer for consideration by the Supervisory Board. Novartis indicated that it would not be prepared to submit a bid, unless the Supervisory Board first rejected any improved offer from Sanofi-Synthelabo. Aventis has not received any offer from Novartis.

On April 26, 2004, Total issued a press release that stated:

Sanofi-Synthelabo has just announced an increased, friendly offer for the shares of Aventis, following an original public offer announced January 26.

Total has approved this increased, friendly offer and in light of agreements will approve the capital increase that will be put to the vote of the general shareholders meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo.

Total congratulates the decision of the Supervisory Board of Aventis to recommend this offer to its shareholders.

Total considers that this combination, as now recommended, should facilitate implementation of synergies.

The combination of the two groups will permit the creation of the number one player in the pharmaceutical industry in Europe and number three on a worldwide level.

On April 26, 2004, L'Oréal issued a press release in French that stated, in translation:

L'Oréal has fully approved Sanofi-Synthelabo's proposed offer for Aventis announced today and will approve the increase in share capital that will be submitted to a general meeting of Sanofi-Synthelabo shareholders.

L'Oréal is delighted by the friendly character of this offer, the spirit of which should facilitate the combination between the two groups and the success of the new entity, Sanofi-Aventis. This transaction has been recommended by the Supervisory Board and the Management Board of Aventis.

This transaction will permit the creation of a new and important global player in the pharmaceutical industry.

As announced on January 26, 2004, L'Oréal intends to keep its shares and will reflect its share of the dividends paid by Sanofi-Synthelabo in its income statement.

On April 26, 2004, the European Commission announced that it had approved Sanofi-Synthelabo's proposed acquisition of Aventis, subject to certain conditions. For further information, see "Recent Developments — European Commission Competition Approval" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004, filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) on May 28, 2004.

On May 4, 2004, the AMF announced (Decision et Information n° 204C0579) that it had examined the terms of the revised French offer and declared it "recevable", meaning that the AMF has cleared the terms of the revised French offer as complying with applicable French tender offer rules. See "Recent Developments — AMF Clearance Decision" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004, filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) on May 28, 2004.

On May 5, 2004, Sanofi-Synthelabo announced that the FTC had issued a request for additional information (a second request) to enable the FTC to complete its ongoing review of the acquisition of Aventis securities pursuant to the offers. See "Recent Developments — Request for Additional Information from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission" in our prospectus supplement dated May 27, 2004, filed with the SEC under Rule 426(b) on May 28, 2004.
