(FINRA). During the normal course of business, the Bank, together with affiliated companies, provide and account for a significant portion of the Company's business activities. The Company assists in the marketing of IPO securities on behalf of the Bank and distributes the Bank's research outside Brazil. The Company also provides services by acting as an intermediary for securities purchases and sales by introducing institutional clients to Bradesco SA Corretora (Corretora). The Company's business consists of performing certain execution services for institutional clients in transactions in the U.S. capital markets. Securities transactions are made on a DVP/RVP (delivery versus payment/receipt versus payment) basis. The Company also functions in the capacity of a placement agent in private offerings.

The accompanying Statement of Financial Condition has been prepared from the separate records maintained by the Company, and may not necessarily be indicative of the financial condition that would have existed if the Company had operated as an unaffiliated company (see note 4).

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

This Statement of Financial Condition has been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition in conformity with GAAP requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions. The reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the Statement of Financial Condition, during the reporting period, are affected by these estimates, the most significant of which are disclosed in the notes to the Statement of Financial Condition. Estimates, by their nature, are based on available information. Therefore, actual results could materially differ from those estimates.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments held in the ordinary course of business, with original maturities of less than ninety days that include cash and deposits held with affiliates and other financial institutions.

(d) Short Term Investments

Short term investments are made up of time deposits held with an affiliate with original maturities of greater than ninety days, but less than one year.

(e) Clearing Arrangements

The Company clears all of its customer transactions through its correspondent clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis as outlined in the clearing agreement between the Company and its correspondent clearing broker. As of December 31, 2016 the Company had a $9,482,657 receivable from clearing organization, of which $100,000 held in deposit as required by the clearing agreement.

(f) Securities Transactions

Investment securities owned, representing U.S. dollar denominated Euro Bonds (Euro Bonds), are carried at fair value. See note 3 for more information.

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis.

(g) Deferred Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method to provide for income taxes in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Income Taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded and adjusted for the future tax consequences of events that have been recorded in the financial statements or the tax returns. Differences between the carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities on the financial statement and their respective tax bases are attributable to these deferrals. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax laws and rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

In assessing the realization of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will be realized. The federal, state and local deferred tax asset is included in the deferred tax amount in the Statement of Financial Condition.

The Company accounts for uncertainties in income taxes pursuant to ASC 740-10, Income Taxes. ASC 740-10 requires that the Company determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. Once it is determined that a position meets this recognition threshold, the position is measured to determine the amount of benefit to be recognized in the financial statement.

(h) Equipment and Leasehold Improvements

Equipment and leasehold improvements are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Equipment is depreciated using the straight-line method, based on the estimated useful life. Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method over the shorter of their useful lives or the terms of the respective lease.

(i) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value measurements are used to record fair value adjustments to certain assets and liabilities and to determine fair value disclosures in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements. Securities owned and securities sold, but not yet purchased are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis.

ASC 820 outlines a fair value hierarchy. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The levels of the fair value hierarchy are defined as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date. This level of the fair value hierarchy provides the most reliable evidence of fair value and is used to measure fair value whenever available.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs include: (a) quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; (b) quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, that is, markets in which there are few transactions for the asset or liability, the prices are not current, or price quotations vary substantially either over time or among market makers, or in which little information is released publicly; (c) inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability or (d) inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Inputs that are unobservable for the asset or liability. These inputs reflect the Company's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability (including assumptions about risk). These inputs are developed based on the best information available in the circumstances, which include the Company's own data. The Company's own data used to develop unobservable inputs are adjusted if information indicates that market participants would use different assumptions.

(3) Fair Value of Assets

As of December 31, 2016, the Company has investments in Euro Bonds of $10,908,797 stated at fair value. These investments are held by the affiliated custodian Banco Bradesco Grand Cayman.

The fair values of the Euro Bonds are considered to be Level 2 on the fair value hierarchy, which is based on quoted prices. The Company's management continuously reviews the instruments in order to determine the fair value level that should be applied to those investments.

The Company did not have any assets that would be reported in Level 3 at December 31, 2016. Additionally, there were no transfers between level 1 and level 2 during the year ended December 31, 2016.

(7) Deferred Taxes

The components of the deferred tax assets and liabilities at December 31, 2016 are summarized as follows:

Deferred tax assets:
Accrued bonuses	$ 2,206,781

As of December 31, 2016, the Company had a net deferred tax asset of $2,454,808 on which a valuation allowance of $65,012 was provided primarily related to a capital loss carry forward in 2015 of $181,227 that, in the judgment of management is not more likely than not to be realized. The Company recorded the valuation allowance in the current year given the market uncertainties surrounding future capital gains to offset such loss carry forward which is due to expire in 2019.

The Company has not recognized any uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2016.

(8) Concentration of Credit Risk

Credit risk is the amount of loss the Company would incur if a counterparty fails to perform its obligation under contractual terms. All of the clearing and depository operations for the Company are performed by clearing brokers pursuant to clearing agreements. The clearing brokers, as well as the Company, review the credit standing of the counterparties with which the Company conducts business. The Company's exposure to credit risk associated with the nonperformance by counterparties in fulfilling their obligations pursuant to securities transactions can be directly impacted by volatile securities markets, credit markets and regulatory changes.

If the agency transactions do not settle because of failure by either the customer or the counterparty to perform, the Company may be required to discharge the obligation of the nonperforming party. In such circumstances, the Company may sustain a loss if the market value of the security is different from the contractual amount of the transaction.

(12) Subsequent Events
