5. Related party transactions:

The terms of the Limited Company Operating Agreement provide that the Managing Member and/or Affiliates are entitled to receive certain fees for equipment acquisition, management and resale and for management of the Company.

The Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement allows for the reimbursement of costs incurred by the Managing Member in providing services to the Company. Services provided include Company accounting, investor relations, legal counsel and lease and equipment documentation. The Managing Member is not reimbursed for services where it is entitled to receive a separate fee as compensation for such services, such as acquisition and management of equipment. Reimbursable costs incurred by the Managing Member are allocated to the Company based upon actual time incurred by employees working on Company business and an allocation of rent and other costs based on utilization studies.

Substantially all employees of the Managing Member record time incurred in performing services on behalf of all of the Companies serviced by the Managing Member. The Managing Member believes that the costs reimbursed are the lower of (i) actual costs incurred on behalf of the Company or (ii) the amount the Company would be required to pay independent parties for comparable administrative services in the same geographic location and are reimbursable in accordance with the Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement.

The Managing Member and/or Affiliates earned fees, commissions and reimbursements, pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement as follows:

	2002	2001

6. Member's capital:

As of September 30, 2001, 8,713,714 Units ($87,137,140) were issued and outstanding. The Company is authorized to issue up to 15,000,050 Units, including the 50 Units issued to the initial members.

7. Line of credit:

The Company participates with the Managing Member and certain of its affiliates in a $43,654,928 revolving line of credit with a financial institution that includes certain financial covenants. The line of credit expires on June 28, 2004. As of September 30, 2002, borrowings under the facility were as follows:

Amount borrowed by the fund under the acquisition facility	$ -
Amounts borrowed by affiliated partnerships and limited liability companies under the acquisition facility	21,900,000
Total borrowings under the acquisition facility	21,900,000

Draws on the acquisition facility by any individual borrower are secured only by that borrower's assets, including equipment and related leases. Borrowings on the warehouse facility are recourse jointly to certain of the affiliated partnerships and limited liability companies, the fund and the Managing Member.

The credit agreement includes certain financial covenants applicable to each borrower. The fund was in compliance with its covenants as of September 30, 2002.

ATEL CAPITAL EQUIPMENT FUND IX, LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

SEPTEMBER 30, 2002
(Unaudited)

9. Long-term debt:

In August 2002, the Company entered into a $100 million receivables funding program (the Program) with a receivables financing company that issues commercial paper rated A1 by Standard and Poors and P1 by Moody's Investor Services. Under the Program, the receivables financing company receives a general lien against all of the otherwise unencumbered assets of the Company. The Program provides for borrowing at a variable interest rate (2.12292% at September 30, 2002).

The Program requires the Managing Member to enter into various interest rate swaps with a financial institution (also rated A1/P1) to manage interest rate exposure associated with variable rate obligations under the Program by effectively converting the variable rate debt to fixed rates. As of September 30, 2002, the Company has not borrowed under the Program. The differential to be paid or received will be accrued as interest rates change and is recognized currently as an adjustment to interest expense related to the debt.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Capital Resources and Liquidity

During the first three quarters of 2002 and 2001, our primary activities were raising funds through our offering of Limited Liability Company Units (Units) and engaging in equipment leasing activities. Through September 30, 2002, we had received subscriptions for 8,713,714 Units ($87,137,140) all of which were issued and outstanding.

During the funding period, our primary source of liquidity is subscription proceeds from the public offering of Units. Our liquidity will vary in the future, increasing to the extent cash flows from leases exceed expenses, and decreasing as lease assets are acquired, as distributions are made to the members and to the extent expenses exceed cash flows from leases.

As another source of liquidity, we have contractual obligations with a diversified group of lessees for fixed lease terms at fixed rental amounts. As the initial lease terms expire we will re-lease or sell the equipment. Our future liquidity beyond the contractual minimum rentals will depend on the our success in re-leasing or selling the equipment as it comes off lease.

The Company participates with the Managing Member and certain of its affiliates in a $43,654,928 revolving line of credit with a financial institution that includes certain financial covenants. The line of credit expires on June 28, 2004. As of September 30, 2002, borrowings under the facility were as follows:

Amount borrowed by the fund under the acquisition facility	$ -
Amounts borrowed by affiliated partnerships and limited liability companies under the acquisition facility	21,900,000
Total borrowings under the acquisition facility	21,900,000
Amounts borrowed by the Managing Member and its sister corporation under the warehouse facility	-
Total outstanding balance	$ 21,900,000
Total available under the line of credit	$ 43,654,928
Total outstanding balance	(21,900,000)
Remaining availability	$ 21,754,928

Draws on the acquisition facility by any individual borrower are secured only by that borrower's assets, including equipment and related leases. Borrowings on the warehouse facility are recourse jointly to certain of the affiliated partnerships and limited liability companies, the fund and the Managing Member.

We anticipate reinvesting a portion of lease payments from assets owned in new leasing transactions. These reinvestments will occur only after the payment of all obligations, including debt service (both principal and interest), the payment of management fees to the Managing Member and providing for cash distributions to the Other Members.

We currently have available adequate reserves to meet contingencies, but in the event that those reserves were found to be inadequate, we would likely be in a position to borrow against our current portfolio to meet such requirements. We envision no such requirements for operating purposes.

We do not expect to make commitments of capital, nor have we made any commitments of capital, except for the acquisition of additional equipment. As of September 30, 2002, we had made commitments totaling approximately $7,600,000.

If inflation in the general economy becomes significant, it may affect us in that the residual (resale) values and rates on re-leases of our leased assets may increase as the costs of similar assets increase. However, our revenues from existing leases would not increase, as these rates are generally fixed for the terms of the leases without adjustment for inflation.

If interest rates increase significantly, the lease rates that we can obtain on future leases will be expected to increase as the cost of capital is a significant factor in the pricing of lease financing. Our leases already in place, for the most part, would not be affected by changes in interest rates.

Cash Flows

During the first three quarters of 2002 and 2001, our primary source of liquidity was the proceeds of our offering of Units.

In 2002 and 2001, operating lease rents was our primary source of cash from operations.

In both 2002 and 2001, rents from direct financing leases and payments received on notes receivable were our primary sources of cash from investing activities. In 2002, we also had proceeds from sales of lease assets as a source of cash from investing activities. We used of cash in investing activities to purchase operating and direct financing lease assets, to pay of initial direct costs associated with the lease asset purchases and to make advances on notes receivable.

Our primary source of cash from financing activities was the proceeds of our public offering of Units of Limited Liability Company interest. We used cash in financing activities to pay syndication costs associated with the offering and to make distributions to our members.

Results of operations

On February 21, 2001, we commenced operations. In 2002, our operations resulted in net income of $387,773 for the nine month period and in a net loss of $27,874 for the three month period. In 2001, our operations resulted in net income of $460,577 for the nine month period and $193,622 for the three month period. Our primary source of revenues is rents from operating leases. Depreciation is related to operating lease assets and thus, to operating lease revenues. We expect these to increase in future periods as we continue to acquire lease assets.

Asset management fees are based on our gross lease rents plus proceeds from the sales of lease assets. They are limited to certain percentages of lease rents, distributions to members and certain other items. As we have acquired lease assets, lease rents are collected and distributions made to the members have increased. This has led to increases in management fees.

Interest expense in 2002 relates primarily to a credit facility which has been established (in the third quarter) to provide long-term financing for lease asset acquisitions. Interest expense for the first three quarters of 2001 related to the borrowings under the line of credit incurred by an affiliate of the Managing Member. It included all amounts related to those borrowings related transactions transferred to us. All of the revenues and related carrying costs for these transactions were attributed to us in the first nine months of 2001.

The results of our operations are expected to vary considerably in future periods from those of the first nine months of 2002 and 2001 as we continue to acquire significant amounts of lease assets.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

No material legal proceedings are currently pending against the Partnership or against any of its assets.

Silicon Access Networks, Inc.:

Silicon Access Networks, Inc. (the Debtor) advised the Manager on July 8, 2002, that, due to a further decline in expectations of future demand for the Debtor's products by potential customers in its target markets, the Debtor's Board of Directors had directed management to close a branch office located in North Carolina, which occurred in July 2002. As Debtor was current on the Note payments, the Manager Company declared a technical default in early July on the basis of the termination of operations. As of September 30, 2002, the Debtor's account was current except for late charges. The Manager Company has filed suit, on the basis of the default, and moved for a Writ of Attachment, which was denied on the first attempt at an ex parte hearing. The Court has ordered a full hearing on the motion for Writ of Attachment, which is scheduled for November 2002. The Company will continue to pursue its claim against the Debtor. The Company's likelihood of success in recovery recovering the full amount of its claims remains uncertain as of the date hereof. As of October 30, 2002, the Debtor's account is current except for accrued late charges.

Photuris, Inc.:

Photuris was on the verge of ceasing operations as it was unable to secure new equity under favorable terms. The Company commenced negotiations with the debtor. As of this date, no legal action has been initiated against the debtor; however, the account has been restructured. In concert with several other lessors and lenders the Company concluded negotiations and executed a Settlement Agreement with the debtor. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Company received an initial $200,000 in cash in July 2002. The Company is carrying a promissory note for $300,000 that is payable interest only at prime plus 1.25% from August 1, 2002, to October 2003, at which time payments will convert to equal principal plus interest basis, spread over 36 months.

The Company has been granted $200,000 worth of new equity shares in the company as the final part of the settlement. The Company still retains its perfected first priority lien on the equipment financed by the Company. As of early October 2002, the Company became aware that Photuris had not yet closed on receiving some additional equity and was in danger of running out of operating capital in early November 2002. The Company has confirmed with the lead investor in Photuris' latest equity round that the latest investors have agreed to provide additional equity to allow Photuris to continue to operate. The Company expects that Photuris will receive at least $4 million, perhaps as much as and $11.5 million, on or about November 1, 2002, which would allow Photuris to continue operations for at least two to four months. The latest investors have also agreed to provide another $15 million in funding in stages to Photuris if certain milestones are met. Receipt of such funds would allow Photuris to operate an additional six to seven months.
