Essential Markets, Inc

Investor Relations

August 1999 - December 2001 (2 years 5 months)

Tacoma, Washington

Was originally called Libertybay.com, but changed name Essential Markets as it moved from Internet Delivery Services to an ASP (early version of SaaS).

Essential Markets was an e-procurement company that was focused on enabling the small suppliers of F-2000 to tie into the larger buying platforms.

My roles involved initially acting as ASP Manager, DSL Ntwk Manager and when company pivoted to eProcurement from Internet access, I moved into Corporate Development and Investor Relations as my experience & knowledge in modeling complex systems along with communicating those was more needed in the C-suite operations.
