On January 9, 2009, Wireless Age Communications, Inc. (the “Registrant”), subsidiaries Wireless Age Communications Ltd. (“Wireless Age”) and Wireless Source Distribution Ltd. (“Wireless Source”) were informed they have been placed in receivership by Saskatchewan Telecommunications (“SaskTel”).

On February 3, 2009, the Registrant was provided a copy of a letter dated January 28, 2009 from MTS Allstream Inc. (“MTS”) to Meyers Norris Penny Limited (the “Interim Receiver”) stating that MTS intends to terminate the Dealer Agreement between MTS and Wireless Age effective February 28, 2009.

The Dealer Agreement was entered into on July 15, 2000 between MTS and Wireless Age and Wireless Age operated four cellular communications retail stores in Manitoba under the Agreement. Wireless Age primarily sold MTS post-paid cellular contracts to consumers and received commissions as compensation from MTS.

MTS informed the Interim Receiver that the Dealer Agreement was being terminated for cause but did not provide further comment as to their reasons in the letter. However the Registrant believes that MTS felt their brand image had been adversely affected by recent events including the receivership of the businesses.

The Registrant issued a press release titled Wireless Age Subsidiary’s Assets Placed For Sale, a copy of which is appended hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

The Interim Receiver indicated that the preference would be given to a purchaser of all three packages in one transaction. Communications from the Interim Receiver indicated that they were hopeful to assemble all offers by February 20, 2009.
