Item 5. Other Events

On December 30, 2003, we entered into a Settlement Agreement with Covisint, LLC (“Covisint”) pursuant to which Covisint paid us $4,650,000. As part of the agreement, the parties agreed to resolve an arbitration and a separate Michigan state court action that had been pending between the parties, and we granted a fully paid software license to Covisint for certain Commerce One software that Covisint has used in its operations. We previously had licensed that software to Covisint under an earlier license agreement (the “Technology Agreement”), which will terminate as part of the settlement. Covisint paid us in full on or before January 2, 2004. Following a 92-day period (which commenced on January 2, 2004), and provided that certain bankruptcy events do not occur with respect to either party during that 92-day period, all litigation between the parties will be permanently dismissed, and the Technology Agreement that previously governed the relationship between Commerce One and Covisint will terminate.
